Items of Local Interest

Mrs. Harrington Smith, of Claiborne, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Walsh, East Main street.

Martin Winters sold his house on John street to Mrs. M. Barnes for $1,900. She will move into the property in December.

Captain and Mrs. R. Allan Sharrer and daughter, are visiting Captain Sharrer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse C. Sharrer, Willis street.

Mrs. Thomas K. Shaw and family this week moved into the house on East Main street recently vacated by Mr. George Hoff.

Rev. Reymeyer has accepted a call to become pastor of Immanuel Lutheran Church, Manchester, and will be installed the latter part of November.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mayers and children, of Littlestown, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Study, Pennsylvania avenue.

Mrs. Harry R. Watson, of Overlea Baltimore county, spent Tuesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chauncey Jerome, Liberty street.

Mrs. Charles Magin, Sr., East Main street, is spending several weeks in Baltimore with her daughter, Mrs Harold Shugars.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Francis Reese, Willis street, Tuesday night entertained at cards in honor of Captain and Mrs. Allan Sharrer, who are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. George Small Schmidt, of York, Pa., announce the birth of a daughter, Josephine Small, on October 22. Mrs. Schmidt was previous to her marriage last fall Miss Josephine Reifsnider, this city.

Western Maryland will play Johns Hopkins at Homewood Field, Baltimore, to-morrow. Much interest is being manifested in this game and coach Ken Shroyer will trot out a fighting eleven against the Baltimoreans.

Mrs. Sarah L. Yingling, formerly of this city, announces the marriage of her daughter, Emma M. Yingling to Herbert E. Lovell, son of Mr. and Mrs. William D. Lovell, of New Windsor. They were married in the Cathedral in Harrisburg.

A sewing factory, making union suits, has been started in the old Carroll Academy, near Union Mills. Seventeen women are employed at present. The building has been completed renovated and put into shape for its new use.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton K. McSherry, the latter formerly Miss Marian Shriver, who spent their honeymoon in Bermuda returned last week and Sunday last were entertained at dinner by Miss Mary O. Shriver, of Union Mills.

The cantata "Penitence, Pardon and Peace," by Maunder, given Sunday night by the vested choir of Grace Lutheran Church, this city, was beautifully rendered. The church was crowded to the doors and a liberal silver offering was made to the organ fund.

Miss Madge Elizabeth Farrar, of Baltimore, was married Saturday, October 27, 1923 to Howard Allan Merrick, of Collingswood, N .J. The wedding took place in Baltimore and after January 1st they will be at home in Collingswood. The bride is well known in this city where she formerly resided.

Minnie Shaffer, daughter of John Shaffer, Sr., near Melrose, met with a serious accident last Saturday afternoon. In attempting to cross the road near her home a car driven by a Manchester man struck her down, fracturing her legs, each one broken at two places. The necessary surgical aid was given and later she was taken to a Baltimore hospital.

Saturday last Joseph D. Brooks, executor of George Rush, deceased, sold a farm on the Westminster and Mt. Airy state road, containing 88 acres, 1 rood and 54 square perches of land, to D. M. Beegle and wife for $9100.00, and a 10 acre woodlot located on the New Windsor road to George A. Rickell for $1,700.00. The terms were cash on ratification of sale.

Leroy Claggett, 2-years old son of Mr. and Mrs. Grafton Claggett, of West Friendship, Monday afternoon was accidently killed by his brother, Aubrey, 14 years old. A rusty shotgun which had not been used for 14 years was standing in the corner of a bedroom. Aubrey was playing with it and not knowing it was loaded pointed it at his little brother. Without warning the gun exploded killing Leroy instantly.

Martin Leahy, John street, is very ill at his home.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gamber, Ward avenue, a son, Francis Douglas.

Wednesday afternoon Misses LaRue and Eva Herr, West Main street entertained the card club.

Miss Mary Agnes Harmon, of this city, is visiting Miss Catherine Yingling at her home in Baltimore.

Mrs. Frank, residing on Webster street, this city, last Saturday had a fall which resulted in a broken hip.

Mrs. John Arbaugh, Madison street, is ill with scarlet fever. Her young son died Tuesday.

Wednesday a marriage license was issued in Baltimore to Robert W. Selby, Middleburg, and Lena M. Diller.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton P. Myers and daughter Mrs. E. Miller Richardson, West Main street, this week visited relatives in Hanover, Pa.

Lillie M. Pearce, wife of William B. Pearce, formerly of Carroll county, died suddenly on October 30, 1923, at her late residence, River Forest, Ill.

Mrs. Edward Reisler, of Baltimore, is a guest of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Albaugh this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Eyler, of near Linwood, this week moved to the home they have purchased in Uniontown.

