EVERNGAM'S

Walkover and Douglas SHOES FOR MEN.

USUALLY when a man goes into a store to buy a Suit he has already in his mind some particular idea of the style and fabric to be embodied in the Suit of his choice. If stocks are limited he will find it rather difficult to select the Suit that exactly meets his requirements, and if such a Suit is included in the assortments of that store it is perhaps beyond the price he wishes to pay. That is why hundreds of men come here when a new suit is needed. They know that we have on our racks, without exception, the best assortment of Men's Clothing in Caroline county at the right prices.

AUTUMN SUITS AND COATS FOR WOMEN

To get an adequate idea of the number of styles we carry in stock it is necessary to see the garments. So come see for yourself, examine them carefully, compare with Suits and Coats anywhere in the county, and you will be convinced, as we are convinced, that ours are the most varied and the most complete stocks to be found in Caroline.

The Suit sketched is $15.50, in serges and fancy worsteds.

New Wool Dress Goods

Poplins, Gabardines, Serges in Taupe, Belgian Blue, Deep Blue, Burgundy, Russian Green, Navy and Black.

Boys' Overcoats

Heavy Grey or Blue CHINCHILLAS with Hats to match

$5.75.

GERMANS MASS FOR NEW ATTACK

Big Army For Supreme Assault on Allies' Lines.

MAY ATTACK AT YPRES

It Is Said the Kaiser Lost 30,000 Men in Battle on Yser, Among Them 10,000 Dead.

London, Nov. 5.—A Belgian Socialist senator who returned from an official visit to King Albert, said that the allies were now within ten miles of Ostend.

Ostend is still held by the Germans, but he did not believe that the Germans were preparing for a general retreat through Belgium, but rather for a final supreme assault which would be made at a point southeast of Ypres.

The senator estimates that the Germans have 500,000 men in the vicinity mentioned, but he said that it was the general impression of the allied staffs that the German effort would be a failure because their troops not only were very weary, but to a great extent were made up of youthful and aged recruits.

It is the opinion of military observers in London also that a renewed German struggle to break through the allied line will center at Ypres.

From the coast to Lille, a comparatively short battle line, the Germans have eleven army corps. The English papers point out that it should not be assumed that the Germans yet have been decisively beaten in Belgium.

The allies have been throwing fresh forces into Belgium. This of course refers to attacks along the Yser which have now come to an end, with the result against the invaders. But looking ahead the same condition will apply generally to the operations south of Ypres. The agitation for more recruits in England has been renewed.

"The sound of connon has been distinctly heard at Ghent," telegraphs the Amsterdam correspondent of the Central News, "and there is every indication that the Germans are retiring on the whole front from Bruges to Thielt, fifteen miles southeast of Bruges."

The official buletins are as follows:

GERMAN.

"Our attacks on Ypres, to the north of Arras and to the east of Soissons are progressing slowly, but successfully.

"South of Verdun and in the Vosges French attacks have been repulsed.

"In the eastern arena of the war there have been no material changes."

FRENCH.

"There is no important change in the situation in in the north. We have made a slight advance toward Messines. At several points of the front there has been violent cannonading without appreciable result, particularly west of Lens, between the Somme and the Ancre, in the Argonne and in the Apremont forest.

"On our left wing to the north, the situation shows no change as compared to Monday. The enemy has drawn back on the right bank of the Yser. We have recaptured Lombaertzyde. The Germans occupy on the left bank of the Yser nothing more than the head of a bridge, half way between Dixmude and Nieuport. They have abandoned, in adition to prisoners and wounded men, a considerable quantity of war material, including pieces of artillery which were held unmovable by the mud.

"Between Dixmude and the Lys the fighting has continued with alternate advances and withdrawals, but with the general result that the allies' forces have made perceptible progress.

"Between the Lys and the region of Arras there has been cannonading and minor engagements.

"Between the region of Arras and the Oise we have made an advance to the east of Lequesnoy-en-Santerre as far as the heights of Parvillers.

"On the center, the German attack which developed on the right bank of the Aisne in the region of Vailly, and which resulted in our losing the first slopes to the north of Vailly and to the south of Craonne, was not continued on Tuesday. A counter attack by our forces brought again into our possession a portion of the lost ground.

"A violent cannonading and spirited German attacks were repulsed on the heights of the Highway Des Dames and in the vicinity of Rheims. There has been no happening of importance between Rheims and the Meuse nor in the Woevre districts."

