WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

W. L. W. Seabrook, - Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, MARCH 2, 1906.

Mr. George C. Hildt, the commercial freight agent of the Western Maryland Railroad, has resigned, and has been succeeded by Mr. William Albert Cox, who is general manager of the Chicago and Northwestern Railroad at Portland, Ore. Mr. Cox's title with the Western Maryland will be that of general agent.

The Hagerstown Herald and Torch Light says that the blue prints of the repair shops of the Western Maryland Railroad, at Hagerstown, call for a car shed 280 feet long, wide enough for four tracks and room to work about them. All damaged cars on the division are to be repaired at that point. The blacksmith and new machine shops will be adjacent to this car shed.

The coast of Colombia, including an area of about 300 miles, was visited by a succession of earth quakes and a tidal wave, on the 21st inst., in which it is reported that 2,000 persons were killed by falling walls or drowned by the wave. In some instances whole families were wiped out. Sailing vessels report having encountered hundreds of corpses in the Pacific ocean, off the coast of Colombia. Many small settlements along the coast were swept away.

While peach trees are blooming in the vicinity of Richmond, Va., a howling snow storm raged all over the State on Tuesday night and snow fell to the depth of ten inches. The temperature was low and the peach blooms were probably blasted. Reports from Norfolk, Va., state that it was bitter cold at that place and the spinach crop in that trucking region was badly damaged, while early planted peas and radishes were killed.

Ex-Speaker Henderson Dead.

Ex-Speaker David B. Henderson died on Sunday last at Dubuque, Iowa, of paresis, aged nearly 66 years, he having been born in Scotland, March 14, 1840. He came to this country with his parents, at the age of six years. He enlisted as a private in the Twelfth Regiment, Iowa Volunteers, in 1861, and served till after the battle of Corinth, where he lost a leg and was mustered out in February, 1863. He afterwards re-entered the service as Col. of the Forty-Sixth Iowa Volunteers, and served to the end of the war. He studied law and engaged in its practice, but filled several offices of importance until 1882, when he was elected a member of the United States House of Representatives, in which he served continuously for twenty years. He served on important committees of the House and in 1899 was elected Speaker. In 1902 he declined a renomination. He leaves a widow and several children.

Catoctin Furnaces Sold.

The Catoctin Clarion, published at Thurmont, in its last week's issue says: "The Catoctin Furnace property in Frederick county was sold Monday at public auction by the trustees, Messrs. L. B. Keene Clagett, of Baltimore; Jacob Rohrback and Charles C. Waters, both of Frederick. The purchaser was Hon. Joseph E. Thropp, former member of Congress from Bedford, Pa. The property, consisting of 10,677 acres of realty, brought $44,950, and the personalty, consisting of plant, machinery, etc., brought $6,185, making the aggregate for the whole $51,135.

"A coke furnace of 40 tons capacity, a large dwelling, about 60 tenement houses and numerous othr buildings are included in the sale.

"Mr. Thropp, the purchaser, is a large independent iron operator and owns the Earlston furnaces, Bedford county, Pennsylvania. He intends to begin operating at Catoctin furnace at once and will fully develop the property."

The property has been in litigation for a number of years and the furnaces have not been in operation for a long time. The purchaser would scarcely have paid so large a price, if he meant to let them remain idle. Their resumption will be of great benefit to the country surrounding them.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

Carroll County in the Legislature.

The bill to authorize the appointment of district health officers in Carroll county, introduced in the Senate by Senator Beasman, has passed that body and is now in the House of Delegates.

The Governor has signed the bill extending the charter of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Carroll county.

In the House of Delegates on Tuesday an unfavorable report was made on Mr. Kolb's bill to increase the penalties for burglary in which explosives are used.

Mr. Myers' bill providing for the appointment of a police justice in this city was passed by the House of Delegates. This bill, we understand, requires that one of the regular justices for Westminster shall be designated to sit in all State cases, and shall, in lieu of fees therefor, receive a salary of $300 per annum.

Mr. Frederick's bill, requiring the manner in which justices of the peace shall keep records in this county, was passed by the House.

The Senate has passed a bill requiring the County Commissioners of Frederick county to pay to the corporate authorities of Mt. Airy one-half the road tax levied in that part of the town lying in said county.

On Wednesday Mr. Kolb introduced a bill in the House to authorize Union Bridge to negotiate a loan for an electric light and power plant. Senator Beasman introduced a bill to appropriate $3,500 annually to Western Maryland College and provide two free scholarships for the Fourth Senatorial district of Baltimore.

