AMERICAN SENTINEL.

WESTMINSTER, - MARYLAND.

JOS. D. BROOKS, Editor.

Entered at the Postoffice at Westminster, Md., as Second-class matter.

FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1910.

Well, the Green street bridge is "just in the same old way."

To keep up with Miss May this year the Queen of the May was compelled to be a lightning change artist.

Good-bye Miss May! You were very pleasant and pretty, at times, but mighty disagreeable at others.

When the poet wrote "December is as pleasant as May" he must have had in mind May 1910.

June brides and grooms are like the college graduates. They are all commencing life.

An unswept town is like an unswept house. Both will get filthy and untenantable. The broom is mightier than the sword—sometimes.

Take it a little steady boys. A garbage department is all right if properly looked after, but a mighty expensive thing if allowed to run by itself. It is the best loafing job in the town.

The speed laws of the city seem to be dead letters. When some of the automobilist get to the East end of Main street they seem to think it is their business to show the residents how fast they can make their cars travel. We suppose it will take a serious accident and one or two deaths to wake up our officers to the realization of the existing conditions.

Our forefathers came to this country and found it to be a land of plenty. We are living at an extravagant rate, and if not stopped, it will compel our great grand-children to get aboard flying machines and emigrate to another globe. We have been allowing our resources to be wasted and our mountains to be denuded of their timber and if persisted in it will bring untold misery upon us all. Let us stop before it is too late.

Let us give all of our officials the credit of being honest. Don't think that every public official is a rascal and that every politician should be sent to the penitentiary. Some of the best statesmen and patriots this country has produced were politicians before they were office holders. We know of one judge in Maryland who, at the time of his nomination for judge, was bitterly denounced by certain newspapers. He was elected and served a full term, and when he came up for re-election the same newspapers could not find words strong enough to express their admiration for him as a judge. Don't get it into your head that all politicians are fools and rascals. Some of them may e rascals but few of them are fools. It akes a clear thinker to be a judge or a politician. Many men fail as political leaders because they have not been endowed with brains enough to be real leaders of men. Some men imagine themselves leaders who in reality are only camp followers.

Our Democratic friends have furnished concrete example of the alleged terrible injustice being done by the present tariff law. As a matter of fact the commodities which have increased so perceptibly in price are those upon which the duty has been lowered. As soon as the duty is lowered by our government the foreign producer immediately puts up the price thereby benefitting to the extent of the decrease in the duty. Some foreign governments, upon a reduction of the duty by our government, immediately increase the export duty and we pay the same or a greater price. In the latter case the foreign government gets the benefit of a duty and our government loses it. The foreign producer, to justify the increase price, says the crop has been short and therefore the price must be higher. It is remarkable how the crops shrink as soon as our duties are lowered. Some years ago our government lowered the duty on coffee from Brazil. Just before the reduction Rio coffee sold at retail for 13 cents per pound or two pounds for 25 cents. The Brazillian government immediately imposed an export duty and Rio coffee went up to 25 cents a pound. The latter transaction occurred during the Democratic administration of our government. The Brazillians immediately sent out a short crop lie and lots of our people believed it. If you listen to the free trade and low tariff Democrats they will have you paying your money to the foreign producers' governments instead of to your own.

If charity does not begin at home, patriotisim should.

Clean Up The Town.

The mud is rapidly accumulating on Main street. Let it get dry and then put a gang of men to work with stable brooms and give the whole street a good sweeping. By so doing the city will save a lot of money now spent for sprinkling, owners of horses and automobiles will be saved a lot of expense and annoyance and our citizens will be able to enjoy their porches and front stoops during the summer. Mud and dust have no rightful place within a city, especially during the summer months. Get out the broom gang and the germs, nails, broken glass and whatnots will be hauled out of town.

The young ladies and gentlemen of our town often heard the fathers and mothers tell of the good times they enjoyed in the old time barn dances and in order to fully realize the pleasure of this old time fun they decided to have a dance. After considerable search for a suitable and convenient barn they approached the genial Dr. H. M. Keller to give them the privilege to fit up his place, which he cheerfully granted, and on Friday the 7 ult. all hands were busy in converting the operating room of his barn into a veritable fairyland. The sides were hung with gay blankets and drapery trimmed with bunting and flags, the cozy corner was banked with downy cushions, while the rough floor was made to glisten with a wax preparation that made it all that could be wished. A square of the stabling was partitioned off with blankets for elevated seats for the musician. At 8:30 the young folks began to gather, finding the place lit up with two large electric lamps that added much to the inviting appearance. Fun was alive as everybody had brought their good cheer with them and anxious to get their program headed with the name, date and a popular song such as "Put on the old Grey Bonnet," "Shine on Ye Harvest Moon." With fourteen numbers, six square dances, four waltzes, two two-steps, closing with "Home Sweet Home." Fine lemonade was freely dispensed. At 10 P. M. an intermission was taken and the large company all enjoyed a fine view of the comet. At a later hour refreshments of ginger bread and coffee were served by Mesdames Dr. Sherman, Dr. Kellar and Harvey Burgoon. Twenty couple participated in the dancing while the onlookers outnumbered them by far. Mr. Valentine Menchey furnished the music and Mr. Ed. Burgoon was floor manager and called the figures. Among the merry makers were Dr. John Stick, of Hampstead; Dr. Harrison, of Virginia; and Harry Bollinger, of Glyndon. It certainly was a red letter period in the history of the company as all enjoyed a royal time. Even the stable dog was attracted to the fun and while the music and dancing was going on he would occupy a place beside the musician and as soon as the dance was over he would take the floor with a large ball and give an exhibition of his antics.

