MEMORIAL DAY SERVICES OF IMPRESSIVE CHARACTER

Services In the Churches in Morning. Parade to Cemetery by Veterans and School Children Headed by Boy Band. Program in Armory.

SEVERAL STIRRING ADDRESSES MADE

Although the weather was threatening, and the sky was overcast with clouds all day, the services of Memorial Day, May 30th, were of a most impressive character, made doubly so, by the long row of black draped chairs, which included not only the names of seven of Burns Post, who have answered the last roll call since May 30, 1917, but because three of the chairs bore the names of the boys of today, who enlisted in the cause of humanity, and for whom "Taps," have already been sounded, and who rest with the gallant men of other wars beneath the flag marked mounds in our cemetery.

Those who have died during the year, and for whom chairs were placed, draped in black bearing their names, and crowned with flowers, were from Burns Post No. 13 G. A. R. Comrades, George W. Armacost, Co. A. 6th Md. Regt.; Oliver Beaver, Co. F. 13th Md. Regt.; Lewis Ditman, Co. E. 4th Md. Regt.; Jacob H. Hutting Co. G. 1st Md. Regt.; Capt O. H. P. Matthias, Co. A. 6th Md. Regt.; John M. Reese, Co. B. 3rd. Md. Regt. & Paul Yingling, Co. H. Cole's Cavalry, U. S. A. Also Lt. Col. C. C. Billingslea, U. S. A. Private Paul Little, Co. C. 112th Machine Gun Battalion, U. S. A. and James Yingling, U. S. Navy.

In accordance with the proclamation of the President, the morning was observed by services of prayer in all the churches, which were well attended, as were the services at the Armory, where an immense crowd, many of them standing, remained until the close of the program.

As usual, the children of the town, representing the schools, assembled at the High School, where they were met by Miss Mary B. Shelman who, with the assistance of Mrs. Estella Kuhn and Miss Lillian Shipley soon had the children in line—each carrying a bunch of flowers and a flag.

Headed by the Boy Scout Band with their leader, Prof. Charles Peitz, they marched to the cemetery, leading the few veterans of Burn's Post who were able to march, and who, with the Boy Scouts proudly acting as their escort, marched to the cemetery, where a short, simple service was held and the children assisted in placing flowers on every soldier's grave.

Truly may it be said—
"To honor the Past, O Nation,
To the Future to be true—
The longer line of the children
Leads the shorter line of the Blue."

On account of the inability of any one of the veterans to carry the flag, the beautiful silk flag of Burns Post, now beginning to show signs of age, was proudly carried by Scout Terry Crawford Troop No. 2.

On the return march from the cemetery to the armory, Miss Mary B. Shelman, who, with active Commander, John H. Mitten, of Burn's Post, are the only surviving members of those who took an active part in the first Memorial Service, and Mr. W. E. Matthews, of Sellersville, Pa., a son of a veteran, and who has attended every service for twenty six years, acted as color guard and walked on either side of the old flag.

At the armory, where the stage had been appropriately arranged by Miss Shelman, Mrs. Lizzie Zahn and Capt. John N. Weigle, an immense crowd had essembled, and the following program was carried out:

Part I

[illegible] Fetrick, pastor of Grace [illegible] church presiding, Music [illegible] Band; singing, "The Star Spangled Banner," Choir and audience; prayer, Rev. E. T. Mowbray, pastor Centenary M. E. Church; Lincoln's Gettysburg address by Richard C. Phillips, Western Maryland College.

Steele, Esq; singing, "America"; Benediction, Rev. W. H. Hetrick, pastor Grace Lutheran Church.

To all who took part in the program, especial thanks are due. The singing under the splendid leadership of Mrs. H. M. Kimmey with the large choir of well trained voices, added much to the enjoyment of the occasion; the earnest prayers of Rev. E. T. Mowbray; the masterly rendition of Lincoln's immortal address by Mr. Phillips; the impressive reading of Mrs. S. K. Herr, and the splendid, enthusiastic address of Rev. Chalmers Walck, ringing with patriotism and filling every heart in that vast audience with renewed loyalty and love for our country, followed by the stirring appeal of Guy W. Steele, Esq., to uphold the hands of the Red Cross in every way possible, made a deep impression upon all who were fortunate enough to hear it.

Thanks are also due to Mr. Arthur Stonesifer for his generous offer of of the Opera House in which to hold the services; to Capt. John N. Weigle for securing the use of the larger building, "The Armory", to the Boy Scout Band and Boy Scouts, for their patriotic and willing assistance; to "The Sentinel" for printing; to the Firemen for use of chairs; to Messrs. Erb and Heltibridle for hauling them, and to all the children, ladies and gentlemen who so kindly assisted in any way in making Memorial Day, 1918, a memorable and successful one.

