Ex-Sheriff Elias N. Davis, of this city, says that while he was visiting Ohio and Illinois, last year, the brood of locusts, then due in Ohio was present in immense numbers. There were literally myriads of them and the peculiar sound they made could be heard from morning till night. It was the same sound that is familiar to all who have heard the brood due here every 17 years, and by the way, is supposed by many people to be a sort of enunciation of the name Pharaioh. Mr Davis calls attention to the mistake made by the Agricultural Department in stating that this brood is due in Carroll county this season. The Sentinel informed its readers about that mistake a couple of months ago. The next period for the appearance of this brood will be four years hence—1919. VISITORS FROM THE WEST

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ferke, of Mansfield, Illinois, and Mrs. R. A. Barnes, of Rocky Ford, Col., are visiting their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. David R. Petry, of West Main street, this city, and other relatives and friends in the county. This is Mr. Ferke's first visit here in 33 years. On account of important business as seen in the Mansfield Express, Mr. Ferke will make his visit rather short.

From Mansfield Express,

Mansfield, Ill., June 18, 1915.

W. H. Ferke met a good market with his train load of stock to the Chicago market last week. Following are a few figures regarding the Sheep. STATE OF MARYLAND

Office of the adjutant General,
Annapolis

29th June, 1915.

To the Editor,
American Sentinel,
Westminster, Maryland.

My Dear Sir:—

I have received a copy of the edition of the American Sentinel for Friday afternoon, 25th June, 1915, and note with especial gratification and sincere appreciation the conspicuous and thorough manner in which your paper reported the field exercises held by Company H, 1st Infantry, Maryland National Guard, stationed at Westminster on the 19th and 20th instant. Unquestionably the press is a great help in the community, and from a military point of view the press is recognized as a great factor in materially assisting the success of the military organizations of our State. The interest and assistance evinced by your valued paper cannot help but successfully assist the officers and men of Company H to make their Company an efficient and permanent unit of the National Guard of Maryland. I am sure that the officers and men of the Company duly appreciate the publicity you give to the affairs of the Company, and the assistance you render thereby.

On behalf of the National Guard of Maryland, I Wish to assure you of our appreciation.

Very truly yours,
Charles F. Macklin,
The adjutant General.

BIG DAY AT HAGERSTOWN

CAMPANY H OFF TO HAGERSTOWN 4TH OF JULY CELEBRATION

WITH THREE OFFICERS AND 60 MEN

1ST REGIMENT BAND ALSO WITH 40 MEN

MR. HARRY M. KIMMEY ELECTED DRUM MAJOR

Old Carroll county will be well represented at Hagerstown on the 4th and 5th of July, as Company H and the 1st Regiment Band will head the procession with approximately one hundred men all told to say nothing of the Fire Laddies who will be ther with the winning Hose Reel Team.

All the boys are full of enthusiasm and they should be as there are ten new members enrolled in Company H as a direct result of the grand day at camp last week. Of course this was followed up by some fine team work by the Enlistment Committee and the other members of the company. We now have almost a full quota but want about eight or ten more good men to allow a little for absentees, so as to have eight full squads out to drill every Monday evening.

There will be some big doings over at Hagerstown we hear. There will be battalion review by Gen. Chas. D. Gaither, commanding 1st Maryland Brigade, also a sham battle following the dress parade on Monday. The boys expect to learn a lot besides having a royal good time and making a record for Westminster to be proud of.

Every one who can should go to Hagerstown and help make the celebration a success, as possibly some time soon we will be pulling off something of the kind here and will want a big crowd to attend.

Our popular townsman, Mr. Harry M. Kimmey, who recently enlisted in the 1st Regiment Band and infused so much "Pep" into that already efficient organization, was unanimously elected drum major by the members at their last meeting. There were no other nominations. Mr. Kimmey is known to be a most energetic and tireless worker in whatever he undertakes and his election means that the previous high standing of the organization will be fully maintained.

The enlistment of Dr. F. Bonnotte, who for a number of years has weilded the staff of the drum major with so much address, has expired and we sincerely trust he will re-enlist as his failure to do so would be a serious loss to the band as well as a source of deep regret to the men.

We understand that there will be a train out of Hagerstown on Monday evening about six o'clock which will give every one a chance to stay for the sham battle. Capt. Weigle wants every man to be at the Armory Sunday morning with full uniform on ready to fall in at eight thirty sharp. Try to be punctual, boys.

The Press Committee.

"RAH FOR THE FOURTH OF JULY!"

ATTENTION! GIRLS AND BOYS OF WESTMINSTER

We want the biggest, prettiest, noisiest parade we have ever had, and we can have it if we all help.

What would the 4th of July be without the boys and girls? Big people don't make a noise, that is, the kind of noise that sounds like the 4th of July. We want to hurrah, and let people know we are coming, and when we come we want to give them something worth looking at. Every boy and girl be on Center street at 6 o'clock, Monday evening, July 5th. Leave your hats at home boys, unless you wear one belonging to some kind of uniform.

Wear your fancy costumes, if you have them. Indians, cowboys, fairies, gypsies, letter carriers, Colonial dames—anything you have or want to wear, but don't stay out because you haven't a special costume.

