HIGH SCHOOL WINS FIRST GAME IN SOCCER LEAGUE

Last Friday W. H. S. met Mt. Airy High School on the College Athletic Field for the first game in the County Soccer League.

Mt. Airy started off with a rush and during the early part of the first half scored a goal. Near the close of the first half Hahn scored for Westminster on a penalty kick, tieing the score.

During the second half Westminster outplayed Mt. Airy and succeeded in scoring another goal, winning the game by the score 2-1.

On Tuesday the strong Franklin High School team came to Westminster and had to exert their best playing ability to win the game. The only goal that was scored came near the end of the game when Franklin made an easy goal on a corner kick.

The Franklin team showed superior skill in the game, but for speed W. H. S. had the edge on them.

GREAT SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY NOVEMBER 5.

The great Rally of the Adult Departments of the Sunday Schools of Carroll county will be held November 5th, in the afternoon. A great men's parade as was held last year, a Mass Meeting for men in Alumni Hall, and one for women in the Armory. The men's meeting will be addressed by Dr. Wm. H. Morgan, pastor of First Methodist Episcopal Church, Baltimore, one of the greatest speakers before men in the country. Efforts are being made to secure an equally prominent speaker for the women's meeting. Let all county Sunday schools take notice and hold open the day for that occasion.

A BIG RALLY AT ST. MARY'S REFORMED CHURCH, SILVER RUN

The readers of the Sentinel who read about the biggest and best rally to be held at St. Mary's Reformed Church will be interested to know that our prophecy became true. The program as announced was strictly carried out. Our aim to have 400 present at the regular Sunday school hour was more than realized when 450 were announced by the secretaries as the attendance for the day. This was a great joy to every one and put the rally spirit into all present. The offering was $61.00. Seven new scholars were enrolled. Sixteen classes had one hundred per cent. attendance. In the Adult Bible Class 88 out of an enrollment of 99 answered to their names and 12 visitors. Col. Jos. H. Cudlipp visited each department and soon endeared himself to everyone, especially to the young people. This made it easy for him to capture his large audience in the joint service in the main auditorium when at least 600 were present, giving the very best attention throughout the entire service, which closed at 12:15 P. M.

The music was an inspiration. The school sang from rally selections accompanied by the pipe organ, the piano and an orchestra of 12 pieces. Miss Sarah Willet presided at the organ and Miss B. Margaret Dutterer at the piano.

Mrs. Clayton Myers sang a beautiful solo, "Abide with Me" and helped in a duet with Mr. Oliver Myers. Both these selections were much appreciated and we say "come again" to our friends from Westminster. We cannot speak too encouragingly about the "Ladies' Chorus" which rendered a selection in four parts, unaccompanied, entitled, "Some Blessed Day." They may sing again soon. The choir rendered an appropriate anthem entitled, "Awake, Psaltery and Harp." Every number was thoroughly enjoyed.

Two conferences were called for the afternoon. One for teachers and officers at 3 3o'clock, and one for young people between the ages of 12 and 24 at 4 o'clock. Both were presided over by Col. Cudlipp, assisted ably by Mrs. Cudlipp. About 80 young people were present, according to Mr. Cudlipp, four times as many as he expected. After the conferences a committee of teachers with Miss Bertha Dutterer as chairlady, served a lap lunch, consisting of sandwiches, potato salad, potato chips, coffee, and cake. The young people thoroughly enjoyed this part of the program and were ready for a lively C. E. meeting at 6:30, when Paul Bankert led in a most interesting meeting.

It was a flower meeting and Paul went to considerable trouble to make it an interesting meeting and he surely did succeed. Between 75 and 100 were present. The day closed with a well attended service of worship with a sermon by the pastor on "Co-operation." The day was a Red Letter day, long to be remembered by the members and friends of St. Mary's.

John S. Adam, pastor.

EXAMINATIONS FOR ARMY LIEUTENANCIES

On October 23, the War Department will hold examinations all over the United States, to determine the fitness of the young men who undergo such examination, for appointment as second lieutenants of the Regular Army.

The examination will be physical, mental and general. In order to proceed with the mental part each candidate must be found physically fit and adjudged morally fit, by the examining board.

Applications for this examination must be submitted to the Commanding General, Third Corps Area, Baltimore, before October tenth, and may be had, together with more detailed information, by applying to the Professor of Military Science and Tactics, Western Maryland College, Westminster, Maryland.

It is "dry" enough to suit the most radical.

Joy rides frequently have a way of ending in a sorrow walk.

