When not much building is being done, the cost of construction rises because the builders have to loaf so much of the time, and when a lot of building is being done, then the cost rises because the builders can get it.

THREE MEN INJURED WHEN CAR TURNS OVER

On Tuesday afternoon a Ford car in which three men from Baltimore were riding turned over on Pennsylvania avenue, this city, north of Union street and all of the occupants were injured, one pretty severely. Messrs. Jesse Lee Powder, John E. Yingling and Norman Hunter were coming South in a Ford car and had stopped at Mr. Yingling's home on the east side of the avenue, to let him out when Mr. Powder, who was driving saw the a Ford car coming up the avenue going north. He waived his hand as a signal that he was going to turn to the left and go South when, suddenly, the Ford car contaiating the three men from Baltimore, who it appears were on their way to Harrisburg, Pa., swerved sharply to the left and turned over twice, pinning all three occupants under it.

The injured men were taken to the office of Dr. L. K. Woodward where their wounds were dressed, after which they were taken to Baltimore by Mr. George N. Hunter and Mr. Powder.

"THE END OF THE ROAD"

This extaordinary motion picture was prepared by the War Department Commission on Training Camp activities as a part of the Social Hygiene campaign of the United States Government. It handles certain social and sex problems in their relation to women with a frank treatment which is a direct consequence of an attitude engendered by the war. The film is intended to stimulate and strengthen the efforts being made to teach the womanhood and girlhood of the country the vital need of right social adjustment.

The production is in seven reels each filled with human interest and the pictures are most graphically done. Realism of the most striking sort is used.

Richard Bennett, one of the best known actors of the country plays a leading role. The story was conceived by Dr. Katherine Bement Davis, former commissioner of correction in New York City and now director of the section on Women's work of the Social Hygiene division and was scenerized in collaboration with Edward H. Griffith who produced it under the supervision of the surgeon-general of the Army.

This wonderful picture "The End of the Road" will be shown at the "Star", Westminster, Tuesday, July 8th at 3.30 7.30 and 9.00 P. M. under the auspices of the Women's League and Carroll County Chapter A. R. C.

Soldier Sons of Maryland!

(Song to the returning soldier sons of Maryland. To be sung to the tune of "Maryland, My Maryland.")
By Louis M. Grice.

Hurrah! Our heroes brave return!
Soldier sons of Maryland!
Behold the home fires brightly burn,
Welcome! sons of Maryland!
Although the road was rough and long,
Ye marched with ringing battle-song
To fight and triumph over wrong,
Valiant sons of Maryland!

An eager throng now waits to greet
Gallant sons of Maryland,
Who challenged death, but shunned defeat-
Fearless sons of Maryland!
The victor's crowning wreath of bay
Upon each brow we'll proudly lay,
While for the joys of peace we pray,
Valiant sons of Maryland!

In France ye stood on battered fields.
Loyal sons of Maryland,
And formed a line of living shields,
Worthy sons of Maryland;
When to the battle charge ye leapt,
The Prussian hordes were backward swept,
'Twas thus the faith ye bravely kept.
Valiant sons of Maryland!

And those who sleep in some green spot-
Sacred sons of Maryland-
By us shall never be forgot-
Honored sons of Maryland:
Our thoughts shall never cease to flow
Toward the crosses, row on row,
Where larks still sing and poppies grow
O'er the sons of Maryland.

MR. GARY OUT OF GOVERNOR'S RACE

Withdraws as Republican Candidate

AVOIDS A PRIMARY FIGHT

James A. Gary, Jr., yesterday announced his withdrawal as a candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor. He declared in a prepared statement that he was anxious to avoid a primary fight in his party and that he would not permit his personal ambition to jeopardize party success. Mr. Gary's statement follows:

Shortly after the mayoralty election, urged by many of my friends and party leaders, I announced my candidacy for the Republican nomination for Governor.

Since that time and after conferring with leaders through the state, and while I believe I could secure the nomination, I cannot in all probability get it without a primary fight, which would materially reduce the chances of a Republican victory in November, I am convinced that it will be best for the welfare of the party for me to withdraw. I have never and will not now put my personal ambition above the party's welfare and therefore in the interest of party harmony and success gladly withdraw.

I understand Mr. Harry W. Nice, who is now a candidate, after my withdrawal, will have the backing of every element of the party, and I wish to give him all the support I can. As chairman of the Republican City Committee I will do my utmost to further his election, and I believe he will be our next Governor.

It is the Republican party that the country must look to to straighten out the deplorable condition in which we find our nation. The Republicans have always and will always stand for accomplishments. The last four years have shown the people of Maryland that the Democratic autocracy can not be trusted to look after their interests, and I call on my friends to unite as they did in the late mayoralty election and put the state and nation in the Republicans' hands for the best interests of all.

As some merchants blew in $2.75 on handbills several years ago and did not get any appreciable returns, they think they have demonstrated that advertising doesn't pay.