Miss Euphamie Stoner who has been quite sick at the home of her father J. E. Stoner, near this city, is greatly improved.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schweigart are visiting relatives in and near this city. Mr. Schweigart is in government service at Panama.

Miss Mary McCaffery, who is teaching school in Hagerstown, spent several days last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael McCaffery, Liberty street.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Helm, this city, entertained a number of little friends Monday in honor of their daughter, Marie, who celebrated her eleventh birthday.

Cora M. Devilbiss, daughter of the late Jesse and Catherine G. Devilbiss died October 26, 1923 in Baltimore. She was buried on Monday in Bethel cemetery, near New Windsor.

Mrs. Hugh Heltibridle, of Uniontown, Friday last was taken to the Frederick City Hospital and operated upon for appendicitis. She is doing very well.

William Trump, Santa Rosa, Cal., died at his home last week aged 74 years. He was a son of the late George Trump. Miss Lizzie Trump, Manchester, is a sister.

The Ladies' Aid Society, of the M. E. Church, New Windsor, will hold an oyster and meat supper the evenings of November 9 and 10 in Odd Fellows' Hall, New Windsor.

Miss Doris Hoffman, East Main street, Wednesday night entertained a number of her young friends at a Halloween party. The house was attractively decorated for the occasion.

The Buick sedan of Mr. Henderson, of the Westminster Electric Co., West Main street, was stolen on Tuesday night about 8 o'clock. The car had been parked opposite Mr. Henderson's place of business. It was recovered in Baltimore the following night.

Mrs. Amanda C. Shanabrook, wife of Eli A. Shanabrook, died in Hanover, Pa., October 30, 1923. Mrs. Samuel Smith, Manchester; Mrs. David Jones, Bachman's Valley; Mrs. Jacob Tracey, Lineboro, and Mrs. Samuel Sterner, Melrose, are sisters of the deceased.

The heating plant for the New Star theatre arrived Tuesday and installation is being made. A total of 10,000 cubic feet of fresh air is heated and forced into the building every minute by a three-horse power four-foot fan, giving good ventilation.

The leading yield of potatoes from one acre for Franklin county Penn., and in all probability the entire state of Penn., was found in the 40 acre field of S. Blaine Lehman, near Chambersburg. Not only has he raised one acre which produced over 500 bushels, but he has raised forty which will yield 12,000 bushels, with ten acres in the forty averaging 425 bushels to the acre. The star acre produced 520½ bushels.

Miss Ruth Helwig, Liberty street, is visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Thelma Englar, of Baltimore, spent the week-end as the guest of Miss Eva Lantz, East Main street.

Miss Madeline Weller, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Weller, this city.

Messrs. Joseph and Albert Massicott, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Massicott, this city.

Mr. Charles Chrest, of Baltimore, spent the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Chrest, Pennsylvania avenue.

Miss Catherine Hobby, young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Hobby, this city, who has been quite ill at Woman's Hospital, Baltimore, for several weeks is very much improved. Yesterday afternoon she was brought to her home.

GAMBER

Sunday school at Providence M. P. Church Sunday morning at 9:30. Preaching at 10:30. Revival services at 7:30.

The C. E. business meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Stocksdale, Friday evening, November 9.

Mrs. David N. Leister and daughter, Annie Leister, spent Monday in Hampstead.

Mrs. Jessie Patterson spent last Thursday and Friday with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Houff and daughters, Helen and Doris, of Baltimore, spent Sunday evening with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Bonner.

Mr. and Mrs. David Leister, Mrs. A. B. Coleman, Miss Annie Leister and Miss Florence Patterson attended the Sunday School Convention at Hagerstown this week.

Mrs. George Allen, daughter Edna and son, Ralph, spent Sunday with Mr. J. N. Barnes.

PLEASANT GROVE AND REESE

Last Sunday was Rally Day at church. Service began at 10 a. m. with a good congregation. The children had execrises and recitations with music suitable to the occasion. All took their parts well.

The Ladies' Aid will meet at the regular time November 10 at the parsonage. A good attendance is especially desired to complete arrangements for the oyster supper at Reese garage Maurice Green, prop., on November 22, to which the public is invited.

The church people hope to pack a barrel of fruit and vegetables next week to send to the kindergarten in Baltimore. Onyone who wishes to contribute please send to the home of Mr. John L. Magee, first of next week.

Mrs. Herbert Myerly had the misfortune to sprain her ankle last week by falling from a step.

Mr. Eugene Green and family, of Bird Hill, visited Mrs. Theodore Shipley on Sunday.

Mrs. Addie Evans visited relatives in Baltimore several days this week.

Mrs. John Magee and little son Charles, are spending a week in Baltimore with Mrs. John Menchey.

Mr. Frank Eckenrode celebrated his birthday recently. Mr. Eckenrode is hale and hearty and can husk as much corn as many of the young men.

