Republican Ticket.

For President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

For Vice-President,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana.

No general battle has yet been fought by the Japanese and Russians, Gen. Kuropatkin, the Russian commander, having declined the conflict offered by the Japs, who have flanked him out of his position and forced him to either fight or retire. He chose the latter alternative. It is reported the Japs are closing in on Port Arthur and have captured another important Russion position.

Apparently the Democrats are all at sea concerning the probable nominee of their national convention for the Presidency. Judge Parker has a long lead over all other candidates, but still, it is said, lacks the necessary two-thirds vote. Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, who is a delegate to the convention and under instructions to vote for Parker, is said to be booming Cleveland.

The official vote of Oregon, at the recent State and Congressional election, does not lessen the extent of the Republican victory reported by the first returns. The total vote cast was 99,315. For Congressman in the First district Binger Hermann (Rep.) received 6,818 majority over R. M. Veatch (Dem.); Second district, J. M. Williamson (Rep.), 14,353 over J. E. Simmons (Dem.). For State Supreme Judge Frank T. Moore (Rep.) received 24,217 majority over Thos. O'Day (Dem.). Oregon was formerly a doubtful State, but now begins to approximate Vermont in its Republican majorities. The people are sensibly determined to "let well enough alone."

The W. Md. Railroad.

The Western Waryland Railroad Company has invited the Maryland Steel Company and several other shipbuilding concerns to submit bids for the building of two large coasting schooners and six barges for use in the coal business of the Davis Coal and Coke Company, which is owned by the railroad company.

Mr. F. S. Landstreet, vice-president of the road, says the work of building the seven miles or so of new road from the main line of the Western Maryland, near Walbrook Station, to tidewater in South Baltimore is being pushed as rapidly as possible. It had been expected to have the branch completed by July 1, but so many obstacles were met, Mr. Landstreet says, as to make this impossible, and now he will not name any specific date for the completion. Part of the track is laid, but there is still some grading and considerable bridge work to be done. The material for the drawbridge at Spring Gardens in particular is behind hand.

The contractors are also rushing work on the 65-mile line from Cherry Run to Cumberland, which is to link up the Western Maryland with the West Virginia Central and Pittsburg Railway and furnish an outlet to tidewater at Baltimore for the heavy coal business of the latter road.

"Work on the Cumberland extension is progressing very satisfactorily," said Mr. Landstreet. "The last report I received showed that there are about 2,600 men at work on the line."

Commemorates Historic Battle.

The monument in Battle Ground National Cemetery, in the District of Columbia, commemorating the battle fought on that spot 40 years ago, will be unveiled July 12. It was erected by the survivors of the One Hundred and Twenty-second New York Volunteers, which lost five members in the fight. Survivors of the Sixth Army Corps, of which the New York Regiment was a part, will participate in the ceremony. The success of the Union forces in that battle saved Washington from capture. President Lincoln witnessed the struggle, and the site chosen for the monument is where he stood on that occasion. Co's A. and C, 6th Md. Regiment, recruited in this county, were in the battle referred to.

It is stated that the executive committee of the Maryland Sunday School Union has decided to make special efforts in behalf of the Sunday School cause throughout the state and has determined to have all the county, and as many district conventions as possible, held before the State convention, which is to meet in Baltimore, October 27 and 28. A Sunday-School week just previous to the state convention will be observed throughout the State. To aid in carrying out these plans the State superintendent will be assisted by Prof. Ephraim Lee, who is in Cumberland, but who will travel through the state.

Charles W. Hall, an employee of the Alberton Cotton Mills, Howard county, and Theodore H. C. Russell, a boss in the mills, had a quarrel on Saturday evening over some trivial matter, which ended in a fight in which Hall was so badly injured that he had to be taken to the Maryland University Hospital, Baltimore, where he died about 7 o'clock, Tuesday morning. In the scuffle, it is said, both men fell down an embankment to the railroad track and Hall's head came in contact with a rail and thus received the injuries which caused his death. He was 47 years old and leaves a wife and eight children. A jury of inquest exonorated Russell from blame in the matter.

Complaints from farmers in different sections of Howard county are to the effect that the wheat crop promises a poor yield. The cause is attributed to what is known as the blight and the ravages of the fly. Harvest in the county was begun last week and is now more than half over.

The summer arrangements of the President have been modified by the decision of the notification committee of the Chicago convention to inform Mr. Roosevelt officially of his nomination for the Presidency on July 27.

Nine cents was the booty gained by bold robbers who broke into the Western Maryland Railroad depot at Walbrook, Tuesday night, and "tapped the till." The money was in pennies.

Out of the $1,000,000 appropriated by Congress, to provide arms and equipment for the organized militia of the several states, Maryland will get $15,958.

The Ægis and Intelligencer, the oldest established paper in Harford county, has been sold by Louis Dashiell & Co. to John D. Worthington.

Josiah Finneyfrock died at his home at Lewistown, Frederick county, on Monday, aged 84 years. He leaves a widow and seven children.

