SUBLIMITY AND VARIETY OF THE BIBLE.—The true reason why some literary men disbelieve the Bible is the one given by Dr Johnson:—"Because they are ignorant of its contents." And the same may be the reason why so many readers fail even to read this "book divine." Mrs. Ellis, in her "Poetry of Life," has well said:—

"With our established ideas of beauty, grace, pathos and sublimity, either concentrated in the minutest point, or extended to the widest range, we can derive from the scriptures a kind of gratification not to be found in any other memorial of the past or present time. From the worm that crawls in the dust, to the leviathan the roaming deep—from the moth that corrupts the secret treasure, to the eagle that soars above the clouds—from the wild beasts of the desert, to the lamb within the shepherd's fold—from the consuming locusts, to the cattle on a thousand hills—from the rose of Sharon to the cedar of Lebanon—from the clear crystal stream, gushing from the flinty rock, to the wide waters of the deluge—from the barren waste to the fruitful vineyard, and the land flowing with milk and honey—from the lonely path of the wanderer, to the gathering of a mighty multitude—from the tear that falls in secret, to the din of battle and the shout of a triumphant host—from the cottage to the throne—from the mourner clad in sackcloth, to the prince in his purple robes—from the gnawing of the worm that dieth not, to the seraphic vision of the blessed—from the still small voice, to the thunders of Omnipotence—from the depths of hell to the regions of eternal glory—there is no degree of beauty or deformity, no tendency to good or evil, no shade of darkness or gleam of light, that does not come within the cognizance of the Holy Scriptures, and therefore there is no expression or conception of the mind that may not here find a corresponding picture; no thirst for excellence that may not meet with its full supply; and no condition of humanity excluded from the unlimited scope of adaption and sympathy comprehended in the language and spirit of the Bible."

DAMAGES FOR INJURIES.—At Boston, Friday, Henry Gurney obtained damages in $1 400 of Hollis, Thayer & Co., for injuries, confining him to the house for two months, received by being struck with a cotton bale thrown from their stairs. A man had been stationed to warn passengers of the cry was given too late.

GREAT AGRICULTURAL YIELD.—Capt. Cook has raised this season, on his farm at Clinton Place, (near Newark, New Jersey,) 603 bushels of white or Belgium carrots to the acre; an amount of produce probably never exceeded in that climate.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE GREAT RIVER.—The State of Missouri is about to construct a levee along the west bank of the Mississippi from New Madrid to the State line of Arkansas, a distance of fifty-four miles.

ARKANSAS U. S. SENATOR.—Eight ballots had been had in the Arkansas Legislature for U. States Senator without effecting an election. The chances were in favor of Seiver. Borland was his competitor.

☞The Cincinatti papers of the 23 in. caution the citizens against taking notes of the Sandusky Bank, in the belief that they are unsound.

GREAT SLAUGHER.—Nine hundred hogs were killed at one establishment in Cincinnati a few days since, in the afternooc.

CASH MISSING.—On Saturday last, the Agent of the Atlas Bank, in Boston, overhauled some unknown individual $590

SALT RIVER SONG.

TUNE—"Rosin the Bow."

The steamer is now about starting,
Away up Salt River she goes,
So you had better get ready for parting,
You pap-feed and bloated Locos

Gen'ral Cass, who is her Commander,
Once "struck on a stump," it is true,
But then there can never be danger,
When Polk is along with his crew.

A snug craft I'm sure you will find her,
Her timbers substantial and strong,
And Ritchie, the great organ-grinder,
Will cheer you while gliding along.

"Pet Butler" will tend to the dishes,
And serve up the delicate fare,
And if you split open your breeches,
Old Marcy will pay for the tear.

This steamer is truly a beauty,
Made "to order," over the sea,
She's paid not a copper of duty,
Sir robbert imported her free.

The river is said to be shoaly,
The channel not easy to find,
And she must move onward quite slowly
With the "Baltimore platform" behind.

But if when you're weary with pushing,
His face a vile Mexican shows,
You can call for your Pillow and Cushing,
And rest without caring for foes.

Or, ever your engine stops puffing,
And you wish to start up a breeze,
You must get John Calhoun to snuffing,
And South caralina will sneeze.

Ye who have liv'd in Uncle Sam's nest,
Be careful to do "nothing rash,"
Though from office you go by request,
Remember to leave all the cash.

Come, Whigs, then, let us bid them adieu,
And pray they may never come back,
Or whilst the stesmer's receding from view,
Shout loud and long for OLD ZACK.

ANOTHER PHYSICIAN'S TESTIMONY.

