WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

SATURDAY, JANUARY 3, 1903.

Reports of social events, news letters &c., so crowd the columns of the SENTINEL this week that the editor is left but a line or two in which to extend to its patrons the compliments of the season and to wish them, one and all, a happy and prosperous future.

While details of the arbitration of the disputed questions between England and Germany and Venezuela have not been yet arranged, there is a fair prospects that all obstacles will be removed and the matter submitted to the Hague Convention for adjustment.

THE WESTMINSTER WATER QUESTION.

Monday, 5th inst., is the date limited by the original order of the Circuit Court for this county for the Mayor and Common Council of this city to file their answer to the petition of the Westminster Water Company, praying the court to issue its writ of mandamus to compel them to levy the tax of 5 cents on $100 on the valuation of assessable property within the limits of the corporation, for the benefit of said company under the contract claimed to have been annulled by the city ordinance passed in October. It is possible, however, that the time set for filing said answer may be extended.

Since the petition for mandamus was filed and the order limiting the date of answer passed, another proceeding in connection with the same subject has been instituted, Mr. Fred. D. Miller, for himself and other taxpayers, having filed a bill for an injunction to restrain the Mayor and Common Council from making a contract with the Citizens' Water and Power Company to supply water for the purposes for which it has heretofore been furnished by the Westminster Water Company. In this case the date limited to answer was also fixed for the 5th inst.

These proceedings are, of course, of great interest to citizens of Westminster. The questions at issue are purely of a legal nature and must be determined by the courts. Without doubt they will be referred to the Court of Appeals for final adjucation. If the Mayor and Council shall be able to maintain their contention and sustain the validity of the ordinance annulling the contract with the Westminster Water Company and to consummate a contract with the Citizens' Water and Power Company upon the agreement already made with that corporation, it will mean a saving of $300 to $400 per annum on the cost of the water supply. If otherwise the city will without doubt be required to pay the cost of the legal proceedings in the premises. At any rate it would seem to be desirable that the question of the legal validity of the city's contract with the Westminster Water Company should be forever quieted by the decision of the highest judicial tribunal in the State. It has been called in question by the lawful authorities of the city and should be set at rest, one way or the other, by the opinion of the Court of Appeals. The taxpayers will probably, as a general rule, not demur to paying the expenses of the test. If left undecided it might be a constant source of irritation and unprofitable discussion. When passed upon by the Court of Appeals it will be everybody's duty to accept the judgment of that tribunal as a final disposition of the subject.

Tonnage of W. Md. Railroad.

The freight received in Baltimore over the Western Maryland Railroad, during the year 1902, was as follows:

Coal A, tons	40,059
Coal B, tons	14,715
Ores, tons	112
Lumber, tons	1,650
Grain and feed, tons	23,540
Miscellaneous, tons	47,382
Lime, tons	7,009
Wood, tons	1,007
Live stock, tons	8,107
Fertilizer, tons	58
Flour, barrels	66,031
Cotton, bales	6,105

ADDITIONAL LOCAL.

Mr. Oliver Blizzard, near Hampstead, accidently cut himself in the leg with an axe, one day last week, inflicting a wound which, it is feared, may prevent the full use of the limb in the future.

Harry C. Jones, Jr., son of Mr. Harry C. Jones, East Main street, this city, while coasting on Fair Ground Hill, yesterday morning, was thrown from his sled and sustained a fracture of his left leg. The fracture was adjusted by Dr. M. L. Bott.

Miss Anna E. Shriver, of this city, entertained a few friends at a progressive euchre party, at her home on East Green street, on Thursday evening. The ladies' first prize was won by Miss Elsie Albert, and the gentlemen's first prize by Mr. J. Albert Mitten. Refreshments were served in abundance.

Personal.

Miss Lillie Bennett, of Seven Stars, Pa., is visiting her sister, Mrs. P. J. Shriver, at Berrett.

Miss Ella Mathias, of Baltimore, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Grumbine, of this city, this week.

Mr. John Clayton Cassell, of Philadelphia, spent the New Year holidays with his brothers in this city.

Mr. Jesse H. Mitten, of Greencastle, Pa., visited his mother, Mrs. William Mitten, of this city, this week.

Miss Myrle Malehorn, of Baltimore, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Malehorn, of this city.

Rev. and Mrs. R. W. Doty, of this city, spent the week at the homes of their parents in Frederick county.

A marriage license has been issued by the clerk of the Court of Common Pleas of Baltimore, to Mr. Ephraim J. Reese, of Baltimore, and Miss Mary S. Repp, of Union Bridge. The groom is a son of Mr. Lewis T. Reese, near Union Bridge.

Mayberry Items.

Mr. Uriah Yingling, an aged and well known retired farmer of this village, died on last Monday evening at 5 o'clock, after much suffering, of nine weeks duration, from gangrene. About 13 years ago he received a dislocation and fracture of his large toe, which was amputated, but which has caused him more or less trouble ever since. About nine weeks ago the pain became greater than ever before, and at his advanced age another amputation was considered useless. He was born and raised near Manchester after which he became a resident of this locality. He belonged to the Church of God at this place and attended it regularly for over a period of 50 years. Consequently he will be very much missed by the church as well as the entire community. Politically he was a Republican. Interment took place on Thursday morning at the church at this place. The funeral was very largely attended. Revs. L. F. Murry of this place; Tyler, of Carrollton, and Bowersox, of Uniontown, officiated. He is survived by a widow and six children, namely, Mrs. Wm. Stonesifer of Harrisburg, Pa.; Mrs. John Humbert, of Middleburg; Mrs. Jacob Marker, Edward, Grant and James Yingling, all of Mayberry. His age was 75 years, 1 month, 16 days.