STONE CHAPEL

Sunday school 1:30 P. M. November 4. Preaching 2:30 P. M. November 4.

Revival services are in progress at Stone Chapel and will continue until Friday night, November 2. Very good meetings, come out and help us.

A fine rain fell on Tuesday night.

Miss Emma Bradburn, teacher at Warfieldsburg, will attend a teachers' conference at Smallwood school house October 31st.

Mrs. John Snader, of Sam's Creek, is spending the week with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Summers, of Warfieldsburg. On Tuesday both ladies spent the afternoon with Mrs. Sellman and Mrs. J. G. Zile.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bradburn, daughter Sarah, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bradburn and son Jack and Mr. John Bradburn, of Lonaconing, Md., motored to the Westminster hotel and spent Saturday night. On Sunday they called to see their daughter and sister, Miss Emma, at Warfieldsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Duvall, Mrs. Weldon Duvall and daughter Audrey, attended the Sunday School Convention on Tuesday and Wednesday in Hagerstown. They were delegates from Stone Chapel.

There will be an oyster supper held in the social hall, Stone Chapel, Thursday, Noverber 22. Suppers served from 5 P. M. until 10 P. M. Benefit for church improvements.

Claimed the German crown prince may come to the United States, but if so he might not return.

Perhaps one trouble with the parlor bolshevists is that they do not spend enough time in the kitchen and the laundry.

UNION MILLS

The Union Mills sewing factory, George W. Yeiser, proprietor, and E. Roy Kindig, manager, started operations on Tuesday of this week. The factory is housed in the old Carroll Academy school building which has been completely renovated and put into shape for its new use. Seventeen women employes who reported for work on the opening day received instructions in the use and management of the sewing machine from two instructors, (a lady and a gentleman) from Baltimore. Mr. Yeiser spared no expense in putting the school building into proper shape for its new purpose. It is now equipped, in addition to the sewing machines, with heating, lighting and water plants, and sanitary toilet accommodations. For the present the product of the factory will be union underwear suits. This new enterprise will add much to the business prosperity of our village and we wish its proprietor every success.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton K. MacSherry, who spent their honeymoon in Bermuda, landed in New York on the 25th ult. On Sunday last, with a few friends, they were entertained at dinner by Miss Mary O. Shriver, of Union Mills. Thel have started housekeeping at 4103 Roland avenue, Baltimore, where they were given a surprise party by some of their friends, last Monday evening.

A few people in this vicinity claim to have seen the big, navy balloon, Shenandoah, when it made its flight over our state, last Monday.

We are glad to report improvement in the condition of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Frock, both of whom have been seriously ill.

MANCHESTER

The communion services in Trinity Reformed Church on Sunday morning were well attended at which time the Rev. R. J. Freeman made mention of his leaving, having accepted a call at Weisport, Pa., and will leave the middle of the month.

The oyster and chicken supper by the members of Daniel and Jacob Lodge No. 23 I. O. O. F. on Friday evening was well attended and a good supper enjoyed as well as a social getting together during the evening.

Twenty-five ladies and gentlemen motored to Baltimore on Thursday evening last week were guests at the home of Mrs. Belle Miller and thence to the Metropolitan theatre and enjoyed the picture of the evening. They returned to the Miller home where they enjoyed refreshments and had a good old time socially, such as the hostess used to enjoy when a resident here.

Rev. Reymeir has accepted the call from Immanuel Lutheran Church and expects to be here with his family about Thanksgiving.

Mr. T. C. Turner was operated upon on Monday, October 22nd, at the Maryland University for cataract on one eye and is doing quite well and expects to return home on Sunday, November 4.

Mr. and Mrs. John Yong, of Belair, motored to Hanover and spent the day with friends and on their return trip stopped with us and had a good friendly chat. Forty years ago they were opposite neighbors to us on North Main street. Mr. Y. was in the jewelry business, which business he still follows with a grand success as an optician.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Wentz and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Rupp attended the Sunday School Rally at Westminster on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John H. Staub, of 3419 First avenue, Richmond, Va., are happy to have Betty Everhart as a member of their family, and one more great grand daughter on our list. Happy congratulations.

Paul Leatherman was here on Sunday circulating among friends.

John Shaw and family, of Frederick, were guests at the home of Aunt Carrie and Edna LaMotte, Saturday and Sunday, meeting many friends of his boyhood days.

Harry Rhodes, of York, spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rhodes on North Main street.

Prof. Horace Garrett visited his father, Ephriam Garrett.

The family of Mr. John Shaffer have a general sympathy for the serious accident to a daughter near their home. Some weeks ago one other daughter was badly injured but is convalescent.

We had a good crowd in town on Saturday evening and business was good.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lippy and Mr. and Mrs. Ramford Lippy, of Gettysburg, were guests of their aunts, Misses Dela and Laura Lippy on Sunday where they were nicely entertained. They always come full and brought them a bushel of Winesap apples. Mr. L. has a fine apple and peach orchard. He sold 750 bushels of the Winesaps.

