WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1900

The Board of Visitors of the Maryland Asylum and Training School for Feeble Minded, at Owings' Mills, has issued a strong plea for additional aid from the State for the purpose of enlarging its work. The institution now has 94 inmates and is crowded to the utmost limit of its capacity. Not another applicant can be received and yet there are 300 applications for admission on file. This work was begun by the State in 1888. It has been carried on, in a limited way, with admirable success, but ought to have four or five times its present capacity to accommodate those of this class who must be cared for at public expense. Even the present work has been dependant to some extent upon private charity. The appeal for further aid, both public and private, by the Board of Visitors, is timely, and should meet with a prompt and liberal response. Mr. Wm. G. Rinehart, of this city, is a member of the board and can supply full information in relation to the work and needs of the institution, which should be vigorously pressed upon the attention of the Legislature by those who may become interested in the subject.

Rev. Dr. Julius E. Grammer, of Trinity P. E. Church; Bishop Latane, of the Reformed Episcopal Church, and thirteen clergymen of other Protestant Churches in Baltimore, have issued an earnest appeal to the people of Maryland in behalf of the proper observance of the Lord's Day, and a solemn appeal against any modification of existing law against its desecration. Recently efforts have been made to render the law odious by enforcing it upon an exceedingly technical interpretation of its provisions and without regard to its spirit and real meaning. The clergymen referred to interpose a very logical plea against the extension of the privilege of conducting an unnecessary Sunday business, by reciting an example. They say: "There is such a thing as enforcing the law without due consideration of the exigencies which arise in cases of individual necessity, as the existing law provides; but for the general weal, for the peace and order of society, we protest that as the sale of food supplies is suspended on Sunday in our market places, we can see no good reason for the sale on that day of the articles prohibited in our present law, viz.: Tobacco, cigars, candy, soda or mineral waters, spirituous or fermented liquors, cordial, lager beer, wine, cider or any other goods, wares or merchandise whatever." The intelligent conscience of the people will generally accept the logic of this conclusion and the legislators of the State should be induced to let well enough alone.

SUBJECT TO GOVERNMENT BY CONGRESS.

If precedents in the past history of this country are of any value, there is no doubt about the right of Congress to determine how and in what manner any territory belonging to the United States is to be governed. The great Northwest Territory, out of which the States of Ohio, Indiana, Illinois and others were formed, was given by Congress a government less liberal than that which is proposed for the Philippines. It is true, however, that the Northwestern Ordinance was passed prior to the adoption of the Constitution. Its provisions are too extended to be quoted here, but it gave exceedingly limited authority to the people in the way of selecting their own administrative, judicial and legislative officers. In fact, the Governor, Secretary and three Judges appointed by Congress were given power to adopt and publish such laws of the original States, civil and criminal, as they might deem best suited to the circumstances, and subject to the approval of Congress.

When Louisiana was purchased by Jefferson, Congress provided that the laws for its government should be made by the Governor and a Legislative Council of thirteen members, appointed by the President, and this proceeding had the assent of Thomas Jefferson, who may be regarded as the patron saint of the Democrats who are now flippantly denouncing what they are pleased to term the "imperialism" of the McKinley administration. The scheme of government recommended for the Philippines is much more liberal than Jefferson's for Louisiana. It is thus outlined by the New York Tribune:

"Its plan is to employ the natives to the largest possible extent. No American is to be put into an office which a native can satisfactorily fill. Only a small number of Americans will be needed, perhaps not more than one to 230,000 natives. That would mean only thirty or forty American officials in the islands—assuredly a disappointing outlook for ambitious carpet baggers! These are to be experienced civil servants, selected on the sole ground of merit. Under them there should be a native civil service organized on the merit system, with examinations, promotions, tenure of office, etc., according to the most enlightened plan. The few Americans who are appointed to office are in full reality to "take up the white man's burden." They are to learn the native language, familiarize themselves with the native customs and, in brief, devote their lives not to lording it over the natives but to being their guides, philosophers and friends. Finally, as to the tariff and like questions, the Commission most sensibly recognizes the fact that it is impossible to identify or to assimilate the Philippine system with that of the United States. Those Islands are not a part of the United States, and are not to be treated as though they were. Tariff, internal revenue and all else are to be devised in accordance with Philippine conditions, not according to United States examples."

