LET US HAVE HARMONY.

If ever there has been a time in the history of the Republican party of Maryland when the subordination of individual and personal interests to party success has been superlatively important, that time is now. Events of the last two or three years tend to give force to the opinion that the managers of the Democratic party in the State are more concerned about their ability to hold the official control of State affairs in a vise-like grip, than about the methods and means by which this condition can be accomplished. The legislation of the extra session two years ago, by which the wholesale disfranchisement of voters was attempted and became partially successful, as well as the frauds perpetrated in Anne Arundel county, and probably elsewhere, at the succeeding election, and which were made possible by that legislation, shows conclusively that, under Democratic control, the State is slipping back into the shameful condition that marked its history when "Gormanism denied the rights of the people," as a Carroll county Democratic convention so forcibly expressed it. Other events which need not be related here confirm this view of the situation. If the Democrats control the next legislature such provisions of the election law as tend to protect voters in their right of franchise, and to enable them to give force to their will by their ballots, may be further emasculated and modified until nothing of the legislation enacted while the Republicans were in power, to assure fair and honest elections, shall remain.

It is impossible to overestimate the importance of preventing such further tinkering with the election law as will render it still less effective in protecting the purity and integrity of the ballot. Rather is it of the first importance to impose authority upon those who will seek to correct the wrongs now existing. The history of election legislation during the last eight or ten years makes it manifest that this is only to be accomplished by placing the Republicans in possession of the executive and legislative branches of the State government. The flagrant outrages perpetrated upon the political rights of the people, until the long reign of Gormanism was broken by the Republican victory of 1895, cannot be soon forgotten. That victory, however, was of too short duration to effect more than a temporary check to the fraudulent practices of the Democratic managers who had for so many long years dominated the politics of the State, and the old times are returning again, with more than pristine vigor.

It is not alone that the Republicans have been defrauded at general elections at the polls, by such tricks as reversed a Republican majority in Anne Arundel county two years ago and gave the county to the Democrats, but Democratic party machinery is made to register majorities in their own primaries where none exist. There is good reason to believe that Charles E. Fink, Esq., of this city, was defrauded of the Democratic nomination for Congress last year, by the methods pursued by the Ring in the ward primaries in Baltimore, and more recently the Democratic primaries in Queen Anne's county were made to render a certain verdict by corrupt methods.

Of what concern is it to the Republicans whether Democratic primaries are fairly conducted or not? it may be asked, and the reply is that there are many upright and fairminded Democrats who will gladly make another effort to purge their own party of its corrupt managers, by voting with the Republicans, if Republican candidates of known integrity and independence shall be nominated.

Just here is the Republican opportunity, and it should not be obstructed or frittered away by the selfish ambition of any individual Republican for personal preferment, nor by factional contention. Undoubtedly this is the attitude of the great body of the Republican voters. They want the best men and strongest candidates nominated and they want their candidates to be independent and untrammeled by ante-election pledges.

It is, of course, the privilege and the right of every Republican to aspire to a position on the ticket and to seek the endorsement of the Republican voters in the primaries in a proper and legitimate manner, even if the effort involves a contest with some other aspirant. But such contests should be devoid of methods which will not bear the closest scrutiny and will not involve combinations detrimental to party success. Furthermore, the result of a primary conducted by such methods should end all contention and insure a united effort for victory.

It is meant that these reflections shall apply to every section of the ticket to be nominated, whether local or legislative. Let us have such a ticket, with harmony in the ranks, and victory will be ours in county and State.

It is said "the management of the Western Maryland, besides the plans for extensions and improvements, is engaged in a very interesting and important work. This is to create a definite plan to increase the local development along that railroad and along the West Virginia Central. This work is in charge of Mr. Austin Gallagher, who has been making a series of examinations along the system to study the opportunities offered for developments of various kinds. It is the idea to encourage local industries along the whole system, and it is expected that the prosperity of the country traversed can be greatly helped by this policy." President Ramsey, it is said, is about to make a tour of inspection over the Western Maryland for the purpose of inspecting the work projected for its improvement.

J. J. ROSE, Proprietor of Hering's Compound Syrup of Blackberry Root.

SIR:—It gives me pleasure, without solicitation, as you know, to say that having used all the remedies, including those prescribed by physicians, for a diarrhœa contracted while a soldier, nothing has been of so much service to me as HERING'S COMPOUND SYRUP OF BLACKBERRY ROOT. In my opinion, for the cure or relief of Bowel Complaints the remedy has nothing to equal it in the market.

Very truly yours,
JNO. H. MITTEN,
