MR. GORMAN AND THE PRESIDENCY.

Mr. Alfred Henry Lewis, a bright and clever Washington newspaper correspondent, has a long article in the Metropolitan Magazine in which he says Senator Gorman, of Maryland, will be a prominent candidate for the Democratic presidential nomination in 1900, and that his chances of success are bright. In 1900 there will be only two strong candidates, and these will be Gorman in the East and Bryan in the West. Mr. Lewis points out many things in our Senator's favor, among them his widespread elements of strength, his party standing, his perfect health, and his unexampled ability in the management of national politics. Speaking of the Senator's personal appearance Mr. Lewis says:

"Mr. Gorman is smooth-shaven, with a smug, monkish face. Not gross, however, but student-like; as if from the alcoves rather than the fields. There is nothing of the peasant in Gorman. He is all fine, all sensitive, all thoroughbred. Physically he is of middle size; his clothes, while in no sort foppish, are strictly the mode.

"Gorman is not over-old; say 50. His hair has stood by him loyally. Frost and silver—it is all there, defeating baldness. His eye is gray, kindly, keen yet soft. It is as clear as his currents of thought. The capacity to be great unaggressively peeps from it. There is withal a friendly, balmy atmosphere which goes with Gorman, and a spirit of frankness—not real at that—seems to surround him. And he has a sense of humor. All these draw folks to him and make him friends."

While Mr. Gorman's great strength in the East is known and admitted by Mr. Lewis and other close observers of national politics, he is undoubtedly a power in the whole Southland, where the people remember so well his conspicuous service in defeating the force bill in the Senate. The importance of that service is emphasized and better understood in the light of events within the past year in many places in the Southern States. But for it a very large portion of the country south of Mason's and Dixon's line would today be under the supreme rule of arrogant, ignorant and corrupt negro politicians. We do not doubt Mr. Gorman's strength in the West. In that as in other sections of the country his statesmanship and good service have been recognized and would be remembered at the polls, and among his most faithful adherents would be the champions of Mr. Bryan.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The joint Peace Commission met Monday afternoon and the Spanish Commissioners immediately announced the acceptance of the American demands. The Spanish Commissioners announced that, being authorized by their Government to reply that the American propositions are inadmissiable on legal principles, and are not a proper compromise, on the Spanish part all diplomatic resources are exhausted, and the Spanish Commission is now asked to accept or reject the propositions. Spain, inspired by reasons of patriotism and humanity and to avoid the horrors of war, resigns herself to the power of the victor. She accepts the offered conditions in order to conclude a treaty of peace.

Ex-Senator Hepbron was in Chestertown Tuesday for the first time for months. He is always interested in politics, though his extensive farming operations have of late monopolized his attention. He says "Denny is the man for Governor, Wirt for Comptroller, or some like ticket. It will sweep the deck!" Another of our shrewdest Democratic politicians declares for John Walter Smith as by all odds the strongest man could be named for Governor. With a man like Dr. Hering for Comptroller and Hayes for Attorney-General, the ticket would be impregnable.—Kent News.

An exchange truly says: "The few weeks preceding Christmas comprise what is undoubtedly the haymaking season for the merchant. If he expects trade at anytime of the year it is then. This is the time to advertise in the newspapers and put in a claim for a share of trade. A thing worth having is certainly worth asking for, and no wide-awake merchant can afford not to advertise during the holiday season.

State Chairman Murray Vandiver says the Democratic party of Baltimore is now becoming so well organized that it will be irresistible at the mayoralty election. With Baltimore in line, a Democratic Governor, Comptroller and Attorney-General are assured. That better days for the Democracy are fast coming no one familiar with the figures of the recent election and the signs of the times will doubt.

It is said that Governor Lowndes is setting his house in order preparatory to a fight for a re-nomination next year.

There are three colored candidates for positions in Delaware legislature, soon to assemble.

A Delaware paper says Addicks has 18 out of 31 votes in the legislature.

Pains in the chest when a person has a cold indicate a tendency toward pneumonia. A piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on to the chest over the seat of pain will promptly relieve the pain and prevent the threatened attack of pneumonia. This same treatment will cure a lame back in a few hours. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; R. J. Colston, Ridgely, and W. E. Brown, Denton.