Say Germans Lost 30,000 on Yser.

Paris, Nov. 5.—What the Belgian official communication designated as the "precipitate retreat" of the Germans before the advance of the allies on the Yser river in Belgium was pleasing news to Parisians, even though previous developments had given the hope that this soon would be the case.

Although there have been estimates of the German losses in the fight on the Yser, the last figures officially given out by the Belgian statement places the loss at 30,000, of which number 10,000 are dead and the rest are prisoners or wounded.

FOOT DISEASE SWEEPS OVER MANY STATES

Pennsylvania and Maryland Affected by Quarantine.

Washington, Nov. 5. — The worst outbreak of foot and mouth disease ever known in the United States is the department of agriculture's estimate of the live stock epidemic, which has forced a federal quarantine over six states and threatens a temporary reduction of the nation's food supply.

An emergency appropriation by congress may be required to finance the campaign to suppress the epidemic.

Officials said it would be a week before they could forecast the extent to which the food supply would be affected. They are inclined to believe, however, that the shrinkage will not be large, in spite of the inconvenience to which the stock growers and packers will be subjected until the disease is under control. Every possible effort will be made to remove the handicaps upon the movement of live stock.

The disease has now broken out in Pennsylvania and Maryland.

In Maryland the disease cattle were discovered at Hagerstown. Inspectors of the department traced the cattle from Chicago. The same shipment left some diseased cattle at Greencastle, Pa., where another affected area now exists.

In addition to the Greencastle area in Pennsylvania, one exists in Pittsburgh and several in the southeastern part of the state. These include herds near Lancaster, York, Lititz, Herrville, Royersford, Collegeville and in West Chester.

New York and Maryland have now been added to the list of quarantined states.

BRITISH LOSS IN SEA FIGHT HEAVY

Two Cruisers Probably Sunk in Battle With Germans.

VICTORS LOSE ONLY TWO MEN

Engagement Was Fought In Storm Off Chilean Coast—Admiral Craddock Believed to Be Lost.

Valparaiso, Chile, Nov. 5.—Officers of the German cruiser Scharnhorst expressed the belief that nearly 2000 British officers and sailors had been lost in the naval engagement off Coronel on Sunday night, when the German vessels met the English ships sent to capture them.

The British cruiser Monmouth, which was sunk, carried a complement of 678 officers and men, and the cruiser Good Hope, the flagship of Rear Admiral Sir Christopher Craddock, which when last seen was on fire and is believed to have gone to the bottom, carried 900 officers and men. The British cruisers Glasgow and the Otranto were struck by shells from the German ships and seriously damaged.

If the Good Hope, which was seriously damaged, went to the bottom in the gale that raged during the battle, Sir Christopher Craddock, commander of the British squadron, probably lost his life.

The German cruisers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau and the Nurnberg, which came into the harbor of Valparaiso on Sunday night after the engagement had steam up and were ready to depart.

It is supposed they will relieve the cruisers Leipsic and Bremen, which have the Glasgow and Otranto bottled up in the port of Talcahuano, eight miles northwest of Concepcion.

It would seem like madness for these British ships to leave their haven of refuge and it is likely that they will be dismantled and intended unless a superior British and Japanese fleet should make its appearance and go to their relief.

It is reported that a powerful Anglo-Japanese fleet is on its way to the South Pacific.

Admiral Von Spee, in his official report of the battle, which took place late on Sunday afternoon off the Chilean island of St. Maria, says that the action lasted only an hour, being discontinued at nightfall when the British wer forced to give way. Only two men on board the German ships were killed, he said.

"The Good Hope," he added, "was so badly damaged that she was unable to resist and could only make her escape while protected by the darkness.

"The Monmouth, under identical conditions, tried to escape, but was followed by a small cruiser and was sunk with a few shots. Owing to the hurricane that was blowing no boats could be lowered and consequently there was a terrible loss of life."

The German admiral in noting the escape of the Glasgow and the Otranto, says it was due to their speed and the darkness.

FEARS GERMAN FLEET

Dominion Officials Believe Kaiser's Ships May Bombard Their Cities.

Ottawa, Can., Nov. 5.—The presence of five German warships in the Pacific off the coast of Chile and the probability that two more, the Dresden and the Emden, are on their way to join them, have created apprehension for the safety of the Canadian cities on the Pacific coast.