Protracted services, which began on last Sunday evening, are being largely attended, and will be continued for several weeks.

Uniontown Items.

The public school of Uniontown has been very highly complimented by receiving, over the W. M. R. R., a box containing a complete set of the "Britannica Encyclopedia." The school appreciates the gift very much, and only regret they do not know to whom their thanks are due for the generous action.

On Tuesday Mr. John Hamburg received a letter from a nephew stating that his brother, George Hamburg, was dead. Enclosed in the letter was the appended item from a newspaper. "Clinton G. Hamburg died last evening, Dec. 12th, at his home in Bismarcke, aged 61 years. He was a veteran of the Civil War and was a member of an Eastern post of the G. A. R. He was a native of Uniontown, Carroll county, Md., and had lived in Tacoma for thy past fourteen years, having latterle been janitor of the Sheridan School. Besides his widow, four sons survive him—Samuel, Charles and Claude, living in Tacoma, and Morris Hamburg, residing in California. Also three sisters and a brother—Mrs. John Wagoner, of Iowa; Mrs. Amy, near Baltimore, Mrs. Joseph Dingle and Mr. John Hamburg, of Uniontown."

Dr. and Mrs. Luther Kemp attended the family reunion at Mrs. Kemp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Weant, at Double Pipe Creek, on Christmas day.

Mrs. Anna Diehl Brumbaugh and children, of New York, visited Mrs. B's. father, Mr. Daniel Diehl, at Evergreen Lawn during the holidays.

Mrs. Cummings and son, who were on a visit to Mrs. C's. parents, have returned home, accompanied by her sister, Miss Minnie Mathias, to Tilghman's, Md.

Dr. J. Newton Gilbert, of Annapolis, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Gilbert, from Saturday until Monday.

Mrs. Mary McAlister Davison, of Baltimore county, and sister, Miss Gertrude McAlister, of Baltimore, are visiting at their father, Mr. Scott McAlister's.

On Sunday Dr. and Mrs. Luther Kemp were entertained at a family reunion and dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Shorb, at Double Pipe Creek.

Miss Hildah Perry, of Union Bridge, is visiting her sister, Mrs. John Heck, and family.

Mr. Thomas Haines has secured a situation in the W. Md. R. R. shops at Union Bridge and will enter upon his duties Jan. 1, 1903.

Miss Sallie Yingling and Elmer Yingling, of Baltimore, are visitors at Miss Y's. sister, Mrs. Luther Francis Eckard's.

Mr. and Mrs. Gover Routson, of Buckingham School, Frederick county, during the past week visited Mrs. R's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Kelley and family.

Mrs. Jesse Nusbaum, of Manchester, is visiting her brother, Mr. John Holenbury, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hiltebidle and family, of Dakota, and Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Hiltebidle and family, of Iowa, were guests of their brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hiltebidle and other friends during the week.

On Christmas Day Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Rodkey, by special invitation, entertained their brothers and sisters and a few relatives, serving them with a dinner in keeping with the holiday season, followed later in the day by refreshments of cake, fruits, confections, nuts, &c., served in first class style. The occasion was a long to be remembered one, on account of the very unexpected pleasure added by the reunion of Mrs. Rodkey and two brothers from the West, who were present, after an absence of twenty-five years. Smiles, tears of joy and happy exchange of greetings added much to their pleasure and reunion. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. John W. Hiltebidle and daughter, Pearl Hiltebidle, of Miller, South Dakota; Rev. and Mrs. E. E. Hiltebidle, sons Alva and Harry Hiltebidle, of Concord, Iowa; Mrs. Katharine Hyder, of Emmittsburg; Mr. Jacob Rodkey, Mr. and Mrs. William Rodkey, Mrs. Willet, Miss Ida Hesson, of Mayberry; Mr. Levi D. Reid and wife, Mr. J. William Hull, wife, son and daughter, David and Margaret Hull, of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Grant Hiltebidle, of New Windsor; Dr. and Mrs. David Hoff, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Hiltebidle, Mr. John C. Hollenberry and wife, Misses Romain and Anna G. Hollenberry, Mrs. George Trite, Miss Ruby Rodkey, of Uniontown; Mr. Clotworthy Rodkey, of Baltimore.

On Tuesday Mrs. Hannah Dotterer gave a dinner to her sisters, brothers and families. Those present were: Mrs. Lavina Senseney, their mother; Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Senseney and family, Mr. and Mrs. Silas Senseney and family, of Union Bridge; Mr. and Mrs. John Roop and family, Mr. and Mrs. Will Roop and family, of Westminster; Mrs. Phoebe Repp and family, of Johnsville; Miss Edna Repp, of Ladiesburg; Mr. and Mrs. Uriah Zentz, Mr. and Mrs. Morrison D. Smith, Miss Clara Dotterer, of Woodside. Mrs. Jennie McKinstry and Mrs. Agnes Simmons and son, of Union Bridge, called on the family during the day.

The Christmas services held in our three churches were of a very entertaining character, and were well attended. All those having special parts rendered them well. Each pastor was the recipient of a money gift.

Prof. Norman Eckard, principal of Brooklyn High School, near Baltimore, spent his holiday vacation with his mother, Mrs. Ann Eckard and sister.

Mr. Clinton Routson and wife, Messrs. Maurice Routson and Harry Routson, of Baltimore, were guests of their mother, Mrs. Missouri Smith Routson, during the week. Also, Mr. Ezra Smith, of Chambersburg, Pa., a brother of Mrs. Routson.
