LEANS DEFEAT FATS IN BASE BALL GAME

Wednesday two teams from the Rotary Club this city, engaged in an exciting and pleasing, but rotten game of base ball. They were named Leans and Fats.

Last year the Fat team of the club defeated the Lean team very decisively, but this year the Leans club [illegible] 13 to 12.

After being postponed twice on account of rain the game was finally staged on Hoffa Field, Western Maryland College, and a large number of rooters for each club were present, and uniforms of many colors, styles, and fits were pleasing to the eye.

The only untoward event happened when Harry Kinsey, of generous proportions, tried to gather in a ground ball. His uniform pantaloons, not having been built for athletic exercising, gave way in a most disgraceful and embarrassing manner and he was forced to retire for repairs.

The proceeds of the game will be applied to the boys' work of this city.

The line-up was as follows: Fats—Custard, c.; LaMotte Smith, p.; Pearre Watts, 1b.; Frank Thomas, 2b.; Reese, 3b.; Edwin Gehr, ss.; Bill Conaway, l.; Charles Richardson, cf.; Joe Hunter, rf. Leans—Custard c.; Billy Twigg, p.; Frank Billingslea, 1b.; Carroll Albaugh, 2b.; Tom Anders, 3b.; Ralph Bonsack, ss.; Marshall Campbell, lf.; Frank Dillard, cf.; Homer Twigg, rf.
