In his criticism of the Republican state platform, Governor Crothers says: "The work it (the Good Roads Commission) has accomplished stands as a monument to its efforts."

Horace speaks of a monument "more enduring than marble, more lasting than brass." The Governor's monument to the Good Roads Commission will also endure, for it has in its composition much of the metal referred to by the Latin poet. On the first page of this issue of the SENTINEL will be found the record of what others think of this wonderful monument, built of "efforts" such as automobile trips over Massachusetts and Maryland roads, and surmounted with promises.

Judiciary Conventions.

Republican Judiciary conventions were held in the Fourth and Seventh Cricuits of this State on Tuesday. The convention of the Fourth Circuit was held at Hagerstown and nominated D. Lindley Sloan, of Cumberland, for chief judge. That of the Seventh Circuit was held at Leonardtown and nominated Adrian Posey, of Charles county, and Francis Snowden Hill, of Prince George's county, for associate judges.

On Wednesday the Republican convention of the Sixth Circuit was held at Rockville and nominated Hammond Urner, of Frederick, for Chief Judge.

There is a disposition in some quarters to condemn the Republican party for making nominations for the judiciary. This is especially true of the Fourth Circuit, which is represented on the bench of the Court of Appeals by A. Hunter Boyd, as chief judge. But it seems pertinent to inquire why the Republicans of the counties should extend courtesies to their opponents which are never reciprocated. We do not recall a single instance in which the Democrats of the counties have failed to make a judgeship nomination, pending an election, during the last 42 years. During the administration of governor Lowndes several vacancies occured on the bench, and in every instance, outside of Baltimore, his appointees were opposed when nominated to succeed themselves.

Undoubtedly the judiciary should be independent of politics, but the records will be searched in vain for the appointment by a Democratic Governor of a Republican to the bench, or of a Democratic convention, outside of Batimore, declining to make a nomination against a Republican candidate. Judge Boyd is an able jurist, but Mr. Sloan is also a man of ability and probably as capable of expounding the law as the former. Both the Republican candidates in the Seventh Circuit are men of ability and fine legal attainments. Mr. Urner was the Republican candida'e for Attorney General in 1907. There is no doubt about his decided ability for the judgeship.

The Lincoln Way.

The annual report of the Gettysburg National Park Commission was made public last Saturday. The report says that the number of visitors to the battlefield during the past year was greatly in excess of that of previous years. In concluding their report, they refer to the proposed "National roadway from Washington to the battlefield, to be known as 'Lincoln Memorial Highway,'" suggesting that a prospect of additional access and interest is thereby opened, which will probably materialize in the future.

Doubtless the agitation of the question of constructing the memorial highway, turning the thought of the people toward Gettysburg, partially accounts for the increased number of visitors during the past year, and thus is furnished another argument for the building of the road

Dr. Cook Reaches The North Pole.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook of Brooklyn, N. Y., reached the North Pole April 21st, 1908, and planted the American Flag on the Top of the World. The story of the 33 days' dash from a high northern latitude, by which he finally reached the Pole, when made public in detail will be full of exciting interest. Dr. Cook is on his way to Copenhaven, Denmark, on a Danish ship, and has wired a brief account of his discovery. He remained at the Pole two days before beginning the return journey. He has not only achieved great personal renown and imperishable fame, but has conferred a great honor upon his country. During the last 300 years and longer many unsuccessful attempts have been made to reach the Pole and many brave men have perished in those efforts.

GET YOUR TRANSFERS.

The Board of Supervisors of Election in Carroll County, will sit at its office in Westminster for the purpose of granting TRANSFERS, on SATURDAY, SEPT. 18th, 1909, from 9 A. M., to 2 P. M.

A CARD TO VOTERS.

Westminster, Md.,
September 2, 1909.

To the voters of Carroll County.

Before and since the nomination of Mr. William Arthur for Register of Wills, a report has been circulated that if Mr. Arthur is elected I would be appointed his deputy. The matter is so ridiculous that I have felt inclined to pay no attention to it, but being now convinced that the report is being circulated among and by some of my enemies for the purpose of aiding the opposition candidate, I wish to contradict the same.

I am making a living at my profession, after working ever since I left the office of Register to regain the practice I gave up when I entered the office, and I think you will see in a moment's glance that I would be foolish to now give up the same and accept a position that would pay $1000.00 per year, and at the end of six years again strive to regain my practice.

I do not want any political office of any kind, character or description, have never said so to Mr. Arthur or any one else, and would not accept one if offered me. I do want to see the Republican ticket elected and will do everything in my power to accomplish that end. In the meantime I hope the Republicans will not allow the Democrats to side track "Billy Arthur" by making me an issue. They can find no fault with him and are trying to drag me into his fight because I was one of a number that suggested him for a place on the ticket. If he is elected he will give the office his entire time. Will his opponent do as much?

Respectfully,
JOSEPH D. BROOKS.

A Family Reunion.

