MR. HAYES FOR MAYOR.

Mr. Thomas Gordon Hayes is the choice of the Democratic voters of Baltimore city for Mayoralty. In the primaries held on Tuesday he received 29,011 votes, while his only competitor, General F. C. Latrobe, received 2,971. Mr. Hayes was nominated on Thursday. The primary contest was very friendly and no bitterness exists. The great Democratic majority of many preceding elections ought, therefore, to be restored in Baltimore, and there now seems to be very little doubt that this will be done. Mr. Hayes will succeed Mr. Malster in May, and there will be slight probability that the metropolis will revert to Republicans in November. "Mr. Hayes' victory does not surprise me," said ex-Governor Brown, chairman of the Democratic Association, on Tuesday night, after the primaries closed. "It is simply the result of the current of popular opinion that had set toward him as the nominee. Several weeks ago, when I gave an interview favoring Mr. Hayes, it was not because of any especial personal feeling, but because I believed him to be the man for the people and the strongest man we could get. My conclusions formed then have been justified by the primaries today. Now if the people nominate the other two gentlemen on the ticket and follow this up with the seclection of good men for the Second Branch of the City Council, Mr. Hayes and the Democratic ticket will simply sweep the city on election day. All that is necessary is to select good men for these important positions."

EDITORIAL NOTES.

One of the greatest industries fostered by our great country, under Republican rule, is the trust. Nearly every branch of business is feeling its baleful effects. One of the heaviest embargoes is that laid on building and improvements. The Philadelphia Public Ledger, an independent Republican paper, cites the following: "The Duncansville Nail Works, recently sold to the Steel Wire Nail Trust, is about to suspend indefinitely, depriving a large force of workmen of employment. The Nail Trust has made another advance of 15 cents a keg, so that small lots are quoted at $2.30 a keg, or $46 a ton, an advance of $23 a ton since December." The carpenters of this country ought to be heard from in the next Presidential election.

Easter will be here this year before spring is hardly started. It comes on April 2nd and is earlier than it has been for the past five years. On last year it fell upon the 10th of April, and in 1886 it came upon the 25th—the latest it ever comes. It will not arrive on the 25th again until 1943. As the date of Easter is fixed by calculating the first Sunday after the first full moon after the 21st of March, the festival can occur as early as the 22nd of March and has done so. In 1788 it fell upon that date, and in 1845—47, and in 1913 it will be repeated. In 1896 Easter came upon the 24th of March, which proved to be the coldest and most inclement day of the winter.

Judge Sloan reminded a Garrett county grand jury that the county commissioners had not done their duty in not building a new jail. He told the jurors to meet again June 12 and indict the commissioners if they continue to fail of their duty.

Last week the court of appeals of Maryland rendered a decision that Justices of the Peace cannot try cases for larceny, their only jurisdiction in such cases being to hold the accused for action of the grand jury.

Merit and not money dictated the Democratic nominations in Baltimore. With such a good beginning the party should have no trouble this campaign.

The legislatures of Delaware, California and Utah have adjourned without electing a United States Senator. Pennsylvania may be the fourth.

The killing and wounding are not all on one side in our Philippine war. General Otis has lost over a thousand men, 157 of whom were killed.

Ex-Senator George Gray, of Delaware, has been appointed United States circuit judge of the third district.

"A word to the wise is sufficient," and a word from the wise should be sufficient, but you ask, who are the wise? Those who know. The oft repeated experience of trustworthy persons may be taken for knowledge. Mr. W. M. Terry says Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives better satisfaction than any other in the market. He has been in the drug business at Elkton, Ky., for twelve years; has sold hundred of bottles of this remedy and nearly all other cough medicines manufactured, which shows conclusively that Chambelain's is the most satisfactory to the people, and is the best. For sale by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; R. J. Colston, Ridgely; W. E. Brown, Denton.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March, 29.—The heavy price of American life and blood paid for our new victories over the Filipinos in the heavy fighting of the last three days, in consequence of the movement of Gen. Otis against Aguinaldo, adds interest to this plain talk from Senator Mason, who is now in Washington. "I find," said Senator Mason, "a pronounced change of sentiment among men with whom I talk. Substantial business men who three months ago were red-hot for expansion, now say they have had enough of it. I ask them how about the prestige of their country, and they say they care little about prestige derived from conquering such men, but that the taxes resulting are as some of our newspapers persist in saying is unjust. They have never taken the oath of allegiance to the U. S. They wanted independence from the start and they said so. They will always hate us and nothing is to be gained by conquering them. Even if we do overcome them, they will turn around and poison our people. I have just learned from the Surgeon General's office that 20 per cent. of our men out there are afflicted with a loathsome disease. This is a bad beginning for our army. I am not a high moralist, and not so much opposed to stealing in itself; but I do question the judgment of a man who steals a red-hot stove that he is in no position to carry off. Such a thief is a fool. The attempt of the U. S. to steal the liberty of the Filipinos is of the same sort. I believe the American people are waking up to this question."

