REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,

WM. TYLER PAGE,

OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 4TH.

Every Republican voter in the county should keep in mind the date of the election for Congressman in this district, and be on hand and cast his ballot for Mr. Wm. Tyler Page on that day. The election will be held Tuesday, November 4th, between the hours of 8 A. M. and 6 P. M. Consult the notice published by the Supervisors of Election, in another column of the Sentinel, naming the location of the polling places in each district and precinct of the county.

Polls open from 8 A. M., till 6 P. M.

WM. TYLER PAGE.

Mr. Talbott, the Democratic candidate for Congress in the Second district of Maryland, appears to consider his indulgence in tanglefoot whiskey either a merit or an important qualification of a Representative in Congress, as he repeatedly reminded his audience, at the meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Thursday evening, of his habit in that respect.

Few, if any, more persons attended the Democratic meeting at Odd Fellows Hall, this city, on Thursday night, which had been advertised for several weeks, than were present at the Republican meeting at the same place on Monday evening, October 20, which was announced only three or four days before it was held, and which occurred on the occasion of a circus performance that attracted the attendance of many persons who would otherwise have been present at the hall.

Incidentally, President Roosevelt did his party a great service in inducing the operators and striking miners to submit their claims to the judgment of an impartial commission; but there is no evidence whatever that the operators were led to yield to his recommendations because they were afraid of the consequences to the Republican party. They realized that public opinion, which was entirely with the President, could not have been much longer trifled with, with safety to themselves.

There are business men, Democrats and Republicans, bankrupt to day, or far less successful than they would otherwise have been, because Grover Cleveland was elected President in 1892, with a Democratic Congress partially in sympathy with his free trade ideas. What folly it would be to repeat that experience by again investing the Democratic party with the power of administration or legislation. A strenuous effort is being made to accomplish both these purposes, and every voter in Carroll county who wants prosperity rather than adversity, should resist the effort. Be at the election on Tuesday next and vote for Wm. Tyler Page for Congress.

The SENTINEL does not recall that it has, in this campaign, expressed a harsh sentiment concerning Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbott, the Democratic nominee for Congress. It has quoted freely from the Advocate concerning the propriety of his candidacy, but has otherwise abstained from personal criticism of the man. It would not have been out of place to have said that he was made the nominee by the Democratic bosses. That would only have been a reiteration, in substance, of what the Advocate has already said. The contrast between the course of the SENTINEL toward Mr. Talbott, and the spiteful and unfair criticisms of Mr. Page by the Advocate, must be apparent to everybody who reads these papers.

In its comments on the fact that Europe bought over $200,000,000 worth of manufactured products of America last year the Advocate asks: "Now if we can pay our freight and insurance and undersell them there, how in the name of common sense can there be any possibility of his paying his freights and insurance and undersell us? Will the SENTINEL answer?" Yes, but before doing so will ask the Advocate to tell what kind of manufactured articles America, in the main, sells to Europe, and how they compare in quality with the same articles, or such of them as are manufactured in the latter country. Other things besides prices enter into such transactions, and if the Advocate will thoroughly analyze the subject it may discover a satisfactory answer to its own question.

The Advocate says "the SENTINEL is not at all pleased with the Advocate's criticism of the precocious and loquacious Mr. Page." Therein the Advocate is very much mistaken. The manifest injustice and unfairness of that paper in its criticisms of Mr. Page are calculated to arouse Republicans, who, on account of this being an "off" year, would otherwise be indifferent about voting, to a determination to come out and cast their ballots for him on election day. Right thinking Democrats, too, are apt to resent this injustice and unfairness, and to remember that only a little while ago the Advocate was zealously denouncing the aspirations of Mr. Talbott to the Democratic nomination, declaring the party was tired of him and that there were hundreds of Democrats in every political division of the district who would not vote for him. Of course it pleases the SENTINEL to have the Advocate, though unwittingly, help along Mr. Page's cause.

WM. TYLER PAGE.

Mr. Talbott admitted, in his speech at Odd Fellows' Hall, that the country has been prosperous while the Republicans have been in power in the Government, but, in substance, declared that it just happened that way. He displayed sublime indifference to the principle of cause and effect.

The claim of Mr. Talbott that he was the father of the new Navy of the United States rests on a very slender foundation. He endeavored to explain away, in his speech at Odd Fellows' Hall, on Thursday evening, his vote against an appropriation of $2,500,000, for the construction of a number of war vessels, by a cock-and-bull story that the Secretary of the Navy had contracted for them without warrant of law. The true story of his action in the matter will be found in an article on one of the outside pages of the SENTINEL this week.

