Do Your Shopping Now.

The near approach of the holidays makes timely a warning against delay in doing the Christmas shopping. Now is the time to do it. Only seventeen business days intervene before the great festival of the year.

The incentive to do the Christmas shopping early is found both in selfish and unselfish motives. The early shopper has the larger assortment of fresh, new offerings from which to select, and the advantage of a comparatively quiet time ahead of the rush in which to perform the task. Delay will mean hurry and rush in the last few days before Christmas. The stores will be filled with excited, struggling crowds. Leisure in selection will be impossible. The stocks by that time will probably be reduced in quality and attractiveness.

An even stronger argument, which should appeal to all, is that of considerate kindness toward tired, overworked clerks. Under the strain of nervous haste, shoppers and clerks alike give way and what is at best a difficult task becomes even more unpleasant.

There is no need to delay. The Westminster stores are filled with the choicest and most extensive selections of goods. Our advertising columns tell something of what is to be found in them, but not half the story.

Remember Our County Poor.

The near approach of Christmas reminds us that there are more than the usual number of aged and afflicted persons in our Carroll County Home, looking forward to the annual treat, which, through the kind assistance of friends throughout the county, we have been able to prepare for them in the past. As the responses heretofore have been so prompt and liberal, I feel that we can, with confidence, promise them that when the glad Christmas comes again, there will be many who have contributed from out of the abundant blessings given them, and are willing to share with His poor, some of the joy and brightness of the blessed Christmas time. During the year, many have passed over to the other side, but others have taken their places, and to them the celebration of Christmas will be perhaps, a joyful surprise. They are old, they are poor, they are afflicted; let us help to brighten the last days of those to whom has come so much of sorrow and distress.

All contributions should be sent me as early as possible, as it takes time and thought to select and purchase articles which will give pleasure and comfort to the recipients, and each donation will be acknowledged, and gratefully received, no matter how small it may be. "Let every man do accordingly as he is disposed in his heart, not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver." The inmates of our County Home come from all parts of the county, and the little gifts have an added value, when we are able to say that the money, given for their purchase, came from their own home districts. It takes only a little from the many more fortunate citizens, to brighten the darkened lives of the few. Let us all help. Please address all communications to the care of House Warming.

Charity Lodge No. 58, Knights of Pythias, of this city, had a house-warming at its new Castle Hall, Davis Building, last Friday night. The Knights and a large number of their friends, wives, daughters and sweethearts spent a delightful evening. Dr. J. E. Shreeve presided as Chancellor Commander with dignity and grace. The regular order of business was conducted after prayer by Rev. P. H. Miller, D. D., acting prelate. Under "Good of the Order," Past Chancellor T. A. Kauffman made "the speech of the evening," forcefully emphasizing the principles of the order. Miss Azalea Shipley won deserved applause by her recitation, "The Sin of the Copperter Man." Mr. Albert C. Mitten sang "Sweetheart" in a charming manner, as beautiful pictures to illustrate the theme were thrown upon the screen by the lantern manipulated by Mr. William R. Anders. Mr. Russell Lewis proved himself a fine elocutionist in a splendid recitation of the old favorite "How Rubie Played the Piano." Reginald Stoner's piano solo not only entertained the hearers but called forth many prophecies as to the future of the talented young musician. Dr. Shreeve's rendering of several of Ezra Kendall's monologues was highly entertaining. The instrumental trio, Miss Anna Shriver, piano, Messrs. J. Thos. Anders and Guy Williams, violins, added to the evening's pleasure. Mr. J. Edward Little, with his phonograph, contributed to the enjoyment of the occasion with a number of songs, one of which was illustrated, and his little daughter won all hearts by charmingly and sweetly reciting an ode to the American flag, while "Old Glory" was thrown upon the screen. One of the most interesting features of the evening's entertainmnt was "The Old Fashioned Country Spellin' Skule," with Rev. W. L. Seabrook acting as "Skulemaster." Dr. Chas. R. Foutz and Mr. S. C. Stoner were the captains of the two sides in the spelling match, in which the contestants covered themselves with glory.

Refreshments, consisting of hot chocolate, wafers and cake, were served by the ladies, assisted by a number of knights. A pleasant hour was spent in a social way, with various games, and the evening closed with brief addresses by Mr. H. P. Gorsuch and Rev. Dr. P. H. Miller.

Committee of Arrangements: Dr. J. E. Shreeve, Messrs. J. Thomas Anders and J. Edward Little.

Reception and social committee: Mrs. O. M. Crouse, Mrs. S. C. Stoner, Mrs. J. Thos. Anders, Miss Anna Shriver, Miss Jane Reaver; Messrs. Guy L. Fowler, John H. Mitten, John J. Reese, Walter Grumbine, S. C. Stoner.

We Are Ready For CHRISTMAS

The Great Toy Store Is Ready

BOYS, girls, do you hear the word you have so anxiously awaited—our great Toy Store is ready. The surprises we began preparing for you away back last January—the wonderful things that we've gathered from all over the world—are now spread before you. And what a multitude! The Toy Store, occupying greatly enlarged quarters, can scarcely hold them. Tables, counters and shelves are fairly groaning under the load of wonder and mystery they bear. Most all our own importation.

"What is there to see?" Ask us something easier. How in the world can we give you even a faint idea? There's so much of interest—practically all the treasures of Santa-Claus-Land. Here, all that the fairy books tell about—all your childhood happy dreams—have sprung to joyous life. Everything that Santa Claus ever had, and hundreds of things that he never saw before. You can't think of a thing for playtime's hour that isn't here—Noah's Arks, drums, rubber balls, horses and wagons, horns, engines; all sorts of toys that do things; dolls, doll houses—but, goodness, gracious! what's theuse of trying to give a list when the number is almost endless, And, besides, it's a whole lot better to see them for yourself than to read about them. So come; this word was merely intended as a personal invitation to every child whose eye it meets. Bring your parents with you. They'll enjoy the show. Isn't any young person, be he or she months or eighty-six years of age, who won't.

IN THE BASEMENT YOU WILL FIND A COLLECTION OF China And Bric-A-Brac
(OF OUR OWN IMPORTATION)
Equal to the largest City Stores. We have made extraordinary preparations this year, expecting to do the largest business in our history.

MAKE YOUR PURCHASE EARLY. SHOP IN THE MORNING AND AVOID THE RUSH.
