The clans are gathering at Chicago.

The summer visitors are arriving.

Carroll County is one of the garden spots of the earth. Come and see it.

A penitentiary should be a reformatory and not a place of torture. Governor Goldsborough should insist upon a thorough investigation.

The Church of the Brethren is having a great meeting at York, Pa. It is a great body and full of practical charity.

The free library of Westminster is a small institution but for its size is doing a great work and should be helped by every citizen in the community. Many young people, and old ones too as far as that is concerned, are unable to purchase the many edifying books which are being published but $1 per year contributed to the library will help bridge over the difficulty. If you feel like helping your fellow man contribute now.

The proposed drinking fountain to be erected in this city by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of this city, will be a monument to them. We suggest, however, that they follow the example set by the city of Chicago and avoid the use of the old fashioned ladle or cup. A thirsty person should use an individual drinking cup or glass.

A sanitary drinking fountain would be the best kind to erect.

GIRLS' TOMATO CLUB

Knoxville Journal and Tribune)

"Perhaps no woman in Tennessee is doing more practical and helpful work than Miss Virginia Pearl Moore, who is at the head of the School Improvement work of the state, and who has recently been appointed by the Bureau of Education of the United States, organizer for Tennessee, of girl's tomato clubs.

For some time the United States government, through its bureau of education has been encouraging boys to take an interest in agricultural activities by the organization of corn clubs, etc., and now the department, realizing that the girls must be kept on the farm, as well as the boys, is organizing tomato clubs among the girls all over the country.

Miss Moore has been apointed state organizer of these clubs in Tennessee and though she only received her appointment a few months ago, there are now about 1,000 Tennessee girls enrolled in the various tomato clubs of the state.

The object of the work is to afford girls in the rural districts, an intelligent interest and an income, that they may be kept on the farms happy and satisfied instead of coming to the city where they join the anemic procession of mill and shop girls."

The organization of the Boys Corn Club in Carroll county was a start in the right direction and the promoters of the club should not feel discouraged because of the smallness of the membership. The club membership will be larger next year. The Girls' Club, however, is a thing to be started next year. The time was entirely too short this one and we feel that by proper management and an educational campaign a large club of girls can be organized and an interest created which will be permanent.

To accomplish anything in the line of home economics and agriculture we must have the cooperation of the heads of the educational forces of the state, and the farmers(and for that matter every other citizen) should help to bring about the desired conditions.

TANEYTOWN

Dr. C. Birnie took Mrs. Charles L. Kuhns to a Baltimore Hospital on the 29th, to be opperated on for an internal abcess and a successful operation was performed Friday morning. The patient is doing very well. This is the second operation for the same patient in about a year and it is to be hoped that Mrs. Kuhns may receive some permanent relief by this treatment.

Dr. Jacob H. Roop, of Franklin Grove, Illinois, is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Thomas Clingan, of York St.

Rev. and Mrs. O. C. Roth a former pastor of Trinity Evangellical Lutheran Church, paid Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. Motter a visit Thursday last.

Mrs. John S. Bower went to a hospital at York, Pa., Saturday morning to have an injured hand treated.

Quite a number of our people attended the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary services of the Silver Run Churches the past week and Sunday.

The theromometer registered 90 in the shade here Sunday but a shower of rain in the evening cooled the air somewhat.

Quite a storm passed over the district Sunday evening several miles north in the neighborhood of Walnut Grove, unroofing Mr. Bernard Ohler's barn and several other buildings in the vicinity, and uprooting quite a number of trees.

Children's Day services were held in the U. B. Church Sunday evening. Quite an ancient and interesting program was rendered and was enjoyed by all present.

Mr. Joseph E. Roelky, John E. Davidson, David Humbert, W. E. Burke and John H. Diffendal motored to Westminster Monday. They left Taneytown at 9-10 A. M. arrived at the Court House at 9-54. Left railroad in Westminster at 11-25 and arrived in Taneytown at 12 noon. We call that going some.

MANCHESTER

Fifty-eight members of Pocahontas Lodge of I. O. R. M. met in their hall on South Main street on Sunday afternoon in preparation for their memorial services. After several selections by the Alesia Band they formed in line and marched to the cemetery where they strewed flowers upon the graves of deceased members, after which they returned to the grand old oak near the cemetery gate where a stand had been erected in national dcoration with a banner IN MEMORIAM with chairs provided for the members, while benches, buggies, autos and green mounds accommodated the crowd with seats. The exercises were opened with singing the opening ode and prayer, followed by music by the band. The audience then was informed of the great disappointment they had in not having with them the speakers they expected from Baltimore and Hanover, not even having the least intimation why they were disappointed. That took a great deal of pleasure out of the beautiful custom of surrounding the graves of their departed braves and strewing them with the most beautiful of the earth's products. A quintette rendered several beautiful selections with Miss Edna Lamotte at the organ. After music by the band the members of the Lodge joined in singing "Lead Kindly Light" with clarionet and trombone accompaniment, when the members of the order took up the line of march to their hall, and the crowds dispersed.

