POETRY.

The Bachelor's Soliloquy.

Imitated from Hamlet, Prince of Denmark, one of the noblest tragedies of the immortal Shakspeare.—Act 3d, Sc. 1st.

To Marry, or not to marry? That is the question
Whether 'tis nobler in the mind to suffer
The sullen silence of these cobweb rooms,
Or seek in festive halls some cheerful Dame,
And, by uniting, end it. To live alone—
No more! And by marrying, say we end
The heart-ache, and throes and make-shifts
Bachelors are heirs to: 'Tis a consummation
Devoutly to be wish'd.

To marry—to live in peace—
Perchance in war: aye, there's the rub;
For in the marriage state what ills may come
When we have shuffled off our liberty,
Must give us pause: There's the respect
That makes us dread the bonds of wedlock;
For who could bear the noise of scolding wives,
The fits of spleen, th' extravagance of dress,
The thirst for plays, for concerts, and for balls;
The insolence of servants, and the spurns
That patient husbands from their consorts take
When he himself might his quietus gain,
By living single.

Who would wish to bear
The jeering name of Bachelor;
But that the dread of something after marriage,
(Ah, that vast expenditure of income
The tongue can scarcely tell) puzzles the will,
And makes us rather choose the single life,
Than go to gaol for debts we know not of!
Economy thus makes Bachelors of us still,
And thus our melancholy resolution
Is still increased upon more various thoughts.

ODDS AND ENDS.

SALARIES OF THE BISHOPS OF THE M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.—The committee reported that the salary of the Bishops for the ensuing four years, including all expenses, (except those for travelling,) shall be at the following rates per annum: Bishop Soule, $1,000; Bishop Andrew, $1,400; Bishop Capers, $1,450; Bishop Paine, $1,400; Bishop Pierce, $1,450; Bishop Early, $1,300; Bishop Kavanaugh, $1,000.—Six hundred dollars per annum were appropriated to the widow of Bishop Bascom.

☞The death of the youngest son of Patrick Henry is thus noticed by the Washington Star: Nathaniel Henry, the youngest son of the great orator, has been dead about three years. He died poor, but his poverty was an honorable poverty; and his last days were cheered by the kind attentions of attached friends and relatives. Inheriting an ample estate, it soon passed from him; for his heart was too big, and his hand too open, for the selfish ways of this selfish world.

THE BOSTON HERALD has been looking into "scripture" to prove the existence of know-nothings from a very long time ago, and judges that Absalom was the leader of the first party from what it finds recorded in 2 Samuel, xv., 2, which says: "And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Jerusalem, that were called—and they went in their simplicity and they knew not anything."

NEW JERSEY PEACH CROP.—It is thought that the yield of peaches in New Jersey will be far less than last year, consequently the prices will be much higher. In Monmouth county, which is one of the greatest peach growing counties in the State, it is thought the yield will be very slim, in consequence of the storms while the trees were in blossom.

UNCLAIMED MONEY.—In Dye's Bank Mirror it is stated that Adam's & Co.'s Express Company have the enormous sum of $800,000 in their possession uncalled for at their different offices. In these tight times it is a pity that so large an amount should be kept out of circulation.

THE BEAUTIES OF EDITING.—An experienced brother editor says, in a recent letter to us: At present I am in the country, recovering from fourteen years editorial life—bad eyes, crooked back, and broken nerves, with little to show for it."—Phila. Register.

☞Mr. Burr Porter, of Newark, N. J., on the first breaking out of hostilities between Turkey and Russia, proceeded to Constantinople and offered his services. He has entered the Sultan's army as a Captain of Artillery, and joins Omer Pacha's Staff at Shumula.

☞The Artesian Well, at Frederick, Md., has been completed. The shaft has been carried down 585 feet, and now, the Examiner says, the water runs out at the rate of one hundred and fifty gallons a minute.

☞A Western paper says: "About thirty years ago, Gen. Cass owned a farm in what is now the heart of Detroit, and, by simply 'holding on,' he has become the possessor of a fortune estimated at three millions of dollars."

☞It is said that Santa Anna is willing to accept the Gadsden treaty, provided the ten millions to be all paid down at once, instead of five monthly instalments. It is likely that our Government will accede to his request.

☞Prince John Van Buren, of New York, expects to sail for Europe on the 1st of July, to be absent from three to four months. He intends to visit Scotland, St. Petersburg and Constantinople.

☞Mr. E. Z. C. Judson (Ned Buntline) was married in Charlestown, Mass., on Tuesday, to Miss Lone Judah, a Jewess, of Charlestown.

