SATURDAY, AUGUST 5, 1899.

It is to be hoped that some Democrats will have the grace to be ashamed of the platform adopted by their State convention on Wednesday. It is a regular hotch potch and rehash of stale and wornout old platitudes, mendacious assertions and gratuitous assumptions.

The platform adopted by the Democratic State convention contains a number of old platitudes and the repetition of promises of which the bosses who still control the party were once so prolific, but so barren in fulfillment. The SENTINEL will publish it in full next week, and comment upon its various utterances, from time to time, during the campaign.

Ex-Mayor Grace, of New York, heretofore an uncompromising free-trader, has been convinced by the "inexorable logic of facts" that his views on the subject have been erroneous, and boldly announces his belief in the advantages of protection. He has arrived at this conclusion, by sensibly contrasting the condition of the country under the two systems, and finding that, beyond controversy, prosperity accompanies protection while adversity and hard times have prevailed when the opposite system was in force. The country is full of Democrats who are in accord with Mr. Grace's views, but have not the courage he exhibits in braving the displeasure of party associates.

Mr. B. F. Crouse, of this city, in placing the name of Dr. J. W. Hering before the Democratic State convention, on Wednesday, alluded to the special election for State Senator in this county, in 1895, and is quoted as having said that the Democrats on that occasion, "for ten days struggled not only against a triumphant Republican party, but the money of that party in such amounts as had never before been seen in that county. The opposition had so much money that it couldn't spend it all, and the politicians were still enjoying the financial fruits at Christmas time." If Mr. Crouse had been entirely ingenuous in this matter he might have added that the Republicans were not experts in the bribery business in Carroll county, and if they had a plethora of money in that campaign, it was because of that fact. The Democrats were not troubled by any lack of knowledge as to how to use the very large corruption fund raised for the purpose of carrying that election. It is well known that at the regular election of that year Dr. Weaver was defeated for the Senate by the most unblushing bribery, and that it has been a common practice of the Democrats to make use of money and other methods of bribery to induce colored men to vote the Democratic ticket. Some colored men alledge that they have already received inducements to vote that ticket in November next.

Democratic State Nominees.

The Democratic State Convention, which met in Baltimore on Wednesday, made the following nominations:

For Governor—John Walter Smith, of Worcester county.

For Comptroller—Joshua W. Hering, of Carroll county.

For Attorney-General—Isidor Rayner, of Baltimore City.

It was understood, generally, for some time in advance, that the ticket would thus be made up. Dr Hering appeared to have no serious opposition for the nomination for Comptroller, and Mr. Rayner, though at one time a bolter, had managed to placate the bosses and gain a restoration to their confidence. Interest, of course, centered about the head of the ticket. Political power in a State administration lies chiefly in that quarter, and it was morally certain that no aspirant who might be persona non grata to Ex-Senator Gorman stood any show of nomination. Mr. Smith has been, throughout Mr. Gorman's career, one of his most trusted friends and supporters. Through the long years of misrule under which the people of this State suffered before the overthrow of Gormanism in 1895, he was a conspicuous figure in the Gorman ring, and a part of that system which was so freely denounced by the Democrats in this county some years ago. His election, if accomplished, will mean a return to power of the worst element ever known in Maryland politics and well do many of the Democrats in this county and throughout the State know it.

The fourth annual convention of the State Camp of Maryland Patriotic Sons of America will meet in Hagerstown on Tuesday and Wednesday, August 8 and 9. The business of the convention will be routine, the most of which will arise from the reports of the various committees. There are no appeal cases on hand, nor any discussions in prospect likely to materially influence the peace of the organization. All the State officers for the ensuing year will be elected, except secretary and treasurer, who hold over until next year. The secretary's report will show 36 subordinate camps in existence in the State and an increase of 15 per cent. in membership during the year. About 85 delegates and officers will participate in the proceedings of the convention, one of the chief objects of which will be to devise ways and means for more active organization work.

A draft amounting to $78,153 66 was forwarded from the Treasury Department at Washington on Saturday to Governor Lowndes to reimburse the State of Maryland for the money expended in fitting out and equipping the First and Fifth Maryland Regiments for the Spanish American war.

Gen. Wood has stamped out the yellow fever at Santiago. He was absent when it broke out and expressed the opinion upon his return that it could be eradicated. He has made good that opinion.

GREAT SUMMER STORM.

The storm of Wednesday afternoon, which was quite severe in some portions of this county, was much more violent in Howard county. Clarksville appeared to be about its centre and great damage was done to property in the village. The M. E. Church was completely destroyed, the Catholic Church unroofed and otherwise damaged, a dwelling house of two wrecked and others badly damaged. A dwelling house in course of erection for Mr. Bradley Zepp was blown down to the foundation. The storm was on the order of a tornado and only extended over about 100 yards in width. Several farm buildings in its track were blown down or badly damaged. In Washington county, about Leitersburg, a terrific hailstorm prevailed doing great damage to growing crops, fruit, &c. Hailstones two inches in diameter fell and many chickens were struck and killed by the icy missiles. One party lost 100, and another 75. Frederick also had quite a severe visitation of hail.