Hon. James W. Denny, Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fourth district of Maryland, is an honorable exception to Democratic politicians generally, in regard to the estimate he places on the services of President Roosevelt in bringing about a settlement of the miners' strike. In a speech at Hollins Hall, Baltimore, on Thursday evening, he said: "Mr. Roosevelt is a great president. I honor him for the stand he took on the coal question and for refusing to send the Army into the coal fields at the request of the coal barons."

President Roosevelt deserves and is receiving general commendation from the non-partisan press, and from other sources also, for his great service to the people of this country in opening the way to the termination of the miners' strike in the anthracite region of Pennsylvania. He has also won the enthusiastic regard of the miners for his efforts with the operators in their behalf. A procession of 10,000 union miners, at Wilkesbarre, Pa., on Wednesday, carried a banner in the line bearing the inscription: "We honor and respect our Presidents, Roosevelt and Mitchell." It was "Mitchell Day" with the miners and was observed by the union miners throughout the anthracite region. Coupling the name of Roosevelt with that of Mitchell, under the circumstances, indicates that the miners entertain high regard for the former.

Facts thoroughly contradict the assertions made in some Democratic quarters that Mr. Wm. Tyler Page, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, is the product of bossism. Mr. Page has been an officer of the House of Representatives for twenty years, but not by the grace of Maryland Republican congressmen or senators, and not always through Republican influence of any sort. The Democrats, when in full control of the House, for four years in succession, retained his services although they were aware that he had performed efficient work for the Republican party. They called him to Washington by a telegram to take the place he had relinquished, because of his knowledge of and efficiency in the discharge of its duties. Mr. Page, who has an enviable reputation for uprightness and purity of character, declares in the most unequivocal manner that he is "no man's man." He stands upon the vantage ground of thorough personal independence of bossism and faction, and deserves the undivided support of the Republicans of the district.

Ex-President Cleveland does not agree with Col. Wm. Jennings Bryan that the Democrats should not make an effort to control the next U. S. House of Representatives. He is quoted as saying that such control is necessary to the upbuilding of the Democratic party. Republicans know and many Democrats acknowledge that Republican policies are more beneficial to the country than the free trade theories of Mr. Cleveland and the great body of the Democrats who follow his leadership on that subject. Hence it is important that the strenuous effort being made to place the Democrats in control of the House of Representatives of the next Congress should be defeated. The Republicans have the power to do this by polling a large per centage of their vote. There should be no stay-at-homes. The welfare and prosperity of the country rest largely in continued Republican control of the Government. Hence every Republican should realize it to be his duty to attend the election on Tuesday next and cast his ballot for a Republican candidate for Congress. In the Second district of Maryland Mr. Wm. Tyler Page, a good man and true, is the standard-bearer of the party. Republicans! Come out on Tuesday next and give him the solid party vote.

The New York Herald, a newspaper with Democratic proclivities, after a careful inquiry into the probabilities of the coming election throughout the country, predicts that the Republicans will have a small majority in the House of Representatives of the next Congress. The Herald's opinion is about as reliable as any newspaper prediction on the subject can be. The vote will, as is always the case in an "off" year, be light and the party which most fully polls its strength will win. The chances are in favor of the Republicans, or the Herald would not express that opinion. No great revulsion in public sentiment is apparent on any of the issues which divide the Republican and Democratic parties. Being in power the Republicans must bear the responsibility of current events, whether traceable to the course of the party or not. They should, therefore, be credited with the beneficent results accruing from Republican administration, as freely as they may be charged with the responsibility of adverse happenings. As no man can truthfully deny that, under Republican policies, the country is phenomenally prosperous, the reins of government should not be lightly transferred to the hands of a party that has an unenviable record as a prosperity wrecking agent. Taking this view of the case Republican success ought to be fully assured. The country cannot afford to take chances on another Gorman-Wilson tariff bill.

Miss Marion Esterline, of McSherrystown, Pa., aged about 48 years and employed in the F. X. Smith cigar factory, suddenly fell over on the floor in an unconscious condition, on Saturday. She was carried to the residence of Mrs. F. X. Smith, and Drs. A. C. Rice and A. C. Wentz were summoned, who did all in their power to revive the lady, but in spite of all that could be done she expired about 12 o'clock.

