AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 1, 1909.

An Appalling Calamity.

The greatest seismic disaster recorded in the world's history occurred in the South of Italy and in the Island of Sicily, on Monday. The large cities of Messina, on the island, and Reggio di Calabria on the mainland and many other cities of considerable size and villages were partially or totally destroyed by an earthquake. Messina and Reggi were inundated by a great tidal wave following the shock and almost totally destroyed. Another shock was felt at Messina on Wednesday and completed its destruction. It is estimated that 110,000 people were killed in the two cities named, while many thousands more lost their lives in other places.

While Wm. Hatwood, colored, charged with a murderous assault upon Mr. Chas. E. Hill, a Howard county farmer, was having a hearing before a justice of the peace in Easton's Hall, Ellicott City, on Wednesday, the floor gave way and about 100 persons were precipitated to the concrete floor below. Nobody was killed, but 35 or 40 were badly and some of them were very seriously injured. Many of those in the hall were farmers from the surrounding country, who are earnest in desiring the condign punishment of Mr. Hill's assailant. Mr. Hill was very seriously injured and robbed.

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

For the Sentinel.

Centenary M. E. Church.

The revival services announced to be held in this church during the month of January 1909, will commence on Sunday, January 3rd. with a "New Year" sermon by Rev. C. Herbert Richardson, D. D., pastor. The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will follow the sermon. At 3 P. M., a Love Feast service will be held, and at 7.30 P. M., the special revival service. These services will be continued each evening of the week, save Saturday, at 7.30 o'clock, with preaching by Dr. Richardson.

The newly elected officers of the Epworth League will be installed at the service held at 6.45 P. M. on Sunday next.

Calendars.

The SENTINEL has received a handsomely illustrated calendar from Messrs. J. N. Dehoff & Son, of Greenmount, and a unique and expressive one from the Westminster Hardware Company. From Mr. Frank B. Matthews, proprietor of the Parker House, Pocomoke City, a beautifully illustrated calendar with large white figures has been received. Frank is a former Westminster boy and does not forget his old friends.

Mr. W. Riley Myers, agent of The Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J., has left at this office for distrijbution a number of fine calendars for 1909, issued by that company.

Ex-Sheriff Jos. L. Franklin, proprietor of Franklin's livery stable, John street, this city, sends us one of his calendars for 1909, which has very large, distinct figures.

Union Mills Items.

Christmas was a quiet day at Union Mills.

The Christmas exercises at the various churches in this vicinty were well attended.

On Christmas morning, the Union Mills band, in full uniform, assembled at its hall to have a picture taken, but for some reason or other the photographer failed to put in an appearance. The village was treated to some good music before the members of the band dispersed.

Oliver Sholl is constructing a farm bridge over Big Pipe creek in the meadow in front of his house.

Miss Cora Yingling has gone to Cincinati, Ohio, to visit the family of her brother-in-law Mr. Walter L. Frayer.

The family of Rev. H. M. Klein, of Allentown, Pa., arrived at the home of Mr. H. Wirt Shriver, on the 30th inst. to spend New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bowman, of Hanover, Pa., took their Christmas dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Daniel P. Frock, Mrs. Bowman's parents.

Manchester Items.

(The letters of our Manchester correspondent are always newsy, bright and interesting and we are always loathe to cut a line that he has written. We are specially sorry to be compelled by the crowded condition of our advertising columns to abridge his letter this week. His account of the Christmas services of the Reformed and Lutheran Sunday Schools is very interesting, and if it is possible to do so later, we will reproduce it, for history's sake. Ed.)

Among the Christmas weddings were those of

Mr. Howard Menchey and Miss Ella Lorringer, Mr. Edward Burgoon and Miss Annie Keck, Mr. Henry Myers and Miss .

A home wedding that stirred the society of Cranberry and Bachman's Valleys was celebrated on Sunday last, at the home of Mr. Theodore Fridinger, three miles west of Manchester. The contracting parties were his oldest son, Clinton and Miss Sadie Simons, of Snydersburg. Promptly at 10 o'clock, A. M., accompanied by Mr. Irvin Fridinger, brother of the groom, and Miss Mary Kopp, of Linebore, to the strains of the Fairy Wedding March, the young couple entered the parlor and were met by Rev. Wesley Fridinger, uncle of the groom, of Allentown, Pa., who performed the creremony by the rites of the U. B. Church. The bride was dressed in satin trimmed with lace, and the bridesmaid in cream cassimere. The presents, consisting of silver and glassware, linen, clocks, bric-a-brac and money were numerous. The home was decorated with flowering plants and evergreens and was very beautiful. The guests present numbered 126. (Their names were furnished the SENTINEL by its correspondent, but limited space prevents their use.)

Mr. Chas. W. Motter passed his 60th milestone on Tuesday evening. About 200 invitations were sent to friends to attend a social gathering to celebrate the occasion, most of whom were present.

When they find you have come to Sullivan's to buy your meat.
My cattle are not all driven through the street,
For I have the reputation of serving the best of meat.
I am not in business for the show
And have not advertised my meats before as you know.
When you meet people with baskets on the street,
You will hear them say I am going to Sullivan's for my meat.
I handle Fresh and Smoked Meats to devour,
And sell them before they get sour.
You will find perfection in my meat,
For it is always nice and sweet.
When you see some fine cattle on the street,
You know you are in for a treat.
If you go to Sullivan's to buy your meat.
My slaughterhouse is on John street,
Where the public can examine Sanitary condition and the kind of cattle I slaughter and keep.
When you have examined these conditions you will say,
Sullivan does not have to go around for display.
You need not go north, south, east or west
But go to Sullivan's for the best.

Coal - - Beware
ORIGINATORS OF THE LONG TON WEIGHT OF 2240 lbs. Clean Coal for a Ton.

The best Coals are the cheapest. All Anthracite Coals are not alike and none can nor will give the satisfaction the Philadelphia and Reading Coals give. We sell no other and in dealing with us you are sure to get the best. There are cheaper grades offered for less money, but a trial will prove their inferiority. Also there is no comparison between the Lykens Valley and the so-called red ash coals.

Bituminous Coal.

Genuine Big Vein George's Creek Coal on hand, both run of mine and Screened Lump.
