In sad but loving remembrance of my beloved wife, Lena Grant, who departed this life on Dec. 3rd, age 20 years, 10 months and 15 days.

How sudden was the summons
When word came that she was dead.
Time was too short to say farewell
To those she loved so well.
She is gone but was so young and fair.
She slumbers sweet but knows no care:
Her heart was true; her life so young,
Yet not my will, but Gods be done.

I had a precious treasure once
She was my joy and pride
I loved her. Oh, perhaps too well,
For soon she slept and died.

All is dark within my dwelling
Lonely is my heart today
For the one that I loved so dearly
Has forever passed away.

HUSBAND.

The remaining stock of the Levine Jewelry Store will be found after January 1st on Cross street, one house below the Smith-Sparks Building. This stock will be sold at 25 per cent. less than cost. We make this offer, believing it will pay us better than auction prices. Our loss your gain. Remember the place—Cross street, one house below the Smith-Sparks Building.

SMITH & DAVIS.

NEGRO LYNCHED AT ANNAPOLIS.

Henry Davis Had Assaulted a White Woman and was Strung Up.

Henry Davis, alias Henry Chambers, colored, who committed a felonious assault on Mrs. John Reed, of Brownsville, five miles from Annapolis, last Friday, and who had confessed his crime, was taken from the Annapolis jail Monday morning by a mob of about 60 masked men and lynched. He was strung up and his body riddled with bullets. The jail is on Calvert street, in the western section of the city, and is isolated. The mob had no difficulty in securing the prisoner. Taking him from his cell, they carried him along the road leading to the scene of his crime. The plans of the lynchers were kept very quiet, as no one except those who participated in it new anything about what was to take place. Their movements were carefully guarded.

In a statement made after Davis was taken from the jail, Deputy Sheriff Reuben I. Smallwood said that about two o'clock a man appeared outside the jail and rang the doorbell. He said he had a prisoner. Deputy Smallwood saw that he had no prisoner and refused to admit him, whereupon he left. Soon afterwards a mob of 60 men appeared before the jail, with a whipping post, and endeavored to batter down the door. Unsuccessful with that means, they procured a sledge and managed to break a hole in the door, through which one of the men crawled and unlocked the door. Next five or six men entered the building and proceeded to the warden's room, where they encountered Warden Geo. Taylor, Deputies Smallwood and Crouse and Night Watchman Frank Marcellus. At the point of a pistol the warden surrendered the keys. A few minutes later Davis was secured and carried out bodily.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL OUR READERS.

Eastonians to Work on Streets.—After January 1st, 1907 every resident of Easton, Md., will be required to work two days on the streets of the town, under direction of the Chief of Police, or to pay the sum of $1.00, each person so paying shall be exempt from the service for one year. While the $1.00 tax is supposed to be payable on and after January 1st, the period of work on the streets begins June 1st next. Any person who fails to report for work when called upon by the Chief of Police shall be guilty of misdemeanor and on conviction thereof before the Police Magistrate shall be fined $2.00 and costs and stand committed to the County jail until same is paid.

ROCK HALL ITEMS

Wet weather and muddy traveling last week retarded Christmas shopping to a large extent and as Monday was a howling cold day, shoppers were very reluctant in turning out from home, but the last shopping day had come and as night drew on all our stores presented an animating appearance by the throngs of shoppers and the hustling of the salesmen. Most of the merchants report their holiday trade was rather better than a year ago. Mr. Crew was on his feet from 6 a. m. until 11 p. m. handing over goods and taking the cash. Mr. Alexander and son was ably assisted by Messrs. Fred Williams, Irvin and Olin Ashley. Christmas Day was quietly but joyously observed, of course the youngsters had their racket of fireworks and other sports.

The M. P. Church held their annual Christmas entertainment and treat on Tuesday night, a pleasing program was witnessed by a large audience.

The M. E. Sunday School held their Christmas gathering and treat on Thursday evening amidst happy scenes in the presence of a large audience.

In consequence of so much inclement weather last week, not a few of our residents are in the grasp of the grip.

The cold snap has got our water front ice bound but not to such an extent as to interfere with steamboat traffic. Fishermen are awaiting the howling of the wind in order to run their boats and nets over the ice into the open water of the bay. A number of the crews stayed down to Love Point rather than spend Christmas home and risk being caught here by the freeze.

The Odd Fellows paid some of their members who by reason of incapacitation who are unable to attend their Lodge meetings a fraternal and brotherly visit in a body during the week.

We extend to you, Messrs. Editors, our best wishes for a happy and prosperous New Year.

Mr. D. C. Kelley has moved from Alexville to Wm. Apsley's property. Mr. Clarence Culley has moved from the "Ram Pen" to the Haven. Mr. Frank Joiner has moved from the Snow House to Catholic Avenue.

Our beloved friend Wm. M. Miller is reported quite ill. We hope for his soon complete recovery.

One of the most entertaining fraternal gatherings during the year was the Odd Fellows Lodge meeting on Wednesday night. "It was good to be there." Come again "Joe," come again "Buddy," your presence is always appreciated.

Refused Licenses.—Judges in the Court of General Sessions at Wilmington have refused to renew the liquor licenses for two of the oldest hotels in the county. One refused was that of John P. McIntyre of the Middletown Hotel, and the other refused was that of Charles W. Lloyd, of Odessa, against whom a remonstrance was presented on the ground that the place was not necessary and that there had been some disorder there. The place of which Lloyd is proprietor, has been licensed for about fifty years. Within the past six months the judges in three counties have deprived several hotels of licenses, their most surprising move being a refusal to renew the license for the hotels in Milford, where no licensed saloon now exists.

John P. McIntyre, proprietor of the Middletown Hotel, as soon as he heard of the decision of the Judges, closed the door of his house and no business was done on Saturday afternoon and evening. The result was that the bar of the National Hotel the only remaining licensed hotel in Middletown was crowded. The town was unusually quiet and the people gathered on street corners and in places of business, to discuss the closing of the hotel It is probable that Mr. McIntyre will dispose of his personal holdings in the house, rent the property to a responsible party and that a license will be again applied for in the near future.

Our Millinery

The Millinery Store, by no means should be overlooked—especially at this season. Everybody admires a becoming hat—one for a Xmas gift would be acceptable to most everybody. Ours is a wonderful collection—in fact the most wonderful that ever came to town. Of course we could not begin to describe these hats, they are by far too varied for that.

Shirt Waist Bargains

The greatest savings that our store has ever offered the buying public is our Shirtwaist stock. Never before have we been in a position to offer such inducements. We have not the space to give the full description of them, the only way they can be appreciated is to come and look them over for yourself. Prices from 75c to $3.25 or a saving of just one half.

Hosiery Bargains

For the Misses we have the "Dog-Gone-Good" stocking for 10c—this is surely a wearer. Our 15c quality has no equal for the price either in the small or extra heavy rib for the ones that are hard on their stockings.

Our 25c quality is unsurpassed for their wear, strictly fast in color, we have them in gauze, fine rib, heavy rib.

Our finest quality and the one we boast so much about is our strongest sellers, 45c a pair or 3 for $1.00. A charming Xmas gift for wife or sister.