"It is a little odd," said a prominent New Yorker, that none of the shrewd newspaper men have nosed out the true inwardness of the sudden friendship of Boss Platt for Teddy Roosevelt. The guess that Platt, who has been a guest at Teddy's Albany home, was grooming Teddy to be a candidate against McKinley for the Republican nomination for President next year, is away off; Platt pledged the New York delegation to McKinley in the early days of the present administration, and his jollying of Teddy is for the purpose of preventing his trying to interfere with the carrying out of that pledge. Watch the result, and you will see that this is straight.

Whew! such a rumpus has not taken place during the present administration as is now raging around the head of Attorney General Griggs. It's all about a letter that Griggs wrote about trusts, containing opinions that the remainder of the administration are afraid to stand for. Some of his fellow members of the Cabinet have said a few things to Griggs but it is understood that their remarks will be entirely forgotten when Mr. McKinley returns and empties the vials of his wrath upon him. Some of the administration hangers-on say that Griggs was buncoed into writing the letter by his correspondent, who asked for the information, stating that he was a Republican; and that he would not have written it had he supposed it would be published. Of course, everybody knew that the administration was not unfriendly to the trusts, with which Boss Hanna has such close business relations, but, in deference to voters who do not share in the profits of the trusts, it has been understood by those who are close to the throne that an anti-trust plank was to be inserted in the next Republican platform, meaningless of course, to head off the Democratic claim that the Republicans are responsible for all the trusts. Mr. Griggs must have known this. Yet, he wrote as follows, to a correspondent unknown to him personally, concerning trusts: "As a matter of fact, all the companies which you refer to as now reorganizing for the purpose of securing complete or partial monopoly of different branches of manufacture, are similar to the sugar combination, and are not within the jurisdiction of the Federal Courts. If amenable to any law they are amenable to the laws of the respective states." But the following was the gem of the letter:" "With reference to these large combinations of capital, which are now forming, my own judgment is that the danger is not so much to the community at large as it is to the people who are induced to put their money into the purchase of the stock." There is nothing in this situation to make Democrats mad, but a prominent Republican, after a number of unprintable things, said: "The Attorney General has gratuitously made the announcement that the government is powerless to prevent or regulate the formation of combinations of capital to control the manufacture of the necessaries of life, and he winds up this remarkable statement with a a flippant remark about the danger of investing in trust stocks. Mr. Griggs is in a fair way to become a a second Burchard to the Republican party."

I was reading an advertisement of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhœa Remedy in the Worcester Enterprise recently, which leads me to write this. I can truthfully say I never used any remedy equal to it for colic and diarrhœa. I have never had to use more than one or two does to cure the worst case with myself or children.—W. A. STROUD, Pocomoke City, Md. For sale by Hugh Duffey, Hillsboro; R. J. Colston, Ridgely; W. E. Brown, Denton.

IN MEMORIAM.

Beatrice Records died in Seaford, Del., February 9, 1899, of consumption, aged about 28 years. She was the daughter of J. and M. Records and granddaughter of William Sorden, late of this county.

