CHURCH ITEMS.

Sacred Heart Church was well filled Sunday and Father Heavey preached a strong sermon. The choir consisting of Mrs. J. W. Cain, Mrs. J. Romie McCauley, Miss Mary Rogers, Messrs. Jas. Cain and Schauber, and Mrs. Nesbit Trenchard, organist, furnished good music.

Sunday was a "Big Day" in Christ M. P. Church and fine audiences participated in all services. Dr. Little was at his best and preached two masterly sermons. The music comprised:

My Redeemer Lives ..... T. D. Williams
Easter Joy ..... E. L. Ashford
Day of Hope ..... H. W. Porter
Who Shall Roll Away the Stone ..... Lowden

The choir comprised Sopranos, Misses Eva Hurlock, Edith Fallowfield, Flora Wheatley, Ida Coleman; altos, Mrs. J. H. Thompson, Mrs. Carle Russell, Misses Addie Hurlock, Hallie Kelley; tenors, J. Hydie Thompson, Fred. G. Usilton, H. L. Clift; bassos, James Shuster, A. L. Sparks, Howard Dodd, Webster Hague; Miss Clara Usilton, organist.

A special Easter service was held in the Sunday School and $15 raised for Home Missionary. Prof. Roland Watts addressed the school on "The Dandelion."

The Song Service at 6.45 was lead by Mrs. T. D. Bowers, the program including solos by Miss Addie Hurlock and little Miss Ruth Allen; recitations by Laura Nicholson, Virginia Little and readings by Miss Bessie Wheatley and Mr. C. C. Jones.

Dr. H. B. Martin preached a special sermon to the members of Chester Lodge and others in Emmanuel Church Friday. It was special in more ways than one and struck a responsive chord in many breasts. Good music was furnished.

Prof. E. J. Clarke has been assisting Dr. Martin in the conduct of Lenten services.

Mrs. White's Bible Class will give a box social on Friday evening, May 1st, at the home of Mrs. Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robinson will hold pentecostal meetings over the Enterprise office for two weeks. Everybody is cordially invited to come.

Chestertown M. E. Church—Preaching at 10.30 a. m. and 7.35 p. m. Sunday School at 2.15 p. m. Epworth League meeting 6.45 p. m Morning subject: "The Glory of the Cross." All are cordially invited.

This is a great year for young ministers of the Wilmington M. E. Conference, as six of them have found delightful and accomplished "helpmeets" since Conference adjourned about a month ago.

The members of the M. P. Church have declined to receive Rev. Mr. Phillips, the minister sent by the Conference recently to Dover and Leipsic and word to that effect was tetegraphed to the president of the conference on Thursday of last week.

The old vestry of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, were re-elected at a meeting held on Monday last at the church. Dr. W. Frank Hines was elected delegate to the Easton Diocese Convention to be held at Centreville the first week in June. Capt. C. E. Crane was elected alternate.

Regular Sunday morning service in Grace Presbyterian Church, Kennedyville, beginning Sunday May 3rd. Rev. C. Clarence Baker will have charge of the church service for the summer. Mr. Baker has spent the winter in Auburn Theological Seminary, Auburn, N. Y., and is a member of the class of 1909.

The following officers of St. James M. P. Sunday school were elected Sunday: Superintendent, Robert G. Nicholson; assistant, John Gale; secretary, John H. Hessey; organist, Miss Addie Gale; assistant, Miss Edna Edwards; librarian, Wilbur Kendall.

Rev. E. S. Fooks and family arrived at Kennedyville and were given a hearty reception. Two large congregations heard the new pastor Sunday and were favorably impressed. Dr. J. M. Sheridan will preach there next Sunday evening, and at St. James in the morning.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

The heavy skies and lowering clouds from which rain fell at intervals, gently in the morning and in a driving storm in the afternoon, seemed to have little influence Sunday upon the celebration of the most joyous event in the Christian calendar, the resurection of the Saviour. Both of our churches here had large congregations and glad Easter music, was a feature of the joyous festival.

The Congregation of the Rehoboth M. P. Church entertained their pastor, Rev. and Mrs. C. M. Cullum, most beautiful on Friday evening last at their home in Warwick, at a donation and loaded their home with every conceivable good thing and a delightful evening was enjoyed by all.

Dr. N. M. Jeter and two sons, of Millington, visited Sassafras on Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Griffith and daughters were entertained by her mother Mrs. W. K. Lackerwood of Middletown on Sunday.

Mrs. Alexander T. Laws has been seriously ill for the past three weeks suffering from the Grippe.

Misses May Dreaker and May Davis of the State Normal School of Baltimore, are visiting their parents during the Easter holidays.

