ELECTION, TUESDAY, November 7.

A TERRIBLE FIRE.

The City of Chicago nearly Destroyed.

The most disastrous conflagration that ever occurred in this country has taken place at Chicago. The fire broke out about 11 o'clock Saturday night in a large planing mill situated between Clinton and Canal, and Van Buren and Jackson sts. The wind was blowing very fresh, and the flames spread with almost incredible rapidity, and in a few minutes the entire structure was a mass of fire. The immediate vicinity was built up mainly with small wooden tenement houses and two-story buildings occupied as groceries, saloons, &c. The inmates of many of these houses, startled from slumber, had barely time to rush out in their scanty night attire, leaving all within to destruction. In several instances children were hastily wrapped in blankets and quilts to break their fall, and thrown from second-story windows to the ground.

All efforts to check the flames were ineffectual, and they spread over the most compact and valuable portion of the city, sweeping nearly everything that could be destroyed along the whole lake shore from Division street to Harrison street, a distance of nearly four miles. This is nearly two-thirds of the city front on the lake, and the line of destruction is said to extend from a mile to a mile and a-half westward, embracing the fine mansions on Wabash, Michigan and Indiana avenues, and all of the heart of the city, both east and west of the river, with whatever was most splendid and substantial and costly in this most magnificent of Western cities. Here were the drawbridges, the water works, the gas works, the public buildings, the elevators, and all the colossal monuments of architectural splendor that trade and commerce had piled up, the houses of iron and marble and granite, which were the boast of the city and of the West; all the great wholesale and retail establishments of the city, many of its largest factories, and its six large hotels, which were not surpassed in magnificent proportions and finish by any similar establishments in the country. The very heart of the city is plucked out, and but little more than the skeleton of what was a few days ago the most attractive of American cities remains. Miles of blackened and smouldering ruins mark the site of a city but recently unequalled in enterprise and prosperity, which will ever connect her name with one of the greatest disasters of modern times. Besides the loss of life and the terrible suffering, the estimated money value of the property destroyed is three hundred millions, to be followed by a derangement and breaking up of the trade relations that will require years to recover from.

It is also peculiarly sad that the city which has been called the granary of the West, which daily passed through her channels of trade millions of bushels of corn and wheat, and thousands of barrels of pork, is now without food. On Saturday there were eleven millions of bushels of wheat in her storehouses, and twenty-four hours afterwards she sent to her sister cities a frantic appeal for bread for her starving and houseless people!

While the calamity falls with crushing weight upon the city, and brings sorrow and suffering and misery upon her people that cannot be estimated, it is also national in its effects. Chicago is a great business centre, having intimate commercial relations with all the cities of the East and West. The sudden interruption of trade, the tremendous depreciation that will take place in the stocks of some of the Western Railroads, and the failure to meet obligations on the part of large dealers, will seriously derange the business of the whole country.

Meetings have been held in all the principal cities throughout the country and large amounts contributed for the relief of the sufferers. About two hundred thousand dollars have been raised in Baltimore, one hundred thousand of which was appropriated by the City Council. It is estimated that one hundred thousand people are homeless, many of whom lost every cent they had in the world.

THE OLD HUNKERS' CANDIDATE.—It cannot be questioned that without the official patronage dispensed by President Grant, he would not stand the slightest chance for a renomination. He has been tried, and has proved a failure in the Executive office, in so much, that he has disgusted a large part of those who originally supported him with so much enthusiasm. They would gladly see him set aside for some man who has given evidence of some qualifications for the important office; but the Federal office-holders have resolved to run him for another term, in order to retain themselves in office, and he is, emphatically, the office-holders' candidate.

