REPUBLICAN TICKET

For President
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT
of Ohio

For Vice-President
JAMES SCHOOLCRAFT SHERMAN
of New York

For Congress
LABAN SPARKS
of Baltimore county

IT TAKES BUT TWO MARKS TO VOTE THE WHOLE REPUBLICAN TICKET. ONE MARK FOR PRESIDENT TAFT AND ONE FOR LABAN SPARKS FOR CONGRESS.

THE LAST WORD

During the present campaign we have endeavored to present the issues involved as we saw them and have refrained from saying anything personal of any of the candidate. Every candidate is a gentleman of whom any voter may feel proud of knowing and the personal equation has never entered into any of the arguments upon the issues involved. If the issues were between men we feel certain that many of the people would be at a loss to decide for whom to vote. Men, however, merely represent principles of government and it is for you to determine which principle meets your convictions or ideas.

Mr. Taft, the Republican nominee stands for the principles of a protective tariff and for a conservative government.

Mr. Wilson stands for a low tariff which would be unprotective and amounts to free trade, and the "so called" progressive policies (whatever they may be) of government.

Mr. Roosevelt stands for everything that does not exist but would have stood for everything for which Mr. Taft stands had he been nominated by the Republican party. His campaign is based solely on pique and a desire of many of his supporters "to get even" for an "alleged" injury to him.

The fight, therefore, if such a term may be used, is between the same old Democratic and Republican parties, just as it was in 1892. Then, as now, the country was in a prosperous condition and the Democratic party then, as now, declared against the high prices then prevailing, and the people listened to it.

We do not intend to rehearse the story of the years 1892 to 1896. We have told it before and every workingman, every farmer and every merchant is familiar with the conditions which then existed. The only people who seemed to be having a good time were the lawyers, sheriffs and money lenders. But we do want to put this question to the farmers of this county "Knowing what a low tariff brought about during the days of the last Democratic administration, and knowing what a different condition of affairs, in so far as you are concerned, has existed under the Republican administrations, do you think you will act wisely if you vote for the candidates on the Democratic ticket and thereby bring about a return to 46 cent wheat and $1.25 corn?" If you are "weary of well-doing" and unable to stand prosperity, and are determined to heed no one's advice, you may wake up some morning and find out what an awful mistake you have made.

All the talk about lowering the prices of farm products comes from the people of the larger cities who have crowded into them in order to get out of working on the farm and now they are trying to reduce the farmer to the same condition he was in between 1892 and 1896, without realizing the fact that it makes no difference how cheap the farm products become if they do not have the money to buy them they will be worse off than they are now.

Without another word we leave the matter with you and hope that between now and Tuesday next you will think over what we have said and decide to vote to continue the present prosperity of the farmers.

VICE-PRESIDENT SHERMAN PASSES QUIETLY AWAY

At 9.42 P. M. Wednesday at His Home in Utica, N. Y. A Long Political Career

James Schoolcraft Sherman was born in Utica, N. Y., on October 24, 1855.

His parents were of English descent, his father establishing the Utica Morning Herald and becoming a prominent journalist.

He attended the Utica public schools and was graduated from Hamilton College in 1878. He practiced law until 1907.

Although his father was a Democrat, James S. Sherman became a Republican at the age of 22. He became mayor of Utica when 29 years old. He entered Congress in 1887 and served continuously, with one year's exception, until he ran for vice president with Taft.

Was the only vice president to receive a renomination.

Shortly after entering Congress he was recognized as one of the really influential men in the national legislature. He was one of the most popular men in Washington.

He could have held many important federal positions, but he always preferred to remain in Congress.

His family took prominent part in the social life of Utica. He was a member of the Dutch Reformed Church and belonged to many clubs. Baseball was his great hobby and he would go out of his way to see a game.

The death of Vice President Sherman will have no effect on the election. The Taft electors in case of a Taft victory will choose a vice-president. The selection will probably be made by the Republican National Committee, in case the Republican ticket wins.

Deaths

HENRY F. FOWBLE.

Mr. Henry F. Fowble died at his late residence No. 730 George street, Baltimore, October 31, 1912. Funeral services will be held this afternoon at his residence and the interment will be at Hampstead, this county. to-morrow (Saturday) morning at 8 o'clock.
