DIVIDENDS DECLARED

The Building Association Pays off First Series at a Premium—Annual Election at Savings Banks, etc.

The first series of the Kent Building & Loan Company matured July 1st and at a special meeting held Monday shareholders were ordered paid $102.53 per share. This is a most excellent showing and all concerned are to be congratulated. There were 194 shares represented. Each share represents a profit of $24.53. A new series was issued on Monday and 150 shares were taken out. The resources of the company Dec. 30, 1906, were as follows: Loans, $61,926.95, supplies, $125, cash, $11,770.89; liabilities—Stock $63,566.48, net profits, $10,256.36. The directors are Prof. Thos. H. Topping, Chas. S. Smith, T. B. Durding, John D. Urie, D. B. McMenamin, J. Waters Russell, T. S. Bordley, Wm. F. Russell, Fred. G. Usilton, L. Bates Russell, Dr. H. Benge Simmons.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Kent County Savings Bank was held Tuesday and the affairs of the bank found to be in a very gratifying condition. A semi-annual dividend of 4 per cent. was declared and over $3100 added to undivided profits making over $7,000 undivided profits besides a surplus equal to the capital stock. This bank paid more than $4,000 in interest to savings depositors during the past six months. The directors elected were as follows: John K. Aldridge, M. A. Toulson, John D. Urie, James H. Baker, R. T. Turner, Jr., Fred. G. Usilton, J. D. Bacchus, Charles S. Smith, James A. Casey, Lewin W. Wickes, J. Edward Hurlock, Dr. G. Irvin Barwick.

The Board of Directors of the Second National Bank at their meeting Wednesday July 3, 1907, declared the usual 3 per cent. dividend (1500.00) clear of taxes, and added $3218.40 to the Undivided Profit. They then transferred $5000.00 from the undivided profit account to the Surplus account. This Bank now has surplus $35000.00 and undivided profit of $4665.65.

FOURTH OF JULY IN KENT.

The Fourth in Chestertown was surely a quiet day. Many spent the day on the river and nearby groves. Tolchester and Betterton were the mecca for thousands of Baltimoreans and almost perfect order prevailed. There were fewer county people at these resorts than ever before owing to harvest.

LAMBERT'S RIVERSIDE HOTEL is being well patronized by some of Baltimore's best people. There were 29 boarders there Thursday.

Live Local Notes.

Sale of Yacht.—Capt. Louis K. Stam has sold to Mr. Wilbur W. Hubbard the cabin yacht "Violet," formerly belonging to Mr. W. H. Evans. A 11 horse-power Ferro engine will be installed in her and she will be one of the finest yachts in this harbor.

Mr. Alday Clements Trustee.—Judge Morris, in the United States District Court, Saturday sustained the action of Mr. Sidney P. Townshend, referee in bankruptcy, in appointing Mr. Alday Clements, president of the Chestertown National Bank, trustee in bankruptcy of Mrs. W. Irving Walker, of Chestertown. An appeal has been taken to the U. S. Circuit Court at Richmond, Va.

Farm Sold.—S. Scott Beck, Esq., attorney for the vestry of St. Pauls Church has sold the "Glebe" farm near St. Paul's to Officer Wm. J. Hudson, of Chestertown. This farm contains about 57 acres and is now tenanted by Mr. Harry Moore. Mr. Hudson will resign his position as officer in Chestertown and move to this farm the first of the year.

Freight Wreck.—The regular passenger train due here at 11 A. M., was delayed an hour Monday by a freight wreck in what is known as "College Cut." Spreading of rails caused by the vibrations of oil in a large tank is given as the cause of accident. Passengers were brought to and fro in a box car and transferred around the wreck. It was the first wreck on this road for many months.

The Hynson Estate.—Mrs. Gussie Slay, and Mrs. Marion Rogers, have filed a petition in the Orphans' Court of Kent County asking the Court to revoke their action of the previons week appointing Wm. W. Beck and Lewin W. Wickes, Esqs., as administrators and to appoint Mrs. Slay and Mrs. Rogers. The latter claim that inasmuch as the widow of the late R. D. Hynson re-nounced her right to administer, the next of right by law came his sisters, and that for other reasons, they are the lawful administrators. Messrs. Beck and Wickes were given until Tuesday to reply to this petition.

Crop Report.—A correspondent of the NEWS at Betterton sums up the crop situation as follows: "Wheat harvest is about on, some few will begin to cut this afternoon if weather permits but will go through the fields on Monday for general harvest. The wheat seems to be filled out good and the grain is plump, the prospect is for a fine crop.

"Peaches have fallen off very much this month, not over ⅓ of a crop. Keiffer pears have improved somewhat and there may be ⅓ of a crop of them, there are few scattered ones through the trees and it does not take many for a basket. Corn is growing finely. Tomatoes and potatoes are fully up or above the standard although about two weeks later than other years."

