GRAND OLD MAN OF HARFORD CO.

HON. WILLIAM B. BAKER AGAIN FOR CONGRESS.

Republicans of Second District Select Him as Their Standard-bearer in the Coming Fight—Always Willing to Tackle the Enemy—Defeated Mr. Talbott Once for Congress.

Hon. William B. Baker, the "grand old man of Harford county," as he is affectionately called by his friends, has been selected by Republican leaders of the Second District as their candidate for Congress. He has consented to accept the nomination.

The selection was made at a conference held on Tuesday in the office of Mr. John Hanna, chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, in the Calvert Building.

Among those at the conference were Messrs. E. M. Allen, of Harford; Henry F. Baker, William H. Lawrance, Laban Sparks, O. E. Weller, W. P. Gundry and James Norris, of Baltimore county; Edward Tudor, of the Fifteenth ward; Charles R. Schirm, Stephen R. Mason, Harry F. New, E. L. Harrison, B. M. Haughey and A. Van Wyscki, of the Fifteenth ward; Delegate George B. Eldridge, of the Sixteenth ward; and Walter R. Rudy, of Carroll county.

At an informal session after the regular meeting all present promised their hearty support to the candidates.

The selection of Mr Baker came as a surprise to many of those present. Every one of them wanted him, but it was generally supposed that he would not accept, having declared repeatedly that he did not again want the office. However, friends, feeling that he is the strongest man in the district to run against Congressman Talbott prevailed upon him to accept. Mr. Asa B. Gardiner, of Baltimore county, was prominently mentioned for the nomination in the event of Mr. Baker's declining to run. Mr. Gardiner gladly stepped aside in favor of Mr. Baker as soon as it was made known to him that the former would accept the nomination.

In reality the selection of Mr. Baker on Tuesday is not a nomination. It will be necessary for him to be nominated at the primary election on August 30, but it does mean that he will have no opposition and if he does whoever opposes him will not receive the support of the organization. It is unlikely that anyone will oppose him, for he probably is the most popular Republican in the district, and the voters are heartily anxious for him to accept the nomination. The absence of opposition will reduce the cost of the primary to the Republicans to a minimum.

Mr. Baker has been in Congress three terms and has also served his party in the state Senate. In 1904 he defeated Hon. J. Fred C. Talbott for Congress. While a member of the House he permitted the experiment of free rural delivery to be tried in his district. In accepting the nomination he made a brief address in which he said the platform of the national Republican party will be his platform. "It is good enough for me," declared Mr. Baker amid the cheers of those present.
