FRIDAY, AUGUST 5, 1904.

Republican Ticket.

For President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

For Vice-President,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana.

For Congress,
ROBERT GARRETT,
OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

The dinner pail is never rusty except during a Democratic administration.

Col. Bryan is still the skipper in the Parker cheese.

Every vote for Parker and Davis is an attempt to change the hands on the dial and block the wheels that move forward.

"Tammany extends her hands to the Democratic candidate," says Bourke Cockran. Tammany always extends her hands palms up.

The Democratic party professes to be ardently in favor of education, but it wants an expurgated edition of its party history.

The Igorrotes at St. Louis were ordered to wear pants, but are not wearing them. Judge Parker ordered a gold plank inserted in the Democratic platform, but it is not there.

Mr. Bryan says that Parker's nomination "nullified the party's anti-trust declarations." If there is any doubt about that, make an inquiry as to the name of the treasurer of the Democratic national committee.

The banks of Kansas now have $110,000,000 on deposit and there is not a debased Democratic dollar in the amount. The Democratic platform, adopted at St. Louis, stands for a Bryan dollar and it can not be changed by a telegram.

The man who confessed that he has just recovered from an attack of insanity would hardly be placed in charge of the affairs of a big business concern. Yet, that is the confession the Democrats make while applying for the management of the largest business concern in the world.

Hon. William H. Jackson, who has already served two terms in Congress as the representative of the First Maryland district, was yesterday unanimously nominated for re-election by the Republican convention of that district, which met at Ocean City.

There are some kinds of alliteration that do not alliterate. Of that sort is the combination of names and conditions in the Advocate's editorial columns last week. Placing a consonant as the second letter in the word designed to be alliterated with a name in which the second letter is a vowel is rather far fetched. We suggest the following as a very great improvement in the form as well as in the truth of the Advocate's attempt in that line :

Parker and Poverty.
Roosevelt and Relief.

The notion, sought to be inculcated by Democratic newspapers, that the nomination of Theodore Roosevelt for the Presidency was brought about through the pernicious activity of federal officeholders, is a fallacy. Doubtless many federal officeholders were unduly active in striving to gain prominence as party representatives in the pending campaign, but they were no more in favor of the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt than were the great masses of the Republicans throughout the country. Mr. Roosevelt would have been nominated if not an officeholder in the country had lifted his hand to promote that result. He was the well-nigh unanimous choice of the Republicans all over the country. On the other hand his Democratic competitor is a man utterly without national reputation and was seldom, if ever, heard of outside of New York, until forced into prominence by David B. Hill as the latter's selection for the Democratic nomination. And, it can be said truthfully, that it is the part of common sense to withhold confidence from anybody favored by as corrupt a politician as Hill has proved himself to be.

THE WAR IN MANCHURIA.

Nothing decisive has yet occurred in the war between the Japanese and Russians in Manchuria, although fighting has been almost continuous during the past week between the armies of Gen. Kuroki and Gen. Kuropatkin. In this series of engagements the advantage has been with the Japanese and Gen. Kuropatkin has been forced to retreat northward. From the reports it appears the Russians, while falling back, maintain a bold front and fight desperately with their victorious enemies.

The Japanese Legation at Washington received a cablegram from Tokio yesterday, in which it is stated that Gen. Kuroki, with 100,000 men, has gotten behind the Russian forces, while Gen. Oku, with an army of 50,000 men, is on their front, and Gen. Nodzu, with 50,000 men, is on their left flank. If this be correct, the only means of escape for Kuropatkin and his army is to fight a victorious battle or change his line of retreat to the west.

Several days ago a report of a severe defeat of the Japanese besieging Port Arthur was in circulation. The Japs, it was reported, had been repulsed in an assault on the Port, with the loss of 20,000 men. As the report has not been confirmed and no further mention has been made concerning the alleged defeat of the besiegers, it was probably a canard. The Japanese government, at Tokio, is anticipating the early capture of the Port.

Mrs. Miles, wife of Gen. Nelson A. Miles, died suddenly on Monday night at West Point, N. Y., where she and Gen. Miles were visiting their son, Sherman Miles, who is a student at the U. S. Military Academy. Mrs. Miles was a daughter of the late Judge Charles Sherman and a niece of the late John Sherman and Gen. Wm. T. Sherman. She was 62 years old. She had been in ill health for some time, but was improving and her recovery was anticipated.

MR. ROBERT GARRETT.

Mr. Robert Garrett, who was nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Second Congressional district of Maryland on Tuesday, is a son of the late T. Harrison Garrett, and a grandson of the late John W. Garrett, for many years president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. His claims to the suffrages of his fellow-citizens, however, do not rest upon the adventitious circumstances of birth and family prominence. Mr. Garrett is a man of education and force of character. He graduated at Princeton seven years ago and is now 28 years old. He is a man of sound judgment, as is shown by his having espoused the cause of Republicanism against the fallacies of the Democratic party, although he had grown to manhood under Democratic influences. He has been a close student, both of books and of public affairs, and is fully equal to the important duties of a Representative in the National Congress. His views on monetary and other questions of importance are of the soundest sort, and if elected to Congress he will be a credit to the district.

SECOND CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT.

ROBERT GARRETT,
Nominated by the Republicans.