The members of Pocahontas Tribe of Red Men of this place held their Memorial services and decorated the graves of deceased members of the order on Sunday afternoon. A stand decorated with national colors had been erected under the grand old oak at the cemetery gate, with seats provided for the members in front. The members met in their hall on South Main street and headed by Alesia band marched to the stand where appropriate exercises were held. Messrs. Littleton and Giles, of Baltimore, members of the grand lodge, delivered addresses. At the close of the exercises the march was taken to the graves of deceased members which were strewn with flowers. The lodge was well represented and a large crowd of persons present.

The postponed special service by the members of the U. B. Church on High street was held on Sunday morning last. Rev. Strine was the minister in charge. The orchestra and the Greenmount choir were present and furnished special music and added interest to the occasion. P. E. Washinger preached the sermon. Some months ago the congregation put a new metal roof on the church and the membership being small it left a debt on the repairs and this special service was held to present the matter to the members and friends and ask them to aid in the liquidation of the debt. They asked for eighty dollars. At the close of the exercises the trustees had the pleasure to add $92 to their repair fund.

Messrs. C. J. H. Ganter and H. T. J. LaMotte took an auto spin to Harrisburg on Sunday morning. All went well until forty miles from home and within thirteen of their destination when they had a blowout, and no repairs with them and none available for some time, within telephone reach. But at last the necessaries reached them, that put them on their way, only to have several more bursts. At last all was righted and they arrived home in the early evening after an 125 mile ride.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. B. Myers attended the funeral of Mrs. John Panebaker on Saturday at Christ's Church, near Littlestown. She was aged 54 years. Mr. P. is a brother of Mrs. Myers.

Dr. T. S. Land and delegate, Mr. T. Kuhns, attended classis at Boonsboro.

Mr. E. R. Crouse of Reading, Pa., is a guest of his sister, Mrs. M. L. Morelock, and will be among friends for several months.

Mrs. Maurice Unger and son, Robert, of Manilus, New York, are visiting Mrs. U's. parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. Shower.

There is much sympathy for Mr. Samuel Miller who for several months has been upon crutches suffering with tuberculosis of the bone of the knee with but little change in his condition.

A number of our people attended the C. E. Convention at Lineboro last week.

Mrs. Isaiah Blocher who was paralyzed on Sunday died Wednesday night at her home in Alesia and will be buried on Saturday in the Lutheran cemetery here. She leaves two daughters to mourn her loss.

Miss Mary Masenhimer gave a party as a farewell social to her little friend, Miss Amanda Rittase, who will leave for Baltimore next week. That the large company of little girl friends had a good time is putting it mildly. Fine refreshments were served.

Falls Bottom Items.

There will be an ice cream and strawberry festival at the Woodbine Lutheran Church, Saturday evening, June 4th.

Mrs. James Fleming and Mrs. Geo. A. Fleming spent the afternoon of last Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Abner Gosnell.

Mr. M. H. Penn killed a large fox on his farm, near here, last Wednesday morning, after it had killed several chickens for him.

The remains of Marie, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Atlee Davis, was interred in the cemetery at the Church of God Bethel on May 30th. The funeral sermon was preached by Rev. V. K. Betts, assisted by Rev. E. Roy Buckingham Mr. James M. Pickett was funeral director.

Owing to the continued cool weather the crops are held back. Some hay will be short but the wheat crop is looking fine in this vicinity.

CORTRIGHT METAL SHINGLES

WHEN Cortright Metal Shingles were first introduced (24 years ago) you had some excuse for being sceptical:
But now—
If you are sceptical it can only be because you do not know the facts in the case.
They are used today from the Atlantic to the Pacific for all kinds of buildings, under all conditions.
They are fireproof, stormproof; never leak and last as long as the building itself without needing repairs.
