DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT:
GROVER CLEVELAND,
OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT:
THOMAS A. HENDRICKS,
OF INDIANA.

FOR CONGRESS:
CHARLES H. GIBSON,
OF TALBOT.

CHARLES J. FOLGER, Secretary of the Treasury, died at Geneva, New York, Thursday. He was the Republican candidate for Governor of New York in 1880, and was defeated by Grover Cleveland by 192,000 majority.

THE reduced Republican majority in the Vermont gubernatorial election Tuesday last presages Blaine's defeat in November, says the Philadelphia Times. With a popular candidate the Republican vote fell below that of 1876, when Tilden swept the country.

GOV. McLANE has been enjoying a short respite from official cares and labors, and spending a few weeks at Narragansett Pier and elsewhere. In discussing the situation as it appears from his standpoint of observation, he spoke as follows:

"I found all our friends in the North confident that Cleveland will carry the pivotal States of Connecticut, New York and New Jersey. The attempt of the Republicans to take the Irish vote for Blaine had failed. I heard everywhere that the independent Republicans maintained their position and organization, and were determined to support Cleveland."

MR. GIBSON ACCEPTS.

Correspondence Between the Notification Committee and Mr. Gibson.

AUGUST 25, 1884.

CHARLES H. GIBSON, ESQ., EASTON, TALBOT COUNTY, MARYLAND:

DEAR SIR:—The Democratic convention of the first district of Maryland, at its meeting at Cambridge, August 6th, 1884, appointed us a committee to notify you that you were the unanimous choice of the Democrats of this district as their representative in Congress.

It is a great pleasure to the committee to convey to you the nomination of the convention that makes you our district standard bearer and connects you with the National leaders in the canvass of 1884.

This is the Presidential year, and it is our duty to struggle manfully to restore the management of public affairs to the Democracy.

This can only be done by calling to the front our best men for honesty, integrity and energy to represent us in a contest which aims to conduct all the affairs of our country with wisdom and justice in the consideration of the necessary expenditures, so that we may be assured that corruption, embezzlement and the lavish waste of the people's money, collected from impost, taxation and the sale of the public domain, shall cease to be applied to the benefit of corporate monopoly, petted individuals and dishonest public servants.

"A party which is the means of bringing into power dishonest men has no right to expect the support of honest voters."

The committee feels assured that you will exercise the good judgment and skill in representing the Democracy in the National council that has distinguished you in the trusts committed to your care.

Your devotion to Democratic principles and the unselfish activity you have displayed in advancing its interests and candidates before the people point to you at this important time as the advocate of the Democracy, and the first congressional district of Maryland entrusts its cause to you with confidence.

And in conclusion, let us assure you, on our part, that we will aid you with our best efforts in this campaign to place Cleveland and Hendricks in charge of the affairs of our country, and elect you as our representative in the congress of the United States.

We have the honor to be
Truly Yours,
SAMUEL WETHERILL, SR.,
JOHN W. SMITH,
J. J. HAYMAN,
W. H. GALE,
SAMUEL CACY,
JOHN F. DAWSON,
WILLIAM MCKENNEY,
WILLIAM F. APPLEGARTH.

EASTON, Md., Aug. 27, 1884.

To Col. Samuel Wetherill, Sr., Chairman; Messrs. John W. Smith, J. J. Hayman, W. H. Gale, Samuel Cacy, John F. Dawson, Wm. McKenney and William F. Applegarth:

GENTLEMEN:—I have the honor to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 25th inst., advising me officially of my nomination by the Democratic convention at Cambridge as a candidate to represent the First Congressional District of Maryland in the next Congress of the United States.

My selection by such a body of representative Democrats of this Congressional District, pronounced with such flattering unanimity, and its announcement by you accompanied with such generous expressions of personal and political confidence and esteem, command my profound and heartfelt acknowledgment. With an abiding sense of the great responsibilities I assume, and with a grateful appreciation of the high honor conferred, I accept the nomination; and shall, if the choice of the convention be ratified by my countrymen in November next, dedicate my best energies to the faithful discharge of the duties imposed by the high position.

I am, gentlemen, your obliged and obedient servant,
CHAS. H. GIBSON.

Reasons for Democratic Assurance.

1. In 1880 Garfield was elected by a narrow majority. He was supported by the entire Republican press of the country, and as a rule the independent newspapers were "Independent Republican." Now the very ablest Republican newspapers are supporting the Democratic nominees, and as a rule the independent newspapers are "Independent Democratic."

2. The Republican party is not now and will not be united. Four years ago all factions of that party were in perfect accord at the close of the campaign.

3. The independent non-partisan vote is against Blaine.

4. The State administrations of New York, Pennsylvania, California, Ohio, Connecticut, Kansas and Nevada are Democratic. They were Republican four years ago. Their influence and patronage are therefore directly transposed.

5. The influence of the Southern question (the whole range of negro outrages, tissue ballots, false counts, intimidation, etc.,) has nearly vanished from our National politics.

6. The tariff is not so popular, and protection will prove a less potent party cry than in 1880.

7. Trade and manufactures are languishing. Four years ago they were flourishing. The Republicans got the credit then, and will be held responsible now.

8. Conceding that Butler's candidacy will damage the chances of the Democracy, it will be more than offset by the damage St. John will do the Republicans. Butler and St. John may be considered, in relation to Democratic chances, as certainly no worse than a stand-off.

9. The business depression and the civil service act will lessen campaign contributions, which were so plenty in 1880.

10. The Republican funds must be scattered over many States—Massachusetts, Connecticut, New Hampshire, all the Middle States, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Wisconsin and the Pacific slope. New York and Indiana only needed "salvation" in 1880.

11. The demand for a change on general principles, which naturally grows as a party remains in power.

The New York Herald estimate of the probable result of the Presidential election in November, gives Mr. Cleveland 277 electoral votes, and Mr. Blaine 124 electoral votes. We think the Herald will in view of events that have transpired during the present week alter its figures somewhat. From present appearances the vote of Mr. Cleveland will be 292, Mr. Blaine 90 and Mr. Butler 19; and this gives to Mr. Blaine the vote of Massachusetts, New Hampshire and Kansas, which are to be strongly contested by the Democrats.

Fever, fever and Ague, Dyspepsia, headache and all bilious diseases cured by J. M. Laroque's Anti-Bilious Bitters. 24 cents a paper; $1 a bottle. W. E. Thornton, Baltimore and Harrison streets. 9 6 2w

Ayer's Ague Cure, when used according to directions, is warranted to eradicate from the system all forms of malarial disease, such as fever and ague, chill fever, intermittent remittent and bilious fevers, and disorders of the liver. Try it. The experiment is a safe one, and will cost you nothing if a cure is not effected.

Ruin Wrought in the Forest.

How depressing it is to see acres of trees cut down in the midst of a noble forest! How saddening it is also to see that thin spot in the midst of your otherwise abundant hair. Stop it at once by the use of Parker's Hair Balsam. For actual efficiency this famous article stands at the head of its class. Elegant for the toilet, delicious in odor, and restores the original color to gray or faded hair.—Economical, as a slight, occasional application keeps the hair and scalp in perfect order. 9 6 1m
