SATURDAY MORNING .....Oct. 27, 1883.

LETTER FROM WORTON.

SCRIPTURAL, PERSONAL AND POLITICAL.

"The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved."

Thus bemoaned our Jewish forefathers twenty-five hundred years ago; and thus we are still crying. This might be applied in mental, moral and financial affairs as well as spiritual. We are apt to daily away our youthful days, and sow wild oats at the time we should be laying a firm foundation for future life, in order that we may not reap thorns and thistles. "There is a tide if taken at its flood leads on to fortune and to fame."

On the 13th instant the school at Catt's Corner held a festival at Worton fair grounds. The evening being all that could be desired, quite a number was in attendance; the result being $65, to be appropriated for an organ for the said school. It was formerly said there was no royal road to knowledge; but of late the path is being very much strewn with flowers. Some people hoot at the idea of an organ in public schools but they are croakers or people that should have lived in the 18th instead of the 19th century. I know from experience the good of music in an institution of learning. Upon the Hudson, nestled among the hills, is the beautiful city of Poughkeepsie, and located there is one of the leading commercial colleges of the nation; more than a thousand young men are annually the recipients of its many advantages, and go out in the world with more real knowledge of how to earn a living, than if they had spent five years in some classical institution; and many times when pondering over the theory of book-keeping and business forms, weary and discouraged, the grand old piano would be touched by master hands, and its harmonious vibrations resound through those halls, I would become animated and imbued with new life as it were. Music lifts us above the vale of tears, and causes us to forget our cares, at least for the time being. Milton wrote most of his great poems under the sound of a mammoth organ.

Mr. George Pell has sold his house at Worton station to Thomas Parsons. Mr. Alfred Perkins has sold his to Lewis Newsome. Mr. Pell, Mr. Perkins and Wm. Parks, Jr. go to Florida this week, where they contemplate setting permanently. Mr. Harry Cooper has sold his residence to Mrs. Emily J. Parsons and has erected himself a larger one. Mrs. Lydia Duyer has built a neat dwelling here and intends occupying it. Several good prospects for weddings around here this winter. We are to have a singing school, to be held in the hall on the fair grounds, commencing Nov. 1st, which undoubtedly will conduce to the matrimonial list.

Politics are in full blast. We expect this district to go democratic this fall. The republicans have a few good men on their ticket and there will be a little splitting done here. It is a pity good men are found in bad company, but when such is the case splitting is expedient. We have too much party animosity in our politics which tends to put unqualified men in positions of honor and trust.

Ask God for a man with heart, head and hand,
Like some of the simple great ones gone,
Forever and ever by;
One still strong man in a blatant land,
Whatever they call him, what care I?
Aristocrat, autocrat, democrat—
One who can rule,
And dare not lie.

PETER POKER.

A MICHIGAN debating society has decided that a man who will smoke around a hay-stack is as big a fool as the man who blows into an unloaded gun.

"ALL things come to the man who waits," but a dime judiciously bestowed on a restaurant waiter will hurry things up a little.

DEFERENCE often shrinks and withers as much upon the approach of intimacy as the sensitive plant does upon the touch of one's finger.

FIRE PLACE HEATER
is one of the handsomest, heaviest and most complete Heaters ever offered to the trade. The Fire and Feed Pots are put together in sections and when any part wears out it can be replaced by even a child, without moving stove or taking out a bolt, thus saving considerable expense. It is altogether practical in construction, and beautiful in design and finish.
We take great pleasure in offering this Heater to our customers feeling confident of the genuine comfort it will afford them. Mr. R. J. Foard has used two of the above heaters for several years and will recommend them to any one. Call and examine them at