Unfavorable reports were made on the same day on Mr. Bushey's bill for the better protection of sheep, and on Mr. Frederick's bill to prevent frauds in sales of wire or barbed fencing.

Yesterday in the Senate, Senator Beasman's billl to authorise the serving of warrants by justices of the peace elsewhere in the state than in the county in which the crime is committed, favorably reported by the Judicial Proceedings Committee, was laid over on motion of Senator Linthicum, who wishes to exempt Baltimore city.

Daniel Items.

The lecture given by Rev. A. B. Wood, of Relay, on Thursday night last, was very much appreciated. The lecturer was in his usual happy vein and he gave some very interesting descriptions of "Inside and Outside."

Rev. Mr. Harris anticipates organizing Sunday School at Ebenezer M. E. Church on Sunday next.

Miss Emma Shipley, who has been dangerously ill, for the past week, following a surgical operation, is improving and the physicians now think she may recover. She is in Baltimore and is accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Horace L. Shipley.

For the Sentinel.

A Dinner to Brides and Grooms.

On Sunday last Mr. and Mrs. Frank Classon, of this city, gave a dinner to Mr. Theodore Classon and bride, of Taneytown, and Wm. Bemiller and bride, of this city. Those present were: Mrs. Wm. Healy, son and daughter, Miss Annie Adlesperger and Miss Louli House, of Baltimore; Messrs. Edward Classon, Edward Adlesperger and George Knox and daughter Vernan, of Taneytown; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cootes and son Edward, Mr. Harry Cootes, Mrs. Wm. Dotrow, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Arnold and sons, Mr. Bernard Fowler and Mr. Charles Fowler, of this city. A very pleasant day was spent by all.

Highland View Items.

Mr. E. N. Jenkins has moved into the house formerly owned by Mr. John Arnsberger.

Mr. Walter Condon has purchased a new sawmill, with which he will saw a barn frame for Mr. L. M. Bushey and son this spring.

Quite a number of our folks attended the lecture given by Rev. A. B. Wood, in Odd Fellows Hall, at Daniel, on the 22nd ult.

Mr. A. V. Jenkins, who was on the sick list with a sprained hip, is now able to be out again with the use of a cane.

Mr. Joseph Goodwin had an attack of phthisic last week.

Mrs. S. M. Stambaugh is improving slowly after treatment at St. Joseph's Hospital, Baltimore.

Union Mills Items.

Mr. George W. Yeiser and party, consisting of himself, his wife, and his daughter, Miss Treva Yeiser, Mr. Ira G. Lawyer, of Silver Run, and Mr. Elmer Sterner, of Hanover, Pa., returned from their trip to Florida and Cuba, the first of this week, having been away from home just three weeks. Mr. Yeiser reports that they had beautiful weather throughout their journeyings and that their trip was in every way a most successful and enjoyable one. He had with him his camera, of which he made good use, securing about one hundred fine pictures, (including several of the Maine,) a number of which he will have made into lantern slides to be used in connection with his popular illustrated lectures.

Last week the family of Mr. Henry Flickinger had sale of a part of their personal property and the first of this week moved to Middleburg, to the home of one of Mr. Flickinger's sons-in-law. Mr. Flickinger has been paralyzed and in a helpless condition for many months, and he was carried to his new home on a bed made in a covered wagon. It is said he stood the twelve mile journey remarkably well.

Mrs. Theodore Wantz, who was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Harner, of Silver Run, died of cancer, last week. Her remains were interred in Silver Run cemetery on the 26th inst.

Mrs. Ephraim J. Yingling is still confined to her bed with inflammatory rheumatism.

A Colonial Tea.