Miss Helen Stradley is visiting her grand-parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnson, of Sassafras, during the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Royden Caulk are entertaining her sister, Miss May Toulson, of near Wilmington, Del.

Mr. John R. Ernest has returned from his school in Wilmington and is visiting his parents here.

Mrs. Frederick Gressart has been seriously sick with the Grippe and is now convalescent.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Statts entertained last week her son Rev. and Mrs. Frank Clift of lower Kent.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Tarbutton and family are entertaining their son, Harry Tarbutton, and relatives, Miss Mildred Tarbutton and Mr. George Tarbutton, all of Wilmington, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosin and son, Paul, are entertaining Mr. Ray Prettyman, of Wilmington, Del.

We are pleased to state that Mrs. E. W. Statts who has been so seriously ill is convalesing.

Judge and Mrs. Sheppard Morris are entertaining their daughter, Mrs. Stephen Singleston, and three sons, of Wilmington, Del., at their home near Wilsons Point.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris and children were entertained by his parents for the day on Easter Sunday.

Mrs. Frank Sylvester and daughter, Miss Grace, are visiting relatives, Mr. and Mrs. John Edwards, of near Chesterville.

Where the finest biscuit, cake, hot-breads, crusts or puddings are required Royal is indispensable.

DEATH DOINGS.

WILLIAM E. BIGGERS.

Mr. William E. Biggers died at his home at Goose Hill Sunday after an illness of several months, aged 61. He is survived by a widow, four daughters and three sons. Funeral services were held Tuesday morning conducted by Rev. Leonard White, interment at Old Union Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

DANIEL E. EVANS.

Mr. Daniel E. Evans, of Baltimore, well-known in Kent, died at his residence on last Monday. The deceased was an uncle to Mrs. Thomas Willis, of Chestertown.

LUCAS ALRICH.

Mr. Lucas Alrich, a former resident of this county, died last Saturday at the home of his son, Mr. Frank C. Alrich, Relay, Baltimore. The deceased was 87 years old, and was born in Wilmington, Del. He moved to Kent county about thirty years ago and was engaged in agricultural pursuits until two years ago when he removed to Relay. Five sons and two daughters survive him. The body was brought to Kent for burial and funeral services were held Tuesday from Christ M. P. Church, Dr. Little officiating. He was an upright man and a good citizen.

MARIA E. BENSON.

Mrs. Maria E. Benson died in Westminister Sunday. She was connected with many of the prominent families of Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. She was a daughter of the late John B. Thomas, one of the "glorious nineteen" Van Buren electors of State Senators. The late Judge P. B. Hopper was her uncle and the present Judge P. B. Hopper, of the Second judicial circuit, is her cousin. She was the widow of Rev. Dr. Benjamin F. Benson, an eminent clergyman of the Methodist Protestant Church. She was in her seventy-fourth year and for 60 years or more of her life was a devoted member of the Methodist Protestant Church. One daughter and two sons survive her—Mrs. John Merrick, of Sudlersville; Rev. Frank T. Benson, pastor of the Methodist Protestant Church at Denton, and Prof. Howard L. Benson, a teacher of music.

MRS. MARTHA BOYD.

Mrs. Martha Boyd, of Germantown, Pa., died on Wednesday last very suddenly. She leaves a husband and six children. She was a sister-in-law of Mr. H. L. Boyd and a sister of Ex-Sheriff Andrew Medders, John Medders and Mrs. Hannah Gooding, of Kent. She was buried at Germantown.

CAPT. J. E. WALTERS, SR.

Capt. J. E. Walters, Sr., died at his home, near Centreville, Tuesday afternoon after an illness of about three weeks. He was born October 9, 1832, at Waters Landing, on the upper Chester River. He was the eldest son of the late Capt. Samuel C. Walters, who for many years sailed a vessel from the above-named landing, carrying cargoes of grain to Baltimore and returning laden with merchandise for Millington, Sudlersville and other nearby towns and villages. The deceased upon the death of his father succeeded to his father's business and for some years conducted it successfully. Disposing of this business during the early seventies, he moved to Millington, and about 1877 was appointed a brakeman on the Q. A. & K. R. R., and moved his family to Centreville, where he had since resided. About 10 or 12 years ago he engaged in farming on a farm within a mile and a half of Centreville, purchased by his son-in-law, Frank Marks, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad. It was on this farm that he died. Captain Walters leaves two daughters (Mrs. William Thawley, who made her home with him, and Mrs. Mollie Marks, of Baltimore), two sons (J. Edward, Jr., of Centreville, and Charles, of Philadelphia,) two brothers (Capt. Samuel C. and Benjamin Walters, of Kent county) and one sister (Mrs. John Dulin, of Millington.)

DR. J. A. CATLIN.

