Agricultural NOTICE.

"Dorchester Agricultural Society."

In conformity with a resolution of the Board of Curators, it becomes my duty to request in the most earnest manner, a full meeting of the Society, to be held at Mr. Lucas' tavern on Monday the 24th inst. at 11 o'clock.

The objects of this meeting are various, and essential to the very existence of the institution.

The Board respectfully request that on or before the appointed day of meeting, each member will have punctually performed his duty, in the payment of his membership money, (three dollars,) which is individually, of no moment to any member, but collectively, of the most vital importance to the Society; it is manifest that the Board must require the actual, previous and timely possession of the means of purchasing the premiums, and defraying the expenses incident to the exhibition; and that delayed payments will frustrate the views of the Society.

The very exact and punctilious regard of this duty, the last year, by almost every member, and the very flattering success with which it was accompanied, in an exhibition, which, with a fair allowance for the infancy of the institution, did honor to the county, and promised the most beneficial results to the interests of Agriculture, concur to inspire the Board with the most confident hope, that this, the first request of payment for the present year, will be promptly regarded, and that the exhibition, already projected for November next, will, by the proposed meeting on the 24th of the present month, be faithfully sustained.