The members of the sewing circle had quite a jolly time at the home of Mrs. A. H. Geiselman last week. Fun was alive in the social circle and was carried even to the dining room, where refreshments were served in fine style in a number of courses and kept the guests in high glee.

Mr. Claude Shaffer and friend, of Baltimore, came to the home of Mr. S'. uncle Dr. Trump and then drove Mrs. Shaffer, Miss Addie Trump and friend to Gettysburg on Thursday in his auto. Mr. J. W. Hoffacker and family in his car enjoyed a trip there and Mr. George M. Hoffman took a company of young folks from Hampstead to the historic town to help swell the crowds on Decoration Day. Rev. and Mrs. Lau and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Geiselman were also among the visitors on that day.

A number of our young folks in the Masenheimer, Burgoon and Hoffman autos took a spin to Hanover on Saturday evening and mingled with the crowds at the street carnival of that progressive town and enjoyed a moonlight ride home at the midnight hour.

At the semi-annual election in Daniel and Jacob Lodge no 23 I. O. O. F. on Saturday evening last Mr. John Abkin was elected Noble Grand J. Daniel Deinst, Vice-Grand, and Wm. A. Burgoon sec'ty.

The members of Trinity Reformed Sunday school will hold their children's Day services on Sunday morning 9th, inst, at which time a collection for home missionary Sunday school work will be taken.

Rev. S. M. Rodes and son William, of Glen Rock were here on Thursday on business and were entertained to dinner by Mr. Oliver Lippy.

Dr. H. M. Keller accompanied Mr. Babylon, of the firm of Herr and Babylon, of Westminster, on Tuesday of last week and came home in the evening with a Ford roadster for use in his extensive practice over the hills and through the valleys of old Dug Hill district into Pa., and the hilly country of the Gunpowder. His call have already taken him over some of the steep places and the new Ford has ascended them like an old veteran much to the pleasure of the doctor and insuring him that he can meet the wants of his patrons with dispatch. On returning home at night after his first trip he had an object lesson when and how to stop and afterwards wished he had stopped a little sooner in his shed.

Mr. Samuel Frederick, of Hampstead moved into the Hoffacker building Thursday last and has opened up his tinning and plumbing shop in the old academy building on York street.

Mr. E. W. Gregory has commenced the manufacture of ice cream at his factory and is awaiting some part of the machinery for his ice plant, when he will furnish his customers with fine made ice.

An electric storm came upon this section at 7 P. M. Sunday and gave us quite a down pour for some time and was accompanied by a driving wind and interfered with the evening service.

BIG RETURNS FROM YAKIMA LANDS

We have received from Mr. Chas. E. Fink, of this city, who is at North Yakima city, State of Washington, a copy of The Yakima Daily Rtpublic of May 21, 1912, from which we take the following:

"Excepting three-fourths of an acre set to d'Anjou pear trees, from which its owner made sale last year of $2625 reports made to the United States Reclamation Service by 28 farmers under the Sunnyside canal show that hops brought the greatest revenue per acre in 1911, the average being $990. Plums were a close second with a yield bringing $900 per acre, while the average value of all crops raised was $137.65 per acre.

A bulletin just issued by the Reclamation Service:

"While the crop year of 1911 cannot be regarded as an average one in the Yakima valley, and phenomenal yields were not made, nevertheless the general results of farming are illuminiating, when it is recalled that only a few years have elapsed since the federal government assumed control of the principal ditch systems.

"As an indication of what result may reasonably be expected from intelligent diversification of crop reports representative farmers under the Sunnyside canal. A compilation of the statements of 28 farmers shows the following interesting facts:

Acres cropped	750
Gross value of products, including livestock, poultry and dairy products	$97,063.06
Average value per acre	137.65

"Of the total acreage, 489 acres were in alfalfa and timothy hay.

"Among the crops yielding the greatest returns per acre were the following:

Hops	$990
Plums	900
Pears	500
Hungarian prunes	500
Grapes	440
Tomatoes	475
Strawberries	350

"From three-quarters of an acre or 63 trees in d'Anjou pears, gross sales of $2 625 are reported."

Heisse, of Union Square Methodist Episcopal Church, who is the religious director of the camp, it is expected that one of the newly elected bishops of the church will preach at both morning and evening services on Sunday, August 18. Rev. Dr. Heisse will have associated with him in this religious work of the camp a large number of clergymen of the Baltimore Conference.

During a part of the camp C. Hanson Arpe, an evangelist of Allentown, Pa., will be present, and from August 19 to 25 he will have charge of the evening services. E. T. Jones, the the musical director of the camp, will organize a large choir, which will sing at all services.

Several other special days, each for a different department of church work have been planned. Rev. Dr. Charles L. Mead, of First Methodist Episcopal Church, will preach at the closing services of the camp on Sunday, August 25.
