Republican Ticket.

For President,
THEODORE ROOSEVELT,
of New York.

For Vice-President,
CHARLES W. FAIRBANKS, of Indiana.

For Congress,
ROBERT GARRETT,
OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

Western farmers report that there is nothing in the crop outlook to foster discontent or a desire for a "change."

The protective tariff is the bulwark of national independence in time of peace and in time of war.

Protection guarantees that the working men of this country shall be well paid and not underpaid, as are the majority of the artisans of Europe.

Democrats admit that the Republican policies have proved beneficial to the country but they want the privilege of administering them.

President Roosevelt has not found it necessary to revise his party's platform. It was written for him in the record of Republican achievements.

The protective tariff results in diversified industries which never fail to vastly increase the personal intelligence, industry and wage-earnings of the people.

The same party that is denouncing President Roosevelt as a "War Lord" to-day denounced Abraham Lincoln as a tyrant and an enemy of the Republic forty years ago.

Republicans propose to use patience, generosity and the helping hand in aiding the Filipinos to equip themselves for self government. The Democrats propose to allow them to return to the rule of the bolo.

In commending the Republican policies which his party so strenuously opposed in former campaigns, Judge Parker admits he is glad the candidates for whom he has voted went down to defeat.

Under the protective tariff opportunity is furnished, through diversified industries, for every person to find the employment best adapted to his or her genius or capacity and that will secure the largest income and the greatest happiness.

The gold standard of currency can never be "irrevocably" fixed until the Democratic party, in convention assembled, endorses the Republican record and agrees not to attempt to tinker with it. That action has not been taken.

Judge Parker says that the laws are sufficient but the failure to curb trusts rests with "officials charged with the enforcement of the law." That reads like a slap at Grover Cleaveland, when his record for enforcement of anti-trust laws is recalled.

Judge Parker admits that his election would mean a four years' conflict between a Democratic President and a Republican Senate, with the prospect that no desirable legislation could be enacted. Do the people want such a change.

LOWER EXPORT PRICES.

Our Democratic friends appear to be worried over the fact that our manufacturers sometimes meet foreign competitors on their own ground by cutting prices. There is no denying that this is sometimes done, and there is no apology to offer for doing it. Sometimes it is for one reason, sometimes for another. Here are a few given to the Industrial Commission:

"Cash payments and large purchases in the foreign trade, whereas the domestic trade is based on credits and small purchases.

"The drawback or rebate of the Tariff on imported raw material of goods manufactured for export.

"To overcome the Tariff of other countries.

"To secure new markets.

"To hold a market against new competitors.

"To clear out surplus stock or to prevent a shutdown and increased cost of production, and keep mills running and men employed.

"To get rid of samples and out of date goods.

"Because the expense of selling and advertising is less abroad than at home."

Absolutely no one is injured, and many are benefited. First, the workman is benefited, because he has more employment. If we export $500,000,000 worth of manufactured goods, no matter what the selling price, the laborer gets about $450,000,000 of it. He gets it in the direct manufacture, in the transportation, in the making of tools and machinery, the clerical work—in every process, coming and going, first, last and all the time. The farmer benefits, because he sells more of his products right at home at profitable prices. The manufacturer benefits, because he disposes of his surplus stock and gains or retains a new foreign market. The tariff has nothing to do with it, except that both Democratic and Republican Tariff laws have provided for a rebate of 99 per cent of the duty on materials imported which enter into manufactures for export.

Just why the Democrats and Free-Traders object to our manufacturers building up a foreign trade it is hard to guess, unless they object to the American workingman being constantly employed and well paid. They will hardly win votes for their candidate on this issue.

It is said to be understood that Mr. Gorman does not think Mr. Talbott's efforts to secure the nomination for Congress in this district are calculated to advance the Democratic party's chances of success at the election in November. That is probably true, but it isn't likely that Mr. Talbott would be making the strenuous fight he is engaged in unless he has the countenance and encouragement of his chief. The convention, which failed to nominate at its first meeting, will re-assemble at Havre de Grace on Monday, when, it is said, Mr. Talbott's friends will endeavor to break the unit rule which has governed the Harford county delegation and thus secure the nomination, as one or two of Harford's delegates are friendly to him.

The War In Manchuria.

Great Battle at Liaoyang.

Russians Beaten and Retreat.

After a week of terrific fighting the indications are that the Japanese army, under Gen. Kuroki, has achieved an important victory over the army of Gen. Kuropatkin. The Baltimore Sun of this morning thus summarizes the result of the conflict:

The Russian army has been driven from its strong defences and splendid position at Liaoyang, and the victorious Japanese have taken the walled city, with its immense stores.

General Kuropatkin having his left flank turned by General Kuroki and his center and right beaten and driven back by General Oku, found himself compelled to evacuate Liaoyang and cross the Taitse river to the north with his whole army.

Dispatches from Mukden state that railway service is interrupted, which leads to the supposition that the railroad has been cut by Kuroki, and the roads are well nigh impassable.

In this situation, it is believed by some that General Kuropatkin will be forced to fight and cannot escape to the northward, while others think the Russian leader will be able to retreat fighting to Mukden or beyond, following the tactics he has employed so often before.