A very successful colonial tea was held at the residence of Mrs. Saml. K. Herr on Friday evening, Feb'y. 23rd, from 5 till 11 o'clock. Mrs. Herr was assisted by a large number of ladies in colonial dress, with powdered hair, and looking remarkably quaint and pretty in the most becoming of all costumes. The house was tastefully decorated with flags and evergreens, and lighted with many candles in antique candlelabra and hand candlesticks, which shed a soft and beautiful light over the scene. The dining room, toward which every one turned and received a hearty welcome, was presided over by Mrs. Geo. R. Gehr, as Martha Washington, and Mrs. George E. Matthews, as Marquise LaFayette, assisted by a number of pretty girls, who served coffee, chocolate, ham and chicken sandwiches, and baked beans. The library was fitted up as a museum, where a large display of old china, laces, embroideries, swords, pictures and autograph letters, including those of Washington, Jefferson, Henry Clay, Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, Philip Jones, who surveyed and laid out Baltimore town, and the founder of Westminster, William Winchester, was exhibited and was in charge of Miss Mary B. Shellman, as "Betsy Ross." Miss Nora Gorsuch and Miss Florence Morgan had charge of the cake and caramel table, while others served delicious ice cream, to all customers. Mrs. Joseph I. Gist, Mrs. J. D. Brooks, Mrs. Shaw and Mrs. Harry Allison received and greeted the visitors at the door, while Col. and Mrs. Herr, with a number of assistants, made every body feel at home and cordially welcome. During the evening Mr. Geo. E. Matthews entertained the company with selections on his fine music box; Miss Mildred Warner recited "When Grandma Saw Geo. Washington," and some of the young members of the company furnished vocal and instrumental music in the parlor. Little Miss Elizabeth Gehr, daughter of Mr. Geo. R. Gehr, was greatly admired, dressed as Martha Washington, and handled her court train and tiny fan with as much ease and grace as any of the "grown ups" present. The evening was a most delightful one, and the silver offering at the door yielded a goodly sum, which will be applied to church purposes. Mrs. Herr deserves much credit for her successful management of so interesting an occasion. Those assisting her were: Madames Joseph I. Gist, Atlee W. Wampler, Harry Jones, Morris Mitten, Jesse Smith, Joseph D. Brooks, Geo. E. Matthews, Shaw, Harry Allison, Ezra Stem, Geo. R. Gehr, Reverdy Snader, Chas. Englar, Carroll Albert, of Westminster, and Mrs. Hoffman Furlong, of Baltimore; Misses M. B. Shellman, Sallie Fringer, Fannie Jones, Mary Buckingham, Mollie Manahan, Mabel Buckinhgam, Jane Shreeve, Julie, Lulie, Grace and Annie Yingling, Margaret Stem, Jessie Starr, Florence and Cora Butler, Etta Cuyler, Marianna Gehr, Eva Herr, Elizabeth Gehr, Florence Morgan, Nora Gorsuch, Louise Matthews, Sarah Furlong, Mildred Buckingham, Jennie Roberts, and Delia Baile. The committee of gentlemen assisting were Col. S. K. Herr, Messrs. J. Edwin Weaver, George E. Matthews and Harry Kimmey.

Day Items.

Rev. B. F Clarkson delivered a very interesting lecture in the church, February 22nd; subject, Love and Matrimony, upon which he gave solid advice.

Camp, 30, P. O. S. of A., gave a banquet at the hall, February 7, to its members and friends. Rev. A. B. Wood, of Relay, was the orator. His address on Patriotism deserves especial mention. An elegant supper was served during the evening.

Mrs. Clyde Dorsey, of Baltimore, is visiting her sister, Mrs. James Jenkins.

Mrs. S. P. Lewis, Mrs. Vernon Flemming and Mrs. Bessie Sauble are spending the week in Baltimore.

Morgan Chapel Aid Society held its monthly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gosnell, February 22nd with 25 members and several visitors present. This society has only been in existence six months, but it has a corps of hustling members, as the treasurer's report showed a fund of $160 since its organization. How many sister societies can beat that? The society presented to Mr. and Mrs. Gosnell a handsome engraving of George Washington, his wife and him, as a souvenir of the day, it not only having been the anniversary of our greatest hero, but the birthday of Mr. Gosnell, and their 41st wedding anniversary. After the business of the meeting was disposed of the guests were invited to the dining room, where a sumptuous collation, daintily prepared, making it tempting to the most delicate appetite, was served.

Miller's Items.

Mr. Wm. Richarts, who was operated on last week at a Baltimore hospital, for cancer of the face, is slowly improving.

Mrs. Chas. Lippy, who had been ill, is able to be about again.

Mrs. F. Lewis Schaeffer spent Tuesday with friends in Baltimore.

Miss Capitola Hare entertained friends at her home Sunday last.

Milton, the 4-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Miller, who was taken to Baltimore three weeks ago with membraneous croup and had a tube put in his windpipe, as was stated in last week's item, was brought home Thursday of last week and at this writing is much improved.

The public school here observed Washington's birthday, Thursday of last week, with recitations, dialogues and singing suitable to the anniversary.