ORPHANS' COURT, Tuesday, Oct. 10.—Releases from the heirs of the late Wm. C. Anderson to Thos. Slaughter and Sarah Anderson, administrators, were received and ordered to be recorded. The last will and testament of Alexander Hawkins was admitted to probate and letters testamentary granted to Elizabeth Hawkins. Letters of administration on the personal estate of Thos. E. McLaughlin were granted to Isaac M. Jones, of Philadelphia, and Thomas R. Quimby and Wesley Jarman appointed to appraise the personal estate, and the usual notice to creditors ordered. A dividend on the personal estate of the late L. M. Ricaud was ordered to be made Dec. 5th. J. A. Pearce and George W. Greenwood, adm'rs of John Greenwood, obtained an order to sell the personal estate. Joshua Clayton, adm'r of Thomas Clayton, returned his first and final administration account. Henry Urie, adm'r Wm. Parker, returned his first and final administration account and dividend.

IMPORTANT ARREST.—Chas. White, colored, accused of murdering James Mehawney, near Middletown, Del., a short time ago, was arrested near Kennedyville, in this county, by Constable Hurlock, on Tuesday last, and lodged in jail. A reward of two hundred dollars had been offered by the Governor of Delaware for his apprehension. White admits that he was present when the murder was committed, but says that it was done by another man, who has already been arrested in Delaware, while the latter contends that the murder was committed by White.

LAST DAYS OF REGISTRATION.—Those who failed to register at the recent sitting of the Registers will have another opportunity to place their names on the registration list. The Registers will sit for the final correction of the lists on Monday and Tuesday, the 23d and 24th days of the present month. Let none fail to attend to this important matter; for no one can vote unless his name appears on the book of registration.

HEAVY DAMAGES.—In the Circuit Court for Wicomico county, on the 27th ult., J. P. Hoffecker obtained a verdict of $4,500 against James Hurtt for an aggravated assault committed some time last year.—The parties reside in this county, whence the case was removed for trial.

COURT.—The October term of the Circuit Court for Kent county commences next Monday. It is supposed the session will last about ten days.

SALE OF A FARM.—Mr. A. J. Wallis has sold his home farm, near Kennedyville, containing 266 acres, to a gentlemen from Louisiana, for $15,500.

PARTRIDGE shooting commences on the 20th instant. Killing them before that date subjects the offender to a fine of $5.

COMMUNICATED.

Messrs. Editors:—In looking over your last issue I see it stated that the horse R. S. Davis was distanced in his race at Baltimore on the 3d inst. I would say that I witnessed the race, and R. S. Davis, as all who saw the race know, was the leading horse at the quarter pole, and was not passed by any horse until he neared the half-mile pole, when the driver of Savage ran him like a thunderbolt past Davis, and drew across him, considerably checking his speed and throwing him several lengths in the rear. Mr. James Startt, the driver of Davis, says he had to jerk his horse so hard to prevent collision that he was nearly brought to a stand still. Nor was this all; at or near the third pole the same foul drive was repeated by the same party, thus throwing Davis again several lengths in the rear. But he did not stay there long. His driver, knowing he was in the wrong pew, was heard telling Davis to "square away," which he did, passing first one horse and then another, until he passed under the string. The above named driver was the sole cause of Davis being distanced.

I would further state that the judges also told me that they considered Davis driven foul, and expected his driver to make some complaint. Davis made but one bad break and two little slips.

A FRIEND TO R. S. DAVIS.

QUEEN ANNE'S ITEMS.—The following is from the Observer of Tuesday:

Thos. J. Keating and John B. Brown, Esqs., sold at trustees' sale, in Centreville, on Tuesday last, the real estate of Edw. Bryan, as follows: The Home Farm, containing 400 acres, to F. W. Neavitt, for 30.10 per acre; the Island farm, containing 298 acres, to Wm. J. Price, Esq., for $24.20 per acre.

Mr. Frank Anthony, son of Benjamin Anthony, of Queenstown, fell through the great railroad bridge now being built at Cincinnati, on Wednesday week, a distance of 72 feet, striking his head against a rock beneath, smashing his skull and killing him instantly. He was at the time assisting in building the bridge, and fell through a hole about 14 inches square. His remains were brought to Queenstown for interment.