The Republican convention of the Second district of Maryland, which met at Aberdeen on Tuesday, nominated Robert Garrett, of Baltimore county, by a unanimous vote, as the party's candidate for Congress. Hon. Wm. B. Baker, of Harford county, presided over the convention, with John S. Simmering, of Baltimore, as secretary. Louis E. Shriver, of this county, was a member of the committee on credentials, and Charles H. Smith, of this county, of the committee on resolutions. The latter committee reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

The Republicans of the Second congressional district of Maryland, in convention assembled, congratulate the people of this state and of the Union on the firm, pure and honorable administration with which our beloved country has been blessed during the past four years. The United States are prosperous and happy at home, honored and respected abroad. For these blessings a great debt of gratitude is due from all right thinking men to the memory of the lamented William McKinley and to his worthy successor, now presented with confidence to the American people as the Republican candidate for the presidency.

We appeal to the people of Maryland, and more especially of this district, to weigh calmly and with just regard to the public welfare, in superiority to mere partisan prejudice, the claims of the two great national parties to public confidence at this time.

The Republican party has nothing to retract in the expression of its principles, nothing to conceal, or of which it is afraid or ashamed, in its record. The Democratic party asks popular support on the ground that it has silently abandoned principles which eight, and even four years ago it proclaimed vital to the people's welfare, and which it has not the manliness to frankly disavow. It would be the most inexcusable of dangerous experiments to intrust our federal government to a party that will not even say aloud it was mistaken in its advocacy of doctrines which all its members admit in whispers to have been fraught with errors.

We ask all our fellow-citizens to aid us in electing as the representative from this district a man worthy to represent its intelligent, industrious, patriotic and law-abiding people. And we demand that our congressman shall be one of whom none need be ashamed and whose reputation in the community and the record of whose past life is a pure, faithful and creditable service, with an eye single to the public good.

In conclusion we affirm our loyalty to the cardinal principles of the Republican party as proclaimed by its recent national convention; we indorse its nominations for president and vice president; we point out to the voters of Maryland that pledges of Republican platforms and Republican candidates have been kept in the past, and declare that only a party and candidates who keep their word are worthy of the people's trust.

Mr. Garrett was put in nomination by W. Tyler Page, who was the Republican candidate two years ago, and the nomination was seconded by Edward E. Reindollar, of this county, and Charles J. Bonaparte. Speeches were made by all these gentlemen in performing the duty named and Mr. Bonaparte paid a high tribute to President Roosevelt and commended Mr. Garrett as a fitting nominee for a seat in the House of Representatives.

The delegates to the convention were handsomely entertained by the presiding officer, at his residence in Aberdeen.

Ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Pennsylvania, died at his home at Overbrook, a suburb of Philadelphia, on Monday in his 54th year. Mr. Pattison was twice elected Governor of Pennsylvania as a Democrat, the first time in 1882, when there were two Republican candidates for the office, and the second time in 1890, when many Republicans revolted against the nomination of Mr. Delamater. He was a candidate for the office again two years ago, but was defeated. Gov. Pattison was born at Quantico, Somerset county, Md., December 8, 1850. His father was Rev. Dr. Robert H. Pattison, a clergyman of the M. E. Church, who when the son was a lad, was appointed pastor of a church in Philadelphia. Educated in the public schools of Philadelphia, young Pattison, after graduating at the high school of that city, studied law, was admitted to the bar and began a successful career in that profession. He was the only Democrat elected Governor of Pennsylvania for nearly 50 years, and was the choice of Pennsylvania Democrats for the Presidential nomination this year. His death was caused by heart failure, due, it is said, to overwork at the St. Louis convention, although his health was broken by the strenuous campaign he made when a candidate for Governor two years ago.

A committee of the Department of Massachusetts, G. A. R., waited upon President Roosevelt on Tuesday and invited him to attend the National Encampment, to be held at Boston from the 15th to the 20th inst. While considering it highly improbable that he can accept the invitation the President was much gratified to receive it and, in consultation with Secretary Morton, concluded arrangements whereby a squadron of 10 war vessels will be ordered to Boston to remain during the encampment.

In the adjustment of the salaries of rural carriers in the postal service it has been decided by the Postoffice Department that all carriers appointed prior to June 30, 1904, who were entitled to the maximum pay of $600, under the rules which governed the establishment of routes at that time, shall receive the maximum pay of $720, but that the schedule which became effective July 1, 1904, and recently announced shall prevail in fixing the compensation of all carriers appointed since June 30.

Catalogs Confuse.
IN SELECTING A COLLEGE
THESE ARE THE VITAL POINTS:

1. HEALTHFULNESS.
Western Maryland College, at Westminster, Md., is 1000 feet above the sea; mild climate; pure air; pure water; perfect drainage.
Has new and substantial buildings. Steam Heat. Electric Light. Furnishes good food; comfortable rooms, Baths. Gymnasium. Athletic Field.

2. SAFE AND REFINED SURROUNDINGS.
Founded 37 years ago by Christian men, Western Maryland College has always striven for Christian ends in education.
Models its discipline after the home, giving its students oversight and protection.
Believes that character is formed by habits and habits by system, and so provides its students with a schedule that leaves no hour of the day unaccounted for.
Receives both sexes for the benefit of both, believing this also to be the idea l of the home; but separates the sexes in classwork and limits social intercourse.

3. MODERN METHODS AND EQUIPMENT.
Western Maryland College came in with the modern educational ideas.
Led the way in that form of co-education recently adopted by the University of Chicago—co-equal, but not co-incident education for men and women.
First College in Maryland to employ a Director of Physical Culture, and to build a Gymnasium.
Laboratories have grown until a separate building is necessary for them.
Faculty represents best Universities.

4. LOW RATES.
Western Maryland College will give you board furnished room, light, heat, laundry and tuition in all College studies for $200 for the full year of 38 weeks.

Ask our Students, or write to
REV. T. H. LEWIS, D.D.,
President.