Mr. Geo. Hoffacker and daughter Emma spent Friday last among relatives at New Freedom, Pa.

Mr. Noah Warner will move his family to Baltimore next week and Mr. John Rinehart will move into the house vacated by Mr. Warner.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC, BALTIMORE.

BALTIMORE'S NOTABLE DRAMATIC EVENT.

The mightiest of Beauty Spectacles known to the Annals of the Stage to be presented at the Academy of Music.

Beginning Monday, March 5, and continuing for one week, with matinees Wednesday and Saturday, Klaw & Erlanger will present at the Academy of Music, Baltimore, what is universally conceded to be not alone the most colossal theatrical production known to the annals of the stage, but the most beautiful and costly show ever conceived, in the spectacle of "Humpty Dumpty." Mail orders filled.

DOCTORS ARE PUZZLED.

The remarkable recovery of Kenneth McIver, of Vanceboro, Me., is the subject of much interest to the medical fraternity and a wide circle of friends. He says of his case: "Owing to severe inflammation of the Throat and congestion of the Lungs, three doctors gave me up to die, when, as a last resort, I was induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery and I am happy to say, it saved my life." Cures the worst Coughs and Colds, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Weak Lungs, Hoarseness and LaGrippe. Guaranteed at all drug stores. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

At Oak Orchard Schoolhouse, Sunday, March 4th, there will be the Missionary Rally postponed from last Sunday. Interesting exercises by the scholars and others. Special address by the pastor, Rev. F. A. Kilmon. Everybody welcome.

TORTURE BY SAVAGES.

"Speaking of the torture to which some of the savage tribes in the Philippines subject their captives, reminds me of the intense suffering I endured for three months from inflammation of the Kidneys," says W. M. Sherman, of Cushing, Me. "Nothing helped me until I tried Electric Bitters, three bottles of which completely cured me." Cures Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Blood disorders and Malaria; and restores the weak and nervous to robust health. Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Deer Park will hold an ice cream, oyster and confectionery festival, at the home of Mrs. Thomas Paynter, at Bird Hill, the night of March 8th. The various tables will be under the supervision of the young ladies.

A SCIENTIFIC WONDER

The cures that stand to its credit make Bucklen's Arnica Salve a scientific wonder. It cured E. R. Mulford, lecturer for the Patrons of Husbandry, Waynesboro, Pa., of a distressing case of Piles. It heals the worst Burns, Sores, Boils, Ulcers, Cuts, Wounds, Chilblains and Salt Rheum. Only 25c at all drug stores.

A LIVELY TUSSLE

with that old enemy of the race, Constipation, often ends in Appendicitis. To avoid all serious trouble with Stomach, Liver and Bowels, take Dr. King's New Life Pills. They perfectly regulate these organs, without pain or discomfort. 25c at all druggists.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

NO. 4274 EQUITY.

In the Circuit Court for Carroll County, sitting in Equity.

Augusta Palmer, Plaintiff, vs. Warren Palmer, Defendant.

The object of this suit is to procure a divorce A Vinculo Matrimonii, by the plaintiff from the defendant.

The Bill states that the plaintiff now resides in Carroll County, Maryland, and that she and the defendant were married June 12th, A. D. 1902, and also that the defendant abandoned the plaintiff on the 22nd day of December, 1902, without any fault of the plaintiff, the abandonment has continued uninterruptedly for over three years, and is deliberate and final and beyond any reasonable hope or expectation of reconciliation: that there is one child by the said marriage and the custody is prayed to be given to the plaintiff; that the defendant is a non resident of the State of Maryland.

It is therefore ordered, this 1st day of March, A. D. 1906, that the plaintiff by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Carroll County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 2nd day of April, 1906, giving notice to the absent defendant of the object and substance of this Bill and warning him to appear in this Court in person or by solicitor on or before the 23rd day of April, 1906, to answer the premises and show cause if any he has, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

A WORD TO EARLY BUYERS.

Where will you do your early Spring buying? All persons have their own reasons for shopping at certain places.

It may be you have in the past been forced to the inconvenience of making long and tedious trips to the larger towns and cities, involving both loss of time and money, simply because you could not have your needs supplied at home. We have made and are making a constant study of these conditions, and have consequently put ourselves in a position to give you up-to-date and dependable merchandise at a saving of both time and money.

OUR SPRING LINE OF

Ginghams, Percales, Madras, White Goods,

EMBROIDERIES, LACES AND COTTONADES are now ready and on display. We invite you to trade with us.
