Mr. E. D. C. Hegeman,
Editor and Propr. American Union,
Denton, Maryland.

My dear Mr. Hegeman:

I wish to thank you for the copy of the publication, "The American Union" as of the 19th instant, which I noted with much interest.

It is indeed a well edited paper and I wish to congratulate you on your good work, and your good judgment in locating in the town of Denton, which is what I consider a wide-wake town. The land all through that section, as you know, is in a very high state of cultivation and you are among splendid people.

I would be very glad to have you enter my name on your list of subscribers and send me a bill for same and it will be my pleasure to forward you a check.

Wishing you much success in your work and with my very highest personal regards to you and Mrs. Hegeman, I beg to remain

Very truly yours,
H. W. CARTY.

HOLIDAY APPEAL FOR CHILDREN WHO ARE SUFFERING IN THE EAST

Committee For Armenian and Syrian Relief Asks That America Give of It's Abundance To The Little Ones Over Seas.

At this season of prosperity and plenty throughout this broad Christian land it is meet and proper that we should give a thought to others not so fortunate as ourselves. While we give thanks around our bounteously laden boards at Christmas, let us pause and think of the starving, homeless, freezing little waifs beyond seas, and of our abundance spare them at least a tithe.

The approaching holiday season is the time when our own little ones will be happiest, well fed, warmly clad and full of the Christ like joy which the advent of His birth always brings. So for their sake let us all endeavor to bring some measure of comfort to the little brothers and sisters of our children whose hardships are robbing them of the happiness that should be every child's birthright.

The Committee for Near East Relief is issuing the following open letter to the American public, which should be proud of the privilege of assisting so worthy a cause:

Dear Friend:

The Children of Sorrow stand before you! Won't you set a place for them at your table on Christmas Day?

They are ragged, homeless and hungry, but they are not hopeless. In their simple faith, they turn trustingly to you.

The Children of Sorrow! There are unknown thousands of them: 110,639 of whom are under American care. It is an appalling number of pitiful, orphaned wards the Near East Relief must shelter under its merciful wings. There is mile after mile of human misery to be relieved.

Fatherless and motherless these are the children of Armenians, Greeks, Syrians and Jews made homeless and dependent by the atrocities of the Turks. They will have no place this year at a family table of their own on the Great Day we celebrate.

As you eagerly plan this festival for the children dear to your own heart, think for a moment what it would mean if some terrible fate deprived them of your love and care, left desolate, suffering with disease and bitter cold. Yet those children across the sea were once the adored and beloved babies of other fathers and mothers whose protecting love they never will know again.

A diet of bread for breakfast, bread and soup for dinner and bread for supper! And yet this slender ration means life to them.

Five dollars a month will feed one child. Ten dollars a month will feed and clothe one. Fifteen dollars a month will feed, clothe, shelter and educate one of these Children of Sorrow. Maryland has 2084 of these orphans in the city of Alexandropol for which she is responsible.

At this season of giving won't you let the claim of one of these Children of Sorrow find a place in your heart?

His hungry eyes look at your woolfed children, and his longing hand reaches out to your Christmas tree.

Will you bring a smile to this Child of Sorrow by sharing with him your Christmas?

That your county may receive due credit, make your check payable to your local Treasurer, whose name appears below:

WOMEN'S VOTE LARGE

26,500,000 Are Eligible to Ballot in November Election.

Washington.—Figures compiled by the census bureau and other government departments indicate that the number of women in the United States over twenty-one years of age is 28,035,000, of whom approximately 26,500,000 are eligible to vote in the November election. This estimate makes a liberal allowance for alien women, American women married to aliens and other ineligibles.

Exact figures are not available on the number of women over twenty-one, but barred from voting from various reasons. Census bureau officials believe, however, that this year at least 1,000,000 of the 5,250,000 foreign-born women in the United States will not yet have become naturalized. In addition there were in 1910, according to the census, about 60,000 Indian women, most of whom were living on reservations; 8,607 Chinese and Japanese women ineligible to vote, a comparatively small number of American women married to aliens and barred from voting for that reason, and a larger number deprived of the ballot under state statutes in harmony with constitutional provisions. The total of these ineligibles was estimated at about 1,500,000.

American women married to aliens are not eligible to vote, the Department of Justice has held, but foreign-born women married to American citizens or whose fathers have become American citizens are entitled to the ballot, without naturalization proceedings.

The number of eligible male voters in the United States this year has not been determined. Based on an estimated population of 105,000,000, however, the census bureau figured that there are now 34,807,000 men in the United States over twenty-one years of age, of whom probably 31,500,000 would be entitled to vote in November.

OLD CHANCERY INN FOR SALE

Famous London Building, Six Centuries Old, Will Be Offered at Auction.

London.—After six centuries the historic Clifford's inn, oldest of the nine inns of Chancery, is to be offered for sale by auction.

The first authentic record of Clifford's dates back to 1310, when it was granted to Baron Clifford by Edward II. It was first let to students of law in the reign of Edward III.

In the quaint old hall Sir Mathew Hale and seventeen others sat after the great fire of London in 1666 to adjudicate upon claims of landlords and tenants of burned houses. There are preserved in the British museum forty thick volumes recording their decisions.

Belongs to the "Old School."

Connersville, Ind.—A woman called for jury service in a magistrate's court here refused to serve. She said she had dishes to wash and housework to do and if forced to serve she would not return a just verdict.
