AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, MARCH 5, 1909.

THE INAUGURATION.

Notwithstanding the storm, great crowds witnessed the inaugural procession on Thursday. Many soldiers and civic organizations failed to reach Washington. Governor Crothers and his staff were among those who were held back. The famous Seventh Regiment of New York reached Baltimore, but could get no further. Thousands of men cleared Pennsylvania avenue of snow. President Taft delivered his inaugural in the Senate chamber. It was one of the most masterly addresses ever delivered on a similar occasion and will increase the confidence already felt in all sections in the wisdom of Judge Taft. He announced that he would call a special session of Congress on March 15th, to carry out the promises of the platform upon which he was elected in the revision of the tariff.

On almost every inauguration day since the adoption of the Twelfth amendment to the Constitution in 1804, fixing March 4th as the date, the weather has been inclement and disagreeable. The ordinary mind cannot understand why Congress does not submit to the States an amendment fixing a later date. To subject soldiers, sailors and citizens of the United States and of the States to discomfort and the danger of disease and death is little less than criminal.

TALKING IT OVER.

The Herald and News, of Newberry, S. C., told a good story last week. It says that Rural Mail Carrier W. G. Peterson, who is a friend of the junior editor of the SENTINEL, had an amusing experience recently.

A colored man living on Mr. Peterson's route got for himself a mail box and prepared to have all documents passing through Uncle Sam's hands that might be directed to him, carefully taken care of. Days went by and no letters nor papers, no mail indeed of any kind, came to him. Peterson is a good hearted fellow and one day dropped into the box of this particular patron a sample copy of a paper that had no address label. Imagine his surprise when the next day he was handed the following note by the negro:

"Mr. Wrider i not reddy to take male. When i git reddy i will let yu no. No mine send me eny male til i paye."

Commenting on the incident, the Herald and News says: "On first thought the note is amusing but just at this particular time to the Herald and News it has the ring of "sound doctrine." We trust that all our subscribers will be as prompt as this patron of Mr. Peterson, and that everyone who has not done so will come up at the earliest possible date and settle for his paper and continue to give us his patronage."

A great many SENTINEL subscribers have proved during the past month that they believe in this doctrine and, in response to the letter sent out recently have paid up. We believe that there are very few of our subscribers who will fail to comply with this request, unless they forget it.

Because some have forgotten, the time for payment has been extended to April 1st. A second letter has been sent out this week informing each subscriber in arrears what he owes, and asking for a remittance.

Our mailing list must be made to conform with the ruling of the Post Office Department, and after April 1st not a name will appear upon it of a subscriber who is in arrears for more than a year.

"Don't Knock! Boost!"

No more important subject has ever engaged the attention of the people of Westminster and the surroundng country than the proposed establishment of a Young Men's Christian Association.

Just at this time a brief resume of the steps already takan is not out of place.

For several years the feasability of such a movement has been seriously considered by a number of our citizens. The need of some community effort in behalf of our young men and boys was recognized by all. To the success of such an effort, in the opinion of men of experience, a properly equipped building is deemed absolutely essential.

That sine qua non was supplied by the noble gift of the Montour House building by Mr. George W. Albaugh. To a fund for its remodeling and equipment, our citizens gave most generous response, and nearly $8,500 has been subscribed. Organization of a Young Men's Christian Association has been effected, with a membership of about 100, and a sustaining membership of more than 60, each pledged to contribute $10 per year or so much thereof as may be necessary for a period of five years, and a splendid gift by a public spirited citizen of a large sum of money as the foundation of an endowment fund.

When the necessity of a building was talked about, many said that it was impossible to get a building. The building is provided. When the sum of $8,500 was named as the amount needed for improvement and equipment, even some of the most ardent advocates of the movement were inclined to say that much money could not be raised. It has been provided.

Now the question of support is raised, and some are inclined to doubt. In view of the removal of every difficulty up to this point, there is only one thing to do now—to go forward expecting success, working for success, talking success—and success will be achieved..

NEAR DEATH IN BIG POND.