Wear your white dresses, little girls. You will look just as pretty with your flags and bright happy faces, and we will have a place in line for you. We won't tell the big folks what we intend to have, but we will surely have something pretty and worth looking at, if all the boys and girls in Westminster are in line. If any of you have any questions to ask about the parade, go to Miss Mary B. Shellman or Miss Isabel Roop, and they will tell you all about it. But don't fail to be on hand, at Center street, opposite the High School Building, Monday evening, July 5th, at 6 o'clock sharp, so that we can be in line and ready to march at half past six.

MT. AIRY HORSE SHOW AND PICNIC

The dates of the great Mt. Airy Farmers' picnic have just been announced which will be of much interest to hundreds of people who each year attend this great gathering. The Fair and Horse Show, as the picnic is called, will again be held in Wildwood Park, on August 19, 20 and 21. Arrangements are now being made by the committee in charge, it being planned to make this years' affair the biggest in history.

One of the features of the fair and horse show will be a big band contest that will take place on Friday, August 20. The prizes are: First, $35; secoond, $25, and third, $10. Five bands will compete. Each day there will be two bands to furnish music. The Frederick Select Orchestra will be on hand for the dancing at night. Bands already secured are the Morgan's Chapel Cornet Band and the Taylorsville Band.

A new bus line has been put in operation on the route from the Emerson Hotel, Baltimore, to the capitol buildings, Washington, D. C. It went into effect about two weeks ago.

The ceremony was performed at the Methodist Episcopal Church, by the bride's pastor, Rev. Mr. Martindale.

Mr. Aldrey, of Norfolk, Va., a cousin of the bride, presided at the organ and played the beautiful Lohengrin and Mendelssohn wedding marches while the bridal procession was approaching the altar, during, and after the ceremony was performed.

Just before the procession entered the church the beautiful solo, "O, Promise Me," was sung by Miss Martine, of Norfolk, Va.

The procession was formed and entered the church as follows:

Ribband bearers: Wilmer Gullett, brother of the bride, and Harrington Messig.

Ushers: Messrs. Clarence Wheelton, of Salisbury; Fern Weaver, of Taneytown; Wm. A. Reese, and Frank Bowers, of Baltimore; Henry Todd and Lex Gover, of Salisbury.

Bridesmaids: Misses Eloise Miller, this city; Adelaide Hoffacker, Hanover, Pa.; Katherine Howard, Hebron; Louise White, Madeline George, and Ruth Price, of Salisbury.

Maid of honor, Miss Margaret Gullett; ring bearer, Miss Lucile Gullett, sisters of the bride.

Flower girl, little Miss Elizabeth Babylon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Babylon, of Baltimore, niece of the groom.

The bride entered the church on the arm of Ex-Governor Pennewell, of Delaware, who gave her in marriage.

The bride and her attendants were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Mr. John Smith Billingslea, of this city.

The bride was gowned in heavy white satin, and veil, caught up with orange blossoms.

After the ceremony, a reception was given at the home of the bride, at which over a hundred guests were entertained. The presents were numerous and beautiful.

The bridal couple left for a Southern trip. They will return to this city, their future home, on Monday evening, July 5th, and will reside for a time with the parents of the groom, on East Main street.

Beside those above mentioned as guests from this city, were: Mr. John J. Reese, father of the groom; Mrs. Margaret Babylon, a sister, and Mrs. William D. Reese, an aunt.

MANN-FRANK

Miss Agnes A. Frank, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Frank, of Rosslyn, Baltimore county, and Mr. Harry H. Mann, of Lawndale, Baltimore county, were married recently at the home of the bride's parents, by Rev. D. M. Dibble, of West Baltimore Circuit, Methodist Episcopal Church.

The wedding was a very quiet one, owing to an illness in the bride's family.

The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white Crepe deChine over satin, with veil, and carried bride roses.

The groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Mann left for a tour through the North.

They will reside at 1607 Clifton avenue, Baltimore.

The groom is a grandson of Mr. Alfred E. Buckingham, of John street, this city.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PROGRAM

The exercises arranged for the celebration of Independence Day will take place, as heretofore announced, on Monday evening, 5th inst., and will be preceded by a parade, which will be formed on Center street, in front of the High School building, and will move between 6 and 7 o'clock. The line of march, it is supposed, will be down East Green street to Church street, up Church to East Main, on East Main to Anchor and on Anchor to celebration ground. Various orders, societies, boy scouts, and school children will be in the line, but the order in which they will move cannot yet be announced. Among them will be Western Maryland Council, Jr. O. U. A. M., With its Boys' Drum Corps, the New Windsor Council of the same order, the Westminster Fire Engine and Hose Company, Charity Lodge, Knights of Pythias, St. John's Beneficial Society, the G. A. R., the Boy Scouts and the school children. Though named last the children will probably be in the van of the procession. The Carrollton Band will furnish the music. Mayor David E. Walsh will be chief marshal with Messrs. Milton A. Sullivan, H. G. Humbert, Clayton Bell and Dr. J. S. Myers as aids. An address will be delivered on the ground, but the name of the speaker has not yet been announced. Apparently no formal committee has been appointed to arrange for the exercises, but several of the clergymen of the city and Mr. H. P. Gorsuch are active in promoting it, and held a meeting on Monday night, at which the action here outlined was decided upon.

From Uniontown correspondent.

The funeral of Mrs. Caroline, wife of Benton Myerly, who died Thursday, June 24, was very largely attended Sunday morning at the M. P. Church of which she had been a member. Rev. T. W. Wright, assisted by Rev. L. F. Murray, conducted the service, attesting to her worth as a church member and friend.

Messrs. H. Bankard & Son were funeral directors.