THE "OPEN DOOR" POLICY.

From the Baltimore Herald.

Senator Gorman does not believe that what is proclaimed as the "open-door" policy with reference to the Philippines at all commits this Government to a non-uniform tariff system with reference to these islands. In due time, he holds, Congress will take hold of the whole matter, and no more obstruction will exist between the Philippines and the United States than exists between the United States and other territory controlled by it. Senator Gorman proceeds on the presumption that the Philippines will be occupied by the United States and that the treaty will be signed and ratified on that basis. Senator Gorman has said that his position had been distinctly defined as against the occupation of the Philippines. The occupation of Hawaii and Porto Rico are, to his mind, not analogous to the possession of the Philippines, Hawaii and Porto Rico are, he thinks, commercial necessities, which by virtue of their proximity and population, do not present objections to occuption which would be in conflict with Democratic principles. "But we have been swept into this new position," said Senator Gorman, "without having dreamed of it months ago. When we conquered Mexico to take Texas we left that country, and yet we cling to the Philippines in spite of the dangers and complications involved in our possession of them. But if they become territory of the United States, I do not believe we will be shut out from trade by any restriction based upon this socalled 'open-door' policy. The Philippines will be treated as other territory of the United States. With reference to the basis upon which our tariff regulations as to Hawaii rest, it is well understood that this order of things will be temporary, that Congress will adjust our relations to Hawaii in conformity with the principle applied to other territorial possessions."

Two Pointed Questions Answered.

What is the use of making a better article than your competitor if you can not get a better price for it?

Ans.—As there is no difference in the price the public will buy only the better, so that while our profits may be smaller on a single sale they will be much greater in the aggregate.

How can you get the public to know your make is the best?

If both articles are brought prominently before the public both are certain to be tried and the public very quickly pass judgment on them and use only the better one.

This explains the large sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The people have been using it for years and have found that it can always be depended upon. They may occasionally take up with some exaggerated claims, but are certain to return to the one remedy that they know to be reliable, and for coughs, colds and croup there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. For sale by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; R. J. Colston, Ridgely W. E. Brown, Denton.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy can always be depended upon and is pleasant and safe to take. Sold by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; R. J. Colston, Ridgely, and W. E. Brown, Denton.

WANAMAKER'S.

PHILADELPHIA, Monday, Nov. 28, 1898.

The most stylish new Dress Goods we ever had.

This is true of the stock of foreign and domestic buyers are constantly pouring in upon us. You may see in other stores some of the kinds we have here, but you cannot see them all, because the sources of the production of many of them are unknown to any in this country other than ourselves.

Certain lots have just come in at lower prices.

They are very stylish and quite pretty and are to be sold under value. This doesn't mean that markets are shaky or that bad times are upon us. Neither proposition is true. But while buying and selling continue there will always be lots of really good goods forced to sale. Original lots may get geographically misplaced, or may fail to be promptly got to market. In any event, there comes a time when selling must be done. Then this chiefest outlet for high grade goods is sought. We're agents, on the lookout for you. Hence—

Colored Fabrics One of the pretty Novelty Suitings, 45 in. wide, here at a fourth under value. 75c.

Another—a rich bayadere effect—right in the height bayadere leadership. 85c. Pretty color blends on black grounds.

Two-tone Bayadere Suiting, 50c instead of 75c. One of the very new weaves, too.

Silk-and-wool Bayadere Suiting at 75c. This is a repetition of a special lot recently here.

$1 Cheviot at 50c. All-wool, 50 to 52 in. wide; neat check effects in browns, gray and green.

Boxed Dress Patterns The Christmas boxes of Dress Patterns are ready. None too early for folks who want the choicest pickings from them. Don't know that the boxes ever held such pretty dress stuffs at such little costs. This season has been unusually favorable for filling the boxes well. Silk or braid trimmings to finish the dress prettily are included with the pattern in each box. These suggestions—

BOXED DRESS PATTERNS—

At $2.50—8 yards of 32 in. Fancy Cheviot, with braid trimming.
At $2.50—7 yards of 38 in. Black Serge, with braid trimming.
At $2.75—7 yards of 36 in. Illuminated Serge, with silk trimming.
At $2.75—7 yards of 38 in. Two-toned Serge, with silk trimming.
At $3—7 yards of 38 in. Black Serge, with silk trimming.
At $3—7 yards of 38 in. Colored Serge, with silk trimming.
At $3.25—7 yards of 36 in. Fancy Cheviot, with braid trimming.
At $3.75—6 yards of 44 in. All-wool Serge, with braid trimming.