It looks as if the suffering coal miners had got to be paid enough so that they can enjoy a five months vacation each year.

The Centennial of Wesley Chapel M. E. Church, Freedom, this county September 29th, 1922, when about a thousand persons from all parts of Carroll county, with many from Baltimore and other distant parts of the state ,came to the church and about 500 of them crowded the edifice to hear the anniversary sermon, preached by Bishop William Fraser McDowell, Rev. J. M. Gillum, district superintendtn, conducted service; Rev. Dr. C. Herbert Richardson offered the opening prayer, and Rev. Joel Brown pronounced the benediction.

Services At The Farm.

Following the service at the chapel, the congregation and many others went to the Manro Farm, about one-half mile distant, presented by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Albaugh, of this city, to the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church as the site of a Boys' School and Home. Here, from early morning, Messrs. Graham and George Melville, aided by an efficient corps of assistants, had been busy preparing thousands of sandwiches, coffee and other good things for the complimentary luncheon, of which about 1,000 persons partook. Ham sandwiches, fried chicken, pickles, ice cream and coffee, in abundance, were served to all.

After the luncheon, appropriate exercises were conducted by District Superintendent W. W. Barnes. Prayer was offered by Rev. E. T. Mowbray; District Superintendent J. M. Gillum related the story of the gift by Mr. and Mrs. Albaugh, telling how some months ago Mr. Albaugh offered the conference the choice of any farm owned by him as the site for a boys' school and home, of Mr. Albaugh's disclaimer of any credit to himself for his generous gift, and his declaration that his action was prompted by the influence of his mother and his wife. He told how in the final choice, two farms were considered, that known as the Gorsuch farm, within the bounds of the New Windsor Circuit, regarded as an appropriate site, because of its proximity to the spot where Robert Strawbridge preached the first Methodist sermon in Maryland; of the selection of the Manro Farm, containing 315 acres because of its more favorable location, on the new state road from Westminster to Baltimore, via Eldersburg, only twenty miles from the City Hall, Baltimore. Mr. Albaugh, with Mrs. Albaugh by his side, made formal presentation of the property to the conference, and in his brief address paid beautiful tribute to the memory of his mother. Bishop McDowell announced its informal acceptance, to be followed later by official acceptance by the conference, and in a thrillingly, beautiful, and touching prayer and benediction, invoked God's blessing on the work here inaugurated, and upon the donors and their family.

Rev. Fields Returns Thanks.

Rev. J. G. Fields, pastor on the circuit, expressed his joy at the manner in which the anniversary exercises had been conducted; paid tribute to the various committees that had contributed to their success; to those, who had conducted the music at the chapel and at the farm; and he wished, through the press, to express especial gratitude to Messrs. Graham and George Melville, and those who aided them in the preparation for the luncheon at the farm; and to the Frounfelter Brothers, for their generosity in furnishing the lighting plant for the chapel during the week.

Among the clergymen of the conference, present on Friday were the Reverends Bishop William Fraser McDowell, District Superintendent W. W. Barnes, District Superintendent J. M. Gillum, C. Herbert Richardson, Joel Brown, Charles W. Baldwin, E. T. Mowbray, Don Colt, E. L. Watson, St. Clair Neal, J. Tolly Marsh, R. N. Edwards, John R. Edwards, Arthur C. Day, J. F. Heisse, W. C. Harden, Frank G. Porter, F. R. Bailey, Victor E. Mills, D. E. Moylan, James H. Hyatt, W. W. Davis, V. J. Munger, J. E. Robinson, Frank Thompson, Robert J. Nicholson, R. H. Bartlett, E. F. Fielding, Frederick J. Mumford, Alvin T. Perkins, W. T. Jackson, W. J. Meeks, J. Gilbert Randall, G. W. Hobbs, C. H. Lambdin, W. N. Hoffman R. L. Wright, S. C. Cook, Solomon German, and Frank Y. Yeager.

Buildings Will Be Erected.

The presence of so large a number of the ministers of the Conference, with a host of influential laymen, all, with enthusiasm, favoring the acceptance of the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Albaugh, and the carrying out of their desire for the establishment of a home for boys, gives assurance that the project will be carried to successful completion. That when needed the funds for the erection of the necessary buildings will be forthcoming is indicated by the announcement by pastor Fields that a giver, who will not permit the use of his name, had advised him that he will furnish $10,000.00 toward the cost of the erection of the first building; and his belief that there are many in Carroll and throughout the bounds of the Conference, who will follow this example.