The Building Association has declared a dividend of 4 3-100 per cent. for the past 6 months. This is regarded a good per cent. amid all the expenses the Association has been to for printing by-laws, purchasing receipt books, etc.

Mr. W. H. Jacobs gave us a few days since two apples which were part a second crop of a dozen or so grown upon one of his June apple trees. They were small, but well colored and flavored.

WE regret to record the death of John Dale, Esq., an aged and highly respected citizen of this county. He died at the residence of his son, Rev. William Dale, on Saturday last, at the ripe old age of seventy-one. By a life of industry and economy, Mr. Dale accumulated quite a fortune, yet it can be said of him what is not usually said of the wealthy, he was not a "usurer" nor a "grinder of the face of the poor," which are monuments more lasting than marble, and virtues which will shine forever. Peace to his ashes.
—Newtown Gazette.

ACCEPTED THE CALL.—The Rev. Thos. L. Poulson, of Zion M. E. Church, Cecil county, was invited by the congregation of the First English Reformed Church, of Baltimore City, some time since, to accept the position of Pastor in that Church. After holding the matter under advisement he has accepted the call, and severed his connection with the Wilmington Conference.

THE trial of Mrs. Wharton, for the supposed murder of Gen. Ketchum and others, has been removed from Baltimore and taken to Anne Arundel county Circuit Court, which meets at Annapolis on the fourth Monday of this month.

CONVICTION OF GENERAL BOWERMAN.—In the United States District Court at Baltimore, on Saturday, before Judge Giles, the trial of the case of Richard N. Bowerman, late deputy collector of the port of Baltimore, indicted for the embezzlement of $25,000 of the money of the United States government, was concluded, the jury returning a verdict of guilty upon four of the five counts of the indictment. The penalty for the offense is imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than ten years in the jail or penitentiary, as the court may direct, and a fine of double the amount of the verdict of the jury, which verdict is $2,350 72. Judge Giles said that sentence would be suspended until after the trial of the other cases, and that the case of the United States vs. R. M. Smyth, of Kent county, had been set for trial on the 17th inst.

STATE ELECTIONS.—Elections were held on Tuesday in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Iowa. In Philadelphia the Radical ticket was successful by about 8,000 majority. Radical papers estimate their majority in the State at 15,000. They also claim a large majority in the Legislature on joint ballot. Ohio has also gone for the Republicans by an increased majority.—From Iowa the returns are too meagre to give any definite idea of the result. A serious riot occurred in Philadelphia during the election, originating, according to the Ledger, from a crowd of drunken colored men insulting ladies on the street. Three brigades of militia were ordered out to restore order and maintain the peace. Muskets, pistols and paving stones were freely used, and twenty persons or more were wounded and a number killed.

TEXAS.—The recent election in Texas, resulted in a glorious victory for the Democratic party. They have elected all the members of Congress, and the majority in the State will reach thirty thousand. And all this was done in the teeth of Governor Davis' active exertions in behalf of the Radical party and its candidates.—The Governor threw all possible obstacles in the path of the Democratic party. His orders were pointed directly at men who acted with the Democracy, and his officers interfered at the polls on the slightest pretense. But the Democratic party were too strong for Davis and his mercenary office-holders, and they carried the State, and sent an unbroken delegation to Congress.

THE NEW YORK FINANCIAL MUDDLE.—Anti-Tammany men have at last finished up the so much talked-of report which they prepared for the joint investigation committee of New York city affairs. This report is said to establish not merely extravagance on the part of the city officials, but also fraud and peculations of the grossest character. Mayor Hall is also accused of having full knowledge of all these shameful doings, and to have encouraged extraordinary expenses for the city government. Mr. Tweed is still more directly implicated in this report. He is directly charged with having connived at some of the grossest of the frauds.

DOING GOOD.—There is a quiet satisfaction in doing good. It brings peace to the mind and adds happiness to life. The consciousness of having done a good action more than repays for the labor by the pleasure it bestows. Doing good is infectious, and confers blessings all around.—When you want to do an extra good thing that will give unbounded satisfaction call and get your clothing from the splendid stock of BENNETT & Co., Tower Hall, No. 518 Market street, half-way between Fifth and Sixth streets, Philadelphia.

