Clarence Coates, who escaped from the House of Correction on August 1st, was captured Friday of last week at Schlosser's lime quarry near York, Pa. He was brought to this city and placed in Jail and on Sunday was returned to the House of Correction. He had been sentenced to three years in the House of Correction for committing a robbery at Taneytown.

Mrs. Maude Waddell, of East Main street, this city, was knocked down and badly injured Tuesday night by a motorcycle while crossing the street two doors from her home. Her limbs were severely cut and bruised, one shoe was torn from her foot and her clothing was badly torn. She was confined to bed for a few days but at present is able to be about the house. Her little daughter, whom she held by the hand at the time of the accident, was thrown into the gutter but fortunately escaped injury. The accident will be officially investigated.

To my friends for their numerous expressions of sympathy and affectionate esteem during the illness and since the demise of my beloved husband, I extend my heartfelt thanks.

Mrs. S. P. Weaver.

THREE DEAD AS RESULT OF FIRE

Mr. Charles Gerwig, 50 years old, his wife, Mrs. Mary Gerwig, 48 years old, and their 12-year-old son Edward, are dead as the result of a fire which destroyed their home at 1825 Dover street, Baltimore, about 1.30 o'clock Tuesday morning.

Mr. Gerwig was burned to death as he lay asleep in his room on the second floor. Mrs. Gerwig died at eleven o'clock the same morning at the Franklin Square Hospital from burns and injuries she received as she fell from the second-story window while a man was trying to rescue her. Edward, the 12-year-old son, died at three o'clock Wednesday morning at the Franklin Square Hospital from inhaling flames. Mrs Gerwig, it is thought, was the first to discover the fire as she appeared in the second-story window and screamed for help.

How the fire started is a mystery, but it is believed to have been caused by mice gnawing matches. It started in the rear of the first floor and before the discovery was made the flames had reached the stairway and had cut off the only means of escape. The bodies of the three victims were turned over to Mr. M. S Fink, funeral director, by Mr. Geo Gerwig, of Morrell Park, son of Mr and Mrs. Gerwig.

The funeral service was held yesterday and the interment was made in Loudon Park Cemetery.

Mr. J. F. Gerwig, of this city, is a son and brother of the deceased persons.

The Girls' Club of this city, was entertained yesterday afternoon by Misses Caroline and Sue Billingslea.

A marriage license was issued Monday in Baltimore to John H. Owings, 23, and Mary E. Hutchins, 23, of Woodbine, this county.

For the Sentinel.

The mothers of the Cradle Roll of Deer Park Methodist Protestant Church, Smallwood, are invited to attend a meeting Saturday afternoon, November 14th, at two o'clock at the home of the Superintendent, Mrs. Lloyd Shipley, Bird Hill.

Mr. C. Harry Niner had his left shoulder dislocated Tuesday morning of last week while leading a pair of colts to a pasture field. Though the injury is very painful it is not serious. He is getting along nicely.

The Feast of All Souls' was observed in the Catholic, Episcopal and other churches Monday. In the Catholic churches masses were offered and sermons preached on devotions to the souls in purgatory.

An entertainment will be given on Tuesday evening, November 24th, at the Opera House, this city, for the benefit of the Civic League. It will be an attractive play by the members of the Westminster Girls' Club, who are now rehearsing for its production.

Mr. Jesse L. Berman was appointed Notary Public for State of Maryland by the governor on October 26. Mr. Berman is chief clerk to the general foreman of the Western Maryland Railway Company at Hillen Station. He has been with the railroad about two years, having started in the blacksmithshop at Union Bridge and by energy and ability has been rapidly promoted to his present position.

The congregation of Grace Lutheran Church, this city, has again been unfortunate with its heating plant, having had four sections of the boiler badly fractured on Monday evening. The water had become exhausted in the boiler, which had a hot fire under it. Only the timely discovery of the trouble prevented the complete wreck of the boiler which was a new one and was installed only about a year ago, to take the place of the one then destroyed in a similar manner.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Saffell entertained the following guests Sunday at their beautiful home near Reisterstown: Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Barnes, two sons, Francis and Vernon, and Miss Vivian Barnes, of Warfieldsburg; Mrs. Elizabeth O. Wilhide, of Shipley; Mrs. Joshua Shipley and Mr. Fred Shipley, of Tylor; Miss Grace Gill, of Baltimore; Earl Owings, of Fenby; Gorman Hahn, of Morgan Valley; Mr. and Mrs. A. McComas and son Weldon, Misses Della and Ethel Wright, Miss Mollie, Nellie, Daisy and Alice Saffell, Messrs. James and William Saffell, of near Reisterstown; Earl McComas, Reisterstown, and others.

About 2 o'clock Monday morning fire destroyed the stable on the property of Mr. Wm. B. Thomas, three doors west of South Center street, this city. The origin of the fire is not known, but the flames were breaking out before it was discovered and the firemen, who promptly responded to an alarm and were soon on the ground, could not save the building from destruction. The loss is estimated at $300 or $400 with insurance. Part of the building jutted over on the lot toward Center street the ground having been formerly undivided. The dwellings thereon are now occupied by Messrs. Philip Flater and Frank B. Dillard, who sustained very little loss.

