Death's Doings.

Death of James R. Jones, Esq.

James R. Jones, one of Kent's oldest and most highly respected citizens, died at his home in Millington on Cypress street, Tuesday evening. He had been in failing health for the past two years. The deceased was born in Delaware in 1824; in 1849 he married Miss Lydia A Rees, of Smyrna, Del., and soon after moved near Millington where he engaged in agricultural pursuits in which he was very successful. Eight years ago he moved into Millington where he lived until his death.

In his younger days he was active in politics being a staunch Democrat. He was county commissioner for two terms and at the time of his death was a director in the Kent Mutual Fire Insurance Co. He was a faithful member and efficient steward of Trinity M. E. Church South. Funeral services were held at his late residence Thursday at 2 P. M., Revs. I. Ryder and Wm. Warner officiating. The pall bearers were Joseph and Sam'l Mallalieu, J. R. Stafford, Sam'l Baxter and W. Cnas. Rolph. Interment was in Millington cemetery, J. L. Smith funeral director.

DEATH OF MRS. CROW.

Mrs. Emma F. Crow, wife of Mr. Nathaniel C. Crow, died at her home on High street, this town, last Saturday morning aged 50 years and 8 months. Mrs. Crow's death is particularly sad. She has been confined to her bed suffering with locomotor ataxia five months while her husband lay ill in an adjoining room. She has had the tender nursing of her two daughters while the son and daughter-in-law have been constantly near. Mr. Crow is better at this writing. Mrs. Crow was Miss Emma Baker and inherited a considerable estate which is left to the three children, viz., Owen B., Lillie M., and May T. Funeral services were held Monday morning conducted by Rev. E. P. Roberts, special music being furnished by Mrs. F. M. Miller, Misses Anna Lambert and Mabel Toulson, M. W. Thomas and A. L. Sparks. The interment was at St. Paul's cemetery; pallbearers were R. R. Hatcherson, William T. Crow, Walter Crow, E. C. Crow, Charles Crow, John Bell. The numerous floral tributes attested the esteem in which the deceased was held. Undertaker J. N. Dodd had charge.

H. LLEWELLYN BOYD.

Harry Llewellyn Boyd, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Boyd, died at the home of his parents on corner of Calvert and Mill streets yesterday morning. The deceased was in his 16th year, but was very large for his age. He was a son upon whom the fond father lavished his best affection and in whom the parents placed ambitious desires. Llewellyn was taken sick on Sunday suffering with rheumatism in hips and knees. A heart affection developed Thursday, and notwithstanding the skillful nursing by three professionals and the constant attention of two of our best physicians, the disease conquered and the lad passed away about 9.30 o'clock Friday morning. He will be buried Monday at 10 o'clock from Sacred Heart Catholic Church, interment in Chester Cemetery.

BIG TOMATO GLUT!

Baltimore has experienced a tomato glut this week. Shippers were glad to receive ten cents per basket on Saturday.

The Emma A. Ford being off the route has greatly hindered the Chester River Co. from giving as good service to fruit growers as heretofore but under the circumstances they are to be congratulated. The flagship, Corsica, with Capt. Van-Dyke and Engineer Benner, carried 9,500 packages Monday and 10,000 Wednesday. The B. S. Ford carried 3,500 Monday and equally as many other days this week while the Gratitude has averaged about 1500. Capt. Atkinson has carried 2100 on Monday and Wednesday and his boats are kept busy.

Messrs. W. H. Lambert and Towles have been buying tomatoes here, paying from 12 to 15 cents per basket.

The steamers have raised the freight on tomatoes from 4 to 5 cents per basket.

NO GAS FOR CHESTERTOWN.

Board of Commissioners Place Too Many Restrictions for the New Company.

Jas. W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., attorney for Mr. N. T. Meginniss, who had asked for a franchise to erect a gas plant in Chestertown, was here this week. He states that his people have decided to withdraw from Chestertown because of the restriction placed upon them by the Board of Commissioners. It seems that a verbal agreement was made with Mr. Chapman but upon further deliberation it was decided to make some change, viz., to tax the company and to limit the price of gas at $1.50.

Mr. Chapman says his people had go'ten estimates on the construction of the plant, had made plots of the town and were preparing to make large expenditures when they received notice of the restrictions which put an end to the whole matter.

WARFIELD TO VISIT KENT.