Body Found.—The body of Sidney Adams, the sailor lost off a vessel near the mouth of the Sassafras river one night last week, was found floating near the shore of Mr. T. B. Crew's farm Friday afternoon. Justice A. L. Harris held an inquest with Mr. Thomas J. Shallcross as foreman of the jury. A verdict of accidental death by drowning was rendered and the body turned over to W. H. Krusen for interment. The body was later exhumed and taken to the former home of the deceased in Cambridge, bridge,

FARMING NOTES.

Wheat Soaring About a Dollar—Harvest General Throughout Kent and Queen Anne's—A Good Crop.

Mr. Robert C. Morgan, who has tenanted the Wm. S. Walker farm near Fairlee, has accepted the position of manager for Capt. Andrew Woodall for his five farms in Kent and Cecil. Capt. Woodall is engaged in business in Baltimore. Mr. Morgan will reside in Galena. He is one of the best farmers in the county and the neighborhood in which he has resided for some years will regret to lose him and his estimable family.

Mr. Wilbur H. Morris has rented the Pennell farm, near Worton Station, now tenanted by Mr. James E. Taylor.

The "fastest" farmer in Kent is said to be Mr. Wm. Baxter on the Hurlock farm, near Kennedyville. On Friday of last week he had cut a field of wheat and was ploughing the same for another crop!

Mr. James S. Harris says the past June has not only been the coldest June for scores of years but also the wettest.

Local buyers were ready to pay 91 cents for spot wheat this week.

The lateness in the receipts of new wheat from nearby sections is beginning to cause comment among local grain dealers. This has also had its influence on prices and these have ranged near the dollar mark for prime wheat for some days past. In discussing the situation a dealer of many year's experience says:

"The lateness of the harvest in nearby territory has much to do with the firmness shown by July wheat in this market. In former seasons the new crop had already begun to move in some years 10 days previously, and small bag lots were arriving daily which in the aggregate made a considerable quanity—sufficient to influence prices—without an active export demand and sustained the market.

"The crop in Maryland, Virginia and Pennsylvania ir generally claimed to be good, and the weather during the past week has been favorable, although one or two days were so hot as to cause fears of ripening too fast and leading to shriveled berry as a consequence. The last two or three days have been ideal wheat weather and with a dry harvest the crop in this territory should be most satisfactory."

The greatest berry season on record has just closed.

Delaware peaches will have to make a great showing to eclipse the strawberry crop. One Sussex County grower has cleared $1000 on a single acre and others averaged $300 and $500 per acre on land for which they paid $20 per acre. From one Marion Station alone 190 carloads of strawberries have been shipped, and because of the choice quality of the fruit the value of the product, $175,000 was received for it. It has been the most profitable year at Cheswold and Wyoming, while in Bridgeville and Selbyville the season has been unprecedented for actual money profit. Caroline has enjoyed a rare harvest.

Mr. Paul Massey will tenant Mr. John G. Westcott's Deep Point farm in Quaker Neck.

Mr. John Kennard Aldridge, grandson or Mr. J. K. Aldridge will succeed Mr. J. Thomas Blackiston on the Ringgold farm, near town.

THE first new wheat was sold in Baltimore yesterday at $1.25 a bushel.

WEDDING OF MISS CULP.

A pretty wedding was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David B. Stewart, 2510 North Charles street, Baltimore, when Miss Susiebelle Culp, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. S. Culp, of Chestertown, became the bride of Mr. George W. Evans, of Baltimore. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Wynne Jones, pastor of Abbott Memorial Church. The bride was given away by her father, Mr. Wm. S. Culp. Owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, the ceremony was performed at the home of Mr. Stewart, an uncle of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. Evans left at night for a trip to the Jamestown Exposition. Mr. Evans is a member of the reportorial staff of the Balto. News. Miss Culp for a year or more has also been doing special work on the Balto. News and in this way met her husband. Her many friends here wish her a happy life.

Death's Doings.

Rev. Mr. Batte, pastor of the Protestant Episcopal Church at Queenstown and at one time stationed at Shrewsbury died Wednesday and was buried yesterday. He was a grand man and his death is deeply deplored.

Mr. Hamilton Maul died at his home in Chestertown early yesterday morning after several weeks sickness. He was 30 years of age and leaves a wife who was Miss Mollie Pleasanton. The funeral will take place Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock; interment at Crumpton. He was a son of the late Charles Maul and a nephew of Mr. W. R. Maul and sister, of Chestertown.

The death of John E. Dorrity and Mrs. A. Chambers Shoemaker are noted in another column.
