ROCK HALL NOTES.

Quite a large congregation greeted Rev. D. J. Moore at the M. E. Church on Sunday morning and were well repaid by hearing a real nice discourse on the subject of Temptations and how to combat them. The Rev. gentleman's text was "Watch ye, and pray, lest ye enter into temptation." Mr. Moore's splendid delivery was quite an agreeable surprise to many of his hearers.

The Sunday evening service was conducted by Mr. Joseph C. Kendall. Mr. Kendall is a veteran church service leader of the days of other years and he was an inspiration Sunday evening to the older members present. It is the consensus of opinion among the church people that our venerable friend should have been in the local ministry long years ago.

Owing to the extreme illness resulting in death of Mr. Wilson, father of Mrs. C. M. Compher, there were no services at the M. P. Church on Sunday. The remains of Mr. Wilson were conveyed by Monday's boat to Baltimore, enroute to the deceased's former home. It is feared by the Wesleyan congregation the death of Mr. Wilson will cause the non-return of Rev. Mr. Compher for the next Conference year. Should this be the result it will be most regretable, as Mr. Compher has been an excellent pastor and is greatly endeared by the people generally.

Mr. Abe Casey made the trip to the city by Tolchester on Saturday in order that he might have the advantage of Monday's cattle sale. He returned by the afternoon boat on Monday and on Tuesday splendid specimens of beef cattle followed.

Mr. Frank Urie seems destined to be the earliest producer of garden truck. His potatoes, we hear, are coming up fine. They were planted last fall.

Mrs. Alexander has so far improved in health as to be active in her millinery department again. This is highly appreciated by her many patrons.

Sorry to report Prof. Greenwood not in so favorable a condition the past week. Many, many prayers are constantly offered at the Throne of Grace in his behalf by the people of this section.

Mrs. Charles Thompson, who has been quite ill for some time is still in a very precarious condition.

Mr. Thomas Kendall, a well-known watermen of Skinner's Neck, is very ill with Bright's disease.

Mr. B. H. Coburn has so far recovered from pneumonia as to be able to be out some.

Capt. C. R. Kerr is rushing overhauling and brightening up work on steam yacht "Kaleda," preparatory to steaming out of winter quarters in Grey's Inn. He will probably leave here next week for the city.

Dept. Commander J. C Ashley has all seasons for his own. Last week he made a raid on the oyster fraternity and succeeded in capturing a number for violation of the oyster law.

The supplies having arrived and 30 or 40 would-be woodmen in waiting, a camp of the Modern Woodmen of America was instituted here this week. This new order starts under most favorable prospects. Young men and good men compose the membership.

The return of pastor J. T. Richardson for a second year's service in the M. E. Society is hailed with delight by the members and friends of the church. His return with fresh courage and new vim will infuse greater inspiration in his people, and with a "long pull, a strong pull, and a pull altogether" this conference year will be a glorious one for this place.

The recent cold nights have caused considerable apprehension regarding the safety of fruit in this section.

In commemoration of the 275th anniversary of the founding of Maryland, exercises consisting of addresses, essays, dialogues, recitations song and music were held in K. of P.