Mr. Fowle—Dear Sir: I could send you a dozen certificates, strong and decisive, of the really sanative effects of your valuable Balsam of Wild Cherry, within the past twelve months, under my own supervision and direction. Indeed, I know of few persons who have used it, comparatively, but commend it in the strongest terms. A case of Asthma, the severest I ever saw, to which I was called a month ago, evinced the superiority of the Balsam. The disease had lasted six weeks, and the dyspnœa and suffering were dreadful; he sat up every night. The gentleman told me to give him something to last him home, (21 miles,) so that he might see his wife and child, and die in peace! I gave him one bottle of the Balsam, and four ounces syrup squills, directing him to take tea-spoonful doses of the best Bordeaux olive oil, when the difficulty of breathing was greatest. Next day I forced his despondent will, and made him take six bottles of the Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry home with him as a present, he having alleged that he had used so much expensive medicine to no profit. Last week Mr. A. called and expressed his gratitude to me in the warmest manner, said the medicine had saved his life, paid his whole bill, and took six bottles more, and left my office for home, rejoicing.

GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK,

For 1849.

DEDICATED TO THE LADIES OF THE UNITED STAES.

Edited by SARAH J. HALE.
GRACE GREENWOOD,
and L. A. GODEY.

A Novelotte by MISS E. LESLIE, who contributes to every No.

N. P. WILEIS' Original Scriptural Poetry.

T. S. ARTHUR, who contributes to every No., illustrative of Croome's Sketches of American Character.

We intend merely to give a notice of our intentions for next year, leaving to others long advertisements—"full of sound and fury, signifying nothing"

Agreeably to the practice of last year the publisher will issue as good a number each month as he does in January. This is a novel feature in Magazine publishing. During the whole of last year he gave more engravings and more reading matter than any of his contemporaries, and will continue to do so next year. Those who subscribe to GODEY'S LADY'S BOOK, may do so under the assurance that they will receive more for their money in the Magizine alone, than by subscribing to any other work. To this is added and included in the same $3, the LADY'S DOLLAR NEWSPAPER, which contains in one month nearly, if not quite as much reading matter as the other monthlies, making for $3, the amount of reading of two magazines a month, There are peculiarities about Godey's Lady's Book for the ladies that no other Magazine possesses. There is a Mezzotint and Line Engraving in each number—both by the best artists. In adption to these there are given monthly which no other magazine gives—a Colored Fashion Plate, with a full description. This feature is peculiar to Godey, as no other work has them every month and colored. Then there are Caps, Bonnets, Chemisettes, Equestrism for Ladies, with Engravings. The Ladies' Work Table, with designs for knitting, netting, crotchet, and all other kinds of work. Patterns for Smoking Caps, Chair Covers, Window Curtains, D'Oyley's Purses, Bags, &c., &c. Health and Beauty with Engravings. Model Cottages, with ground plants, and other engravings, nlways illustrative of something useful. Music, beautifully printed on tinted paper which may be taken out and bound Collored Nodern Cottages, and Collored Flower Pieces occasionally.—These are all extra in Godey, and to be found in no other Magazine. These were all given last year, and will be continued, in addition, we shall have in every No., one of

"CROOME'S SKETCHES OF AMERICAN CHARACTERISTICS."

A most amusing series, now first given to the American public These will be illustrated in every No, by a Story from the powerful pen of T. S. Arthur Esq.

"THE CHANGES OF FASHION,"

Illustrated by Fay Robinson, Esq. This series will be very interesting to the ladies.

"THE APPLICABILITY OF THE FINE ARTS TO DOMESTIC USES,"

Is another series of Engravings now in preparation, and will be published during the year.

COTTAGE FURNITURE.

Having given so many Model Cottages, we intend now to commence the publication of Cottage Furniture—a very necessary appendage to a Cottage.

RELIGION AND HISTORY.

Our Superior Artists, Walters, Tucker, Pease and Welch, are now engaged upon a set of plates illustative of these two subjects.

OUR MUSIC.

Prepared expressly for us—mostly original, and beautifully printed, has long commanded a decided preference over that of any other Magazine. It is a feature in The Book.

THE LITERARY CHARACTER OF GODEY'S LADY BOOK.

With such writers as Miss Leslie, Grace Greenwood, W. G. Simms, Mrs. Ellet. T. S Arthur, Mrs. E Oakes Smith, Mrs. J. C. Neal, H. T. Tuckerman, H. W. Herbert, &c., the author of the Widow Bedott, Professor Frost, Bryant, Longfellow, Holmes—and a host of others—must always take the lead in literary merits

That daily fresh ablution, that shall clear

The body sacred from indecent soil.
Still to be pure, even if it did not conduce

FEVER AND AGUE!!!
THOROUGHLY ERADICATED
By Rowands Tonic Mixture!!!

THIS great National, Old Favorite, and Sterling Remedy! of eighteen years' standing—still unapproached in its wonder success, certainity, and safety, in the cure of this wretched complaint!!

☞If you would escape the arsenical (poisonous) counterfeits take not a bottle from any one, that is not guarded by the "written signature" of the original inventor and proprietor John R. Rowand, on a paper label, crossing the mouth and cork.

This remedy has never been bolstered up by the false and deceitful puffs, but has won its way to the confidence and universal adoption of the inhabitants of Fever and Ague districts, by its good works and fruits alone, to which all the agents, and every person who have used it, will testify