The body of Dr. J. A. Catlin was brought to Chestertown yesterday and interred in Chester Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

JAMES BOONE.

Mr. James Boone died Saturday at his home in Queen Anne's on the Snitcher farm, aged 70. Interment yesterday in Chester Cemetery; J. E. Ferguson, undertaker.

A Rare Chance.—Mr. Warren C. Hurlock, representative of Sanders & Stayman, the reliable Baltimore piano dealers, will have a large display of pianos in the show rooms under the Voshell House, Chestertown, next week. If you have an idea of buying at any time, drop in and look at these instruments. Read their big advertisement in the News

PRETTY WEDDINGS.

Mr. Charles R. Colladay, son of the late Charles R. and Mrs. C. I. Colladay, of Baltimore, and Miss Mae B. Hurlock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Hurlock, of Chestertown, were married at the First Methodist Episcopal Church parsonage at 5.30 o'clock Monday afternoon by Rev. Dr. H. F. Rall in the presence of several friends. The bride wore a tailor-made champagne Rajah cloth suit which became her stately figure and carried bride's roses. After the ceremony the couple left the city for a visit to Washington after which they will be at home at 2401 Maryland avenue.

The following interesting news item is from the Monday Baltimore News, which we learn is correct, except as regards Miss Eva Hurlock: "It is hard to keep a secret in a boarding-house, but Mr. Charles R. Colladay and Miss Mae B. Hurlock, although in the midst of 30 boarders at 2401 Maryland avenue, went on preparing for three weeks, and were married yesterday afternoon at the parsonage of the First Methodist Episcopal Church by the pastor, Rev. Dr. Rall, and coolly announced the fact to the boarders last night.

The boarders, mostly elderly ladies, had not even suspected that Cupid was hovering in the vicinity. While they are disappointed that they had missed the opportunity to finger the wedding trousseau and give good advice, the bride seemed to be delighted that she had turned a trick on the entire house. Not the least among the disappointed ones was the sister of the bride, Miss Eva Hurlock.

At three o'clock Wednesday afternoon the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Pearce, near Middletown, was the scene of a quiet but pretty wedding, their daughter Miss Mary Olivia becoming the wife of Mr. Joseph L. Miller, of Dover, Delaware. Rev. C. T. Wyatt, of Wilmington, performed the ceremony in the presence of some forty persons. The house was very prettily decorated for the event. The bride was attended by Miss Grace Miller, sister of the groom, gowned in white and carrying pink carnations. while W. T. Pearce, Jr., brother of the bride, acted as best man. The bride wore a traveling suit of blue cloth with hat to match, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. After the ceremony congratulations were in order. Many useful and very pretty presents were received. A most excellent wedding dinner was served and at 4.30 o'clock the young couple took the train for Washington and other points on a short wedding trip. Mr. Miller is well-known in Middletown, having rapidly risen from messenger boy at the R. R. station to telegraph operator and now enjoys a most excellent position as operator at Dover.

At high noon Thursday Miss Alverda May Edwards, of Millington, became the bride of Mr. John James Jolls, of Middletown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. McCool, at the home of the bride. Miss Lottie Jolls, sister of the groom, played the wedding march. The bride was gowned in a brown traveling suit and wore a hat to match. The young couple went to Middletown Thursday afternoon and were tendered a reception at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jolls.

Thursday morning at 9 o'clock St. Anne's Church was the scene of a very quiet wedding, Miss Beulah V. Crawford, daughter of Mrs. Louise P. Crawford, of Warwick, Md., becoming the bride of Mr. George Albert Pedrick, of New Castle. The ceremony was witnessed by Miss May Roe, of Massey, Md. The bride wore a brown traveling suit and hat to match The young couple were immediately driven to the station where they boarded the 9.27 train for New York City. They will reside in New Castle.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Nelson the well-known horse dealer, purchased valuable horses last week from Messrs. George B. McWhorter, James Greenwood, Robert Moffett and others.

A valuable driving mare, belonging to Rev. E. B. Taylor, had a leg broken by kick of another horse while at pasture on the farm of Mr. Charles Willis. The mare has a promising foal by her side. She had to be killed.

Henrietta, 2.19¼, belonging to Mr. Geo. Jones, has dropped a filly colt by Belton, 2.17¼.

Mr. D. B. McMenamin has added to his stables Margaret S., of Philadelphia, 2.12¼. This trotter at one time held the world's trotting record for a short time.

THE Easter dance held in Stam's Hall Tuesday was a delightful affair. The decorations were especially beautiful. The patronesses were:

Mrs.—
James A. Pearce, James D. Lucas,
Lewin W. Wickes, Thomas T. Craven,
Edw. J. Clarke, Wilbur W. Hubbard,
James G. Beck, Arthur Bradley.
