Republicans Carry Carroll County By Majorities Ranging From 688 for Bloom for Sheriff to 449 for Nice for Governor.

State Ticket Still In Doubt With Ritchie, Democratic Candidate For Governor, Leading By Less Than 100 votes

Snader Snowed Warfield Under By a Majority of 540.

Stone for Treasurer, Klee for House of Delegates, and Haines for Judge of Orphans' Court, only Democrats elected.

The election in this county passed off very quietly but the workers in both parties worked hard all day. With it all, however, more than 1000 persons failed to vote. With the shortage of labor on farms and the approach of cold weather many farmers refused to quit corn husking to take the time to vote.

In this county, with the exception of three minor offices, the Republicans elected their whole ticket by majorities ranging from 500 to 100. This, in a large measure, was due to the splendid organization of all elements of the party, and the effective work of the candidates. Hustling candidates inspire confidence and enthuse the party workers. No one likes a loafer.

On the other hand the Democratic party was divided against itself. During the primary fight for States attorney certain would be leaders of that party introduced religious questions and when their man won out they immediately assumed charge of the fight for the general election and surrounded themselves with men of their religious faith. The result was a disorganized party. The party itself had a number of burdens to bear growing out of school matters and the war but when certain gentlemen, who seem to think that religious matters are more important than those of the state, insist upon inflicting their views on the rank and file of the party nothing but defeat awaited them and will await them always.

The Republican party presented a strong, virile ticket to the people and would have won even if the Democrats had been united. It was the stronger and more representative of the two.

The issue of taxation raised by Senator Warfield figured very little in the fight. Every one knew that a Senator had nothing to do with county tax rate fixing and that he raised a hue and cry against the county commissioners simply because he and "his editor" had nothing else of which they could preach.

The Republicans won because they deserved to win. Carroll county is not a rocked-ribbed Democratic one, as the elections for the past few years have demonstrated. We hope the Republicans elected will so act that the people of the county will continue to trust the party.

The Republicans carried the county for Nice for Governor by a majority of 436 and all other candidates, save and except, Myers for Orphans' Court, Hess for County Treasurer and Kephart for House of Delegates, by majorities of from 500 to 100. Those elected on the county ticket are: State Senate, R. Smith Snader, Republican; House of Delegates, H. Peyton Gorsuch, Jesse Leatherwood, Albert W. Spencer, Republican and John P. Klee, Democrat; State Attorney, Theodore F. Brown, Republican; Sheriff, William Bloom, Republican. County Commissioner, Charles W. Melville, Republican; County Treasurer, Samuel J. Stone, Democrat; Judges of Orphans' Court, J. Webster Ebaugh and John K. Miller, Republicans and Thos. J. Haines, Democrat; County Surveyor, F. LaMotte Smith, Republican.

CHILD BURNED TO DEATH

Bernard Hauser, infant son of Herbert and Ida Hauser, during their temporary absence from a room in which it was allowed to remain in its little carriage playfully pulled the cover from a table upon which a lighted lamp was placed thus causing it to be so severely burned as to result in its death. The child 7 months and 13 days of age will be buried at Krider's Reformed church on Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. Reinecke, officiating. James M. Stoner funeral director.

The Ladies Aid Society of Zion will, sell lunch at Mr. Luther Zahn's sale November 14. Request of all lunch wagons to stay out.

THE AFTERMATH

Call the corporal of the guard.

Who's quaking in their knees now?

Please omit flowers.

The Court street "organization" has adjourned sine die.

It was just grand—in this county.

Well, there was the Sykesville Herald!

There is nothing like team work, especially in politics.

We told you Billy Bloom was a Fall flower.

It was a disagreeable day in Carroll—for our Democratic friends.

This time the silence of Senator Snader was golden.

The dilatory voter had to be hauled to the polls but the Republican got them.

The Wilson administration got "some" indorsement from the voters of this county—nit.

This year a large number of voters in this county changed their affiliations—in the voting booths.

The people of Carroll county don't barrow money. They have the money to pay for what they want.

Postmortem examinations don't win elections—they interfere with business, however.

The advocacy of the "little red brick school house" by our Democratic friends came too late.

Democratic headquarters on Court street are for rent. Apply to Walsh, Boyle and Walsh.

That "frenzied" financial scheme did not take with the people—even if it did originate in Sykesville.

The Republicans in the upper part of the county might have done better.

The board of county commissioners will be Republican for the next four years. Senator Warfield will please take notice.

But of all plagues, good Heaven, thy wrath can send,
Save, save, oh, save me from the candid friend—who knows how it all happened!

That "Cowardly Letter" helped the whole Republican ticket.

That Democratic "barrel" evidently leaked at the bunghole.

"The silence of Senator Warfield's opponent can be heard to the Rocky Mountains"—Sykesville Herald.