☞Senator Weller, of California, married his fourth wife on Friday last. The Hon. gentleman is said to be still young and handsome.

☞A marble statue of Santa Anna has been ordered by the Governor of Tobasco.

☞How to rise early—Live next door to a house where Shanghais are kept.

Truth Stranger than Fiction.
MOUTH TO MOUTH TESTIMONY
BY SOME OF THE THOUSANDS
CURED BY HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE.
PALPITATION OF THE HEART.
PORT ROYAL, Va., July 27th 1852.

MESSRS. MORTIMER & MOWBRAY: Gents—We have again to send an order for more of your truly wonderful "Hampton's Vegetable Tincture." Since it was first tried it has sold without an effort, and we have not seen the first person who has not been greatly benefitted by its use. A gentleman of our neighborhood was induced to try the Tincture for a violent palpitation of the heart. He had suffered so much from it that he said he had prayed for death. He had taken but three doses when he assured us he would not take five hundred dollars for the benefit he had derived, and that he should never cease to remember us with gratitude for calling his attention to so valuable a medicine. Yours truly,
GRAY & PENDLETON.

Are you Sick.
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS,

Ask for "Hampton's Vegetable Tincture." The many cures made by this pleasant and safe remedy may introduce counterfeiting.

A Medicine must have merit, and great merit too, to stand the test of public opinion. No art of puffing can galvanize a worthless article so as too keep it up as a good medicine if it be not really so.

A GOOD MEDICINE will live, become popular, and extend its sales year after year, in spite of opposition. The people readily find out its virtues, and the fame of them passes from mouth to mouth with more rapidity than newspapers can spread it. A living witness testifying to the cure a medicine has made for him is of far more service than any newspaper advertising.

In proof of what we say above, we refer you to HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE, and its effects.

The Wife of T. W. Yeahle, Grocer, 76 Pearl street, cured of Rheumatism of 8 years' standing; all other remedies failed.

W. A. Schaeffer, Esq., one of the oldest Magistrates and most highly respectable citizens, cured of great weakness, and restored to robust health.

Jarrett Plummer, 153 E. Baltimore street, suffered intensely for six years with hip disease and mercurial rheumatism; cured after all other remedies failed.

Space will not permit to name hundreds of others as Geo W. Goodrich, Capt. Thomas Canot, Robert Gault, James Smyth, cured of Rheumatism.

John Pervail, S. A. Griffin, John Lukes Rev. V. Eskridge, U. S. N., and thousand, others cured of Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Cough, Liver Complaints, Bronchits, St. Vitu's Dance, &c. We refer you to your own citizens. Call on them.

COUGH, CONSUMPTION, &c.

Mr. Henry C. Winn had a cough for 5 years; great weakness, &c., had in all 5 or 6 physicians; tried all their remedies, but was cured only by
HAMPTON'S VEGETABLE TINCTURE.

DR. HAMPTON, the author of this great "Hampton's Vegetable Tincture," is in his 80th year, in good health, so that it will be seen it is not an article got up to impose on the public.

Call and get pamphlets gratis, with history of discovery of this wonderful Blood Purifier, and see certificates of our own citizens, of Rheumatism, Dyspepsia, Scrofula, Liver Complaint, General Weakness, Nervousness, &c., &c.

GLENN SPRINGS, Jan. 9th, 1853.

Messrs. BEACH & BROWNSON—SIRS: I send for another bottle of your "Marchisi's Uterine Catholicon." My wife has been afflicted for eleven years, and a variety of means has been restored for relief, but none was obtained until I received this medicine from you. Its influence seems almost magical: there was a manifest improvement from the day it was taken. As there are a great many females in our country laboring under the affliction for which your medicine proposes a remedy, I feel it a duty to recommend it to all such.

MEDICAL HOUSE,
NO. 16, SOUTH FREDERICK STREET,
BALTIMORE, MD.,
ESTABLISHED IN ORDER TO AFFORD THE AFFLICTED SOUND AND SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL AID, AND FOR THE SUPPRESION OF QUACKERY.