To meet the situation the naval authorities at Ottawa were in conference nearly an entire day. It is now feared that the German fleet may steam north and under threat of long distance bombardment try to levy a tribute on the city of Victoria.

The city's only defenders would be the two submarines which Canada bought from Chile at the opening of the war, which are stationed near Vancouver island.

3 JAPANESE HELD BY U. S.

Arrested Near Honolulu Drydock and Charges Not Made Public.

Honolulu, Nov. 5.—Three Japanese are being held under arrest by the naval authorities at Pearl Harbor, where a large government dry dock is under construction.

All information is being withheld as to the nature of the vharges made against them. Federal, civil, military and naval authorities held a conference, but the nature of their deliberations was not made public.

A report that a Japanese aviator had been deterred by the United States authorities from making an exhibition flight has been denied by the aviator.

VOTE IN ILLINOIS CLOSE

Republicans and Democrats Still Claim U. S. Senatorship.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—The result of the senatorial election in Illinois is still in doubt. The plurality outside of Chicago for Senator Lawrence Y. Sherman is rolling up so rapidly that Republican leaders contend he will have more than enough to overcome the plurality polled in Chicago by Roger C. Sullivan, Democrat.

Raymond Robbins, Progressive, despite a vigorous campaign in his behalf by Colonel Roosevelt, was a poor third, both in Chicago and outside the city.

Sullivan's supporters asserted that the Sreman gains would not continue throughout the remainder of the state, and declared that final figures would show Sullivan's election by a substantial plurality.

The Progressives suffered other setbacks in Illinois besides Mr. Robins. Representatives Charles M. Thompson and W. H. Hinebaugh, Progressive congressmen from the Tenth and Twelfth districts, respectively, were defeated by Republicans.

The Democrats suffered severely in their Illinois congressional representation, losing ten of the twenty seats held in the house.

INDIANA DEMOCRATIC

Shively Wins Senatorship, But Republicans Capture Two Congressmen.

Indianapolis, Nov. 5.—Returns indicate the re-election of United States Senator B. F. Shively by a plurality of about 20,000 and of the entire Democratic stae ticket, headed by Homer L. Cook for secretary of state. The Progressives ran a poor third.

Indiana's solid Democratic congressional delegation was broken, the Republicans winning in the Seventh and Tenth districts.

The outcome in the Second district, where a strong fight was made against Representative W. A. Cullop, and in the Sixth is still in doubt, with both the Democrats and Republicans claiming victory.

Ex-Senator Beveridge ran against Senator Shively on the Progressive ticket and Hugh T. Miller on the Republican.

6 STATES REJECT SUFFRAGE

Ohio, Missouri, the Dakotas, Nebraska and Nevada Refuse Women Votes.

Chicago, Nov. 5.—Woman suffrage won in Montana at Tuesday's election and was defeated in the six other states in which voters passed on the question.

In Nebraska, where the suffragists in the last three weeks conducted a vigorous campaign, the fight was hot and the result long in doubt.

In Missouri, Ohio, North Dakota, South Dakota and Nevada the suffrage amendments suffered defeats described variously as "decisive," "complete" and "overwhelming."

Nebraska Elects Moorehead.

Omaha, Neb., Nov. 5.—The Omaha Bee, Republican, concedes the re-election of Governor John H. Moorehead, Democrat, by a larger plurality than he received two years ago. No estimate was possible on the rest of the ticket. The vote on the woman suffrage amendment seems to be close, with both sides claiming victory.

Ohio Elects Republican Governor.

Columbus, O., Nov. 5. — Ohio has elected Warren G. Harding, Republican, as United States senator over Attorney General Hogan, Democrat, by 70,000 plurality.

Charles O. Kruger Falls Dead.

Philadelphia, Nov. 5. — Charles O. Kruger, president of the Philadelphia Rapid Transit company, dropped dead in the rear corridor of the Racquet club. Death was due to a sudden attack of heart disease.

German Fleet Out In Baltic.

Copenhagen, Nov. 5—A fleet of German warships has gathered off the Aland Islands in the Baltic sea, northeast of Stockholm and opposite the entrance to the Gulf of Finland. They evidently were proceeding north and have stopped to await orders.

Shelling of Dardanelles Resumed.

Paris, Nov. 5.—A dispatch to the Havas News agency from Athens says that the bombardment of the forts of the Dardanelles, which was participated in chiefly by the British fleet, was suspended momentarily, but later was resumed. Seventy shells were fired.
