THE LEGISLATURE MEETS.

The General Assembly for 1908 met at Annapolis at noon Wednesday, the Democrats organizing both Houses, as follows:

President of the Senate, Gen. Joseph B. Seth, of Talbot county.
Secretary, Robert Moss, of Anne Arundel county.
Journal Clerk, W. Trickett Giles, of Baltimore.
Reading Clerk, Walter R. Townsend, of Baltimore county.
Sergeant-at-Arms, John R. Shower, of Carroll county.
Speaker of the House of Delegates, J. Enos Ray, of Prince George's county.
Chief Clerk, Albert J. Almoney, of Montgom- [illegible] nty.
[illegible] l Clerk, Emerson R. Crothers of Cecil
[illegible] g Clerk, Humphrey D. Wolfe, Howard
[illegible] at-Arms, John H. Cox, of Montgom-
[illegible] Clerk, Edward O'Mahoney,

[illegible] message was received [illegible] which an adjournment [illegible] next Tuesday, to give [illegible] ncers a chance to select [illegible] mmittees.

[illegible] GOV. ELIHU E. JACKSON.

[illegible] Gov. Elihu E. Jackson died Friday [illegible] ning of last week at 10 o'clock at his [illegible] me, 816 Cathedral street, Baltimore. [illegible] s. Jackson was the only member of [illegible] s family at his beside when he died. He is survived by a widow, two daughters and three sons. Congressman Wm. H. Jackson, of Salisbury, was his only brother.

For the last quarter of a century few men in this State have been more constantly and conspiciously in public sight than Hon. Elihu E. Jackson. He entered the public service as a member of the House of Delegates in 1882. He was a member of the Senate in 1884 and President of that body in 1886. His service as President of the Senate suggested his as the Democratic candidate for Governor in 1887. He was elected by a large majority, and a few years after the conclusion of his term he went back into the State Senate.

His remains were taken to Salisbury, where the funeral was held Tuesday. He was worth about $3,000,000.

WHO WILL BE PRESIDENT?

National politics has within the past [illegible] k or so come prominently to the [illegible] t, and both Democrats and Repub- [illegible] s are looking forward to their re- [illegible] e National Conventions with con- [illegible] e eagerness. The announce- [illegible] t the Democratic Convention [illegible] eld in Denver, on July 7, has [illegible] many Marylanders to begin [illegible] ions for the trip, and it is de- [illegible] at the representation from this [illegible] Denver will be greater than [illegible] revious National Convention. [illegible] d will, of course, have no candi- [illegible] or either President or Vice- [illegible] idential nomination, but that its [illegible] egation will figure largely in the [illegible] nvention is certain. The Maryland [illegible] elegation to Democratic Conventions [illegible] as in the past always been a strong [illegible] and influential one, which has had much to do with making the nominations, and framing the platform. Such men as Mr. John P. Poe, the late Senator Gorman, and the late General L. Victor Baughman have played leading parts in the national Conventions of the past, and the attitude of Maryland has been of interest to the delegations and leaders from other States. Just who will compose the delegation from this State this year is uncertain. That Mr. Poe and Congressman J. F. C. Talbot will be among the delegates is thought probable. Mr. Frank A. Furst will also be a delegate at large, if he desires to be. That ex-Governor John Walter Smith, who will then be a United States Senator-elect, and the leader of his party in the State, and Chairman Murray Vandiver, will go, is certain, and it is also thought the two present United States Senators, Isador Rayner and William Pinkney Whyte, will be on the delegation. Neither of these last two went to the last National Convention. In addition to the delegates, many Marylanders will be there in an unofficial capacity.

It is not the purpose of the Democratic Club party to go to Denver with the idea of booming anyone's candidacy for President, or for anything else, and the trip will have no political significance. So far as the Democratic leaders are concerned, it is believed that the delegation to the Convention from this place will be unpledged and uninstructed. Most of them fully expect Mr. Bryan to be nominated.