DR. J. B. SMITH has for many years devoted his whole attention to the treatment of private Complaints, in all their varied and complicated forms. His great success in those long standing and difficult cases, such as were formerly considered incurable, is sufficient to commend him to the public as worthy of the extensive patronage he has received. Within the last eight years Dr. S. has treated more than 29,200 cases of Private Complaints, in their different forms and stages: a practice which no doubt exceeds that of all the other physicians now advertising in Baltimore, and not a single case is known where his directions were strictly followed, and medicines taken a reasonable time, without effecting a radical and permanent cure; therefore persons afflicted with diseases of the above nature, "no matter how difficult or long standing the case may be," would do well to call on Dr. SMITH, at his office, No. 16, S. FREDERICK STREET, and if not effectually relieved no remuneration will be required for his services. His medicines are free from Mercury and all mineral poisons, put up in a neat and compact form, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while travelling, without exposure or hindrance from business; and except in cases of violent inflamation, no change of diet is necessary

STRICTURES. Dr. Smith has discovered a new method by which he can cure the worst form of stricture, and that without pain or inconvenience to the patient. Irritation of the uretha, of prostrate gland, or neck of the bladder, is sometimes mistaken for stricture by general practitioners or charlatans.

YOUNG MEN and others afflicted with Seminal Debility, whether originating from a Certain Destructive Habit, or from any other cause, with the train of bodily and mental evils which follow, when neglected, should make an early application, thereby avoiding much trouble and suffering, as well as expense. By his improved method of treatment, Dr. S. can safely guarantee a speedy and perfect cure in all cases of this complaint.

TO FEMALES. All diseases peculiar to Females, (such as Suppression, Irregularities, &c.) speedily and effectually removed. The efficacy of his remedies, for the cure of the above affections, have been well tested in an extensive practice for the last twelve years.

Dr. SMITH'S "PREVENTIVES," for Married Ladies, whose health will not admit, or who have no desire to increase their family, may be obtained as above. Price $5.

PERSONS AT A DISTANCE may consult Dr. S. by letter, post paid, describing case, and have medicine securely put up and forwarded to any part of the United States, always accompanied with full and explicit directions for use. Communications considered strictly confidential. Office arranged with separate apartments, so that patients never see any one but the doctor himself Attendance daily, from 8 in the morning till 9 at night.

N. B. Persons afflicted with any of the above complaints will do well to avoid the various NOSTRUMS and SPECIFICS advertised by Apothecaries and Druggists, as a certain cure for any and every disease. They are put up to sell but not to cure, and frequently do much more harm than good, therefore avoid them. A word to the wise is sufficient, Address, DR. J. B. SMITH.

The many thousands cured at this Instit tion, and the very extensive practice of Dr. J is a sufficient guarantee that he is the on proper Physician to be consulted.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeon London, graduate from one of the most em nent colleges of the United States, and th greater part of whose life has been spent in th Hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia, an elsewhere, has effected some of the most astor ishing cures that were ever known, many trou bled with ringing in the ears and head whe asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at suc den sounds, and bashfulness, with frequen blushing, attended sometimes with derange ment of mind, were cured immediately

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votar of pleasuae finds he has imbibed the seeds o this painful disease, it too often happens tha an ill-timed sense of shame, or dread of discov ery, deters him from applying to those, who from education and respectability, can alon befriend him, delaying till the constitutiona symptoms of his horrid disease make their ap pearance, such as ulcerated sore throat, dis eased nose, nocturnal pains in the head an limbs, dimness of sight, deafness, nodes on th shin bones and arms, blotches on the head, fac and extremities, progress on with frightful ra pidity, till at last the palate of the mouth o the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim o this awful disease becomes a horrid object o commiseration, till death puts a period to hi dreadful sufferings, by sending him to "tha bourne from whence no traveller returns."—To such, therefore, Dr. JOHNSTON pledges him self to preserve the most inviolable secrecy; an from his extensive practice in the first Hospit als in Europe and America, he can confidently recommend the most safe and speedy cure to the unfortunate victim of this horrid disease.

It is a melancholy fact that thousands fall vic tims to this terrible disease owing to the unskillfulness of ignorant pretenders, who, by the use of that Deadly Poison, Mercury, ruin the constitution and make the residue of life miserable.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. Johnston addresses all those who have injured themselves by private and improper indulgence, that secret and solitary habit which ruins both body and mind, unfitting them either for Business, Society, or Marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by early habits of youth, viz: Weakness of the back and limbs, pains in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, dyspepsia, nervous irritability, derangement of the digestive functions, general debility, symptoms of consumption, &c.

Mentally: The fearful effects on the mind are much to be dreaded; loss of memory, confusion of ideas, depression of spirits, evil forebodings, aversion to society, self-distrust, love of solitude, timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons, of all ages, can now judge of their declining health. Losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale and emaciated, have a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

DR. JOHNSTON'S INVIGORATING REMEDY for GENITAL DEBILITY.