I HAVE discovered in my canvass of the county an impression prevails that, if elected, I intend to place the jail in the possession of a deputy. That impression is wholly without authority from me, for it is, and always has been, my purpose to occupy the jail and give my personal attention to the discharge of my official duties. I hope this announcement may be entirely satisfactory to my party and many friends.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

George B. Westcott,
vs.
Joseph M. Carrow and others.

On the Equity Side of the Circuit Court for Kent county.

THE OBJECT OF THIS SUIT is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in Kent county, which were on the 21st day of March, 1863, and the 21st day of December, 1867, mortgaged by Joseph M. Carrow and Henrietta Carrow, his wife, to George B. Westcott.

The Bill states that on or about the 21st day of March, 1863, a certain Joseph M. Carrow, then of said county, but now residing beyond the jurisdiction of this Court, being indebted unto the complainant in this cause in the sum of Sixteen hundred dollars, current money, and intending to secure the payment thereof, did by his deed of that date, in which his wife, Henrietta Carrow, united, convey unto the complainant and his heirs, certain real estate particularly described in said deed, which was to be void upon the payment by the said defendant to the complainant of the aforesaid sum, with interest from the 17th day of March, 1863, together with the taxes on said debt and interest on the 17th day of March 1866, as by the said deed will fully show.

The bill further states that afterwards, to wit: on the 31st day of December, 1867, the said Joseph M. Carrow being indebted to the said George B. Westcott in another sum, to wit: Five thousand dollars, and intending to secure the payment thereof unto the complainant, did by his deed of that date, in which his said wife, Henrietta Carrow, did unite, convey unto him the said real estate with other real estate lying in said county, and particularly described in said deed, and to which said deed there is a condition annexed, that it should be void upon the payment by the said defendants to the complainant, of the said sum of Five thousand dollars, with legal interest thereon from January 1st, 1868, together with all the taxes on said debt and interest in three equal instalments of three, six and nine years respectively, from the 1st day of January, 1868, the interest in the meantime to be paid semi-annually, and the taxes as they become due and payable.

The Bill further states that it is admitted that the interest and taxes which accrued due prior to and on the first day of January, 1868, on the debt secured by the first named mortgage in the bill, have been paid, together with fifteen hundred and eleven 94-100 dollars of the principal sum, leaving a balance of said debt of eighty-eight dollars and six cents, together with interest and taxes from January 1, 1868, but that no part of the aforesaid sum of Five thousand dollars, with the interest and taxes, has been paid to him, although $1666.66⅔ of the said principal sum is due. And that the said Joseph M. Carrow and Henrietta Carrow reside out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon adjudged and ordered, that the complainant by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Kent county once in each of three successive weeks before the fourteenth day of November next, give notice to the said absent defendants of the object and substance of this bill, and warn them to appear in this court in person or by solicitor on or before the fourteenth day of February next, to answer the premises, and show cause if any they have why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

vs.

The Bill states that on or about the said 31st day of March, 1870, the said Thomas G. and John W. Jarman, in which their wives, Matilda E. Jarman and Agnes Jarman did unite, conveyed by their deed, certain real estate which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibits, unto the said John R. Lusby by way of mortgage, to secure the payment of the sum of Twelve Thousand dollars, with interest from the first day of April, 1870, unto which deed there was a condition annexed that it should be void upon the payment by the said Thomas G. and John W. Jarman of the said sum of money to the said John R. Lusby, in the following manner, that is to say: The sum of $3,000, part thereof on or before the first day of October, 1870, and a like sum, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first day of October, 1871, and another like sum, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first day of October, 1872; and the balance of said debt, with interest as aforesaid, on or before the first October, 1873.

The Bill further states that on the 5th day of April, 1870, the said John R. Lusby did in writing on the said deed assign and set over the same to the said George B.