The storm was much more extended and severe than appeared from the first reports. Fifty to a hundred thousand dollars' worth of property was destroyed in Washington county. The vineyards and orchards along the South Mountain, between Leitersburg and Smithburg, suffered severely, and the growing corn in the track of the storm was, practically, beaten down and cut to pieces. The hail was of all shapes and immense size. One piece four inches long was picked up.

In the neighborhood of Urbana, Frederick county, the hail was so great that the tops of wagons and buggies were cut to pieces, horses and cattle badly bruised, and much damage done to vegetation.

In Southern Maryland the storm was exceedingly violent. Mrs. Annabelle Carey and two little daughters, of Baltimore, who were visiting relatives in St. Mary's county, were blown off a wharf into the Patuxent river and drowned Four or five other persons also perished by drowning and much damage was done to property.

The storm was severe on the Eastern Shore and extended north several hundred miles. At Elizabeth, N. J., numbers of houses were blown down and several people killed. It was almost without a parallel in the region over which it swept, in its force and intensity.

Yellow Fever in a Soldiers' Home.

It was discovered on Sunday that a disease which had broken out among the inmates of the Soldiers' Home at Hampton, Va., was yellow fever, of which up to that date thirty cases and three or four deaths had occurred. The number of inmates in the "Home" is about four thousand, which crowds it uncomfortably and, no doubt, interfe es materially with proper sanitation.

As soon as the fact of the presence of the fever became known, many of the people of the vicinity fled to Richmond and elsewhere, until a strict quarantine was established and those left behind are now compelled to remain until the epidemic shall run its course or be stamped out by vigorous and heroic measures.

The latter result is possible, as is shown by its accomplishment at Santiago by General Wood. It is pretty well known that Baltimore escaped an epidemic of the fever about fifteen years ago, by the adoption of just such measures. Probably fifty cases of a disease which the newspapers then called typho malarial fever, occurred in the section of the city known as Fell's Point, but the subjects of its attacks were promptly removed to the Marine Hospital; beds and furniture were removed from infected dwellings and burned, and other successful methods employed to arrest the progress of the disease, which was, without doubt, yellow fever.

Some cases of fever have occurred in the town of Phoebus, outside of the Soldiers' Home, and up to Tuesday there had been, altogether, forty-eight cases and eight deaths.

Coming in midsummer, the epidemic is particularly alarming, as a long period must elapse before the germs of the disease will be killed by frost. This fact emphasizes the necessity for energetic efforts to stamp it out before it attains such proportions as to render them ineffectual.

The latest reports from the Soldiers' Home are quite encouraging, no new cases and no deaths having occurred since Wednesday. The physicians in charge think the disease is now under control.

Hon. Elihu Root, of New York, took the oath of office as Secretary of War and entered the Cabinet of President McKinley on Tuesday.

For the Sentinel.

THE TELL-TALE FACT.

Ever since the beginning of the Philippine campaign official reports of routs and slaughters have been as music in American ears. To have doubted this uniform success would have been unpatriotic and, in view of the missionary character of the war, quite sacrilegious. But when the rain put a period to these heroic achievements the tell-tale and controverting fact of doubled armaments fully justified the chirruping of Round Robin.

Unwarranted deeds monstrously done lose much of their grossness, and may even excite the admiration of the unthinking; but here is a botch at bloodshedding. Our prayerful President seems to have counted on the same half-heartedness which nullified Spanish valor, but it was only a claim to a bird in the bush the latter defended. The Filipino has unsheathed his sword in the most unquestionable cause—that of repelling an invader whose only right is the right of purchase. "Thrice is he armed that hath his quarrel just!"

A NARROW ESCAPE.
Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada F. Hart, of Groton, S.D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four Doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at A. H. Huber's and Jos. B. Boyle's Drug Stores. Regular size 50c and $1.00. A MOTHER TELLS HOW SHE SAVED HER LITTLE DAUGHTER'S LIFE.
I am the mother of eight children and have had a great deal of experience with medicines. Last summer my little daughter had the dysentery in its worst form. We thought she would die. I tried everything I could think of, but nothing seemed to do her any good. I saw by an advertisement in our paper that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was highly recommended and sent and got a bottle at once. It proved to be one of the very best medicines we ever had in the house. It saved my little daughter's life. I am anxious for every mother to know what an excellent medicine it is. Had I known it at first it would have saved me a great deal of anxiety and my little daughter much suffering. Yours truly, Mrs. Geo. F. Burdick, Liberty, K. I. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.