There is no doubt that the plan of government adopted for the Territory of Louisiana was strictly within the constitutional authority of Congress, which remains unchanged. Article IV, Section 4 of the Constitution is too clear to be misconstrued on this point. It provides that "The Congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or any other property belonging to the United States." The Constitution therefore recognizes and treats such territorial possessions as "property belonging to the United States." The sanction of numerous precedents to the acquisition of territory is too strong to be denied at this late day, and hence no doubt rests upon the validity of the proceeding by which our title to the Philippines occurred, and this government is bound to assert its authority over them. In doing so the people of the archipelago will be protected in their individual rights and will enjoy a far greater degree of individual liberty than would be possible under any government of which Aguinaldo might be the head. If this is imperialism then Jefferson and all the other founders of the United States government were imperialists and the Democrats who counsel the abandonment of the Philippines are denying the principles of the man whom they profess to consider the Apostle of their party.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC—BALTO. WEEK OF FEBRUARY 12TH, 1900.

The play "Way Down East" is said to possess a remarkable novelty in the way of a terrific snow storm, the most realistic and original that has yet been given to the stage. The storm is not a gently falling and insignificant patter of paper, but comes down furious and fast, drifting, driven and genuine; in fact, just like the snow storms that may be seen anywhere in midwinter in New England. It takes two machines to do the work, one to carry the snow past the door and another to carry it past the window, the ingredients being finely cut paper and salt. The machines work quickly and silently, for it would never do to have them reveal themselves to the audience by the roar and buzz of revolving wheels. The action of a snow storm is copied as closely as possible, care being taken to make it intermittently wild and furious, the temporary lulls being one of the most characteristic points in a New England storm.

AN EDITOR'S LIFE SAVED BY CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY.

During the early part of October, 1899, I contracted a bad cold which settled on my lungs and was neglected until I feared that consumption had appeared in an incipient state. I was constantly coughing and trying to expel something which I could not. I became alarmed and after giving the local doctor a trial bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and the result was immediate improvement, and after I had used three bottles my lungs were restored to their healthy state.—S. S. Edwards, Publisher of The Review, Wyant, Ill. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

FLORIDA.—TWO WEEKS' TOUR VIA PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.

The first Pennsylvania Railroad tour of the season to Jacksonville, allowing two weeks in Florida, will leave New York and Philadelphia February 6. Excursion tickets, including railway transportation, Pullman accommodations (one berth), and meals en route in both directions while traveling on the special train, will be sold at the following rates: Baltimore and Washington, $48.00; and at proportionate rates from other points. For tickets, itineraries, and other information apply to ticket agent, B. Courlaender, Jr., Passenger Agent, Baltimore, Md., or to Geo. W. Boyd, Asst. Gen. Pass. Agent, Broad Street Station, Philadelphia.

There is no better medicine for the babies than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Its pleasant taste and prompt and effectual cures make it a favorite with mothers and small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds, preventing pneumonia or other serious consequences. It also cures croup and has been used in tens of thousands of cases without a single failure so far as we have been able to learn. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears, will prevent the attack. In cases of whooping cough it liquefies the tough mucus, making it easier to expectorate, and lessens the severity and frequency of the paroxysms of coughing, thus depriving that disease of all dangerous consequences. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

THAT THROBBING HEADACHE

Would quickly leave you, if you used Dr. King's New Life Pills. Thousands of sufferers have proved their matchless merit for Sick and Nervous Headaches. They make pure blood and strong nerves and build up your health. Easy to take. Try them. Only 25 cents. Money back if not cured. Sold by Huber and Boyle, Druggists, Westminster.

"I think I would go crazy with pain were it not for Chamberlain's Pain Balm," writes Mr. W. H. Stapleton, Hermiuie, Pa. "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for several years and have tried remedies without number, but Pain Balm is the best medicine I have got hold of." One application relieves the pain. For sale by W. Scott Zepp, Druggist, Westminster.

A NARROW ESCAPE.

Thankful words written by Mrs. Ada E. Hark, of Groton, S. D. "Was taken with a bad cold which settled on my lungs; cough set in and finally terminated in Consumption. Four doctors gave me up, saying I could live but a short time. I gave myself up to my Savior, determined if I could not stay with my friends on earth, I would meet my absent ones above. My husband was advised to get Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. I gave it a trial, took in all eight bottles. It has cured me, and thank God, I am saved and now a well and healthy woman." Trial bottles free at Huber's and Boyle's, Drug Stores, Westminster. Regular size 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed or price refunded.

ON ACCOUNT OF REBUILDING.

This great Sale has been going for past two weeks and still continues. Never in the history of the business have you had such an opportunity to buy goods at less price than we can buy them to-day. But this Sale will not last much longer, as we are expecting the material every day and when the Carpenters begin tearing out this sale stops. We were highly complimented last week. A gentleman well known in this community made the remark that when MILLER BROS. advertise they are going to do certain things you can always depend on it that they will do just what they say. We appreciate that remark and assure you that is the kind of reputation we want and will have.