David J. Brown had his home wired, Grafton Stine did the work and is wiring homes at Greenmount.

Contractor Ross Hoffacker is repairing or rebuilding the steeple on Leister's Church near Mexico which was wrecked by lightning some time ago. He has the plans and is getting lumber, etc., in readiness to build a new house on York street for William Berkhimer in the early spring.

A telegram to Miss Lizzie Trump last week informed her of the death of her brother, William Trump, in Santa Rosa, California, of which city he became a resident 37 years ago. He was a son of the late George Trump and learned tinning in his father's shop. When a young man he went West and located in the above state making good along business lines. A home paper says he was an honored resident and his unassuming manner did much to advance the interests of that city, a man of sterling integrity who enjoyed the esteem of all with whom he was acquainted. He was a member of the Episcopal Church to which he was devoted. He is survived by his widow, a step son and daughter and a sister, Lizzie who is the last one of the Trump family. He was aged 74 years, 10 months and 18 days.

Mrs. Land closed her home on South Main street and went to the home of her son George, in New Jersey, for the winter.

The members of the Rebekah Lodge enjoyed a Halloween social on Tuesday evening which was an enjoyable affair. The hall decorations and the dress of those present were well gotten up and full of fun.

Something New For Westminster

Beginning Saturday, November 3, 1923, in addition to our regular banking hours, THE WESTMINSTER SAVINGS BANK will be open every Saturday evening for the transaction of all kinds of banking business from 7 P. M. to 9 P. M. Until further notice

The Westminster Savings Bank,
WESTMINSTER, MARYLAND.

Babylon & Lippy Co.

Look At The Value Of Merchandise You Buy.

It is not necessary to squander your money on merchandise of no value You can get value received for every dollar you spend. It pays you to observe quality when buying.

English Army Blankets

Just received a bale of English Army Blankets 65 to 80 per cent wool. Fresh, strong and serviceable. Made for Army use. They will stand much hard service Camping, sleeping porches, motor robes, size 60x80, weight about 4½ pounds. Special at $2.79.

Children's Worsted Dresses

A special lot of children's worsted dresses, blouse effect, priced at $5.00.

Boys' Suits

Boys' wash suits, Boys' Tweed suits, Boys' Blouse suits with Corduroy trousers. Boys' Serge suits for ages four to eight years. Priced from $1.98 to $5.00.

Union Suits

We have a special price on Union Suits for children and misses, Munsingwear priced for 98c.

Men's Overcoats

A selection of Men's overcoats priced $15.00, $18.00, $25.00.

Ladies' Coats, Suits and Dresses

A new selection of Ladies' Coats with fur collars, priced from $25.00 to $45.00. A new selection of ladies' Canton Crepe dresses. New styles in suits.

The Millinery Department

Here is a department made famous by low prices on up-to-date millinery You can buy hats here for $5.00 that are priced elsewhere from $7.50 to $12.00; also a large assortment of children's and misses' hats and tams.

Infant's and Children's Coats

We are specially strong on our line of children's coats at a very low price. A variety of coats for infants.

Novelty Garments For Small Ones

Here is a department showing values and variety in novelty dresses. Rompers and creepers for children. All mothers are interested in these.

PIANOS, PLAYER PIANOS
AND
Edison---Pathe Phonographs

Weaver, Hobart M. Cable York, Janssen Pianos

Records and Rolls for all machines

Prices reasonable, and can pay on easy payment plan.

Prof. John T. Royer
W. Main St., Westminster

NOTICE!

TO COMMISSIONERS AND SUPERVISORS OF CARROLL COUNTY ROADS

The County Commissioners will be in session on the following dates for the payment of all road bills.

Please present same approved.

Districts Nos. 1, 2, and 3, Nov. 8, 1923.
Districts Nos. 4, 5, & 6, Nov. 9, 1923.
Districts Nos. 7 & 8, Nov. 14, 1923.
Districts Nos. 9, 10, & 11, Nov. 15, 1923.
Districts Nos. 12, 13 & 14, Nov. 16, 1923.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS,
Charles W. Melville, President.

10-19-3t

ARGUMENTS

won't sell lumber if the lumber itself isn't right. Therefore we won't waste any words in this advertisement, but will simply say to you, Mr. Buyer—come to our yards and inspect what we have to offer. If it isn't the biggest value in rough and dressed lumber you ever saw, we'll not try to argue you into thinking so.

LUMBER COAL & SUPPLY CO.
WESTMINSTER. MARYLAND.

As the presidential election draws near, an ever deepening affection for the farmer is being manifested.

©Maryland State Archives, msa_sc2900_scm2316-0363