KENT'S ROLL OF HONOR MEN

A List Of The White And Colored Men From Kent County Who Enlisted Or Was Selected For Service In The Great War Just Closed--You Can Help Make It A Complete Record For All Future Generations.

The News has tried to collect and to make a complete roll of honor of all men who have enlisted or been selected by draft from Kent county during the great conflict which came to an end Nov. 11th, 1918. This list will not be complete unless the parents and friends of boys whose names are unintentionally omitted will send same to us. We purpose to get this list and keep it in such permanent form that it can be filed in the Clerk's office at Chestertown for all future generations. Later it is our intention to ascertain the rank and branch of service of each soldier and thus make one of the most interesting chapters in the part Kent played in the World War. Will you help us? The list as best we could get it at this time follows:

NEWSY TIDINGS FROM OUR BOYS

The Baltimore Sun of Sunday contained the name of Corporal Edward White, of Worton, Md., who had been killed in action in France.

Lieut. Charles G. Hines, of Grand Rapids, Mich., visited his mother, Mrs. W. F. Hines, in Chestertown, this week.

Yoeman Wm. Price Roe, was a pleasant Thanksgiving visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Roe, of Massey. He enlisted in the U. S. N. R. F. and was called to duty at the air craft storehouse in Gloucester, N. J. He reports his work as interesting but requiring strict and accurate attention. The storehouse is the largest of the kind in the East. His home is in Woodbury.

William Goss, formerly employed by Wm. C. Sutton, plumber, a member of the 116th Infantry writes that he is in France suffering with a broken leg.

Fred Ford, son of Mrs. S. E. Ford, of Washington avenue, Chestertown, a gunner in Battery D., 110th F. A. has been made a corporal.

Clarence Parsons, of Worton, writes to home folks that he has met some very nice French girls—and may bring home a wife.

Letter from Corporal John Roger Kennedy, as follows:

Have just received a copy of Kent News and you can just bet that I was glad to get it, altho it was printed on August 31st.

I read in your good columns a letter written by one of my fellow soldiers telling of his wonderful experiences from New Haven to Camp Jackson: I don't mean to be sarcastic to the young man but if the war lasts long enough to give him a chance to see a little overseas service he will be only too glad to travel in an old wooden coach with three on a seat. I am sure if he gets a chance to come over and has to travel three days and nights in a box car just about half the size of an American box car with no seats and about forty in a car he will only be too glad to travel in "an old wooden coach."

He says something about having to line up for twenty minutes, then having to eat out of tin mess-kits and having slop handed to him, well I don't want to dishearten the young man but if he never has to wait longer than twenty minutes he can just pat himself on the back, and there are going to be days when some of that "slop" will taste good to him.

Just think what the men over here would give for one of those little 2½ ft. iron cots to sleep on. Just wait until he gets overseas and has to sleep on a little straw in some dug-out with rats crawling all over him and he gets a few "cooties" on him (since coming over here I have found out why Napoleon stood with one hand inside his blouse, they must have had "cooties" in those days). But don't think that the men have to put up with those things all the time for there are times when he lives like a prince. But every soldier over here enjoys being "Over here" for he knows what he is fighting for. He has seen the results of those square-headed "Boches."

Don't kick old man for this is no tea party and a real soldier never kicks or criticises, and good old Uncle Sam is doing every thing in his power to make it nice for his men, every one of them.

I wish you the best of success in your new life and hope some day we will be army "buddies."

Letter from Olin B. Stafford, is as follows:

As I now have time I will drop you a few lines I am well and getting along fine, have just came back from the front and I am going to try and get a good night's sleep, as I have not had one for over a week. Well I returned last Tuesday from a three-hundred mile trip down through a most beautiful section of France and had the pleasure of staying over at General Headquarters for two nights, which I was on the trip four days arriving back Tuesday night and going to the front at 5 a. m. the next morning of which I witnessed the biggest battle of our boys, one of our ambulances was struck by a shell and very badly damaged. Well we cannot believe it is going to last much longer. Kindly show Messrs. Usilton, Russell and Collins my last letter, I am sending another one in a few days under experiencing at the front, which will be of much interest for the ones at home. I am very sorry to hear of Mr. Usilton being sick and hope by this time he is well. I have not seen Dr. Hines lately, but he sent me several papers, Kent News. I saw Bryan Newton yesterday, he has been sick and at the hospital, but when I saw him he was on his way to the front. I would surely love to give the experience that is to be seen every day, but it cannot be done. As it is time to go to bed I will have to close, let me hear from all of you as often as possible as ever your loving son.

The Ups and Downs In Life

Come to EVERYBODY. Right now, while you are making money, you ought to be saving it, then when the "Downs" come you will have something to fall back upon. Be independent. Start a bank account.

Serviceable School Shoes
FOR ALL AGES OF CHILDREN
FROM KINDERGARTEN TO HIGH SCHOOL

The two cardinal points in the selection of children's shoes are FIRST—Correct Fit. SECOND—Sturdy wearing qualities—

This is, however, not so easy as it sounds, as years of experience are really required to determine just how growing feet should be fitted and just how to strengthen shoes where the wear comes hardest—

We offer to you our years of expert study on these very points and ask that you entrust to us the care and safety of your children's feet as well as the protection of your own purse—