The Democrats are evidently very much distressed at the credit being accorded President Roosevelt for his successful efforts to bring the great coal miners' strike to an end. The strike was one of the subjects alluded to by the speakers at the Democratic meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Thursday evening, and they, with common consent, endeavored to belittle the President's part in its termination. They told, as facts, imaginary stories of appeals to the operators upon political grounds, to bring about their consent to arbitrate their differences with the miners before a commission of the President's appointing. Mr. Roosevelt, by his well timed and well directed efforts in the matter, performed a great service for the relief and benefit of the whole people of the ecuntry, and everybody but envious Democratic politicians seems grateful for his action. The miners, for whom these politicians express so much regard, are doing honor to the man who interposed in their behalf with the operators when all other efforts had failed.

Charles E. Fink, Esq., who presided at the Democratic meeting at Odd Fellows' Hall, this city, on Thursday evening, made a ten or fifteen-minute speech in which, among other things, he referred to his own candicacy for the congressional nomination and said, in substance, that it is a cardinal principle of Democracy that the majority shall rule, hence, while not denying his own disappointment in the failure to win, he is giving Mr. Talbott, his opponent in the primaries, his unqualified support as the choice of the party. But there are many Democrats who do not believe that Mr. Talbott was the choice of the majority of the Democrats of the distrct. Mr. Fink is, undoubtedly, a loyal Democrat, and his support of the candidate of his party is not inconsistent with his devotion to its cause, but, we are inclined to think, he is not unaware that he was deprived of the nomination by unfair means, employed by the friends of Mr. Talbott at the primaries in the Baltimore City wards connected with the Second district, and hence must entertain a strong suspicion that those who believe that Mr. Talbott's victory over him was not honestly won, are correct in that opinion.

HOW TO VOTE.

There has been so much written in the way of instruction to voters in marking their tickets that probably the very redundancy of these instructions may be confusing to the average reader. The suggestion of Major Venable, in the article published on an outside page of the SENTINEL this week, that schools of instruction should be established, is a good one, but it is now rather late in the day to attempt to carry it into effect in the country districts before the election. The SENTINEL therefore repea's some simple rules for the guidance of voters, which may be of value to those who are not yet fully informed on the subject.

First, then, the name of the Republican candidate, Wm. Tyler Page, stands second of the three names printed on the official ballot, of which a sample will be found on the fourth page of the SENTINEL this week.

Secondly, to vote for Mr. Page, as we earnestly urge every Republican in the county to do, a cross resembling the letter X must be made in the square to the right of the word REPUBLICAN, which is on the same line and immediately following Mr. Page's name.

Thirdly, this X must be made absolutely inside of the lines of the square. None of its four points must touch any line of the square.

Fourthly, as there is but one office to be filled only one candidate is to be voted for and one X to be made, and that must, as stated, be in the square to the right of the party designation, the word REPUBLICAN, to vote for the Republican candidate.

Fifthly, No other mark than the X placed in the square must be made by the voter anywhere on the ballot. Any such mark in addition to the X, however small, will cause the vote to be rejected.

Sixthly, the mark in the square must be a X. If a circle, a dot, or any other mark than the X he made the ballot will not be counted.

Seventhly, the X must be made with the indelible pencil which the voter will find in the booth. Made by any other kind of pencil will cause the rejection of the ballot.

Eighthly, the ballot must not be torn or defaced in any manner, and must be folded by the voter exactly as it will be when given him by the judge. The initials of the judge who gives it to the voter must be endorsed upon it. The voter should see that this is done before he takes the ticket.

Ninthly, if the voter spoil a ballot by tearing, misfolding, or defacing it, he should return it to the judge and get a second one, and if that, also, should be spoiled he can get a third. But he must not consume more than seven minutes in voting.

Tenthly, the judge who gives the ballot to the voter must call out the voter's name and residence in a voice loud enough to be distinctly audible to everybody in the polling place. The voter should see that this is done, and that the judge who receives the ballot from the voter tears off the coupon and deposits the ballot in the ballot box.

The best way, however, for a voter who is not clear in his mind as to the proper method of voting, is to get some one who is, to show him on a sample ballot exactly what is to be done to make certain that his vote will be counted.

George Hemler fell dead at Mr. Heltzel's, in Bonneauville, Pa., on Monday afternoon, October 20th, aged about 78 years. He suffered with disease of the heart, which caused his death.

The Strike Commissioners are making a tour of the mining region of Pennsylvania and investigating the grievances which led to the protracted idleness of the miners.

