WESTMINSTER TALENT TO BROADCAST

Westminster talent will be given a chance to "go on the air" when WKBG, radio station, starts broadcasting from the stage of the Star theatre, this city, next week.

Final arrangements for the establishment of a radio station with a 215 meter wave length have been completed and programs will be broadcast nightly.

Starting April 4th the local speakers, singers and musicians will be given a chance to entertain the "invisible audience." While Westminster has an abundance of theatrical talent the extent of its "radio talent" has never been plumbed but it is confidently expected that some excellent programs can be arranged.

Programs consisting of both vocal and instrumental music, dialogues or sketches will be arranged as soon as the talent available is listed. An application blank appearing at the bottom of this page is all that is necessary to make the arangements for the broadcasting, which will be carried on in connection with the regular show of the Star theatre.

It is planned by George Osborne, manager of the theatre, to have the programs start at 8:45 P. M. and he requests the artists to report at the theatre at 8:15 P. M. during the week. The performers will be permitted to give as many selections as time permits; depending on the number scheduled to appear for that evening.

Musicians skilled with any kind of instruments, uke'eles, saxophones, trumpets or jews harps, will all be given a chance to entertain and it is thought probable that several musical organizations, such as the glee clubs, the orchestras and bands at both the high school and the college will give concerts.

On Sunday night, April 3rd, a religious service wil be conducted from the stage of the theatre. A local minister will give a short sermon and a special choir will be secured to conduct the singing. The service will start at 9:00 o'clock.

The station can be heard over a radius of 1000 miles, more or less, depending on climatic conditions.

The call for musicians is not confined to Westminster alone, but to all parts of the county, and if it is found possible, several of the old fiddlers who have been playing for the old fashioned dances in the county will be called upon to take part in the program.

All that is necessary to become eligible to broadcast is to fill out the coupon at the bottom of this article and mail to George Osborne, manager of the Star theatre, Westminster, Md., and arrangements will then be made to arrange a varied schedule for the week's entertainment.

RADIO COUPON

I desire to broadcast from Station WKBG some time during the week of April 4 from the Star Theatre.