That death loves a shining mark can truly be verified in her case. After medical skill failed to restore her to health, and after weeks of suffering and physical prostration this patient, faithful disciple of Jesus ceased to abide in a body of flesh, for He who redeemed her with with His blood called her up to a place among the triumphant and glorified hosts around the throne of God. All through her illness she enjoyed a state of perfect spiritual peace, exhibiting strong and constant faith in the precious promises which God has left upon record to afflicted children, and manifested perfect resignation to the divine will, so that dying to her was but the folding of the hands, the closing of the eyes, and the entering upon a calm, peaceful sleep in Jesus. The victory she experienced in death was so manifest to those who ministered to her that a heavenly joy subdued the pangs which her departure inflicted upon them. Less than a year ago the Death Angel visited this home and took therefrom her younger sister, Ethel. Though saddened by this bereavement, her countenance would always light up with a joy that had no earthly source, as she spoke with the definiteness of one who had a title clear to mansion in the skies; of her coming reception from those who had preceded her to that home of the soul. Interment was made in Seaford, there to await the resurrection morn.

Through suffering she breathed not a murmur,
For the Comforter stood by her side;
And whispered, "Fear not, I'm with you,
With Me thou shall ever abide"

O'er the river the pale boatman hastened,
She heard the soft dip of his oar;
Then from earth and its sufferings he bore her
Across to that beautiful shore.

A FRIEND.

In loving remembrance of my friend, Etta Windsor, who departed this life March 22, 1899.

Call not back the dear departed,
Anchored safe where storms are o'er,
On the borderland we left her,
Soon to meet and part no more.

Far beyond this world of changes,
Far beyond this world of care,
We shall find our missing loved one,
In our Father's mansion fair.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart.
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the word
We must forever part.

Dearest loved one, we must lay thee,
In thy peaceful grave's embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished,
Till we see thy heavenly face.

—Her friend FANNIE BOONE.

A Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our gratitude and sincere thanks to our friends and neighbors, who were the very essence of kindness during our recent hours of sad affliction. The kindness of these friends will long be remembered.

WANAMAKER'S.

Philadelphia, Monday, March 27, 1899.

The Spring Dress Goods Show Wouldn't it be fine to have a six weeks' visit to the style-setting points of the Old World before you decided on your spring gowns? To be sure, you'd have a busy trip—to Monte Carlo, Nice, Vienna; yes, Dublin and St. Petersburg; besides the places you thought of—London and Paris.

Well, the trip is taken for you by proxy several times each year. It's our business—we set experts to do it. And an expert can see more of the styles in a six-weeks' jaunt than a traveler could on the first trip, because our buyers have entrance to every modiste's inner work-rooms and know just how to economize time. They take in art, too, and the beauties of the country—for beauty lies back of style and its study prospers their business.

We know no retail store that sends so many of its people abroad each year—and, hence, leadership in dress goods and silks and costumes and millinery and the other lines. This isn't said boastfully. We merely want you to know the care we've given to the selection of the Dress Goods for spring.

THE FINE FANCY WEAVES—

Silk-and-wool Colored Tringeline, in shades of pervenche, tan, gray and castor; 48 in. wide, $1.50 a yard.
Silk-and-wool Corded Bengaline, 46 in. wide, $1.75 a yard.
Silk-and-wool Colored Crepon, 46 in. wide, $2.25 a yard.

We were fortunate in finding many lines of the more staple dress stuffs in hands that were overburdened, and these excellent goods are here at much below prices that must rule when these are gone. THESE IN COLORED DRESS GOODS—

$1.50 Figured Granite, 75c.
$1.25 Plain Canvas, 75c.
$1.50 Pin-head Pebble, 75c.
$1.25 Armure Granite, 75c.
$1.50 Herringbone Covert, $1.
$1.35 Silk-mixed Stripe, $1.
$1.50 Imported Covert, $1.
$1.35 Striped Poplin, $1.

Widths range from 44 to 48 inches.

Lansdowne This handsome Philadelphia-made fabric seems to have no equal either American or imported in a silk-and-wool fabric at a moderate price. Every yard contains 7000 fine classical Italian silk threads in the warp, and over 150 threads of fine Saxony wool in every inch of the filling. So much care is required in the production that it takes a weaver an entire week to weave one piece of fifty-five yards. It requires perfect light, absolute cleanliness and even temperature to perfect this lustrous fabric, of which a seven yard dress pattern weighs just seven ounces. Other goods are frequently sold as "Lansdowne"—so prone is human nature to insist that imitations are as good as the real, hence entitled to the stolen name.
