REPUBLICAN TICKET.

FOR CONGRESS,
ROBERT GARRETT,
OF BALTIMORE COUNTY.

ELECTION, TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 6TH.

It would be interesting to know the opinion of Hon. J. Fred. C. Talbott concerning Mr. Bryan's declaration in favor of government ownership of railroads.

The "bull in the China shop" and the "white elephant" may be said to fairly typify the condition of Mr. Bryan and his relation to the Democratic party at this juncture. Mr. Bryan is smashing through the Democratic theory of anti-centralization in the most extravagant manner, apparently oblivious of the broken china, while his party, or the party of which he professes to be a member and exponent, finds a very large white elephant on its hands and don't know what to do with him.

In a speech at Chicago, on Tuesday, Mr. Bryan said he is opposed to centralization and therefore favors only government ownership of trunk line railroads, local roads to be owned by the State. But the trunk lines constitute a large part of the railroad mileage of the country and their taking over by the government would be a very long step toward thorough centralization. No matter how Mr. Bryan may attempt to qualify his opinions on the subject that conclusion is inevitable.

For months preparations were made for the reception of Mr. Byan at New York, upon his return from his trip around the world. Committees were appointed to carry the purpose of those interested into making the reception a great and unequaled demonstration. Even the President of the United States was invited to pay homage by his presence to the man whose theories were twice repudiated at the polls by the voters of the country. And now enthusiastic Democratic newspapers are glibly talking about the "spontaniety" of the event. The word don't fit. Enthusiasm which depends upon months of careful nursing can hardly be called spontaneous.

Mr. Bryan, while journeying toward his home in Lincoln, Neb., this week, made a number of speeches, the most interesting, if not the most important, of which was in Chicago, where he made a bitter attack upon Roger C. Sullivan, the Illinois member of the Democratic National Committee and the Democrats in that State who recently endorsed him in the State convention by an almost two-thirds vote. The endorsement given Mr. Bryan by the same convention he repudiated and declared that if his nomination for any office depended upon that indorsement he would not accept it. It is painfully evident that Mr. Bryan is suffering with a malady generally termed "swelled head," and considers himself much greater than his party.

It is reported that the Western Maryland Railroad Company had to pay to the Postoffice Department $750 in August for failures to make connections with Southern mails at Hagerstown, according to schedule. The length of time in which these fines were accumulating is not stated, but as the fine for each failure was $25 the number of such occurences must have been thirty. If the failures were unavoidable the imposition of the fines was a hardship. The road is struggling with a plethora of business and conditions which it will take time to overcome. Occasionally, however, there appears to be neglect and indifference in the transmission of mails, not only for Southern connections, but locally, and reminders in the way of fines may serve to make railroad officials more careful of the rights of the recipients of mail matter.

The Advocate accuses the SENTINEL of attempting to deceive its readers by claiming for the large Republican majority in both Houses of Congress the credit for the railroad and other remedial legislation of the recent session. Such accusations are easily made and might be as easily disproved if further contention over the matter were necessary. The SENTINEL gave, in its article of August 17th, what it then believed and still believes to have been a fair statement of the case. It did not attempt to conceal the fact that the Democrats in Congress generally voted for the railroad rate bill, but it fairly and justly repelled the Advocate's assumption of superior credit to the Democrats for the adoption of that measure. If there be any attempt to deceive in the matter that attempt lies at the door of the Advocate, which has not had the grace to admit that, while the vote of only one Republican Senator was recorded in the negative on the final passage of the bill, two Democratic Senators voted "nay."

THE VERMONT ELECTION

POINTS TO REPUBLICAN VICTORY IN NOVEMBER.

