A movement that was organized in Frederick two months ago culminated Thursday of last week at a convention in Baltimore, when the Maryland Threshermen and Farmers' Protective Association was formed. Frederick county thresher-men took the initiative in the matter and organized the first county association in the state. The purpose of the organization is to see that the threshermen of Maryland are not imposed upon by way of improper legislation. Senator R. Smith Snader, of New Windsor, was elected president of the State Association; J. W. Brooks, Kent county, vice president; W. H. Davis, Westminster, secretary and treasurer.

The Frederick News tells a story about a lot of young men from this county visiting Frederick on Saturday night for the purpose of quenching their thrist for intoxicating liquor, which they failed to obtain on this side of the line, since the saloons went out of business on Friday. One lot of young fellows, whom it was thought were from Mt. Airy, presented a sorry sight. "One young fellow had completely 'succumbed' and had to be rolled on the back seat of the car. How they managed to get home safely is not known." Mt. Airy is so close to the line of Frederick county that, possibly, some of the young men may not reside in this county. But the News' story is not applicable to other localities in this county. As far as can be learned there was no general exodus into other counties of citizens who indulge regularly or only occasionally and many a man went to bed without taking a "night cap," or caring to do so. Conditions in this city were admirable. The usual large crowd of Saturday night visitors and shoppers was here and merchants generally reported business better than has been customary, and there was not the slightest disorder.

WESTMINSTER HIGH SCHOOL ENTERTAINMENT AND ART EXHIBITION

The entertainment and Art Exhibition held at the Westminster High School last week was a decided success. A large and enthusiastic audience filled the Assembly Hall on Thursday and Friday nights when the entertainment was given, and there was a good attendance at the Art Exhibit on Thursday, Friday and Saturday afternoons. The principal feature of the entertainment was a cantata entitled A Meeting of the Nations, introducing guests from various lands with characteristic songs, folk dances and national music. Probably the most striking feature of the whole entertainment was the folk dances executed by the children of the lower grades. There were three of these dances—English, Dutch and Tyrolean. These children showed careful training on the part of their teachers and executed the various movements with wonderful grace and skill. Musical selections by the High School Orchestra and two choruses by the girls of the upper High School grades constituted an enjoyable feature of the occasion. The reading, Tennyson's "Lady of Shallott," illustrated by tableaux, called forth much favorable comment. Louise Brown was the reader, and Mildred Royer impersonated the "Lady of Shallott."

The Art Exhibit, loaned the school by the A. W. Wilson Company of Belmont, Mass., included nearly two hundred pictures of the finest quality. Most of these were copies of the celebrated master-pieces of painting and sculpture, and there were some very fine views from nature.

The profits of the entertainment and exhibition, amounting to more than $90.00, will be spent in purchasing pictures from the Elson Company for decorating the Assembly Hall of the High School Building. The two pictures offered as prizes to the rooms selling the largest number of tickets, were won by the girls' division of the Fifth grade, and the girls' division of the Sixth grade respectively. The girls of the Sixth grade, having sold the largest number of tickets, were given their choice of the two pictures and chose the one representing Shakespeare's Stratford-on-Avon. The second prize, awarded to the girls of the Sixth grade, is a copy of Rosa Bonheur's The Horse Fair.

A regular meeting of the Board of School Commissioners of Carroll County was held on Monday, May 3, 1915. All the members were present. The president, Theo. F. Englar, called the meeting to order at 10 A. M.

The 17th annual inter-collegiate oratorical contest of Maryland Colleges, was held in Alumni Hall, Western Maryland College, on Friday evening last, in accordance with the program published in the Sentinel of that date. The orations of the contestants were of a creditable character and were heard with interest by the audience present. The first place was won by Mr. Lester A. Twigg, representing Western Maryland College, and the second place by Mr. Stephen R. Collins, of Washington College, Chestertown. The medals, which are the prizes in the contest, will be presented to the victors at the commencement of Western Maryland College.

THIRTY-SECOND COMMENCEMENT of Westminster Theological Seminary

The exercises connected with the thirty-second commencement of Westminster Theological Seminary were held this week beginning on Sunday and ending Tuesday evening. At 10.30 A. M., Sunday, the baccalaureate sermon was delivered by the president, Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice. On Sunday evening Rev. Dr. Frank Henry Lewis, of the class of '92, delivered the alumni sermon. The only event of Monday was that connected with the anniversary of the Stockton Literary Society, the exercises of which were held in the Seminary chapel.

