AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND

JOS. D. BROOKS, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, MARCH 3, 1911.

It is about time for the Republicans of this county to begin an inspection of the rank and file of the party. The battle to be fought this fall will require seasoned soldiers and no double dealing or negative candidates will have a ghost of a show.

The SENTINEL will take no part whatever in the selection of candidates but will support those nominated. It has a right, however, to request the party to nominate proper candidates for the various offices. There is excellent timber within the ranks of the party and everything should be done by the party to get the benefit of it.

DIRECT ELECTION OF SENATORS.

On Tuesday morning the U. S. Senate killed the resolution submitting to the people the question of the direct election of U. S. Senators. This, in our opinion, was the proper thing to do.

If people, who have all sorts of panaceas for the real or imaginary ills with which they allege our government is suffering, would attend to their duties we would soon be rid of their complaints. This government was planned by some of the wisest men of their day and they seem to have been endowed with superhuman foresight. They evidently saw that the agitations, which are now prevalent throughout the country, might possibly occur and they constructed our central government in such a manner that the ten day agitators would have time to cool off, or, in other words, have time to take advice from their second sober thoughts.

If some of the so-called reformers would attend the primaries which now prevail in nearly every state in the Union and help send good men to the legislatures of the states we would hear no more complaints about corruption in legislative bodies, because if good men are elected to the legislatures good men will be sent to the United States Senate. We are amply supplied with good laws and all we need do is to have them enforced and used by the good citizens. The people of this country are getting mighty tired of all this agitation created by politicians for the purpose of helping them into office. The politicians exist on issues. They are their main support, and once they are deprived of them by the better element of the people taking a proper interest in the selection of candidates for the legislature and other officers they will die a political death.

The people of the country want peace and they intend to have it if all the politicians of the country have to be put out of business.

PATAPSCO.

Don't forget the bazar, March 3rd and 4th, held in the Red Men's Hall under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, of the M. E. Church.

Noah Hullinger's farm hand, Horace Koontz, is going to Mount Pleasant to learn the blacksmith trade.

BLUE RIDGE COLLEGE.

The public will have an opportunity to hear a remarkable series of entertainments here during this month. On Monday, March 6th, at 8 P. M. Misses Katherine Kellogg, Hazel Lathrop and Prof. Jess Pugh, who are known as The Jess Pugh Company will give a dramatic and musical entertainment. This is the fifth number of our regular lecture course. This will surpass the well remembered Evelin Bargelt Co. that appeared here in November.

Prof. Early's regular class in elocution will give a recital on Friday March 10th, at 7.45 P. M.

On Monday March 13th, at 8 P. M., the Stoner Oratorical Contest will take place. This is an enlargement on the regular contest which has always been held during commencement week. There will be six contestants. Gold medals will be awarded to the first and second best orators. The medals and honors will be hotly contested and promises to be intensely entertaining to the audience.

The Emersonians will render a Saint Patrick's Day program on March 17th, and the special elocution class will give a recital on Saturday evening, March 25th.

These entertainments promise to be of a very high order and decidedly helpful to our friends everywhere, who are cordially invited to attend and enjoy with us these intellectual treats.

A FIERCE NIGHT ALARM

is the hoarse, startling cough of a child, suddenly attacked by croup. Often it aroused Lewis Chamblin, of Manchester, O., (R. R. No. 2) for their four children were greatly subject to croup. "Sometimes in severe attacks," he wrote "we were afraid they would die, but since we proved what a certain remedy Dr. King's New Discovery is, we have no fear. We rely on it for croup and for coughs, colds or any throat or lung trouble." So do thousands of others. So may you. Asthma, Hay Fever, LaGrippe, Whooping Cough, Hemorrhages fly before it. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Sold by C. W. Moore.

ATTACKS SCHOOL PRINCIPAL.

A severe attack on school principal, Chas. B. Allen, of Sylvania, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach, biliousness, and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at C. W. Moore's.

HEED THE WARNING

Many Westminster People Have Done So.

When the kidneys are sick they give unmistakable warnings that should not be ignored. By examining the urine and treating the kidneys upon the first sign of disorder, many days of suffering may be saved. Sick kidneys expel a dark, ill-smelling urine, full of "brickdust" sediment and painful in passage. Sluggish kidneys cause a dull pain in the small of the back, headaches, dizzy spells, tired, languid feelings and frequent rhenmatic twinges.

Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys only; they act on sick kidneys, and rid the blood of uric poison. If you suffer from any of the kidney symptoms you can use no better remedy.

Westminster people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills.

Harry C. Jones, E. Main St., Westminster, Md., says: "I suffered from kidney complaint for over two years. My trouble began with a lameness across the small of my back and was soon followed by an ache through my loins which clung to me persistently. I felt restless and the kidney secretions caused me much annoyance. Finnally Doan's Kidney Pills were procured for me at C. W. Moore's Drug Store and the results of their use far exceeds my expectations. My kidney trouble was removed and I have not suffered since."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

IN MEMORIAM.

BUCKINGHAM.—In sad but loving remembrance of our dear brother Paul, who departed this life one year ago March 1st, 1910.

When they ask us. Do we miss him?
How it fills our hearts with pain!
But his voice seems sweetly saying,
"Courage, we shall meet again."

Some may think we would forget him,
But we'll never forget the call,
Of the mysteries surrounding
The early death of dear brother Paul.

—By his sisters, Mary and Ruth.

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear husband, Harry E. Ecker, who died February 22, 1911

Through the pearly gates of heaven
Passed the one we loved so dear.
God thought best to take him from us,
Though it made our home so dear.

His earthly suffering here was great,
But now he's laid at rest.
It seemed so hard to part with him,
But God, he knoweth best.

He's gone to his last resting place,
And two years from day of sale, with
To that bright home above,
Where angels will greet him face to face,
And welcome him with love.

—By his loving wife.

We have no papa now;
That faithful heart is stilled;
His voice forever hushed;
His lips forever chilled.

We have no papa now;
But the celestial shore
Is ringing with his praises,
To the Lamb forevermore.

—By his children.

CONAWAY.—In sad but loving remembrance of my dear father, John H. Conaway, who died one year ago today, March 3rd, 1910.

Farwell, farwell my father dear,
No more on earth we see you here.
But in that world so bright and fair
I hope to meet my father there.

You are not forgotten, father dear,
Nor ever will you be,
For as long as life and memory last,
I will remember thee.

Loving and tenderly we laid you to rest,
Away from earth sorrows and care.
We hope you are waiting to welcome us home,
And the blessings of heaven to share.

—By his daughter, Louisa F. Farver.

Farwell dear grandfather may your slumber
Be as gentle as your love;
And when God will call us homeward
May we meet in heaven above.

—By his grand-children,
Mamie, Kiley and Lillie Farver.

In loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Lucinda S. Shipley, who died one year ago.

Dearest wife how I miss you.
Since from earth you passed away,
And my heart is aching sorely
As I think of you each day.

Some may think I'll soon forget you
And my wounded heart be healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.

By our fire-side sad and lonely
Memory's thoughts will not be stilled,
But God's lesson must be studied:
In his love this task he willed.

—By her husband, C. H. Shipley.

Oh, dear mother, who is like you?
No one on earth can take your place.
Now we'll try to heal our sorrow,
Till again we see your face.

Heaven retaineth now our treasure.
Earth the lonely casket keeps.
Still our fondest thoughts do linger,
Where our sainted mother sleeps.

Mother, you are not forgotton.
Never will your memory fade.
Sweetest thoughts shall ever linger,
Round the grave where you are laid.

As the evening sun is setting,
Oft times as I sit alone,
In my heart comes a feeling
That our dear mother must come home.

Gone on earth, yes gone forever.
Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain.
We shall hear her voice, no, never,
Never more on earth again.

Children weep not that my toils are over
Weep not that my race is run.
God grant that you may rest as calmly,
When your work likewise is done.

—By her daughter, Ella and Tiny.

When you get your money

What will you do with it?

You get ahead on what you save, not on what you earn. When you've worked hard for your money is it not folly to squander it?

BANK your money and this will give you more pleasure than fooling it away. Besides when the "rainy day" comes you'll have shelter.

We will help you save, as we pay interest, and the MONEY that you've worked for WILL WORK FOR YOU in our Bank.

Let Our Bank Be Your Bank. We Pay Interest on Savings' Accounts.