It was a thrilling experience to Mrs. Ida Soper to face death. "For years a severe lung trouble gave me intense suffering," she writes, "and several times nearly caused my death. All remedies failed and doctors said I was incurable. Then Dr. King's New Discovery brought quick relief and a cure so permanent that I have not been troubled in twelve years." Mrs. Soper lives in Big Pond, Pa. It works wonders in Coughs and Colds, Sore lungs, Hemorrhages, LaGrippe, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Bronchial affections. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by all Druggists.

THE LURID GLOW OF DOOM

was seen in the red face, hands and body of the little son of H. M. Adams, of Henrietta, Pa. His awful plight from eczema had, for five years, defied all remedies and baffled the best doctors, who said nothing could save him. "But," writes his mother, "seven bottles of Electric Bitters completely cured him." For Eruptions, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Sores and all Blood Disorders and Rheumatism Electric Bitters is supreme. Only 50c. Guaranteed by All Druggists.

IT SAVED HIS LEG.

"All thought I'd lose my leg," writes J. A. Swenson, Watertown, Wis. "Ten years of eczema, that 15 doctors could not cure, had at last laid me up. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve cured it sound and well." Infallible for Skin Eruption, Eczema, Salt Rheum, Boils, Fever Sores, Burns, Scalds, Cuts and Piles. 25c at All Druggists.

KILLS WOULD-BE SLAYER.

A merciless murderer is Appendicitis with many victims. But Dr. King's New Life Pills kill it by prevention. They gently stimulate stomach, liver and bowels, preventing that clogging that invites appendicitis, curing Constipation, Biliousness, Chills, Malaria, Headache and Indigestion. 25c at All Druggists.

MARRIED.

On Feb. 25th, 1909, by Rev. S. C. Hoover, Mr. Denton A. W. Petry, of Union Mills, and Miss Anna M. Beachtel, of Hanover, Pa.

At the parsonage of St. Paul's Reformed Church, Westminster, March 1st, 1909, by Rev. C. S. Slagle, D. D., Mr. Wm. H. H. Myers and Miss Anna M. Roth, both of Adams county, Pa.

DIED.

At the home of her son-in-law, Howard E. Koontz, Frizellburg, February 23, 1909, Mrs. Mary C. Stoner, aged 83 years, 7 months, 17 days.

Rest, dear mother, thy work is o'er,
Thy willing hands will toil no more;
A faithful mother, so true and kind,
A better mother you could not find.
Sleep on dear mother, sweetly sleep,
We needed you but God knew best.

By her daughter, Mrs. H. E. Koontz.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear little girl, Eva, infant daughter of Allie C. and Mary E. Gorsuch, who departed this life one month ago, January 28, 1909.

She is gone but not forgotten.

One long sad month has passed and gone,
That voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

Dear lovely babe, to part with you,
Hath racked our heart with pain,
But though your loss is great we trust
God will be with you till we meet again.

By her Parents.

In sad but loving remembrance of our son Gordon Shipley, who departed this life three years ago, March 6, 1906.

Oh the misery of that dreary evening.
When we stood around his bed,
Till death stole upon him softly,
And we knew his soul had fled.

Friends may think I'll soon forget him,
And my wounded heart be healed,
But they little know the sorrow
That's within my heart concealed.

How often, standing near the tomb,
I sigh for thee in deepest gloom;
Thy face my mind will ever see—
Forgotten thou shalt never be.

There is a time for all to rest,
Beneath the peaceful sod,
And happier still a time more blessed,
When all shall be with God.

By his Parents.

Charles C. Richardson died Feb. 27th, 1909, at 4 a. m., in his 54th year.

How long he struggled against disease
That baffled skill and care.
How long he lingered, racked with pain
And sufferings hard to bear.

All his pains and griefs are over,
Every restless tossing passed,
He is now at a peace forever,
Safe at home with Jesus to dwell.

Gone from earth, yes gone forever,
Tear dimmed eyes shall gaze in vain,
We shall hear his voice oh never,
Never more on earth again.

Oh how hard we tried to save him,
But our efforts were in vain
For it was the time God had chosen
To relieve him of his pain.

By his Wife.
