St. PAUL'S REFORMED CHURCH ANNIVERSARY

The two hundredth anniversary of the organization of the first Reformed churches in the United States and the fifty-eighth anniversary of St. Paul's church, this city, will be observed with a week of services in St. Paul's church beginning Sunday, November 8th. The bi-centennial sermon will be preached by Rev. H. M. J. Klein Ph. D., professor of history in Franklin Marshall College, Lancaster, Pa. Dr. Klein is an eloquent and forceful speaker, and being a student of Reformed church history is especially well prepared to preach the anniversary sermon. On Monday evening at 7:30, Dr. Christopher Noss, of Sendai, Japan, will preach. Dr. Noss is a son of the late Rev. John G. Noss, who was pastor of St. Paul's church from 1876 to 1882. He is recognized as one of the leading missionaries in Japan. Dr. A. S. Weber, of Baltimore, who was pastor of St. Paul's from 1883 to 1887 will preach on Tuesday evening. On Wednesday evening the present pastor of the congregation will preach an historical sermon. Rev. Chalmers W. Walck, of Frederick, pastor of the local church from 1916 to 1924, will preach on Thursday evening. The Fathers and Sons banquet will be held in the Sunday school room on Friday evening at 6:30. Rev. Paul S. Leinbach, D. D., editor of the Reformed Church Messenger, Philadelphia, will preach on Sunday, November 15, at 11:00 A. M. Dr. Leinbach is a preacher of exceptional ability. The congregation anticipates his coming with great pleasure. Special music will be rendered at these services.

In the 58 years of St. Paul's history, she has been served by the following pastors: Rev. W. C. Cramer, 1868-1876; Rev. John G. Noss, 1876-1882; Rev. A. S. Weber, 1883-1887; Rev. Calvin S. Slagle, 1887-1916; Rev. C. W. Walck, 1916-1924, and Rev. J. N. Garner, 1924.

There is a history closely related to this congregation which goes back 40 years before the date of its organization. The Reformed people of Westminster worshipped in the old Union Chapel from 1820 to 1867 when the congregation was organized.

The public is invited to attend all these services.

COUNTY EXTENSION SERVICE

4-H Club Organized

The boys and girls in Berrett community have organized a Pure Bred Calf Club. They met at Clarence Conoway's home near Berrett with County Agent Fuller, Hubert Null and Burton Kephart of Taneytown.

Hubert Null told about his trip to Springfield, Mass., where he attended camp "Vail" and demonstrated killing and dressing poultry. Burton told about the judging contests in which he has taken part. James Bushey told about his trip to the National Dairy Show. Camfire stories, songs and yells with election of officers made up an interesting evening. Mrs. Conoway contributed hot chocolate and cake. James Bushey was elected president, Willard Milton, Vice-President, Frank Bushey, Sect., Nellie Conaway, Treas. The other members of the club are Claudia Conoway, Gladys Milter, Franklin Pickett, Harold Goodwin, William Fowble, Edwin Milton, Alva Conoway, Gordon Conoway, Naomi Shoemaker. The club will always welcome new members. Give your name to the President or County Agent Fuller.

GREEN—CASHMAN

Judge Lewis E. Green of the Orphans Court for Carroll County, and Miss Carrie I. Cashman, Hanover, were united in marriage Saturday evening in Uniontown, this county. The ceremony was performed by Elder W. P. Englar of the Church of the Brethren at his residence. The bride who has been employed as cashier by the American Stores Company in Hanover, was attired in a brown messaline dress. Judge and Mrs. Green will reside near New Windsor.

JURORS DRAWN

The following names were drawn for jurymen in place of those who were excused: George H. Nusbaum, instead of Edgar Myers; Edward Leese instead of George W. Yeiser; George E. Benson instead of Thomas O. Lindsay; Howard E. Koontz instead of George R. Grumbine; J. Ross Galt instead of Samuel N. Benedict; and John D. Grabill instead of Claude C. Billmyer.

W. C. T. U. MEETING

Thursday afternoon, October 29, in the community room, Wantz building, the Westminster W. C. T. U. held their regular monthly meeting. The subject for the meeting was health, and was in charge of Mrs. Howard E. Koontz. The opening number was a health song, sung to the tune America, and was led by Mrs. Edward Little. Mrs. Philena F. Fenby, county president, led in prayer. A number of ladies read selections from the Bible on the subject, Health. Mrs. Gates, of New Windsor, county superintndent of health, then delivered a very fine address on the importance of proper care of the body; the right sort of exercise, especially emphasizing walking. She also gave valuable information on food, recommending much fruit, particularly the orange, vegetables of almost every kind when properly prepared and eaten are conductive to good health. The address was followed by another health song to the tune of "Maryland, My Maryland." Mrs. Edward Bixler then gave a demonstration of health exercise taught her by a physician at Ocean Grove, N. J., which she said had kept her physically fit for the past two years, and which she strongly recommended, especially to the younger women present. A recitation by little Miss Catherine Gilbert was much appreciated.

At the conclusion of the program a short business session was held. Mrs. Clara Billingslea, the delegate from the Union to the State Jubilee Convention held in Baltimore, October 1 and 2, gave a very fine account of the convention. The work of the Westminster Loyal Legion was on exhibition there, and because of the superior workmanship some of it was to be sent to the National Convention to be held in Detroit, Michigan, this month. Many things of interest to the Union were discussed, and reports of the different departments heard. Two new names were added to the list of members. The county executive committee will meet in the community room, Thursday afternoon, November 19th, at 2:30 o'clock in a joint meeting with the Westminster Union.