Every Republican voter in the county should keep in mind the date of the election for Congressman in this district, and be on hand and cast his ballot for Mr. Wm. Tyler Page on that day. The election will be held Tuesday, November 4th, between the hours of 8 A. M., and 6 P. M. Consult the notice published by the Supervisors of Election, in another column of the Sentinel, naming the location of the polling places in each district and precinct of the county.

THE PARTY HAD LITTLE TO SAY.

That's what the Advocate says about the result of the Democratic congressional primaries in Baltimore county. Read the following:

From the Baltimore County Democrat.

The candidacy of Mr. Talbott should, therefore, appeal to the Democracy of the district, as he is the choice of the organization in this county.

From the Democratic Advocate, August 16th, 1902.

That is what is objected to—he is the choice of the organization—a machine built up and dominated by Mr. Talbott, and the party had very little to say in the matter. The Democrat will not deny that there are hundreds of Democrats in the county opposed to Mr. Talbott and will not vote for him, and the same condition exists all over the district. In 1899 Governor Smith carried that part of Baltimore county then in the second congressional district by 1550 majority, and the next year Mr. Talbott had but 341, less than one-fourth. In 1901 Comptroller Hering carried the county by 1141. These figures show Mr. Talbott's popularity at home, and he is weaker today in Baltimore county and all over the district, than two years ago. These facts will not be disputed by any one familiar with public sentiment in the party, and we ask, then, what is the sense in endeavoring to force upon the party a man who cannot poll the party vote—a man that the party has tired of!

Sarah, a young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pius Gouker, of Mountjoy township, Adams county, Pa., met with a fatal accident Monday morning. The child was playing with a stick at the fire in the kitchen stove; a fragment of burning wood set fire to her clothing, and before the parents arrived in answer to the calls for help of a little brother of the child, nearly all the clothing had been burned off its body. The child suffererd terribly during Monday and on Tuesday morning about 8 o'clock death came to its relief. It was 18 months old.

Peter J. Mayberry, of Washington county, foreman of laborers in the appraisers' office, Baltimore, died on Monday last and his remains were taken to Hagerstown for interment. Collector Stone has nominated Mr. George W. Fisher, an old soldier, for reinstatement as the successor of the deceased. Mr. Mayberry was an ex-member of the House of Delegates and ex-sheriff of Washington county.

A VIOLENT ATTACK OF CROUP CURED.

"Last winter an infant child of mine had croup in a violent form," says Elder John W. Rogers, a Christian Evangelist, of Pilley, Mo. "I gave her a few doses of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and in a short time all danger was past and the child recovered." This remedy not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the first symptoms appear, will prevent the attack. It contains no opium or other harmful substance and may be given as confidently to a baby as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

The annual chicken supper and fair will be held during Thanksgiving week in the hall at Frizellburg. An elegant supper will be served on Thursday evening for 10 and 15 cents. Specimens of handwork will be on exhibition to be sold. Everybody is invited.

JUMPED ON A TEN PENNY NAIL.

The little daughter of Mr. J. N. Powell jumped on an inverted rake made of ten penny nails, and thrust one nail entirely through her foot and a second one half way through. Chamberlain's Pain Balm was promptly applied and five minutes later the pain had disappeared and no more suffering was experienced. In three days the child was wearing her shoe as usual and with absolutely no discomfort. Mr. Powell is a well known merchant of Forkland, Va. Pain Balm is an antiseptic and heals such injuries without maturation and in one-third the time required by the usual treatment. For sale by all druggists.

OYSTER SUPPER.—Washington Camp No. 20, P. O. S. of A., will hold their annual Oyster Supper in their hall at Gist, on Thursday and Friday nights, Nov. 13th and 14th, commencing at 6 o'clock. All invited to attend.

CLOTHING.

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH OR YOUR MONEY BACK IS OUR RULE.

And we appoint you to be the sole judge. Buy a suit or an overcoat here and take it home—let your friends see it—compare it with anything to be bought at the same price anywhere in America—and take your time about it. If you can equal or surpass our garment within a week's time—bring it back, and without question we will refund the purchase price.

And this offer is not a new one here—it has been in for cenow for years, and many a garment we have so redeemed. Other stores sell good clothing as well as we do, and at times you may like some other store's goods better than ours. That can't be helped, try as we may. If you buy here you take no chances, and your afterthought will be still in time, but can you say that much of the other stores you bought clothing of heretofore?

FOR SATURDAY

a brilliant list of special values, intended to attract your attention by sheer force of merit, and we dare say you'll hunt a long while to equal it or any part of it in this city or elsewhere.