COTTON DRESS PATTERNS—

At 50c—10 yards of standard Fancy Prints, or the blue and black grounds with white figures, also of the neat silver gray prints.
At 50c—10 yards of 36 in. Percale, in blue and black grounds with white figures.
At $1—10 yards of 30 in. Chintz or Sateen, in blue and black grounds, with white figures.
At $1.25—10 yards of 36 in. Percale, in new printings. Made for next year's selling.
At $1.25—32 in. fine Sateen, in navy blue and black grounds, figured and striped.

Men's Overcoats There is a luxury about a John Wanamaker overcoat—it counts for warmth, for wear, for the satisfaction it gives you. And yet it doesn't add to the cost of the garment.

Let us explain more fully.
Take this frieze overcoat
at ten dollars

It is absolutely all-wool
—which is singular for a $10 coat.
It is full-lined with all-wool diagonal fabric on the serge order
—and that is almost unknown in $10 coats.
The shoulders and sleeves are lined with Skinner satin guaranteed for two years' wear
—the all-wool lining runs clear to neck, then this satin lining is over that. Ordinary clothing shows satin, if used, merely pieced to the other goods.
Real velvet collar
—not the usual velveteen.

This coat is an Oxford mixture, with lapped seams; in nobby length and is an all-over late style.

At $15 there are Black Frieze Overcoats, with a little more weight and luxury in the lining. Collar is hand-made; so are the button-holes. A piping of satin runs along inner facing.
At $18—Still finer; no satin piping, but the same arrangement of satin shoulder lining—garments for the substantial and staid business man.
At $22.50—Full silk-lined overcoats of cheviot in Oxford mixture; interlined with felt.
At $25—Overcoats of American Montagnac, full silk-lined, with interlining of all-wool flannel. Collar and button-holes hand made. Montagnac costs some 75c a yard more than last year, but that goes from the profits. The coats are as fine as ever.

Be Prepared!

Now, when choicest styles are full up, when all the swellest patterns in clothes are here in every size, now is the time to make your selections. $7.50 if you wish, $10 for particularly fine, swell most elegant Suits.

Especially worthy Suits are those we show at $10. It's the medium price but not the medium Suits. Cloths are the identical fabrics your first-class tailor sells for twenty; make is just as skilful as his, fit and finish just as perfect, but you save ten dollars here and get as good a Suit in every point of comparison.

OVERCOATS. $10 and $12. Only a few of those medium heavy tan and brown mixed Covert Overcoats left at $12. So, don't delay, for you are getting a good twenty dollars' worth. Elegant Overcoats at $10, full silk lined, and ones you'll like, stylish, well-made, at $7.50. As high as $15 and $20, too.

Boys' Sturdy Suits. Your boy won't wear out an Oehm Suit so quickly as some others we know of. We appreciate quality here, not only in materials, but in make and workmanship as well. So, our Suits have all the seams double-stitched, knees and seats double, lining is double warp; everything that adds strength and long wear to our Boys' Suits is double. But our prices aren't—they're the other way, frequently but little more than half what others ask for equal quality.

School Suits, $1.98 to $5.
Vestee and Reefer, $2.50 to $8.
Stylish Sailor Blouse Suits, $3.50
Chinchilla Reefers, $3.50 and $5.
Top Coats, $5 to $15.

And the other apparel a boy needs is here, too—Shoes, Hats, Caps, Underwear, Hose and Furnishings.

Oehm-Shoes at $3.

The best Men's Shoes ever sold at the price. All the best leathers, latest lasts.

Men's Armor-clad Shoes, at $2 are heavy, sturdy, rough-weather shoes, yet comfortable and graceful.