The Vermont state and Congressional election held on Tuesday resulted in an overwhelming Republican victory. It was not a straight fight of Republicans against Democrats, as the latter fused with Independent Republicans. The candidates for Governor were Fletcher D. Proctor, Republican, and Percival W. Clement, Independent Republican and Fusionist. Proctor carried the State by a plurality of 15,676 and the other Republicae State candidates were elected by about the same figures. The contest was a repetition of that four years ago, when the Republicans carried the State by about 11,000 plurality. A desperate effort was made to defeat the regular Republican candidate, but the handsome gain, over four years ago, indicates that the people still believe in and support Republican policies.

Both Republican candidates for Congress, David J. Foster and Kittredge Haskins, were elected by larger majorities than were given two years ago.

To the State Senate one lone Fusionist was elected and to the House about 40 in a total of nearly 400.

MR. GARRETT TO BE MARRIED.

The engagement of Mr. Robert Garrett, the Republican candidate for Congress in this district, to Miss Katharine Barker Johnson, daughter of Doctor and Mrs. Robert W. Johnson, of Baltimore, is announced, but the date of the wedding has not been set. Speaking of the engagement the Baltimore Sun says:

Miss Johnson is the third daughter of Doctor and Mrs. Johnson and is a niece of Dr. William Fell Johnson, of Rockland, Baltimore county. She made her debut two years ago at the first Monday german and has been much admired. With her family she is now at the Colonial Arms, East Gloucester, Mass.

Mr. Garrett is one of the most prominent young men in Baltimore. A son of Mrs. T. Harrison Garrett, he is a grandson of the late John W. Garrett, for years president of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. He was recently nominated for Congress by the Republicans of the Second Congressional district. He is a graduate of Princeton and a member of the leading clubs of the city.

Mr. Garrett is especially famed for his philanthropic work and has done much for charity. He is also a skilled athlete and some years ago took a prize at the athletic games in Greece for throwing the discus. Formerly he was a member of troop A. With his brother, Mr. John W. Garrett, now in diplomatic service abroad, he conducts the banking house of Robert Garrett & Sons, which was founded many years ago by the great-grandfather.

The Baltimore Evening News also had this kindly reference to Mr. Garrett in its announcement of his engagement:

No man in Baltimore does more for charity than "Bob" Garrett. Only recently he provided a complete gymnasium for one of the play grounds, and his check book has been the cause of aiding many worthy institutions of the city. He is most unostentatious in his giving and never speaks of his acts of generosity. In fact, some of his donations are made with the proviso that his name is to be withheld.

Mr. Garrett is a great athlete, and some years ago he took the prize at the athletic games in Greece for throwing the dicus. He was formerly a member of Troop A, Maryland's crack cavalry organization, and he is a fine horseman.

BALTIMORE'S GREAT JUBILEE.

Preparations for Baltimore's great jubilee in honor of her recovery from the fire by which she was desolated in February, 1904, have been carried forward with such celerity as to be well nigh complete and the city ready for the various events designed for the occasion. The work has been done methodically and with much care, and the Publicity Committee has prepared and sent out a full program of the events to take place during the celebration next week. For the information of such of our readers as may desire to witness one or more of these events this program is appended, as follows:

Saturday, September 8th. Completion of street decorations, columns, etc., and the turning on of the current in the thousands of electric lamps which will festoon the city's thoroughfares and outline the public buildings in light.

Sunday, September 9th. First official day of Jubilee Week; to be observed by thanksgiving services in all the churches in commemoration of the city's recovery from the big fire of February 7-8, 1904.

Monday, September 10th. Reception of visitors. Sight-seeing expeditions. On this date the warships which the government has promised—two or more cruisers—will arrive and anchor in Canton Hollow. They will be joined immediately by the Monitor Miantonomah, manned by the Maryland Naval Brigade, and the revenue service vessels Chase, Apache and Seminole. The entire fleet will receive visitors all through the week.

Tuesday, September 11th. Big military pageant, General Lawrason Riggs, commanding.

Three batteries coast artillery, United States Regulars, from Fort Armistead.

One battery coast artillery, United States regulars from Fort McHenry.

Four companies of marines from U. S. cruisers.