By this great and important remedy, weakness of the organs are speedily cured and full vigor restored. Thousands of the most nervous and debilitated, who had lost all hope, have been immediately relieved. All impediments to

Physical or Mental Disqualification, Nervous Irratability, Trembling and Weakness, or exhaustion of the most fearful kind, speedily cured.

Young men who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone—a habit frequently learned from evil companions, or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country and the darling of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects and enjoyments of life, by the consequences of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging in a certain secret habit.

WEAKNESS OF THE ORGANS
immediately cured and full vigor restored.
TO STRANGERS.

The many thousands of the most desperate and hopeless cases cured at this institution within the last twelve years, and the numerous important Surgical Operations performed by Dr. J., witnessed by the reporters of the papers and many other persons—notices of which have again and again appeared before the public—is a sufficient guarantee to the afflicted.

Dr. JOHNSTON, the only regularly Educated Physician advertising, is called upon every day, particularly by strangers, who, unfortunately, to their sorrow, thinking to save a few dollars, have suffered themselves to be enticed from this office by ignorant and lying impostors with small fees, to the ruinous abodes of quackery, where, after being trifled with as long as possible, instead of being even relieved, have been irretrievably and permanently injured.

Many of these Quacks copy Dr. JOHNSTON'S advertisements. STRANGERS, TRUST NOT your lives or health to the care of such illiterate and contemptable pretenders, but consult Dr. Johnston and be restored.

☞To those unacquainted with his reputation, Dr. Johnston deems it necessary to say that his Credentials or Diplomas always hang in his Office.

SOLILOQUY.

SCENE THE FIRST.

The Drunkard Shaking his Jug.

Oh! where, and oh! where,
Has all my whisky gone?
I looked upon my old brown jug
That's been my friend so long
Its empty as an old tin pot—
It's dryer than a horn—
Oh! that I had a little drop
Of whisky made of corn.

Oh! where, and oh! where,
Are all my comrades gone?
They all have signed the Temperance pledge
I know they are doing wrong.
I walk along the lonly street,
And look in every shop,
Oh! wretched man alass for me
I cannot get a drop.

Oh! where, and oh where!
Has all my money gone?
I used to have my pockets full
To treat my friends upon—
My purse it is an empty one,
My credit I have none—
The friends that used to drink with me,
Have left me every one.

Oh! where and oh! where
Can I some comfort find?
My friends have all forsaken me
And I am left behind
A bloated wretch I know I am,
And shuned by every one;
There's not a meaner wretch than I
That lives beneath the sun.

SOLILOQUY.

SCENE THE SECOND.

The Reformed Drunkard at Home.

Oh! where, and oh! where,
Are all my troubles gone?
I too have signed the Temperance pledge
That I despised so long--
My wife's as cheerful as a lark
A singing of her song,
And now I see, alas for me
That I've been doing wrong.

Oh! where, and oh! where,
Has all my fever gone?
That used to burn within my breast
There as I staggered on?
My bloated cheeks and reddened eyes
Are now entirely gone,
And now I rise at early dawn
As cheerful as the moon.

Oh! where, and oh! where,
My debts, where are they gone?
That mighty score behind the door,
Twas near a fathom long—
They've melted like the April snow
Before the rising sun—
I've gone to work with all my might,
And paid them every one.

Oh! where, and oh! where
Shall I my children send?
I wish to educate my boys
And make them business men—
My daughters true there are but two
As rosy as a peach—
A finished education now
I wish to give to each.

Oh! where, and oh! where
Shall I my money keep?
Its coming in on every hand—
It forms a mighty heap,
And now I am a thrifty man
My House is neat and clean,
My Home it is a pleasant home
As ever need be seen.

MISCELLANEOUS.

FAMILY vs. COMPANY;
—OR—
FOUR KINDS OF CAKE.

CHAPTER I.

"IT IS ALL FOLLY, WIFE!" exclaimed Mr. Jotham Somes, a matter-of-fact, plain-spoken sort of a man, to his better half. There you have got no less than four kinds of cake, three kinds of pies, two kinds of preserves, to say nothing of knick-knacks and gim-craks.

The fact was that Mrs. Somes was having the minister, his wife and two grown up daughters to take tea with her. She had been engaged for three days in the preparation, and such a display of nice things was calculated to astonish the minister and his family—to give a two-fold surprise, first at the variety and extent of her culinary resources, and secondly at her folly in attempting to make a display beyond her means.