The annual meeting of the Board of Governors, which was also held in the chapel, took place at 10.00 A. M., on Tuesday, and the commencement exercises were held in the evening in the Methodist Protestant Church. They were opened with prayer by Rev. J. S. Bowers, president of the Maryland Annual Conference; Montgomery J. Shower delivered the class oration, and Rev. Dr. W. H. Bentley delivered the address to the graduating class. The following students were then graduated to enter the ministry of the Methodist Protestant Church:

Edward Thomas Kirkley, Baltimore, The Sunday School and the Kingdom.

Daniel F. Myers, Elkhart, Ind., The Pragmatic Origin of the Bible.

Eck Omar Pritchett, Brown Summit, N. C., Church Polity.

Eugene Francis Root, Detroit, Mich., The Immigrant and Home Missions.

Alfred E. Scotten, Greenfield, Ind., The Problem of Religious Education.

Wm. J. McGarity, Temple, Ga., The Eucharist.

Harvey Edson Orwick, Arlington, Ohio, The Parousia.

Herman Frederick Swarzkopf, Union Bridge, Foreign Missions.

Montgomery J. Shroyer, Yorktown, Ind., Old Testament Conceptions of the Future Life.

Diplomas of graduation were conferred by President Elderdice on the first five named, the remaining four receiving the degree of Bachelor of Divinity.

The exercises were concluded with the doxology, and the benediction, which was pronounced by Rev. Dr. Kirk, of Baltimore.

While the number of the class graduated was not as large as some of those of previous commencements, it was composed of students of excellent promise, and the seminary is in a very satisfactory condition and doing splendid work for the propagation of true Christianity. Its president and the members of the faculty are clergymen of acknowledged ability and of the highest character. The Methodist Protestant Church is fortunate in the possession of a theological institution of such merit.

The baccalaureate sermon of President Elderdice will be found in other columns of this issue of the Sentinel.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

Municipal elections were held in several of the towns of this county on Monday, that of greatest interest having been in this city, where three members of the common council were elected for the term of two years. The seven candidates nominated at the town meeting on the previous Monday were voted for, and 677 votes were polled, but there was no issue of policy in the contest. Public sentiment, however, favored the re-election of the candidates who are members of the present council, Messrs. Davis, Hesson and Shaeffer, and they were elected by large majorities. The vote for each of the seven candidates was as follows:

Walter H. Davis, 534.
Charles Hesson, 407.
Frank T. Shaeffer, 404.
William Eckard, 205.
T. Wm. Mather, Jr., 195.
John H. Sullivan, 133.
Charles B. Yingling, 79.

The judges were A. W. Buckingham, Harry Hesson, Amos Hamilton; clerks, Wm. B. Paynter and William Swinn.

At Taneytown there was no contest and Judson Hill was elected burgess, with Edward Kemper, Richard Hill, Jacob Baker, Albertus G. Riffle and John S. Bower, as commissioners. A few scattering votes were cast against some of the candidates elected.

An election was held Monday in New Windsor. There was no contest. The following were elected: Samuel T. Lantz, Burgess; J. C. Gilbert, Truman E. Lambert, Albert E. Lambert, John H. Smith and Prof. Flora, commissioners.

NATIONAL CONFERENCE ON CHARITIES AND CORRECTIONS

Governor Goldsborough announced Wednesday the appointment of about 200 delegates to represent Baltimore and the counties to the National Conference on Charities and Correction, which will hold its annual meeting in Baltimore next Wednesday, and also about 75 delegates on the State-wide tuberculosis committee.

In connection with the Conference on Charities and Correction the Governor wrote to the executives of the various States and from some of them he received replies signifying their intention of attending the conference, as well as naming delegates.

Those named from this county on Charities and Corrections are Dr. O. E. Tiffany, Mrs. Austin Gallagher and Dr. Thomas H. Lewis, Westminster; Dr. J. C. Clark and Charles Melville, Sykesville; Charles D. Bonsack and J. Walton Englar, New Windsor.

The naming of delegates to cooperate in their respective sections in connection with the State-wide fight against tuberculosis is the sequel to the public meeting held at Annapolis a few months ago. Those from this county are Mrs. C. E. Stewart and John H. Cunningham.