Perhaps in the history of the Fleagle family there was never a more interesting and enjoyable time spent than on last Sunday, Aug. 29th, at the residence of O. E. Dodrer, in Mayberry. It was principally in honor of Noah H. Fleagle and wife, of Tampa, Fla., the other two surviving brothers, Jacob and George, and sister Mrs. Levi Myers. Mr. Fleagle, who was formerly a prominent school teacher and a well known merchant of Mayberry, left for Florida 26 years ago and since that time was never home even on a visit. No wonder there was a happy greeting and hearty handshaking upon his arrival. No wonder there was sadness and gloom when bidding farewell to the ones that had gathered at the above mentioned place after spending such a pleasant day. The day was a most memorable one, never to be forgotten in this life, with the hope and expectation of meeting again. Refreshments of all descriptions were served in profuse abundance much to the satisfaction, appreciation and enjoyment of all. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Fleagle, of Tampa, Fla.; Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Dodrer, of Mayberry; Mr. and Mrs. Levi Myers, of Pleasant Valley; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Fleagle, of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Foglesong, Judge and Mrs. A. K. Myers, of Frizellburg; Mr. and Mrs. Chas. H. Fleagle, Mr. and Mrs. E. Scott Fleagle; Dr. Maurice Fleagle, Dr. Roberta Fleagle, of Hanover Pa.; Geo. Fleagle, Ernest Fleagle, Edgar K. Fleagle, Harry E. Fleagle, Miss Ester Stuller, Miss Fannie Stonesifer, Martin Koontz, Master Geo. E. Dodrer.

Patapsco Items.

The dry weather is still with us, with no present prospect for rain, and corn and all other summer crops are on the decline. Potatoes are not up to the standard. The fruit crop is short and it is mostly falling off the trees. Farmers have done very little plowing yet and are beginning to fear they will not be able to seed the usual acreage. Most of them have threshed their wheat, the yield of which is generally about 20 bushels per acre, though in some instances it is less.

Mr. John Sharpe is building a large front addition to his dwelling house. Messrs. Taylor & Son are doing the work.

Mr. Walter Shipley has nearly completed the addition to his dwelling, for which he did the mason and carpenter work. Mr. Walter Taylor is doing the plastering.

Mr. William N. Yingling has finished his new house on the Bush farm.

We met Messrs. Arthur and Stansbury, two of our candidates on the Republican ticket, at the picnic of St. John's (Leister's) Lutheran Sunday School on Saturday. They made an excellent impression and were well pleased with the reception given them. We also met Mr. U. H. Shipley, who is one of our home boys. He is a first class man well qualified in every respect for County Treasurer.

Shipleys Defeated.

Shipley's lost to the Mechanicsville Reserves Saturday, Aug. 28, 11-3. The defeat was due to the effective pitching of Gorsuch who allowed but 4 hits. His opponents were at his mercy in all stages of the game, while the Mechanicsville boys batted Myerly out of the box making 12 clean hits off of him.

The boys could not do much with Bitzel, who relieved Myerly in the 4th, but they had made a good start and had crossed the pan several times before Bitzel entered the box. The score:

Mt. Olive Items.

The trustees of Mt. Olive Church are having the benches scraped and varnished. This will add greatly to the appearance of the room and will also add to the comfort of the people, as the paint on the benches originally did not dry properly. The ladies' society of this place presented the church with a fine bookcase which will also add greatly to the appearance of the room. The school house has also been repaired and painted on the inside. The work was done by George Gosnell, of this place.

The lawn fete which was held under the auspices of the ladies' aid society, Saturday night last, was quite a success.

Mr. H. A. McDaniel, of Baltimore, spent Sunday and Monday with his father-in-law, Mr. L. S. Buckingham.

Miss Wood, of Baltimore, a deaconess of the Methodist Episcopal Church, spent a few days this week with Mrs. U. E. Buckingham.

An evangelistic service is in progress in Mr. King's grove, about three hundred yards south of Watersville Station. This is a beautiful location, about 600 feet above sea level. These services are being held in a large tent on a board floor which accommodates 400 people. Sunday these services will be held at 9.30 A. M., 3.00 P. M., and 7.30 P. M. The afternoon service will be in charge of Rev. T. M. Dickey, pastor of Morgan circuit, who will preach in the grove instead of the church. These services are in charge of G. W. Russell, of Delaware; E. Roy Buckingham, and T. M. Dickey, pastor of circuit.

An engine on the Western Maryland railroad tried breaking off telephone poles one day last week, but stopped after demolishing one on line 3.

DIED.

At the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, August 23rd, 1909, Harry C. Kiler, aged 19 years, 7 months and 8 days.

Rest, dear son, thy work is o'er.
Thy willing hands will toil no more.
A faithful son, true and kind,
A better son you could not find.

Sleep on dear son, and sweetly rest,
We needed you, but God knew best.
God's will be done, He doeth well,
But how I miss you no tongue can tell.

BY HIS MOTHER.

In the graveyard, softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
In his lonely, silent grave.

Farewell, brother, may your slumber
Be as gentle as your love,
And when God shall call us homeward,
May we meet you in heaven above.

Gone to the grave is our loved one,
Gone in his youthful bloom,
Torn from the hearts that loved him,
To sleep in the silent tomb.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life has fled;
When in heaven we hope to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

BY HIS BROTHERS AND SISTERS.