SEMI-ANNUAL MEETING OF HOMEMAKERS CLUBS

The all-day semi-annual meeting of the Carroll County Federation of Home-Makers Clubs will be held in Westminster, Thursday, November 12. The morning session will be held in the County Agent's office at 10:00 o'clock. Most of the morning will be given over to business.

The afternoon session will be held in the firemen's building at 1:30 P. M. Dr. Haines, of the children's bureau of Washington, will deliver the address. A musical program has been prepared. All interested women of the county are invited.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS

On October 29, and 30, the board of county commissioners made a trip of inspection over various roads under construction and seeing where repairs were needed and to have the same repaired at once and put in the proper condition. They also gave the new road roller and grader a thorough trial and after the demonstration found that this was not the machine for which they were looking.

The commissioners and Dr. Stone made a visit to the Crownsville State Hospital where they were met by Dr. Winterode, who greeted them with his usual pleasant smile, and took them over the place for the purpose of making an inspection and to see the patients from Carroll county, who were looking in the best of condition and were contented with the place.

The following bills were passed and ordered paid: E. B. Phillips, No. 4, $22; Walter M. Arrington, No. 5, $15.30; J. N. Hilterbrick, $109.65; J. N. Cauthorn, $20; Joseph Bowers, County Home, $429.53; George E. Utz, $36.25; Claude C. Myers, $34.63; I. W. Zepp, $75.92; M. J. Grove Lime Company stone, $55.22; Dr. H. E. Henderson $247.08; E. W. Pickett $51.50; W. M. Tracey $64.25; Earl C. Haines $55; Board of Education, Taneytown school $7,355.27; Board of Election Supervisors $450.00; Henry Miller, $37.50; Harvey Bankard & Son $50; Dr. L. K. Woodward, examination $10; J. H. Ruby $8.00; C. & P. Telephone Co., $36.45; C. E. Eckenrode $42.85; M. J. Grove Lime Co., $57.54; and Ira Albaugh $24.

On December 8, 9, and 19, the annual meeting of the Maryland State Grange will be held in Frederick, Md.

ANNUAL RED CROSS ROLL CALL

The American Red Cross is the greatest agency for the relief of suffering or disaster that the world has ever known. Its creed is mercy and its boundaries are the earth's circumference. It is democratic because it belongs to and represents the people. It is non-sectarian for it makes no distinction of creed or color. Its purpose is to serve humanity in war or peace, at home or abroad. It is unnecessary for me to enumerate the many kinds of help it has given to suffering humanity, of the millions of dollars it has expended to aid the victims of war, fire, and flood, or even to speak of the many noble men and women who give of their service, many times endangering their lives in trying to render first aid. The assistance it gives to the disabled veteran, its educational methods to save human life, its public health nurses and welfare service, all of these splendid efforts are only a part of the work of the Red Cross. It carries on unceasingly and is tireless. In view of the knowledge we all have of this splendid organization, I consider that it is only necessary to bring to the attention of the public that the Annual Red Cross Roll Call will begin November 11. The solicitors will call at your door and we request that you have your membership dues ready for them. One dollar a year is a modest sum to ask for such a large work. I trust that all will consider it a privilege to help in such a worthy cause. The following will receive memberships in Westminster: Sharrer, Gorsuch & Starr, T. W. Mather Sons, Mr. Ray Fogle, Mrs. Ober Herr, Mrs. George Benson, Mrs. Sidwell, Mrs. Morris Mitten, Mrs. Michael E. Walsh, Miss Katharine Ramer, Miss Sue Billingslea, Miss La Rue Herr, Mrs. Harry Kimmey, Mrs. Paul Wimert, Mrs. Harry Hobby, Miss Lola Allender, Miss Elizabeth Gillelan, Miss Evelyn Mather, Miss Marie Lynch and Miss Dorohty Davis.

Nan R. Mather, Chairman Roll Call.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Matthews, Toledo, Ohio, are visiting their niece, Mrs. David Myers, East George street.

Rev. P. H. Miller, Towson, a former pastor of Grace Lutheran church, spent Tuesday in this city.

Burdett F. Smith, McSherrystown, Pa., and Miss Pauline E. McCleaf, Gettysburg, Pa., were married in this city on Monday by Rev. J. N. Garner, in the parsonage of St. Paul's Reformed church.

Mr. William Haviland and family, Baltimore, have moved their household goods into one of the T. W. Mather houses on Carroll street. Mr. Haviland is connected with the American Oil Company.

Misses Caroline and Sue Billingslea, East Main street, entertained Tuesday afternoon in honor of their guest Miss Marie Mills, a former resident of this city. Miss Mills will leave the end of this week for Alabama where she will spend the winter with relatives.

The Men and Women's Bible classes of St. Paul's Reformed church held their regular monthly business meeting in the lecture room of the church Monday evening. The regular business meeting was held after which Dr. W. C. Stone, health doctor, gave an interesting talk.

Mrs. M. E. Weidner, of Baltimore, who has been spending some time with her granddaughter, Mrs. John Leffert, E. Green street, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Clell Wagner, E. Main street. They had a fine oyster supper, music, and dancing.

A Japanese operetta "The Feast of the Little Lanterns" by Paul Bliss will be presented in the State Armory, Friday, December 4th. This will be given for the benefit of the Western Maryland College Endowment fund by Mrs. Noah Schaeffer, and Mrs. Homer Twigg. Mrs. Howard Ramsey, Baltimore, will assist. The dancers are under the direction if Miss Faith Millard of the college. There are twenty-five girls in the cast, and as the music is very beautiful it will show off the fine talent and voices of the Westminster girls.
