SLIPPERY ROADS CAUSE ACCIDENTS

Several automobile accidents were caused by the slippery roads following the storm in the late afternoon on Saturday. A string of cars returning from the Gettysburg-Western Maryland football game skidded from the road this side of Littlestown. The car of Miss Lillian Hoffman, East Main street, this city, with several girls of this city, ran into a ditch, causing slight damage to the car.

While this car was being replaced on the road traffic became congested and when the car of Walter F. Coppersmith, with a number of football players as occupants, approached the scene Coppersmith's car also skidded and turned turtle. No one in the car was hurt, but the sedan was completely demolished. The wrecking crew of H. H. Harbaugh towed the car to the Palace garage.

Following Mr. Coppersmith's car, a party traveling in a Packard, was forced to drive into the field to avoid the congestion.

Another accident late Saturday evening at the Mason and Dixon line occurred when an automobile driven by an employe of the Union Bridge cement plant skidde and turned turtle into a ditch. It took the wrecking crew of the City Garage several hours to replace the car on the road.

NINE HURT IN CRASH

Nine persons, six of them children, were seriously injured Monday night when three automobiles collided on Reisterstown road at McDonogh lane, Baltimore county. All the injured were taken to their homes.

One of the automobiles contained the family of Edward Barthol, of Finksburg, this county. Mr. Barthol was badly cut about the body. Three of his children, Edward Barthol, Jr., Anna and Katherine Barthol were the most seriously hurt. They received deep cuts on the head and face. Two other children, Gloria and Raleigh, escaped with minor cuts.

In the second automobile Charles Forwood, York road, the driver, was seriously hurt. It is feared he may have internal injuries. Mrs. Hhompson, 1230 West North avenue, Baltimore, and her daughter, Alice, were thrown to the road when the crash came and were badly cut and bruised. Three other persons in the car, Elizabeth Thompson, Robert Abrich and a girl, escaped injury. Occupants of the third car were uninjured.

It is said Mr. Barthol was driving north while Mr. Forwood was going south. Police say Mr. Barthol's car skidded and crashed into Mr. Forwood's automobile and then into the third machine. The Barthol family was treated by a physician of Reisterstown, while the occupants of the second car were cared for by a physician of Pikesville. The two automobiles were badly damaged.

REPUBLICANS NOMINATE NATIONAL AND STATE TICKETS

Party United. Much Enthusiasm. Governor Goldsborough Presided.

Yesterday the Republican State Convention was held in the Auditorium theater, Baltimore, and was attended by complete sets of delegates, and a large number of visitors from every part of the state.

Col. John Phillip Hill, defeated candidate for U. S. Senator, moved that the nomination of U. S. Senator Weller be made unanimous, and Marion J. Humphreys, defeated candidate for Governor, moved that the nomination of Addison E. Mullikin be made unanimous. Governor Goldsborough, who presided, declared that Hill and Humphries had shown they were true Republicans and first class sportsmen.

The other candidates nominated are: For Attorney General, Wm. F. Broening, Baltimore; Clerk of Court of Appeals, Eva C. Chase, of Prince George's county, and Comptroller, Charles F. Goodell, of Frederick county.

The platform adopted unanimously by the convention is too long for publication in the Sentinel, but the following subjects were treated intelligently and patriotically:

The so-called "State's Rights" issue, so often advocated by Governor Ritchie, the present Democratic governor, is attacked most vigorously; a third term for any governor is opposed; minority representation on all boards and commissions is advocated; tax matters discussed; reorganization of Motor Vehicle Department advocated; farm legislation promised; repeal of "Intention Act" demanded; law enforcement promised, Conowingo project scored, and religious freedom advocated.

The Republican party in Maryland is again united and in the coming election will give a good account of itself.