MD. COUNCIL OF DEFENSE NOTE

Special Attention Given To "Children's Year." Urgent Appeal For Help In The W. S. S. Drive

What are you doing for the children of your community? The European war has given new emphasis to the importance of the child as a primary national asset. This has been designated "Children's Year" by the National Government. Of more than 200,000 applicants for enlistment in the regular army from 1914 to 1917, seventy-eight out of every hundred were rejected because of physical unfitness. When we come to analyze the reasons for rejecting these young men we find that practically seventy per cent of the defects or diseases which have made them unfit were easily preventable, that the majority of them had existed from childhood and could and should have been prevented then.

In the United States, twenty-eight babies die every hour. The time for us to save our children is before, not after, they are ill. We must prevent diseases by removing their causes, we must all pull together to give the children the best opportunities. Under the direction of the United States Children's Bureau execution of the wartime child-welfare program has been intrusted to the Woman's Committee of the Council of National Defense and its nationwide organization of women's social forces. The Carroll County Committee is taking up this important work, and at a conference of District Leaders at Headquarters in Westminster on the 7th, the plans for carrying out an effective program to reduce the County's infant mortality will be worked out. At two o clock the same day, a big meeting will be held at the Armory. Mrs. Austin McLanahan, State Chairman of the Child-Welfare Section of the Council of Defense, and Dr. Mary Willis, of Baltimore, will make addresses, after which moving pictures, urging the conservation and protection of children, will be shown. What can you do to help save the babies? Some people say it can't be helped, but it can—England has proven this, for the English went to work and in war they have reduced their infant mortality rate to the lowest point in the nation's history. How can we help? The Government wants all the children weighed and measured. If your child is strudy and healthy; if he is delicate, you will be glad to find it out and use methods to make him strong. A drive will be made all through the County to get the weight and measurement of the 7000 children under six years of age in Carroll County. Every patriotic mother can help by weighing and measuring her child herself, or co-operating with the members of the Committee when they come to her home.

The Women's Committee, in the W. S. S. campaign, has been working hard to help get Carroll's quota of $679,000. They have been making a house to house canvass throughout the County. It is hoped the people will take an interest in this and come forward with their subscribtions.

TIMONIUM DATES SET

The Timonium Fair will be held September 2 to 7, inclusive, it was decided at a meeting Saturday, June 1, of the board of managers of the Maryland State Fair Association and Agricultural Society, under whose auspices the fair is held yearly.

THE WAR AT OUR DOOR

5 Steamers and 8 Schooners Sunk by German U-Boats Off Atlantic Coast During Week

During the past week German U-boats visited the Atlantic Coast, planted mines, torpedoed a large number of merchant and passenger ships and threw a fright into all shipping along the coast from Maine to Florida, the New Jersey, Maryland and Virginia shores being apparently a favored spot for their activity. The list of vessels sunk is as follows:

Steamer Carolina, 8,000 tons, New York and Porto Rico line, sunk off Sandy Hook Sunday, Sixteen of the passengers dropped off one by one from a motorboat in a storm and drowned. All the rest were saved.

Steamer Texel, of 3,210 gross tons, sunk by bombs 60 miles off the Jersey Coast Sunday.

Schooner Jacob M. Haskell, of Boston, sunk by shell fire Sunday off Barnegat, N. J.

Schooner Edward H. Cole, of Boston, sunk by bombs 50 miles off Barnegat Sunday.

Tanker Herbert L. Pratt, of Philadelphia, sunk off Cape Henlopen Sunday.

Schoooner Isabel B. Wiley, of Bath, Me., sunk Sunday off Barnegat.

Schooner Edna, of Machias, picked up as a derelict off Cape May, N. J., May 26.

Schooner Hattie Dunn, of Thomaston, Me., destroyed as a derelict, May 29, off Winter Quarter Shoal Lightship.

Schooner Hauppauge, of New York, sunk 25 miles off Barnegat May 28.

Steamship Winnecone, sunk off Cape May, May 26.

Schooner Edward Baird, Sunk June 4

Morwegian steamship Eidsvlod, 40 miles off the Virginia capes. One unknown Schooner.

The Carolina of the New York and Porto Rica line carried a large number of passengers, many of whom were drowned. One lady kept afloat on the body of her dead lover.

The Navy Department has a large number of vessels scouring the coast and within a short while will capture and destroy the enemy boats.

In fear of an air raid New York City has become dark after night.

The visit of the U-boats has stimulated enlistment in the Navy and has brought many of our people to a realization of what this war means.