That lie about Senator Snader not helping to win the war reacted in his favor. It generally happens that way.

Senator Snader's old associates in the Senate will be glad to welcome him and we are mighty glad he is going back.

The people who were active in the management of the Democratic campaign in this county never have been in love with the public schools.

Speaking of home indorsements, what is the matter with a majority of 201 for Snader in his home and 8 for Warfield in his? Who got the "real" one?

The people decided that the duties of a county commissioner are not "exactly those of a senator, and vice versa.

The taxpayers of this county "apparently" are not in accord with the views of the late Senator Warfield on the question of county management.

Yes, nearly 600 majority for the opponent did make some noise. Sometimes it pays to keep your mouth shut.

For the first attempt the young men who managed the Democratic campaign in this county did very well. It might have been worse.

A few more elections and Manchester district will be Republican. Autocratic government don't go over there.

It all depends upon how you go about to do a thing. The young Democratic aspirants have something to learn.

In recent years a large number of voters in this county have failed to vote at elections. This years 7183 out of total of 8473 voted.

When a fellow takes money to be used at the polls and then stands around and talks about everything except politics, what do you call him?

That suggested "business" administration of the office of the county commissioners did not take with the people. The late Senator Warfield and the Sykesville Herald will please take notice.

When The Grand Old Man of Carroll County opens his mouth he always says something worth while. If you don't think so ask the late Senator Warfield.

A Democratic newspaper run by a Republican editor will not make a very good combination. The public knows that he writes the "stuff" for pay—and don't believe it himself.

The people of Carroll county are not in favor of an issue of bonds. They are able to pay as they go—and they are going to go slowly in the matter of finance.

In political campaigns the "pen is still mightier than the sword"—as witness the letter of the Grand Old Man of Carroll, Judge James A. C. Bond. The execution was terrible.

We are sorry for the defeat of Messrs. Hess, Myers and Kephart. Their own districts, however, did not do what they should have done for them and others on the ticket.

Say, listen, Theodore F. Brown will be state's attorney after January 1, 1920, and it behooves you crap shooters to keep a sharp lookout. He might hear you talking to the bones.

That majority of 204 for Melville for County Commissioner by his home district was "some" indorsement of which to feel proud. "Frenzied finance" evidently did not take in Freedom.

Some of our Democratic friends are wearing broad smiles. They are evidently wondering what the people of Sykesville think of their "financier" now.

"The automobile" will not be used at Annapolis during the coming session of the General Assembly. Neither will "the chauffeur". Senator Snader will be able to walk from his hotel to the State House.

The Republicans had experienced troops commanded by some of their old seasoned officers and it was no trouble to break through the ranks of young Democracy in this county.

By the official returns made to the Board of Supervisors on Thursday a number of small changes were made in the returns of the election held Tuesday. Nice for Governor gained 6 more votes.

Some of our Democratic friends now blame their defeat in this county on "lack of organization". Why what was the matter with that young and vigorous organization which held nightly meetings on Court street?

Speaking of home indorsements what is the matter with the one given Senator Snader by the people of New Windsor, his own home town? It was a repudiation of all the abominable lies circulated against him—even the one repeated by a carpet bag Democrat preacher.

Promises impossible to fullfil did not deceive any one. During the campaign we lost count of the number of roads promised by the late Senator Warfield. Senators, however, don't build roads and the voters knew it.

That platform or resolution adopted by the so-called organization of the Democratic party in this county came too late, boys. The fact that the little red brick school houses were closed was all the evidence the voters desired. Deathbed resolutions won't go in politics.

Tuesday was supposed to be a good Democratic day in this county, but it was not. The rain held up until dark and then it poured and wound up with a thunder storm. The next day the temperature dropped to 32 degrees. Some of our Democratic friends thought it had dropped to zero.

Myers, Manchester, Hampstead and Woolerys district once controlled the county for the Democrats but if things keep going the way they have for the past few years the districts will be Republican. The Democrats of the districts evidently don't believe in autocratic government—of the Wilson type.

Speaking of the "talkfest" indulged in by the late Senator Warfield we are reminded of the man who was killed in a wreck and whose body was taken to the morgue. No one seemed to know him but one day a woman called to look at his remains, thinking they might be those of her husband. whom she had not seen for quite a long time. She was satisfied the remains were those of her husband and so told the Irish Keeper of the morgue, but just as she was about to leave the room, the lower jaw of the dead man dropped, thereby exposing his gold filled teeth and disclosing the fact that the remains were not those of her husband. After the woman left the Irishman slapped the dead man's jaws together and said "You blamed jack if you had kept your mouth shut you would have received a decent burial".

Wednesday morning Mr. John H. Six, E. Main street, this city, was paralyzed on his left side. He is confined to his bed.