Four companies sailors from cruisers.

THE BREATH OF LIFE.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Powerful lungs means powerful creatures How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes; "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by all druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

STARVING TO DEATH.

Because her stomach was so weakened by useless drugging that she could not eat, Mrs. Mary H. Walters, of St. Clair St., Columbus, O., was literally starving to death. She writes: "My stomach was so weak from useless drugs that I could not eat, and my nerves so wrecked that I could not sleep; and not before I was given up to die was I induced to try Electric Bitters; with the wonderful result that improvement began at once, and a complete cure followed." Best health Tonic on earth. 50c. Guaranteed by all druggists.

The Church of God Sunday School of Wakefield will hold a picnic on Saturday, Sept. 8th, in the grove of Mr. Geo P. L. Hoover, between Wakefield and New Windsor. Refreshments, music, addresses, visiting schools, &c. Public invited.

MARRIED

In this city, at the residence of Dr. D. F. Shipley, Sept. 5th, 1906, by Rev. H. M. Rider, Mr. Robert O. Garrett and Miss Cora M., eldest daughter of Mr. L. Edwin Williams, both of Va.

DIED.

In Nevada, Mo., Sept. 2nd, 1906, Isaac C. Baile, formerly of this county, at the age of 54 years.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear son, George E. Stoner, who died two years ago to-day, September 8th, 1904.

In memory I oftimes see
The one I loved so dear;
The vision grows so clear sometimes
I feel he must be near.

But, no! two years ago to-day,
When all the world was bright,
My darling George was called away
Out of mortal sight.

His fair head is pillowed upon the cold sod,
His young heart in silence reposes,
He now dwells in the beautiful garden of God,
An Angel of Heaven's roses.

By his parents,
Mr. and Mrs. James M. Stoner.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving remembrance of my dear son, William E. Prugh, who died four years ago, September 5th, 1902.

How sadly I grieve for the loss of my son,
And many tears I have shed;
My home is so gloomy which once was so bright,
Since my dear William is dead.

Silently the shades of evening,
Gather around my lonely door,
Silently it brings before me,
That dear face I can see no more.

Peaceful be thy silent slumber,
Peaceful in thy grave so low,
Thou no more will join our number,
Thou no more our sorrows know.

Yet again I hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tears are shed.

By his mother, Mrs. S. L. Prugh.

PUBLIC SALE OF TWO VALUABLE FARMS!

In the Best Farming District of Frederick County, Maryland.

The undersigned will sell at Public Sale, at Rocky Ridge Station, Frederick county, Maryland, on SATURDAY, 22nd DAY OF SEPTEMBER, 1906, at 11 o'clock, A. M., the two following Valuable Farms:

First. All that tract of land of which the late Joshua Biggs died seized, situate at Rocky Ridge, and adjoining the lands of Michael Late, Elias Valentine, Harvey Ogle and others. The improvements consist of a large Brick Dwelling House, a large Bank Barn with Silos under the same roof, Hog Pens and Grain Sheds. The farm now contains more or less, but will be divided so as to reduce the acreage and will be offered as an entirety or at the reduced acreage.

THREE HUNDRED AND SIX ACRES,

Plats and other information will be furnished on application after the 10th day of September, 1906.

Second. All that Valuable Farm adjoining the farm above described, containing more or less, improved by a large Stone Dwelling, a large Bank Barn and all necessary outbuildings.

ONE HUNDRED AND SIXTY-ONE ACRES

Both of the above farms are within convenient distance of Postoffice, Churches, School, Express, Telephone and Telegraph Offices. A stream of Water flows through both farms giving them an ample supply of water.

The land is in a high state of cultivation and the fences and buildings are in good order.

Terms of Sale.—One-third cash, the balance in 6 and 12 months, or all cash, at the option of the purchaser. Special arrangements can be made with the vendors by which a proportion of the purchase money may be left in the properties secured by mortgages thereon.
