CHESTERTOWN - AUG. 31, 1889.

EXCITING INCIDENT—A Child Carried Up by Toy Balloons.—A despatch from Chicago Aug. 19, says: At Sheffield Park, yesterday, an Italian peddler of toy balloons attempted to serve two purchasers at once, and in doing so let go his string of bright colored globes. The cord got twisted about the left arm of two-year-old Sophie Schwab and the buoyant rubber bubbles started heavenward taking her along. Her mother fainted. The bystanders stood horror-stricken as the balloons swept close to a tree and the infant grasped a handful of twigs and checked her flight. A young German ascended the tree in an instant and then crept out on the branch nearest the child. At this moment Sophie's strength gave out and the balloons, suddenly released, went again in upward at least 100 ft. Lifting out over the lake. Gust Koch, a sharpshooter, grabbed a repeating rifle, quickly jumped into a skiff with two companions and pulled out into range. Koch succeeded in piercing several of the balloons at his successful shot helping the descend. Before it finally reached the ground the boat was at the spot, and the child did not even get her feet wet.

...ARD'S WONDERFUL LEAP.—... A. Shaw was out walking ... lass, with his little daughter, ... day afternoon. They were ... thoroughbred St. Bernard ... the highest point of the ... close to the edge, and the ... danger, walked between ... the precipice. The turf ... the dog lost his footing. Realizing ... ger, he made a spring far out ... f. The child had turned to her ... was really out of danger when ... sprang up in front of her, but the ... ute had done his duty in guarding ... he sprang clear of the rocks and ... ed on his feet on the beach, 120 feet below. It was a remarkable escape, for the dog is extremely large, weighing 165 pounds, and such a leap, without breaking limbs, seems impossible. Beyond a few cuts on his feet the dog was apparently unhurt.

HE MET THE RIGHT MAN.—The other day an important looking gentleman took a seat beside a quiet man in an Arkansas railway carriage and began a conversation.

"I'm going up to Little Rock," he said, "to get a pardon for a convicted thief. I'm not personally acquainted with the Governor, but he can't afford to refuse me."

"Is the fellow guilty?" asked the man.

"Of course he is; but that makes no difference. His friends have agreed to give me $500 if I get him out, and the thermometer is very low when I can't put up a good talk. Where are you traveling?"

"Going to little Rock."

"Do you live there?"

"Yes."

"Perhaps you might be of some service to me. What business are you in?"

"I'm the Governor."

He wasn't of the least service to him.

His Color Was Against Him.

William H. Johnson, colored, has filed an action in trespass against the Cape May and Delaware River Navigation Company, the owners of the steamer Republic which runs from Wilmington. He says that some time ago he was a passenger on this vessel, having bought a ticket to Cape May, and that by virtue of said ticket he was entitled to his meals, to courtesy and civility, to security and comfort and to the right to have the privilege of buying his meals and having them furnished to him. But the officers of the vessel he claims, refused to allow him to enter the dining-room, and he believes for no other reason than because of his color, and asked for $10,000 damages.

Not Satisfied With 16 Years in Prison.

At Baltimore last Monday, Wm. Johnson was sentenced to three years in the House of Correction for stealing a watch and chain and a lot of clothing. Seventeen years ago he was sentenced to death for murder. He was on the scaffold and the rope was around his neck, when a messenger from the Governor rushed up on horseback with a reprieve. He served sixteen years in the penitentiary, but as soon as he got his freedom, twelve months ago, he began his old career, which was interrupted by Judge Duffy's sentence.

THE city of Brooklyn can proably boast of having the largest bread bakery in the world. Seventy thousand loaves a day it usually turns out, requiring three hundred barrels of flour. Three hundred and fifty persons are employed in the bakery, and for delivering the bread in New York, Brooklyn and adjacent places, over one hundred wagons, constructed for the purpose, are in constant use.

ENGAGED.—John Digg (to classmate) Well, Jack, college days are over. What are you going to do for a living?

Jack Festett: Been engaged by Rich & Co.

"What for?"

"Son-in-law."

YOU WONDER?

They All Wonder

BUT we do not wonder that you wonder where we find such remarkable Cheap Shoes to wear like they do. Now we do not talk low priced goods, and do not advise the trade to buy them, but when the consumer comes in and asks for a pair of the same kind of Ladies' Bright Dongola Patent Leather Tipped Shoes at $1.50 we infer they wear well.

Now, when you ask us about our Ladies' Pebble, City Make Goods at $2, we cannot emphasize too heavily—that we claim it to be the Best $2 Shoe in the county. We have it made in three widths and three styles.

Then as we mount the ladder that graduates off into finer goods, we remain at the bottom in prices, which very slowly ascend with the quality.

Next is our Genuine Dongola, bright and dull, square toe and round toe at $2.50. These goods we have made, and guarantee every pair to give satisfaction.

Now a step farther and you reach our Custom Goods, which the ladies say are the Best Fitting, Most Comfortable Shoes they every wore. We have had them go to Baltimore and return to buy Our Hand Made Shoes.

Nice line of Men's Shoes, from the Plow at $1.00 to the finest Hand-Made Shoe.

Full line of Tennis Shoes for Men, Ladies and Children.

Ladies' Slippers, all styles, from 50c. to $2.50, all widths and shapes.

Magnificent line of Children's & Misses Spring-Heel Shoes, as large as No. 2. All styles, and owing to the late decline in Mundel's Solar Tips, we will sell them as large as 10½ for 90c. cash. Mundell's name on every pair.

Lime, Hair and Whitewash Brushes.

We are selling the W. J. Lime, which is said by both masons and carpenters to slake at least one-fourth more than other limes.

FLOUR! FLOUR! FLOUR!

We have also Lea's and Gambrill's brands of Flour by the pound, bag and barrel, but please bear in mind that we sell Flour by the Barrel for cash only.

Our aim is to keep a little of everything and while we do not expect or wish to sell all the goods that is sold in Chestertown we would like to sell a small share of them. Thanking you all for past favors and patronage we only ask a continuance of the same.