B. D. CARLISLE

Mrs. Carlisle received a phone message on Sunday morning that her son, Bertram Dewinney, had passed away at the Springfield Hospital at the age of 41 years. Undertaker Wink was at once sent for and the body was brought to the home of his mother on South Main street and on Wednesday morning was taken to Seven Valley, Pa., and laid to rest in the cemetery where his father is at rest. "Bert" as he was familiarly known, was one of our boys for a number of years but was a subject of epilepsy and as he grew older he became quite irritable and rather dangerous at times, so that several years ago he was sent to Springfield and did fairly well under their discipline until death ended his sufferings.

TINE GARRETT

A very sad happening occurred on Friday evening at Melrose when Tine Garrett died suddenly at the Hotel. He was one of the employees of Mr. Frederick on the pike and had been to Hanover. He had been drinking and at the hotel met a friend at the stable who had a pint of whiskey. G. asked him for a drink and when the bottle was handed him he emptied it, then going into the bar room where a drummer was talking with the tender (having a glass of whiskey at his side) G. slipped up and took the glass and drank its contents. The stranger said to him "You must be dry." He said, "I am." "Then I'll buy you a drink," said the stranger, which he did. That too was swallowed, after which he went out on the porch, sank to the floor, fell forward so that his head fell beyond the edge of the porch and struck a stone, breaking the skin and leaving a little blood on it and he was dead. Squire Shearer was notified. After hearing all the evidence he and Dr. Denner who accompanied him deemed it unnecessary to empanel a jury and gave a certificate to that effect. Undertaker Wm. L. F. Bergman was called and prepared the body for burial at the Stone Church, Pa., on Sunday, where his parents lay at rest. He was a good workman, inoffensive but a slave to strong drink. He is survived by sisters and brothers who with their families enjoy fine homes. He was aged 38 years and 10 months.

A SINGULAR JOURNEY TO SAN FRANCISCO

About 25 days ago a Mr. Wallace, his wife, and the latter's brother, a Mr. Schmidt, left New York on a singular journey from that city to San Francisco, Cal., the motive having been a wager for $1,000, that they will reach the Golden Gate by the 31st of December, traveling in an old Maxwell car from which the machinery has been taken, leaving only the steering gear and brakes, and getting from place to place by pushing the car up the hills and coasting down them, except when towed by some one generous enough to do so gratuitously. They reached here on Sunday and were towed from Reisterstown by Mr. S. C. Stoner. They remained here till Monday, when they left for Littlestown, Pa., in tow by Mr. Ira B. Lawyer, who kindly consented to perform that service for them. From Littlestown they continued on to Gettysburg and Chambersburg, Pa., striking the Lineboro Highway at the latter place. This they will follow to San Francisco. They are meeting expenses by selling post cards, on which they and their outfit are photographed. They reached here two days ahead of schedule time and ahead of the game financially. The wager and the money they receive over expenses are to go to the Belgian Relief Fund, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace are on their honeymoon trip.

A LONG FELT NEED SUPPLIED

The ladies of the Carroll County Woman's Christian Temperance Union have long realized the need of a regular place of meeting, to promote the cause which they represent. On the first day of May, 1915, they secured a room in the second story of the Times Building and fitted it up as temperance headquarters. The business of the Union Temperance League as well as of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, will be transacted in this room.

The room is fitted up with comfortable chairs, two book-cases, a cot and table, and will be supplied with magazines. Any member of the Union coming in from the county and desiring a place to rest, or to wait for a train or bus, can do so in this room. Every Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, beginning with May 15th, the Loyal Temperance Legion will hold its meetings in this room. It is hoped every mother who is anxious to win Maryland for prohibition will send her children to these meetings. It would be impossible to over-estimate the work of the children in the campaign for local option in Carroll county last year.

Secretary.

DISTRESSING SUICIDE

Roy Dutterer, the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Dutterer, committed suicide on Sunday afternoon, by hanging himself in the barn, at his home near Mayberry. He had been to the service at Baust Church in the morning. After his return home he procured a rope, went into the haymow in the barn, tied the rope to a rafter and around his neck, and then jumped to the barn floor. His lifeless body was found by his father. Young Dutterer was a young man of fine character and exemplary habits, and was a member of the Reformed congregation of Baust Church. He was not suspected of an intention to take his life and no member of his family or his acquaintances and friends have the least idea of the cause that prompted his act of self-destruction. His funeral took place on Wednesday morning and his remains were interred in the family lot in the cemetery at Silver Run.