Hon. Edwin Warfield will be at Dewey Park next Wednesday as the following letter from him shows:

BALTIMORE, SEPT. 1, 1903.

MESSRS. SHALLCROSS & MASSEY.

MY DEAR SIRS:—Your very kind letter of 29th inst. received. I hope I shall be able to get through so that I can return to Balto. on Wednesday night if possible, or if not then very early Thursday morning. I am anticipating much pleasure in being with you and the good people of your section of the State.

Kindly keep me posted if any change is made in the plans you have outlined for me.

Hastily, very sincerely yours,
EDWIN WARFIELD.

CONDENSED PARAGRAPHS.

Kernels of News Gathered Here and There With the Hull Removed.

A DOG belonging to Wm Jasper was thought to be mad last Saturday and went about town biting dogs until killed by his owner. Since that day bailiffs have killed a number of dogs and the commissioners have wisely passed an order requiring all dogs to be muzzled. Some fine bird dogs have been shot.

A BIG LOT OF HORSES will be sold in Chestertown this month. See adv. in another column. S. G. Caldwell will sell a lot of native horses on Tuesday, Sept. 15th.

THE house on High street Chestertown, belonging to Mrs. S Todd and tenanted by Mr. Frank M. Miller has been sold to Mr. Walter Crew, son of Mr. A. H. Crew, for $1800. It has a stable attached with entrance on Kent street.

CONTRACTOR GARNER, of Warwick, has completed the dwelling and outbuildings on the farm of Mr. Thomas Cochran near Galena. The residence is among the finest in the county.

MR. DAN'L B. NEAL, of Worton, has purchased of Mr. Robt. M. Groves the farm on Fairlee creek formerly owned and tenanted by Ex Sheriff Robert R. Calder. The price paid was $3600. It contains 114 acres.

THE NEWS is in receipt of a beautiful "box" of peaches from a friend in Worton who brought them to Mr. Barroll, but as he was not in town, selected the NEWS editors as the object of his friendship. The gift was all the more appreciated and the peaches were very much enjoyed.

THE oyster season opened Tuesday. Clerk James T. Dixon has issued about one hundred licenses. The rush for licenses will begin Sept. 15th.

A RAMBLER bicycle was caught this week in the Chester river by George Stowlman, of Bogle's, while engaged with his crabbing outfit. It became fastened in his trot line and is in fair condition. It is supposed to have fallen from a steamboat.

THE town commissioners will discontinue the sprinkler after Sept. 8th. Then look out for dry weather!

A SEVERE STORM visited Cecil county last week. Capt. Andrew Woodall, of Georgetown, had two valuable cows killed by lightning. Several head of cattle standing in a field at Perryville were instantly killed.

A LAMP ignited the curtain in Mr. E. E. Hudson's window Friday night, but prompt action prevented a serious fire.

THE Louise will make her last trip Sunday, Sept. 6, after that date we will take care of Tolchester with what ever boat we have on the Port Deposit Line giving week day service. Susquehanna will stop at Tolchester, Monday Sept. 7, and regular schedule in effect on and after 8th, FARMERS who desire best results in fertilizers are invited to try Mr. T. W. Eliason's "No. 1" and "Our Special." Past experience is the best recommendation of these goods.

The sale of personalty of Mr. Sam'l C. Mann was well attended; horses brought from $50 to $100. Cows from $25 to $45. Implements sold well as they were all in good condition, two farm wagons brought $66 and $67 each.

H. P. SKIPPER and R. S. Hurlock, of near Chestertown, have finished cutting off corn and think they have a big crop. They are ready for seeding wheat.

MR. H. M. BROWN, as agent for Mrs. Carter, of Elkton, on Thursday purchased of Mr. Walter T. Morris his excellent pair of bay coach horses for $400. These horses are well matched, without a blemish, gentle and will weigh over 1100 pounds each They won the prize on several occasions at Tolchester and will no doubt prove valuable for Mrs. Carter who desires them for family use.

TOLCHESTER TOURNAMENT.

One of the most successful events of the season at Tolchester was the Tournament which took place yesterday afternoon. The Knights were all from Kent county and many were the surprises given the public. The prizes were a leather top buggy, a no-top buggy, and set of harness. The entries follow:

1—Knight of Boxley.....Frank Coleman Rock Hall, Md.
