FRIDAY, JANUARY 6, 1911.

Miss Annie Forwood of 422 Hickory Avenue Hampden, Baltimore, was killed in an automobile accident on Sunday morning.

Charles Edward Twigg of Keyser, W. Va., and Miss Grace Elosser, of Cumberland, were found sitting on a lounge dead, at the home of the latter on Saturday afternoon. Twigg and Miss Elosser were engaged to be married and just a very short time before their bodies were discovered the mother of Miss Elosser heard them laughing and apparently in good spirits. An examination of the bodies disclosed the fact that they had been poisoned by a deadly drug but how it was administered to them is still a mystery

MANCHESTER ITEMS

The holiday week was well made use of by the social circle. There was a great deal of calling and returning of calls by our people and refreshments plentiful, so that one almost tired of even the offering let alone the indulgence. Many of the young folks enjoyed masquerading and had a general good time in many homes. On Thursday evening a company of masked ladies and gentlemen went to Hampstead and spent an enjoyable evening among friends. The old year passed away in gloomy darkness and as the New Year dawned the falling rain soon crystalized upon streets and pavements, so that walking became quite dangerous. Church and Sunday school services were slimly attended. Even at this writing the gloomy weather has added a heavy fog with drizzling rain, making outdoor life very unpleasant. But as an offset to the gloom there is cheer to know that the waters from the melting snow and ice of last week, with the rains of the New Year days, have replenished some of our wells that have been dry for some months. A gentleman from the country that had been hauling water for his stock for three months told us that on Monday he could again water his stock at his pump in his barnyard.

On Wednesday of last week the members of the Lutheran choir, of this place, rendered the cantata "The Prophet of Nazareth," that was attended by a large audience, in Emanuel Lutheran church.. The large platform with the Christmas decoration added to the beauty of the occasion and gave an enjoyable entertainment to those present. The pastor, Rev. Lau, made a pleasant address during one of the intermissions.

Several solos with choruses and quartettes followed at the close of the cantata. A fairy dance was an interesting feature of the entertainment.

The sopranos were Misses LaMotte, Myers and Miller; alto, Miss Hoffacker and Mrs. Stump; tenor, Myers, Lau and Hoffacker; bass, Geiselman and Smith with Mrs. A. H. Geiselman, pianist.

Midnight Mass was celebrated on Christmas eve in the Catholic Church by the Rev. McAdams. Special music was rendered, assisted by Prof. Loats with trombone.

Watch meeting was held at the home of Dr. Luther Trump, on Saturday evening. There was a company of fifty or more present who enjoyed a very pleasant social time. Among the company was Mr. F. K. Herr and family who spent New Year's Day with their friends. At a late hour abundant refreshments were served and enjoyed by all.

Mr. John B. Lamotte and sisters entertained Mr. and Mrs. Breckenridge Shaw and sons, of Frederick, and Mr. and Mrs. H. T. J. LaMotte at dinner, on New Year's Day.

On Thursday evening, 29 ult., a company of ladies and gentlemen took the the home of Mr. Chas. W. Motter by surprise and made a captive of the bachelor, who soon became himself and entered into the spirit of the occasion in his usual jovial manner. Being his birthday, many of the company indulged in cards while the rest had the freedom of the home and enjoyed a good social time, until the refreshment hour, when they enjoyed the bountiful supply of good things for the inner man.

At the annual election at Trinity Reformed Sunday School on Sunday last, John B. Baker was elected superintendent; John W. Burns, Asst. Supt.; C. Robert Brilhart, Sect'y.; Walter Brilhart, Asst. Sect'y.; Paul H. Leese, Librarian; Maurice Gettier, Asst. Librarian; Dr. David Everhart, Treas and Miss Ray Hoffacker, organist.

The friends of Mr. Joseph L. Young were notified of his death last week in York, Pa., at the age of 51 years. Joe was one of our boys and was a popular employee in the store of E. J. Crumrine & Co., at one time. On leaving he went to York and took a position in the Weist store where he rose to the place next below the employer, whom he served for thirty some years. He leaves a widow.

Mr. Ross Shower and Miss Lottie Berwager, east of town, drove to the Reformed Parsonage on Tuesday evening, of last week, and were quietly married by the Rev. Dr. Land, in the presence of his family.

District Deputy Daisy Burgoon installed the officers of Manchester Rebekah Lodge No. 18, I. O. O. F., on Tuesday evening. Mollie C. Brilhart, N. G.; M. Elda Abkin, V. G.; G. W. J. Everhart, Rec. Sect'y.; Bertha M. Gettier, Fin. Sect'y.; Hester Musselman, Treas.; Minnie Berugen. War.; Susie Bixler, Con.; Daisy Burgoon, R. S. to N. G.; Lamanda Stick, L. G.; Flora Burgoon, R. S. to V. G.; Mamie Burgoon, L. G.; Ida Brilhart, Chap.; Clinton Barnhart, I. G., and J. E. Leese, O. G. After the close of the lodge the members present were called to the lower hall and enjoyed an oyster feast.

Mr. Chas. W. Motter royally entertained 15 of his friends at dinner on New Year's evening. Everything was first class.

Mr. Samuel Miller, who was taken to the hospital in Baltimore several weeks ago, was operated on on Saturday last and his leg taken off above the knee. He rallied and is doing well at this writing.

Mr. J. B. Baker and sister Carrie spent some days with friends in Thurmont, last week.

Mr. Chas. Menchey, of Richmond, Va., spent the New Year holidays with friends here.

Mr. Albert Dudrear, fell in the ice and broke a bone of the wrist besides receiving a bad sprain.

Mrs. Dr. H. M. Keller spent part of the holidays with friends in Baltimore.

Mr. Chas. Miller and friend, of Baltimore, were guests of Mr. M.'s parents on New Year.

Mr. Walter Blizzard, of Baltimore, spent New Year's Day with friends, at the home of Mrs. J. M. Motter.

So you better take advantage of this sale, as we cannot buy again many of the items offered at the prices we are selling them during this sale. This will be one of the biggest sales we have ever had, as we bought very heavy, and the early fall being unseasonable, left us with too much stock in some lines, so we must move them before stock taking.