But in either case he must lose terribly, provided the Japanese are able to pursue him with their usual vigor, unless of course, he is still able to defeat the armies of the Mikado, which are striking him on every hand. The Taitse river is a considerable stream, flowing westward and crossing the Liaoyang plain just outside the northern wall of the town.

For Gen. Kuropatkin to have left the forts with rifle pits, intrenchments and barbed wire entanglements, of Liaoyang, not to mention the immense stores said to be stored there, shows that he considered himself in deadly danger.

Details of the Japanese victory beyond the most notable results are wanting, as the line from Liaoyang is held for Rusian official messages and news is given out in St. Petersburg after being censored.

The fight at Port Arthur seems to have been temporarily suspended.

Leonard S. Harrington, formerly a distributing clerk in the Frederick postoffice, was given a hearing before United States Commissioner Roscoe C. White on Tuesday, at Frederick, and was held for the Federal grand jury in Baltimore in $1,000 bail, charged with purloining money from letters passing through the postoffice. Mr. A. H. Harrington, his father, went his security. Assistant District Attorney Morris A. Soper, of Baltimore, represented the government and Mr. Hammond Urner, of Frederick, was counsel for the accused.

The season of tonging for oysters in the upper Chesapeake bay and tributaries opened yesterday, the first day in the "R" months, but the season in the waters of Somerset and other lower counties of the Eastern Shore, and in the Potomac river will not open till October 15. The dredging season will begin November 1.

A ton and a half of dynamite was accidentally exploded near Patterson's creek on Thursday night of last week, on the line of railroad in course of construction to connect the Western Maryland and West Virginia Central. Three houses were wrecked and a couple of people injured, but not seriously.

A Straw Ride.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Benner very royally entertained a large crowd from Westminster on Thursday evening, August 25th, and by their genial and hospitable manner made each one feel perfectly at home and at liberty to make themselves comfortable and happy. Instrumental music and games were the features of the evening. Every one enjoyed themselves until the wee small hours of morning when they departed for their homes. Those present were Misses Grace Bankert, Grace Kane, Ella Harman, Rose Gunther, Abby Groft, Lillian Gunther, May Stoner, Irene Schafter, Minnie Selby, Nettie Myerly, Nellie Bowers, Emma Schaeffer, Maggie Kane, Jennie Danison, Nora Davis, Mollie Wagner, Bessie Bowers, Messrs. Rex Anders, William Humbert, Harry Beal, Samuel Hein, Thomas Case, Harry Case, Charles Diffendall, Charles Roberts, James Stoner, Clarence Stoner, Jacob Bemiller, Elmer Byers, Oliver Nelson, Charles Isrom, Pierre Fleishour, Almay Conaway, Clarence Smith, Louis Cluey and Keener Wagner.

Baseball at Patapsco.

The Patapsco Baseball Club lost to Sandyville, last Saturday, by a score of 8 to 4. Although the Patapsco team was considerably weakened by the loss of its best players, they outbatted the Sandyville team, more than two to one. On the other hand the Sandyville team was strengthened by Taylor, the crack Bethel pitcher. Taylor struck out 15 of the Patapsco boys, and Chew struck out 4 of the Sandyville boys. Left on bases—Patapsco 14, Sandyville 4.

Baseball at New Windsor.

For the Sentinel.

On Monday of this week the New Windsor A. C. baseball team met defeat at the hands of the Taneytown club, on the latter's grounds, by the score of 10 to 7. It was a listless game throughout. The treatment the visitors met with was awful. Not only did the umpire give the game to Taneytown, but one of the players threw stones at one of the visitors. The umpiring was so ridiculous that some of the spectators left. If the N. W. boys had had their regular team the home team would have suffered another shut out. All the N. W. team wants is another game to decide which is the superior team. This will make a series of three games. The deciding game should be played on neutral grounds, say Westminster.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my husband and papa, William E. Prugh, who died two years ago, September 5th, 1902,

Two years ago today you left this world resigned,
Gone but not forgotten by those left behind.
Thou shalt always be remembered,
In this weary world of strife,
Thou shalt never be forgotten,
As long as God gives us life.
Through the pearly gates of heaven
Passed the one I loved so dear;
God thought best to take him from us,
Though he left our home so drear.
Oh papa it was hard to give you up,
But God above knew best,
And when we kneel at night to pray,
We pray you are at rest.

BY HIS WIFE AND CHILDREN.

In sad and loving remembrance of our dear baby, who died one year ago, September 2nd, 1903, aged 1 year, 1 day.

"Gone but not forgotten."

The midnight stars are beaming
Upon our Walter's grave,
Where sleepeth without dreaming
The dear one we could not save.

God retaineth now our treasure,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunbeams love to linger
Where our darling Walter sleeps.

In the graveyard softly sleeping,
Where the flowers gently wave,
Lies the one we love so dearly
In his lonely, silent grave.

Farewell Walter, may your slumber
Be as gentle as your love,
And when God shall call us homeward
May we meet you in heaven above.

By his Parents,
Edw. L. and Laura E. Formwalt.