The County Commissioners of Cecil have fixed the county tax rate at $1 on the $100, an increase of 10 cents over the rate of last year.

George David Geisenger, of Walkersville, died at the Emergency Hospital, in Frederick, Monday, of rheumatism, aged 59 years.

Miss Hettie Albaugh died at Unionville, Frederick county, on Monday, aged 75 years.

STATE AID TO ROADS.

As a means of explaining easily and clearly the principal features of the new law for state aid and road building in Maryland which becomes operative January 1, 1905, a concise brief pamphlet is to be issued by the Highway Division of the Maryland Geological Survey for the use of Boards of County Commissioners and residents throughout the state. The large interest which has been taken in many parts of the state in the new State Aid Road Law has made it advisable to embody in this pamphlet all the information necessary for County Commissioners and individuals who wish to proceed under the act, and it also contains in a form readily accessible, information of greatest interest upon the state fund available for this purpose to secure scientifically constructed roads at one-half the cost.

Information concerning the state aid appropriation is undoubtedly of liveliest interest at this time and the Maryland Geological Survey has gone to no little pains to supply a quantity of detailed information upon this particular topic, especially a table, hitherto unpublished, which has been compiled to show the exact allotment which each county of the state will receive under the new law. The latter, which becomes operative on January 1, 1905, makes available for State aid in road building $200,000 annually, to be apportioned according to the ratio that the miles of roads in each county bear to the total highway mileage of the state and in each case a considerable sum is at the disposal of the residents of the county to defray half the expenses.

If all the counties do not take up their full allowance the balance is to be reapportioned among the remaining counties which are ready to undertake road building.

The allotment of each county is shown in the table as follows:

County.	Mileage.	Allotment.
Allegany	866	$ 8,967.39
Anne Arundel	521	6,741.72
Baltimore	1119	14,479.81

The ground is dry and hard and the waters very low. We have had several nice showers of rain during the last week, but not enough to benefit the potatoes very much, although the vines are looking nicely. Corn never looked better for this season of the year than now. The wheat crop here is the poorest for many years. There are many fields that will not average more than 3 bushels per acre. The farmers are now busy making hay. Some have commenced to cut wheat but it is full green yet.

Surprise Birthday Dinner and Family Reunion.

A day long to be remembered by those present was that of June 20, the occasion of a surprise birthday dinner and reunion given to Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Zepp, at their home in Pleasant Valley. It was a happy surprise to the old folks and a time to make their dear old hearts glad. Surely, one of the happiest times in the life time of father and mother is the time when after years of separation all their children and grandchildren are gathered once more around the family board. Much of the time was spent in the old orchard, and dinner was partaken of under the spreading boughs of a favorite old apple tree. At an appropriate time photographs of the group were taken. A prominent feature enjoyed by all, and especially so by the father and mother, was the concert by Edw. P. Zepp's wonderful talking machine. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Zepp, Miss Laura J. Zepp, at home; Mr. and Mrs. Jacob S. Spangler, Messrs. Chauncey E., Wm. H. and, Chas. Senft, of Hanover, Pa; Mr. and Mrs. Jos. V. Wantz, Mr. Solomon Wantz, Misses Emma and Mattie Wantz, of Tyrone; Mr. and Mrs. Edw. P. Zepp, Master LaVere M., and little Miss Vesta E. Zepp, of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Christopher C. Zepp, little Miss Malba, and Master Evan Zepp, of Pleasant Valley.

Melrose Items.

Our neighborhood has some very nice corn in it. Mr. Beniah Bankert has some stalks five feet four inches in height without stretching a leaf.

On Thursday morning of last week the neighbors and friends of Mr. John Shaffer gathered early to raise a large frame barn and by nine o'clock a fine frame, 40x90 feet, barn was raised without a single mishap or accident. Mr. Sterner, the contractor, would be pleased to hear from anyone who can beat it.

Many wonder me not why news from Melrose comes more regularly than heretofore. It is because the two brothers are now banded together not only to give the newspapers better service but to get out a magazine, to help suffering humanity, that cannot be equalled in quality and price on both continents.

The sale of the B. V. R. R., which took place at Columbia, June 21st, was only represented by one man from the neighborhood, Mr. James Findlay. Your correspondent had a party interview Mr. Findlay, and the only satisfaction received was: "Don't believe all you hear; watch the future developments. The railroad will not be torn away."

Your correspondent has decided not to visit the great World's Fair at St. Louis for several reasons, one being the fact that the readers would be greatly overstocked with news as he can write almost as fast as he can talk.

Wentz's Union Sunday School will hold its annual celebration Saturday, August 6th. The Pleasant Hill Band will furnish the music for the occasion. A program will be rendered by the school. All are invited.

BRUTALLY TORTURED.

A case came to light that for persistent and unmerciful torture has perhaps never been equaled. Joe Golobich, of Joliusa, Calf., writes, "For 15 years I endured insufferable pain from Rheumatism and nothing relieved me though I tried everything known.