The funeral of Mr. Simon P. Weaver, who died at his home on East Main street, this city, on Friday morning last, took place from Centenary M. E. Church, on Monday afternoon, and was attended by many citizens of the town and surrounding country. The service was conducted and the funeral discourse delivered by the pastor, Rev. L. E. Bennett. Rev. Wm. H. Hetrick, of Grace Lutheran Church, also took part in the service. Interment was in Westminster Cemetery. The active pallbearers were Dr. D. F. Shipley, Messrs. A. W. Buckingham, J. Webster Ebaugh, George B. Shriner, Howard E. Koontz and J. Ezra Stem. The honorary pallbearers were the members of the official board of the church, except Dr. Shipley. Messrs. Buckingham, Ebaugh and Stem, who were active ones. They are: Messrs. Joshua Gist, Eli J. Butler, George R. Gehr, Harry Starr, Dr. L. S. Bare, Dr. J. S. Myers, Messrs. Charles C. Gorsuch, Jos. E. Shreeve, Robert Gist, Reverdy N. Snader. Messrs. Harvey Bankard & Son were funeral directors.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF SIMON P. WEAVER

At a special meeting of the Board of Directors of the American Sentinel Company, held on Wednesday, with nearly all the members present, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Simon P. Weaver, the Vice President of the American Sentinel Company, has passed from mortal sight. His fellow members of the Board of Directors, holding his memory sacred, are saddened by his death, and would pay this tribute to his character and worth.

As a man and friend, Mr. Weaver had the sterling virtues of frankness, sincerity, kindliness and truth. As a citizen, he was thoughtful, intelligent and patriotic. In truth it can be said of our deceased associate and friend that his life was, within its limits, a blessing to all who were influenced by association with him. After all, the noblest and best that can be said is, he lived and died a man and a Christian.

Therefore,

Resolved that the Board of Directors of the American Sentinel Company, filled with profound sorrow at the death of their friend and associate, Simon P. Weaver, extends to his family the heartfelt sympathy of every member of the Board.

Resolved that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Board, and a copy sent to the family of the deceased.

American Sentinel Company.

Tuesday's Election. Many Surprises

Republicans Coming Back into Their Own

Great Gains in House of Representatives

Democratic Policies Repudiated By a Majority of the People.

Congress Still Democratic But Only Because of the Well Nigh Solid South

The Majority Slender, Being Cut From 147 to About 25.

The Progressives Make Poor Showing Except in California.

Maryland Still Democratic But By Largely Reduced Majority.

Republicans Gain a Congressman.

Mudd Elected in Fifth District, But Zihlman Defeated By Lewis in the Sixth District.

Carroll County For Prohibition By 1216 Majority.

Smith Carries the County Over Carrington By a Large Majority But Heaps Has 79 Over Talbot.

In the election throughout the country the Republicans, while anticipating gains, were more than gratified that results exceed their expectations. Regret is felt at the defeat of Zihlman in the Sixth district, which is accounted for, to some extent, at least, by the fact, it is said, that he lost many votes by voters having placed their mark in the square opposite the blank line below his name.

In the Fifth district Sydney E. Mudd, the son of the late Sidney E. Mudd, who represented the district in Congress many years, defeated his Democratic opponent by over a thousand plurality. Other candidates, all Democrats, elected are:

Coady, in the Third district. Linthicum, in the Fourth district.
Talbott, in the Second district. Lewis, in the Sixth district.
Price, in the First district.

Price had a slender plurality over Duer, Republican, in the First district, Hodson, Progressive, having received over 4,000.

In the Senatorial contest, Smith, as was anticipated, defeated Col. Carrington, his principal pluralities having been polled in Baltimore City and Baltimore county. His majority exceeds 15,000.

Outside of Maryland, in some of the States, there was almost a Republican landslide.

Of the New England States
Vermont, Rhode Island,
New Hampshire, Connecticut

elected Republican State tickets and legislatures, and send solid Republican delegations to Congress. Walsh, Democrat, was elected Governor of Massachusetts, but other State officers are Republican, gains were made of Congressmen and the legislature is Republican.

NEW YORK

Whitman, for Governor, won in New York by more than 140,000 plurality. His total vote approximates 700,000, to about 60,000 for the Progressive candidate. Whitman's vote exceeds that of Glynn and of Sulzer, Independent Democrat, combined.

Gerard, Republican, for United States Senator, also won a splendid victory, and the legislature is Republican.

PENNSYLVANIA

Senator Penrose, Republican, carried the State by a large plurality and Brumbaugh for Governor was also elected. The State has swung back into the Republican column, with a Republican legislature also.

Ohio elects a Republican Governor and Senator. The legislature is reported close, but the State is safe for the future.

Of course Michigan, Iowa, Minnesota and other of the large States are safely Republican. In all those and in nearly all the other Northern States the Republicans have gained many Congressmen.

California clings to its Progressive theories and re-elected Governor Johnson, but taken all in all, the Republicans may fairly claim a victory in the election of Congressmen, but the Senate will continue Democratic, having elected some Senators in States which, it is reasonable to expect, will hereafter be Republican. The Democratic majority in the body will probably be thirteen.

In the House the majority will be cut down to about 25 and possibly less. Some districts are very close and exact figures cannot yet be given.

New Jersey, the President's own States joins the Republican procession and elects eight Republicans to four Democrats to Congress. That is the "unkindest cut of all." New York's delegation is 21 Republicans to 19 Democrats, Pennsylvania's 29 to 7, Illinois 17 to 9, Ohio, 12 to 10, Massachusetts 12 to 4. And so on nearly all along the line.
